Judging by the great interest taken in the 8th annual Masquerade Dance at Greenwood on Nov. 8th there will be more people in attendance this year than ever. The costumes promise to be better than ever and Bush's five piece orchestra with a special saxophone is an added attraction.

Rock Creek Junior Pig Club

As announced last week, second prize was awarded to the above Club in the Inter-Swine Club Judging Competition in British Columbia, the Cranbrook Club winning first prize by a small margin. The standing of the first four clubs is 1st Cranbrook, 2nd Rock Creek, 3rd Salmon Arm, 4th Midway.

In a letter just received from Dr. Knight, Live Stock Commissioner, who judged the clubs throughout the Province, he says: "Convey my compliments to the boys and girls of your Club on the quality of the pigs turned out which I think is very creditable to any swine club. The number was not large it is true, but still all pigs showed considerable quality and were much superior in type to the Club I judged some two or three years ago."

Gus Erickson, who had been employed by Boyle Bros. diamond drilling at Copper Mountain, died in the Princeton hospital on Oct. 19th, from blood poisoning in his left arm. Johnson, of Princeton, is an uncle of the deceased.

On Friday evening, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Moll, Greenwood, was the scene of a surprise party, the occasion being their eldest son's birthday. Harold was away and on his return home found 60 friends waiting to wish him many happy returns of the day. The young people danced in the lovely large room so appropriate for a happy time. At midnight a dainty supper was served and the birthday cake cut. The merry makers kept things lively until the wee sma' hours when on leaving they report having a good time. Much credit is due Miss Renie Skilton, Miss L. Brennan and Miss V. Walsley for playing the piano, and W. G. Moll the violin.

New Company Takes Over Spotted Horse

C. E. Bartholomew of Spokane, was in town today and stated to The Greenwood Ledge that the Silver Charm Milling and Mining Company has been organized under the laws of the State of Washington by H. C. Myrick, of Seattle, and associates, to take over the Spotted Horse mine from the Jubilee Mining Co. Work will commence on this property very shortly. Mr. Bartholomew spent the greater part of the day at the mine break-out and showed the editor a sample that he discovered which was speckled with gold.

Consolidated Bonds Jimmy Copland's Mine

The Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, of Trail, have taken a bond on Jimmy Copland's mining property in the Bridesville district. Machinery and supplies are already on the ground and work will commence right away. Not since the early days has a large mining company entered this field and the result of this enterprise will be keenly watched by all mining men in the district.

Crescent Ships Ore

A shipment of about 20 tons of ore was made from the Crescent mine to the Trail smelter this week. J. H. DuHamel has been operating this property for some time and through hard work has made it look very promising.

Armistice Masquerade

The Committee in charge of the prizes to be given at the Veterans Annual Masquerade which will be held at the Masonic Hall, Greenwood, on Monday, November 8, have about completed their work. The prize for the best comic lady is giving some trouble in its selection, but the committee announces the other prizes as follows:

Best Ladies Costume—Glass and silver service tray with two handsome cups and saucers.
Best Gentleman's Costume—Pair Oxford shoes.
Best Original Costume—Handsome motor rug.
Best Comic Man—Box of cigars.
Best Girls' Costume—A fine doll.

In order to assist possible competitors for the best original costume, the committee has asked The Greenwood Ledge to make it plain that costumes representing historical or fiction characters will not be eligible for this prize, which is intended as a reward for the one showing the greatest originality and ingenuity. Credit will be given primarily to the idea represented and then to the skill and care with which that idea has been carried out.

From enquiries and comments reaching the committee there seems to be no doubt that more interest is being taken in this event this year than ever before; although it has for years being considered as the social event of the season.

Relics Of Franklin Expedition

Mute Evidence of Tragic Battle Against Hunger and Cold

Further relics of the ill-fated Franklin Expedition have come to light—a skull, fragments of navy cloth, a piece of shoe leather, and a piece of oak from an ice sled, picked up by a trader, Peter Norberg, at Thunder Cove, Adelaide peninsula, ten miles across the Simpson strait from King William land, off whose northern point the "Erebus" and "Terror" were abandoned, seventy-eight years ago.

J. F. Moran, inspector for the North West Territories and Yukon branch of the Canadian Government, brought back these latest Franklin relics—there is little reason to question that such they are—on his return from Aklavik, in the Mackenzie delta, to Edmonton.

Medical men and anthropologists have examined the skull and pronounced it to be that of a white man. All the teeth save one molar are absent from the skull, and the jaw bone is pitted as though rotted with scurvy.

The navy cloth is faded and stained from contact with sea water and, from long exposure to the elements, but it is cloth of the type used for generations, in the making of the uniform of British seamen.

The piece of oak is apparently part of a rib from a snow sled, shaped and cut off at one end with a saw. The strip of leather is evidently part of a white man's shoe.

Finally, the location of the relics themselves lends color to the theory that these are relics of that tragic battle against hunger, cold and exhaustion which ended in death on the inhospitable rocks of King William's Land, or on the ice of Simpson strait, as the last survivors dropped the frozen traces from their bloodless hands and laid themselves down to wait the mercy of death.

Thunder Cove, of Adelaide peninsula, is almost in the direct line which the men would take as they followed the west coast of King William's Land southward to Simpson strait and headed south and east toward the estuary of Great Fish river.

The relics are being taken by Mr. Moran to Ottawa, where, after examination,

Letter Tells of Wonderful Relief After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Coniston, Ontario. "After a severe operation and a three weeks' stay in a hospital I returned home so weak that I was unable to move a chair. For four months I was almost frantic with pains and suffering until I thought sure there could not be any help for me. I had very severe pains in my left side and suffered agony every month. One day when I was not able to get up my mother begged me to try your medicine. My husband got me a bottle of Vegetable Compound at once and I took it. I started a second bottle, and to my surprise and joy the pains in my side left me completely and I am able to do all my work without help. I am a farmer's wife, so you see I can't be idle long. In all, I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of the Compound Tablets, two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine, and have also used the Sensitive Wash."—Mrs. L. LAJUNESSE, Box 103, Coniston, Ontario.

Preventing Curvature of Spine. Curvature of the spine can best be prevented, according to a Viennese doctor's recent report, by starting with the child when it is very young. Too early sitting up and standing the child around constantly on the same arm of the parent is another cause of curvature of the spine. Flat mattresses in the school age are important, he adds, and sitting all the time or carrying heavy loads is harmful to the growing child.

World's Highest City

Potosi in Bolivia is 13,388 Feet Above Sea Level

The highest city in the world is Potosi in Bolivia, South America. It stands on a great tableland 13,388 feet above sea level. Potosi is also potentially the wealthiest city in the world. Here in the rarefied atmosphere of that tremendous altitude 25,000 white men and Indians pass their lives under the shadow of the giant Cerro de Potosi, a sinister metallic mountain, out of whose bowels fabulous quantities of silver have been dug. Since the discovery of the Potosi mines, 400 years ago, over 20,000 tons of bar silver have been taken from this one mountain alone, enough to form a column of solid silver one square foot in section and rising to 16,000 feet.

In addition, immense quantities of tin, gold, bismuth, copper, marble, and sulphur have been produced. It was Potosi that supplied the bulk of the precious ingots that found their way to Spain in the treasure-galleons of history.

The city was founded in 1546 by treasure-hunting Spanish adventurers, and the story of its foundation and growth is told in the ancient archives which still exist in the city today.

At the height of its prosperity it could boast of 60 churches and a population of 160,000. But with the abolition of bimetalism and consequent depreciation in the value of silver the city fell upon evil days. The disused factories in the city outskirts and the many magnificent public buildings falling into ruin today tell their tale of decay. It is still, nevertheless, an active and wealthy city.

Says Insane People

Write To Newspapers

Is Hobby of Mentally Un-Balanced Opinion of Alienist

"All persons who write to newspapers are not mad, but all mad persons write to newspapers," was the opinion expressed by a noted alienist to a French journalist who with thirty-one other leading newspaper men is collaborating in a book entitled, "One Hour of My Career," outlining their most unusual experiences.

The doctor in question said that he had always asked persons submitted to his investigations whether they wrote letters to editors, and if the reply was in the affirmative he suspected them of mental unbalance. Then the writer enumerated a series of experiences proving that the alienist undoubtedly was right in many cases.

One amateur correspondent suggested that a boulevard be built over the Seine to relieve Paris traffic. Another suggested that the value of bank notes vary from day to day as a solution of the financial problem. Countless persons sent in schemes for a United States of Europe, and the majority sent photographs of themselves and documents concerning spiritism, Stenohalms, feminism and vegetarianism.

For every man, he said, there were two women epistolarians, some of whom pretended to be reincarnations of Joan of Arc.

Why They Abolished Polygamy

High cost of upkeep on modern bobbed hair women brought about the abolition of polygamy in Turkey, according to Mme. Hadil Hourshed Bey, a visitor to Washington. Her husband was chamberlain in the royal household under the sultan. When Turkish women dropped the veil and took to short hair and European dress, men found they could not afford more than one wife, and the harem made a forced disappearance.

Preventing Curvature of Spine

Curvature of the spine can best be prevented, according to a Viennese doctor's recent report, by starting with the child when it is very young. Too early sitting up and standing the child around constantly on the same arm of the parent is another cause of curvature of the spine. Flat mattresses in the school age are important, he adds, and sitting all the time or carrying heavy loads is harmful to the growing child.

Austrian Farm Workers

Dr. Henri Montel, Commissioner of Immigration for Austria, who has been touring Canada at the invitation of the Canadian Pacific Railway, states that his visit has been satisfactory in every respect and that he expects as a result that Canada will next year receive 1,000 Austrian farm workers, the first large influx of immigrants from that country, and that in succeeding years Austrian families will arrive for settlement in increasing numbers.

A movement is under way in England to have eggs sold by weight instead of count.

Canada Should Develop Strong National Spirit

Children Must be Taught to Take Pride in Being Canadians

Says the Border Cities Star: If Canada needs anything it is the development of a strong national spirit. Our children, from coast to coast, irrespective of racial sources, must be taught to glory in the fact. Just the other day the writer of these lines talked to an eager-eyed, olive-skinned lad, obviously the son of South European parents. "And what country do you belong to?" the boy was asked. His reply was prompt, "I'm a Canadian!" he said, and the words were uttered with pride. That is the spirit. Let's have more of it. And at the same time it would be well for Canadians of Anglo-Saxon strain to be more considerate in their use of the word "foreigner." Except for the Indians, we are all foreigners more or less. Canada has grown to her present position because so-called foreigners were willing to come in. Many millions more of them will be required here before we reach the national success for which every true Canadian should strive. And in Canada, let us make sure, every man who is willing to work should be given fair opportunity and equality of treatment.

Introduces New Sport

Diver Succeeds in Walking Five Miles Under Water

Just to show that "swimming the English Channel is not the only sport," Klas Everatts, Norfolk diver, walked across the bottom of Hampton Roads from Old Point Comfort, Virginia, to the Norfolk naval base, a distance of about five miles. He completed the unprecedented jaunt in two hours and forty-one minutes.

Except for weakness in the legs and a numb feeling in the head and shoulders, Everatts appeared none the worse for his feat.

Seated in a huge diving suit with leaden shoe soles, and carrying eighty additional pounds of lead strapped around his body to hold himself down in heavy pressure depths, Everatts slid into the water at 10.49 a.m., and despite many obstacles, including an old ship anchor in which he became entangled, forged ahead and completed his trip at 1.30 p.m. A launch with an air pump accompanied him.

The "Seven-Second Men."

Name Given to Motorists Who Get Caught at Railroad Crossings

A new name has been given to dead motorists who have tried to beat the train to railway crossings and have not succeeded. A slogan has also been built around the name based on the rather appalling death list. The computation of those called "seven-second men" puts them at 1784 in numbers yearly and the byword regarding those who have come to close quarters with the cow-catchers and escaped is "lose seven seconds and you may gain fifty years," that many fractions of a minute being the average in point of time of a train of cars occupied in getting by a crossing. The battle to save the lives of the reckless is being prosecuted in, especially by the railroads, with only more or less encouragement by those who have all to gain.

Pain in the Back

Yields to Nerviline

If you have failed to secure relief from other remedies, rub on lots of good old "Nerviline," the strongest, most penetrating pain relief on the market. Nerviline acts quickly on small pains and is the surest to drive out the big ones. It's because every drop of Nerviline rubs in, because it has the ability to sink in deeply that it drives away pain that ordinary oily liniments won't touch. Large 35c bottles at all dealers.

Find Oldest Horse

A mummified horse the first known to history, was unearthed recently in Egypt. It is more than 16 hands tall and estimated to be about 3,500 years old.

Englishmen pay probably the highest income tax in the world. A married man with one child whose income is $2,000 a year, pays $36; at $3,000 he pays $125; and at $5,000 he pays $450.

The Baby's Cold

Invitation Is Unanswered

Prince Invited to Dinner by American Unknown to Him

The Prince of Wales has received a cabled invitation to join an American and his wife at dinner on their arrival in England soon. The cable, which was addressed: "Prince of Wales of England, St. James's Place, London," read:

"My wife and self will be honored if you will dine with us on our visit to London next month. Name your company and your date."

It was the first the Prince had heard of his would-be American hosts whose names have not been made public. The invitation remains unanswered.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS AN EXCELLENT REMEDY

For Any of the Many Minor Ailments of Infants and Young Children

No mother can expect that her child will escape all the ills to which babyhood and childhood are subject, but she can do much to lessen their severity, and to make baby's battles for health easily won.

Nine-tenths of the minor ailments which afflict babyhood and childhood are caused by some derangement of the stomach and bowels. Regulate the stomach and bowels and those troubles will disappear. To do this nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which through their action on the stomach and bowels never fail to banish constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fevers; expel worms and make the dreaded teething time easy.

Concerning Baby's Own Tablets Mrs. A. Koshan, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"Kindly send me your booklet, 'Care of Baby in Health and Sickness.' I have two little children four and a half and three years old and have used nothing else for them but Baby's Own Tablets. I think the Tablets are a wonderful medicine for little ones."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Has Postponed Flight

Paul Tarascon, the French aviator, will not attempt to fly across the Atlantic in a Barnard monoplane for at least eight months, and possibly longer. Delays in construction in the plane and bad weather is the cause of the postponement of the flight.

Ready-made Medicine. — You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable; for scalds, burns, bruises, sprains it is unsurpassed; while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

Little Helps For This Week

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.—Matt. v. 4.

Oh, deem not they are lost alone Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep; The Power who pities man has shown A blessing for the eyes that weep.

For God hath marked each sorrowing day, And numbered every secret tear; And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay For all His children suffer here.

—William Cullen Bryant.

God washes the eyes by tears until they can behold the invisible land where tears shall come no more. O Love! O Affliction! ye are the guides that show us the way through the great airy space where our loved ones walked. God teaches us, while yet our sorrow is wet, to follow on and find our dear ones in heaven.

—Henry Ward Beecher.

For all pains—Minard's Liniment.

"Be mine—I love you!" ardently whispered the aged millionaire to the penniless young widow. "Enough to die for me?" she asked coyly.—Judge.

The brain of an elephant is larger than that of a man, but his trunk is smaller than that of a woman.

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Remove them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

Thirteen is always an unlucky number for some one when it consists of twelve jurymen and a judge.

Feet Sore?—Minard's Liniment.

Stories About Famous People

London Theatre Manager Has Entertaining Book of Anecdotes

In an entertaining book of reminiscences Sir Squire Bancroft, the London theatre-manager, tells a quantity of good anecdotes about famous people he has known.

One, which we think has been printed before is that which Browning, the poet, told him of Longfellow.

The two poets were once driving through the London streets in a handsome cab, when a heavy shower suddenly came on. Longfellow insisted upon thrusting the umbrella through the trap in the roof of the cab, so that the driver might protect himself from the rain—which he did. That is precisely what you might expect Longfellow to do—a kind-hearted generous gentleman if ever one lived.

Another concerns George Du Maurier, the famous illustrator and author of Trilby. He was always annoyed when anyone called him de Maurier instead of du Maurier. He said once: "Fellows will write to me as de Maurier; I wish they would give the devil his due."

The third story is about Archdeacon Wilberforce, who was one of the earliest foes of the evolutionary hypothesis of Darwin. The Archdeacon was visiting Sir John Hare at his seaside home at Overstrand, and Hare, who was very fond of dogs and was hardly ever to be seen without one by him, asked him this question:

"Do you really believe, Archdeacon in a hereafter for our dogs?"

"Indeed I do," said Wilberforce.

"But do you mean that I shall really see my dog again?" Hare persisted.

"Undoubtedly—if you are good enough," was the response.

Relieves Asthma at Little Expense. Thousands of dollars have been vainly spent upon remedies for asthma and seldom, if ever, with any relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, despite its assurance of benefit, costs so little that it is within reach of all. It is the national remedy for asthma, far removed from the class of doubtful and experimental preparations. Your dealer can supply it.

An Ancient Piano

One of First to Reach America Exhibited at Mississippi Fair

Though its strings have long since become corroded and from its keyboard resound horrible discords, a little piano, said to be one of the first two to reach the New World, will be a feature exhibit at the Mississippi State Fair.

The instrument is the property of City Commissioner R. M. Taylor, who secured it from Miss Rosa Fisher, octogenarian of this city, in whose family it has been for generations. The mate to the piano is said by Miss Fisher to be in Mount Vernon, home of George Washington. Visitors to Mount Vernon describe the pianos as identical.

It is of French make, about 15 inches thick, 28 inches wide and 60 inches long. There are 73 keys, connected in a vastly different manner from the pianos of today.

We probably wouldn't feel flattered if we knew what the people whom we think are fools think of us.

Scientist says goldfish do not sleep. Oh, well, they never go anywhere, so they can't get tired.

Plan Three Years of Road Construction

Plans for a three-year programme of road construction, the most extensive ever undertaken in this province, are being shaped by the public works department for the approval of the Legislature at the forthcoming session.

First moneys to cover this far-reaching scheme of highway improvement will be voted by the House early in the year to cover the 1927 work and in the two succeeding years further funds will be provided. At the end of three years, as a result of a policy of improvement rather than new construction, British Columbia's whole highway system will have been revolutionized.

The purpose of this scheme is, first, to give all the settled areas of British Columbia communication with the trunk highways and thus with all the main centres of population; and, secondly, to rebuild and relocate all the bad sections of existing roads.

Included in the programme are improvements on the Anarchist Mountain road, which links Southern Okanagan and Osoyoos country with the Greenwood area. Four miles of the road over this difficult ascent must be entirely relocated and in this section scarcely any maintenance work is being done meanwhile. Already a large part of the old wagon trail over the mountain has been rebuilt and with the completion of this work a satisfactory route from Osoyoos lake over to the boundary country will be available.

Brewing is an important industry in British Columbia

FEW citizens give thought to what the Brewing Industry means to British Columbia, as an industry, yet it is an important factor in the industrial life of this province.

It is not necessary to emphasize the millions of dollars invested in the brewing industry in this province. The thing that must not be lost sight of is that there are hundreds of men employed throughout the year in the making, storing and transporting of the products of the breweries of British Columbia.

Breweries are constantly improving and keeping modern their plants. The Amalgamated Breweries of British Columbia have spent over $800,000 in the last few months for improvements and equipment.

Breweries are an important customer of the farmers of British Columbia, their purchases of grain and hops running into huge figures each year. There is no British Columbia industry that spends more of its total income right in this province than the brewing industry.

The brewing industry brings large sums of money into the province. British Columbia beer is attracting attention abroad for its purity and high quality. Export markets in Australasia, China and India, are constantly growing.

British Columbia beers are winning their way in these countries in direct competition with beers from Great Britain, Germany and Czechoslovakia. They are winning their way on quality and they are powerful advertisements for this province.

Facts like these are not romantic, but they are important and should be considered by every citizen. They are not commonly mentioned by those whose business it is to attempt to destroy the brewing industry in their determination that the people of British Columbia shall be prevented from enjoying a pure and healthful beverage in an open and above-board manner.

Proof of the high quality of the beer manufactured by the Amalgamated Breweries is the remark on recent analysis made by McDonald and McDonald, analytical chemists of Vancouver, stating:

"By the analysis, samples prove to be excellent beer. They are high in extract, nitrogenous matter, phosphoric acid and ash, while the acidity is low and the volatile acidity practically nil, which is proof that the beer is a wholesome nutritious beverage."

SYNOPSIS OF
LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be "granted" covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to the value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown Lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown Lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stampage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.

Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees.

Absolute Titles are obtained by developing such properties, the security of which is guaranteed by Crown Grants.

Full information together with Mining Reports and Maps, may be obtained gratis by addressing—

THE HON. THE MINISTER OF MINES,
VICTORIA, British Columbia.

N.B. Practically all British Columbia Mineral Properties upon which development work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C. Reports covering each of the six Mineral Survey Districts are published separately, and are available on application. Reports of the Geological Survey of Canada, Winch Building, Vancouver, are recommended as valuable sources of information.
