Around Home

Jas. Clark is spending a few weeks at the coast.

J. L. White is spending a few days shooting near Carmi.

A. L. White will soon have a fine assortment of Cole's heaters.

Walter G. Kennedy has some good serviceable shot guns at reasonable prices.

Service in the Presbyterian church next Sunday, Sept. 14th, at 11 a. m., Sunday School and Bible Class 2:30 p. m. Rev. J R. Munro Pastor.

The moving pictures at the opera house are continuing to draw large crowds. This is due to the clear, flickerless and splendid pictures shown.

C. W. H. Sansen, the well-known mining engineer of Spokane, spent a few days in our city this week looking over several mining properties.

Wm. Oliver who has spent the past year at the coast has returned to Greenwood. Bill says he is glad to get back as there is no place like the Boundary.

Who said things are not beginning to move in Greenwood. During the past week Mayor McLaine has sold three houses with prospects of more to follow.

Services in St. Jude's church next Sunday will be held as follows: Holy Communion, 8 a.m.; Matins and Holy Communion, 11:30 a.m.; Evensong, 7:30 p.m.; Sunday School, at 10:15 a.m. Rev. A. M. Lloyd, pastor.

R. B. Leaders, who has been winding up the Russell-Law-Caulfield estate during the past few weeks, returned to his home in Vancouver on Tuesday. While here Mr. Leaders made many friends who were sorry to see him go.

Mrs. James Fleming and three daughters, Doris, Alice, and Agnes, of Winnipeg, are visiting in Greenwood for a few days, before proceeding to Carmi where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Æ. Shaw who are camping at the Arlington lake.

The secretary of the Grand Forks Agricultural Association has written the Greenwood and Mother Lode Football clubs inviting them to play in a tournament at the exhibition in Grand Forks on Sept. 26th for a purse of $100, the losing teams to be paid all expenses while in that city.

As a mark of appreciation of the splendid work done at the big blast at the Mother Lode mine last week, the B. C. Copper Co., entertained the men and their friends to a smoker in the Mother Lode dining hall last Saturday night. Mr. Lachmund occupied the chair and the evening was enjoyably and profitably passed with speeches, songs and stories.

Caskinook, an Italian, living near Boundary Falls had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving from Greenwood on Saturday last. Caskinook had been selling vegetables in the city and at the corner near the Vienna bakery his horse took a sharp turn upsetting the rig and throwing the driver about 20 feet. Caskinook was taken to the doctors office but no serious injury was done.

Shot guns; twenty-two rifles and ammunition at Walter G. Kennedy's.

Envy and jealousy take from you the vitality that would enable you to get that which you envy.

The Pollards Coming

The next visiting attraction at the opera house is one of deserving mention. The offering at the opera house is the ever popular "The Last Waltz," which is to be produced on Thursday, Sept. 11th, by the well-known Pollard Juvenile Opera company.

The fame of these youngsters is too well-known to require anything in the nature of a special introduction to the average theatre goer, suffice to say that the entire company has won its popularity during its previous visits to the United States and Canada. In this season's repertoire, there are a number of new musical comedies, while all the principal favorities of last season on this continent will appear in this delightful and highly-amusing opera—Teddie McNamara, Willie Pollard, Leslie Donaghey, Carpard Van and Charlie Bennett, Eva and May Pollard, Ivy Moore, Dottie Brown, Ethel Naylor, Patsie Finlay and Philis Philipson.

Alds. MacLean, McKee and the City Clerk were appointed a committee to deal with J. Burns & Son for the use of stone quarry.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid: Sacred Heart hospital $9.15; G. Clerf, $3.40; A. L. White, $4.90; Electric Lights, $123.25; B. C. Gazette, $37.

Council adjourned until Sept. 22.

From a contemporary newspaper we extract the following: "Everyone knows how attractive a bald head is to flies. A local husband is smiling at the way he fixes 'em. His dear wife pours two to one lubricatfng oil on hubby,s head, rubbing it into a smooth glacier finish. When the nimble fly alights, it simply slips up and breaks its neck. Who said bald heads were not useful?" While on the subject of flies, we heard the other day of the highly cultured state flies are rising to in some parts of British Columbia. Flies have been seen to deliberately walk across the butter until their legs were well greased. They could then walk over the jam with impunity—and they did.

Sometimes a boy's disposition isn't spoiled by being repeatedly told that he looks like his father.

When some of us get to hades we are likely to find that we have been misled by some of its advance agents.

WORK STARTED ON POST OFFICE

The contractors started work last week prepairing the ground for the new Post Office block. The excavation work is proceeding apace and so far the work has been easy as no rock or hard pan has been encountered. Mayor MacLaine after making a few well chosen remarks to quite a large crowd, who had gathered to witness the opening ceremony, had the honor of digging the first shovelful of earth amid the applause of all present. J. R. Jackson, M.P.P., dug the second shovelful, then followed R. G. Hargreaves, J. L. White, Dr. McLean and several others. Mayor McLaine who is clerk of the works, states that it is contractors intention to employ local labor in every branch of the work where possible. The material required will be purchased from local firms when it is possible to do so.

Steelite Tests Successful.

POWDER PROVES A BOON AT THE ARGO TUNNEL

Last Friday the management of the Argo Tunnel started using Steelite powder, when a large number of those interested in this powder gathered to witness the first test. O. Lofstad said, when interviewed, that in all his experience he had never seen its equal and had he been using this powder a year ago greater progress would have been made at the tunnel. A round of five holes were fired and all present went right to the face immediately the last blast went off and declared that no fumes were present and the effect was everything that could possibly be expected. A representative of the company was present who gave demonstrations as to the safety of the powder by striking it with a hammer on an anvil and smashing it up with a shovel without causing an explosion.

Demonstrations were made at the Mother Lode Mine in the presence of Messrs. Norcross and Hammerstead, which were highly successful. Satisfactory results were also given at Sater and Johns ranch. Some of the chief advantages of the powder are safety, entire absence of fumes, is not affected by heat or cold, and is the only chlorat of potash powder that works at high efficiency in water. The authorities of the United Kingdom, Germany, Belgium and Switzerland have all recognized the value of the explosive. In England Steelite is the only chlorate of potash powder which is on the permitted list. It is also on the authorized list. It is allowed by the authorities in Belgium to be used in fiery coal mines. A large factory is in the course of construction in that country. It has been admitted by the German railroad authorities as a safety explosive, as it may be shipped on any freight train as ordinary merchandise at the regular freight rates. It is now being used at the Furka Pass Tunnel.

The Steelite Explosives (Canada) Ltd., of which Mr. W. R. MacLean, M.P.P. for Nelson is president, having purchased the patent rights for the manufacture of Steelite in Canada are now building a factor at Mill creek on Slocan lake, immediately across the lake from New Denver.

Get your fall rye for seed at Brown's Ferry, Wash.

Mr. Wolf, one of the K.V. contractors has gone to Vancouver and other coast cities for a vacation.

The hunting seems to be the latest sport in Carmi. Some of our prominent citizens can kill game without guns or licenses and others stay out over night when they can't find their way home.

The Ladies Aid will give a pink tea Sept. 15th, in the K.P. Hall.

The Board of Trade has decided to grade Dale avenue.

Joe Cunningham, the mining expert, of Beaverdell, was registered at the Brunswick hotel on Friday.

GREENWOOD, B. C.

THE LEDGE

is located at Greenwood, B. C., and can be traced to many parts of the earth. It comes to the front every Thursday morning, and believes that hell would close up if love ruled the world. It believes in justice to everyone; from the man who mucks in the mine to the king who sits on the cushions of the throne. It believes that advertising is the life of trade; and that one of the noblest works of creation is the man who always pays the printer.

The Ledge is $2.00 a year in advance, or $2.50 when not so paid. It is postage free to all parts of Canada, Mexico, Great Britain and the county of Bruce. To the United States it is $2.50 a year, always in advance.

THE greater wealth is good health.

THE haste to get rich has ruined many men.

IT is still a fact that the dead never advertise.

IT is easy for a fool and his money to get a divorce.

WE cannot see the fool streaks in our own formation.

WE have never heard of a sunstroke on Lake Superior.

IT is dark in Toronto when the sun is shinning in Greenwood.

IF the good die young there must be a lot of wicked people in Canada.

MAN should be judged by his deeds, and not by his years or his prayers.

IF the bedbug did not stay up at nights the world would have more happiness.

OWING to the advance in prices the cent belt is rapidly losing its right to that title.

WE recently met several parsons in the east. They were all sober and attending strictly to business.

NOW that the real estate boom has died out, Greenwood and the country adjacent should get a chance to be developed.

CROPS are good in the Northwest, but the real estate boom has been killed forever. This will be sad news to the hot air artists with the subdivisions.

TODAY Winnipeg is doing more business, according to its size, than any other city in America. This is largely due to the vast amount of money spent by its business men in advertising.

THE steamer Huronic runs from Sarnia to Port Arthur, and carries a barber who only charges 75 cents for a sea foam, although we do not know what he taxes the public for a lake foam. A chap like that is waisting his time. He should make more money holding up trains.

Thinking Themes

A correspondent writes to the editor of a paper in which many lucubrations appear and "allows" as follows:

"Of all the drive I have seen in a reputable newspaper (outside of a young Ladies' Journal,) I can never recall having read such an aggregious combination of pettiness, false reasoning, and maudin sentiment as is displayed in Dr. Crane's daily articles I could understand it if such gush as he exudes ozzed from the pen of some half-educated, sentimental high school girl, who was writing a highfalutin essay for her valedictory; but I imagine that somewhat probably a majority—of your readers have it in their mental make-up a little more knowledge of the world, a little more reasoning power, and a little less sentimentalism than to deserve instruction or to be unable to discern the claptrap of it all."

This is only part of his letter. I have taken the liberty of omitting some other remarks on account of the postal laws.

I gather that the writer does not adore me with mad infatuation, nor does he like my works. But I am sorry to say that I get from his letter a distinct sense of satisfaction.

I feel greatness coming on. I feel renown creeping toward me. For anybody can get compliments, but when a gentleman froths at the mouth and manifests a desire to heave a brick at you, then you may congratulate yourself that you have done something towards stirring things up a bit.

Although I cannot aspire to the "cool-headed zeal" of Colonel Roosevelt nor the severe self-restraint of Mayor Gaynor, yet as a rule I am a mild and gentle creature, devoted to the art of making a living by smearing ink upon white paper. Yet here it seems that, all unwittingly, I have landed a wallop on the solar plexus of a bystander. Honestly, I didn't know I had the punch.

Hereafter my readers may look for trouble. I have tasted blood.

It all goes to show that, no matter how meek and well dressed you are, somebody is going to long to give you a poke.

You may not make friends, for that is a long and hard business, but you can't make enemies by just walking down the street.

And, personally, I love a sound cursing. When people praise you they may not mean it, but when a man curses you it is rather certain that he is genuinely sincere. He speaks from the heart.

Then you learn a lot from the curser—many things about yourself, and sometimes about your ancestry, that you did not know, or had overlooked.

Cheer up, therefore! Strive ever onward and upward, for the onwarder and the upwarder you get the more haters you will find anxious to take a shot at you.

There are people who are angry even to look at you. They say all manner of evil things they can think of about you, and then some.

Never mind, they are the best press agents in the world.

Besides cursing is a habit with some people. I knew a man who was so given to expletives that if you asked him where he lived he would say, "Fifteen hundred, by gosh, and seventy-three Indian avenue.—Dr. Frank Crane.

Epilepsy is said to be caused by overuse of the brain. There are a lot who are in no danger of having epileptic fits.

ADVERTISE IN THE LEDGE

Argo Tunnel

BY C. W. H. SANSOM, M. E.

I have been personally conversant with the mineral conditions of the mountain upon which the mining claims composing the Argo Mining company hold their ground.

Speaking generally upon the present tunnel works, meaning the one that runs into the mountain practically on the City of Greenwood's civic holdings. Being now driven in on the mineral formation in a easterly direction, according to the general trend of those veins or seams of mineralization indicating true ore bodies. The question I have relative to the actual existant in the mountain mentioned, remains to be proved by more extensive work I recognise that the present work is being done in the right direction and requires but intelligent operation to meet the results, that I fully believe exist in the mountain.

Having worked one mine known as the Goldfinch many years ago, and made profitable, is sufficient in itself that ore bodies carrying gold values undoubtedly exist, and can be permanently proved in depth, if money and energy is used.

I have ever confidence that time will prove that this property or for that matter others on the same mountain will ultimately be shown to have profitable mineral qualities, when judiciously managed.

I submit this opinion from my examination, and recommend the project to those who wish to be interested in a mining venture.

ARGO TUNNEL

It is necessary to develop and work the natural resources that surround a city in order to bring prosperity to the community. The tunnel at the Argo is in a long distance and a large body of high grade ore may be struck at any time. This would mean a big profit to the stockholders and another boom for Greenwood.

A TROUSERS CENTENARY.

It Was Napoleon's Men Who Brought That Garment Into Fashion.

As nearly as can be ascertained it is a hundred years since Napoleon Bonaparte's soldiers introduced the old-new style of leg wear which speedily secured recognition as the distinctively masculine garment of civilians throughout two continents.

In 1814—the year before Waterloo—it was related as a current news item of some importance that the great Duke of Wellington had been refused admittance to Almack's in London because he presented himself wearing trousers instead of the conventional breeches which the dress regulations then in vogue demanded.

As a matter of historical fact trousers have been worn by various races and by both sexes in all the ages of which any authentic records exist. Generally speaking, trousers were regarded in ancient times as symbolical of inferiority or effeminacy. In the triumphal processions of the Caesars, for example, prisoners of war wore them as a sign of defeat, while the sturdy legs of Rome's victorious legions were bare below the bottom of the skirted or kilted coat of mail.

For the last hundred years or thereabout trousers have been widely recognized as the garments of authority, the outward and visible sign of the stronger sex, says the American Tailor and Cutter. But that position has not been won or maintained without a struggle. Many attempts have been made to trample down the tyranny of trousers, as their rule has been called. Many times has their superiority been challenged. But so far their position remains secure.

MARVELS OF PANAMA.

The Gatun Dam, the Culebra Cut and the Great Locks.

Panama's marvels are the Gatun dam, the Culebra cut and the locks, each of the six of them with two chambers 1,000 feet long and 110 feet wide.

You think you can manufacture a mental picture of these locks, but you cannot—not till you have gone down their perpendicular sides a thousand feet and got aboard a dummy train that journeys three-fourths of a mile along the bottom; not till you have looked up and seen the cathedral arches springing in glory from side to side and gazed at the steel gates seven feet thick and marked the cistern holes in the bottom of the channel, up and down through which will move the strong streams that will lift and let down the ships of the nations into their cradles with the tenderness of a mother with an infant, for underneath extend culverts the size of railroad tunnels. It is through these and through mighty valves that the locks are filled and emptied.

Move about awhile among these works like a pygmy lost in a labyrinth of the gods and it will dawn on you what sort of thing men have been about here on this neck of Darien.—World's Work.

Iodine Fumigation.

Although for disinfecting superficial wounds and for sterilizing the skin before operations surgeons have long regarded iodine as one of the most useful antiseptics, they have been unable to find a practical way of using it in liquid form in deep wounds. Dr. Louge of Marseilles, France, has devised a method of producing iodine fumes and has used them successfully in treating all kinds of wounds. He dips the end of a piece of cotton in iodoform powder and then lights the cotton at a point where it is free from powder. The fumes of iodine that at once rise can either be applied directly to the affected part or collected in a jar and applied by means of a syringe. The effect of the fumes is both deodorant and soothing. They have been especially useful in the treatment of abscesses, cancers and similar affections.—Youth's Companion.

No Kissing Permitted.

Visitors to Switzerland are warned that kissing is strictly prohibited in the station and on the platforms of Sarnen, in the canton of Obwald, on the Brunig line, and that any such demonstration will result in the arrest and fining of the participants. A large placard bearing the following inscription has just been placed in the station with the consent of the local authorities:

"Notice.—Considering the abuses which have resulted, messieurs the honorable strangers are requested not to kiss each other on the platforms of the station. (Signed) The Society For the Protection of Young Girls Traveling Alone."

A Dangerous Occupation.

Of all occupations dangerous to life the most hazardous is that of life savers in the United States bureau of mines. The annual mortality among them is at the rate of eighty a thousand. In the first year two sacrificed their lives out of a force of eighty, while seven others fell unconscious in the poisonous vapors of mines, but were rescued by their companions. And yet there is no difficulty in finding heroic men ready to undertake the duty.

Married in Mourning.

Six couples dressed in mourning were married at the garrison church in Potsdam, Germany, July 10. They are known as the Louise bridal pairs. Every year these funeral weddings are celebrated at 9 o'clock on July 10, the day and the hour at which Queen Louise died. This year each bride received $112 in return for her sacrifice of bridal finery.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

I WONDER.

I WONDER who will win the race
And who will fill the chair
And who, when the returns are in,
Will have the votes to spare.
Which of the candidates at large
Up to the front will go?
I wonder, but I wouldn't give
A half a cent to know.

It doesn't matter much to me
It does to some, it seems,
The way they worry as they go
About consulting dreams,
And asking this one who will win,
And asking that the same,
And seeing if they can by cards
Or fate spell out the name.

I think I'll get three meals a day,
Should they not be in view
I guess that I can get along,
As others do, on two,
No matter who on ballot day
Should win the little prize
And find the chair in Washington
Exactly of his size.

For when the present is forgot
And people strain their eyes
To read about these candidates
They'll find that all were wise.
And so I list to all and try
On arguments to thrive,
Because I know, whoever wins,
The country will survive.

Making Discoveries.

"Did you know that Frank and Nellie have broken?"

"No; not really?"

"They have."

"What was the matter?"

"He found she was going to cooking school and she found out that he took physical culture exercises every morning."

The Way to Do It.

"You can't make a woman talk if she doesn't want to."

"That may be true, but there's a way around it."

"What is it?"

"You can make her want to talk."

Poor Pompey.

"Ah am sure grief stricken, lady."

"Too bad, poor man! In what shape did grief come?"

"In the shape of Mr. Gus Johnsing, lady. He sure do have a powerful fist."

Couldn't Get Them Interested.

"You ought to get married."

"Can't afford it."

"Then pick some rich girl."

"Those I have talked to have other plans."

Just So.

"Is he a courageous man?"

"He is, but"—

"But what?"

"His courage is so easily discouraged."

More Celerity Required.

"They go the pace that kills."

"I've only one objection to it."

"What is that?"

"It doesn't kill them fast enough."

Only a Start.

The girl of forty summers
At them need not be sore;
They're not, let her be thankful,
Some forty summers more.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Some folks are so busy resting that they never have time to get tired.

The telephone is a great invention. It enables a woman living in the country to find out what her sister twenty miles away had for breakfast.

When a man who owns an automobile doesn't take his friends riding they think he's mean. When he does they think he's trying to show off.

The office should seek the man, but it never gets the chance.

This is the year that the wise political prophet goes fishing.

Somehow the man who is always willing to learn and the man who knows it all seldom get on well together.

If you want to be popular learn to listen to other people's troubles, but never—no, never—come within a thousand miles of hinting that you may have troubles of your own.

Some people are kept miserable all their lives by thinking about the good times they didn't have.

Nothing makes a woman madder than to have her telephone get out of order the afternoon that there are some interesting happenings in the neighborhood.

The woman who isn't afraid of a snake, a mouse or a thunderstorm needs all the characteristics that she possesses, for nobody will pay any attention to her, and she is in for a go it alone journey.

LOWERY'S CLAIM

During the 87 months that Lowery's Claim was on earth it did business all over the world. It was the most unique, independent and fearless journal ever produced in Canada. Political and theological enemies pursued it with the venom of a rattlesnake until the government shut it out of the mails, and its editor ceased to publish it, partly on account of a lazy liver and partly because it takes a pile of money to run a paper that is outlawed. There are still 20 different editions of this condemned journal in print. Send 10 cents and get one or $2 and get the bunch.

About Float.

Float is not a periodical. It is a book containing 86 illustrations all told, and is filled with sketches and stories of western life. It tells how a gambler cashed in after the flush days of Sandon; how it rained in New Denver long after Noah was dead; how a parson took a drink at Bear Lake in early days; how justice was dealt in Kaslo in '93; how the saloon man outprayed the women in Kalamazoo, and graphically depicts the roamings of a western editor among the tenderfeet in the cent belt. It contains the early history of Nelson and a romance of the Silver King mine. In it are printed three western poems, and dozens of articles too numerous to mention. Send for one before it is too late. The price is 25 cents, postpaid to any part of the world. Address all letters to
