NICHOLSON CREEK RANCH SOLD

The ranch owned by the Portman Bros. up Nicholson Creek, Kettle Valley was sold to Harold Martin, the deal being consummated in Greenwood on Friday afternoon.

The property consists of 200 acres, part of which is in alfalfa and timothy. Cattle, horses, implements and buildings are also included in the deal. The purchase price was not given out.

The Portman Bros. have resided on the ranch continuously since 1917. Their place was considered one of the best in that section.

Harold Martin is well known in the district and he and his wife, (formerly Miss Victoria Shillcock) have taken possession of the property. For some years they have resided in Trail, but recently returned to Kettle Valley. Their many friends wish them success in their new venture.

OLD MURRAY RANCH SOLD

Another land deal of considerable importance was consummated in Greenwood on Tuesday, when Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Cudworth, of Bridesville, purchased from James Poggi, the Murray ranch, on Boundary Creek. The price was not given out. There are 320 acres of land with about 95 acres under cultivation.

The Cudworths intend to make their home on their new holdings. It will be known as the "Beaver Glen" choosing the name from the animal that makes its home in the Creek on the ranch.

The new owners, who own 888 acres in the Bridesville section will bring their sheep, cattle and horses down from that place, as soon as they get their crop in there, also by that time Mr Poggi will have the large residence on the ranch completely renovated from foundation to roof.

The Cudworths to will go in extensively for sheep and in time will have their 200 head increased to 1500.

Greenwood Citizens will be pleased to hear that the Cudworth family will make their home on Boundary Creek, and will extend them a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Cudworth returned to their home in Bridesville on Tuesday, after the deal was completed.

Baseball season has commenced at school. Harry Hallstrom socked the first home-run of the season.

The pupils started school last Monday with a resolution to work harder. ("It won't be long now," "June").

Teacher:—"What is a polygon, Johnny?"
Johnny:—"A dead parrot, I guess."

Teacher discussing a French sentence in class:—"There is another little freak in me." Correcting himself, "I mean in the French sentence."

Teacher:—"From what part of Africa is the greatest supply of ivory obtained?"
Bright Pupil:—"From the Elephant's tusk."

During the Easter vacations a number of the older boys under the guidance of Mountaineer James Reid went on a hiking expedition.

Following the Deadwood road we stopped to say hello to Scott McRae. Continuing on we inspected the Deserted Deadwood School. Our next halt was at Mother Lode Camp. Here we had lunch, gave the mine and buildings the once over, then continued to Sunset Mountain. We also visited the D. O. A. properties. Thence we bound for home entering by the North end of Greenwood.

After this hike we began to think our vacation was to become prospectors. However we did not stake any "Wild Oats" but we did discover a few pet wood ticks on a couple of our party. All enjoyed the hike immensely and expressed it by saying that more such expeditions be undertaken in the future.

Duncan McIntosh of Beaverdell Bell Mine fame, has been appointed a director of the Pond Orelle Mines & Metal Company. The company will operate near Meteline Falls, Wash.

SIDLEY PIONEER DIES

John Lincoln Dodds, one of the Pioneers of the Sidley District, died at the residence of Harry Brown, Rock Creek, on Saturday, April 6th. Mr. Dodds was born in Kent, England, on 22nd February, 1843 and was therefore 86 years old.

He came to Canada as a young man, worked in Oshawa, Ont., for a number of years, then went to the U. S. and was one of the early Pioneers of Spokane and later of Ellensburg, Wash. He returned to Canada in 1895, taking up land near Sidley where he lived until selling his farm a few years ago, when he moved to Rock Creek and made his home with Harry Brown.

He was very highly respected and his funeral which took place from Riverside Hall on Monday at 2 p.m. to the Rock Creek Cemetery, was largely attended. Rev. Andrew Walker officiated. The pallbearers were: M. Jewell, E. Madge, J. Turner, R. C. Johnston and W. Haddon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Forshaw, Mrs. H. Hartley and Alec Purkis returned on Sunday evening from a very enjoyable motor trip to Vancouver, Seattle and Vancouver Island. They came home via the Fraser Canyon highway and report the road very rough in places.

Mrs. Purkis and daughter, Dawn, who left with the party, remained in Duncan where they are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Purkis.

Sergt. John Macdonald, who has been in charge of the provincial police station in Penticton for over a year, was recently moved to Chilliwack. The Fraser Valley has been created a new provincial police district and includes the city and municipality of Chilliwack which has decided to come under provincial policing. It is not known who will succeed him.

Hercules to Work Phoenix Mines

Crew to Start Development Monday on Copper Properties Recently Under Bond to Tidewater Co.

R. Forshaw's copper properties in Phoenix were taken over this week by the Hercules Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Corporation Ltd. Last year the above property was bonded to the Pacific Tidewater and this week the company relinquished their hold and Mr. Forshaw immediately bonded same to the Hercules Corporation.

Development will commence on Monday, with a crew on the Brooklyn and Stenwinder Mines.

The Hercules Corporation recently commenced development on the Anacanda group in Deadwood Camp, the Crescent Group on the Phoenix hill, also the Bonanza Group on the North Forks. When the Phoenix work starts on Monday they will have four crews at work.

DIRECTOR INSPECTS MOGUL

K. M. Chadwick, M.E.I.C. of Victoria, B.C. a director of the Mogul Mining Co., inspected the Mogul Group, the company's property on the Main Kettle River on Saturday last. Mr. Chadwick was in town on Saturday in company with Superintendent A. F. Thomas, and the former was well pleased with showings on the property.

Good progress is being made with the wagon road to the Mine under foreman Hugh McKinnon. Two miles have already being built.

THE SALLY SHUT-DOWN

Commenting editorially on the Sally Shut-down the Penticton Herald says: "The shutting down of the well-known Sally mine at Beaverdell need not be taken as any indication that this property has been mined out. Far from it. The Sally has been a wonderful producer and still contains veins of high class ore."

For the past year the owners have been making operating expenses while undertaking considerable development work. They now intend to plan out further development on a comparatively large scale and doubtless involving considerable capital. For the present the mine operations will cease.

But we look to see the Sally, before a great while, reopen with fine dividend-paying prospects.

Meanwhile, some of the other mines of the district are advancing. The Wellington has made good showing so far and gives every indication of being a winner. Almost the same can be said for the Highland Lass. Penticton men are interested in both properties.

The Bell, the great money-maker of the hill, which probably gives its owners, Dunc McIntosh and Henry Lee, from fifty to seventy thousand dollars a year in profits, continues on her golden way, which metaphor is hardly correct as she is a silver property, but you know what we mean.

The Beaverdell country should develop within the next decade at least a score of profitable mines. They will not have huge ore bodies but they will be rich veins eminently suitable for comparatively small capitalists to handle."

Miss May Clark, Sec'y
Greenwood B.C.

Dear Madam Secretary:

I do not know how to begin to thank you for the glorious surprise which the "Nightingales" of Greenwood School so kindly sent us for Eastertide. It almost took my breath away when I opened your letter and looked at the Cheque, in fact I had to rub my eyes a couple of times in order to find out that I was seeing correctly.

To the "Nightingales" belongs the honor of sending the largest donation the Junior Red Cross Committee have ever received in aid of the Crippled Children's Fund.

May God bless and reward you all for your efforts on behalf of other less fortunate children. Attached find our receipt No. 10498, and please tell every member to watch for the message in our April News Letter.

I wonder if the "Nightingales" would not like this money to go to pay the hospital account for little "Helga", who herself is a member of the Junior Red Cross and comes from a very poor home up the Island? Her father is a returned soldier and her mother has only one arm. They have had a new baby arrive this past month which makes six children in all.

Very sincerely,
META HODGE,
Provincial Director

PREETZMAN IS FIRST IN PLOUGHING MATCH

The first Ploughing Match in this district was held at R. E. Norris' ranch near Kettle Valley on Saturday, April 6th under the auspices of the Midway and Rock Creek Farmer's Institutes. The entries did not come up to expectations, but this did not discourage the promoters of the event. Keen interest was manifested by the spectators, among whom were many of the prominent ranchers of the district, who, had they brought their horses and ploughs, the contestants could have been trebled. It is said that a competition of this kind was new to a great number of the farmers here and after witnessing such a match, there should be no reason why the entries should not be greatly increased another year.

The ground ploughed was stubble and each contestant was allotted a piece 104 yards long and 20 feet wide, in which he had to make 14 furrows.

A. Lindsay of Bridesville Road, and W. H. Norris of Midway, were the judges and they thoroughly carried out their difficult duties. Their awards met with popular approval and are as follows:

1st, Werner Preetzman, Midway, 92 points, $20; 2nd, Morris Jewell, Rock Creek, 91 points, $15; 3rd, Wm. Bruce, Kettle Valley, 75 points, $10; 4th, R. E. Norris, Kettle Valley, 74 points, $7.50; 5th, Chas. Weed, Midway, 65 points, $5; 6th, Lewis Brew, Kettle Valley, 61 points, $2.50.

Mr. Preetzman used an old John Deere plough which he got off a scrap pile and repaired it; also one of his horses was only broken last fall and had only ploughed for three hours previously.

Refreshments were served by ladies of both Institutes at noon and at the close of the match. High enough praise cannot be given them for providing such an abundance of good things to eat.

Votes of thanks were tendered to Messrs. Lindsay and Norris for the efficient way in which they presided as judges; also to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Norris for the use of their home for the serving of refreshments. Result follows:

EVERYONE CHERISHES LOVE OF A GARDEN

The lawn requires a little attention every spring. Bare spots will have to be re-seeded, weeds dug out, a roller or pounder applied, and a little quickly available fertilizer, like nitrate of soda, to bring growth along evenly and strongly, particularly during the cool weather. To correct these conditions, loosen the soil in the bare spots and sow thickly with a good grade of lawn seed. If the position is open, that is exposed to plenty of sunlight, ordinary grass seed will do, but if shaded select a special brand which all seed houses carry for this purpose. Rake in the seed, level off with pounder and roller, and protect from birds with chicken wire or lattice until growth is established. After the fertilizer is applied, it is best to water to dissolve it so that it will get down to the roots where it is needed. On this account, nitrate of soda is best applied just before or during a shower. The fertilizer should be applied at the rate of about three and one-half ounces per hundred square feet of grass. Going over the whole lawn with a roller or pounder will firm the soil about the small roots of the grass and give it a chance to come along quickly.

While the cost of flower or vegetable seed is relatively unimportant and certainly the most inexpensive factor in gardening, one's whole season's work depends absolutely on the quality of the seed used. If poor, cheap stock is purchased, results are bound to be disappointing and there is usually but one opportunity in the whole year to plant. The cost of the land, fertilizer, labor and equipment will all be lost, as well as the pleasure of growing beautiful flowers and high-quality vegetables, if the foundation of all of this, which is good seed, is lacking. For satisfactory results, it is best to obtain supplies from those sources which cater to Canadian gardeners.

One can get the garden off to an early start and also grow those tender plants which require a longer season than our climate allows, by starting many flowers and vegetables indoors. Supplies for the window box or hanging basket can also be produced in this way. Among the flowers, zinnias, cosmos, marigolds, in fact practically anything except poppies, which do not transplant readily, can be started under glass in April, and will benefit from being moved a few times before they are placed in their permanent locations.

In the vegetable line, tomatoes, cabbage, head lettuce, cucumbers, melons and even a few early beets, carrots and corn can be planted. A box a couple of inches deep with holes bored in the bottom for drainage and filled with sand mixed with a little loam makes the best material for indoor planting. If such material is not available, the nearest greenhouse man will be able to supply some. Moisten the earth, then mark off the rows, sow the seed and cover the box tightly with a piece of sacking or burlap. This cover will hasten germination and prevent the seeds from being washed out. It is best to get the plants started in a warm, dark cellar, and after they have pushed up through the soil, remove the covering and place them in full sunlight, at least a foot away from the glass, if it is single, or closer if a storm window has been provided. Make sure that they are protected on nights when the thermometer threatens to go down.

Where a large quantity of plants is desired, it is advisable to provide a hotbed. This is simply a glass-protected bed placed on a pile of horse manure, which should be fresh and at least eighteen inches deep. The bed should face the south with the glass sloping a few inches that way, so that water will run off, and the sun rays caught fully, and should not be planted until the manure is heated up and cooled down again to about seventy degrees. In cold weather, water very sparingly, and only on bright days. Ventilate a little by raising the sash, and keep this open longer as the weather gets warmer. Plants grown in a hotbed should be transplanted to a cold frame, that is, a glass-protected bed without the heated manure underneath, where they are hardened off before transplanting outside.

FAMOUS STAGE IDOL STARS ON SCREEN!

Dewitt Jennings, recognized as one of the greatest character actors the legitimate stage has ever known, now is claiming moving pictures as his very own. A few years ago Jennings forsook the stage to play his first screen role. He has appeared since in a number of different characterizations and real field. His most recent important role is in F. B. O.'s epic of the U. S. Marines, "The Great Mail Robbery," to be shown at The Greenwood Theatre, on Saturday, April 13th. Jennings' role in this production is entirely different than anything he has ever attempted before, but his performance is lauded by critics as most praiseworthy. Charlie Chaplin in the "Vagabond" will be shown after the above picture.

The Wake

An Irishman consulted a dentist and asked what was wrong with his tooth. "The nerve is dead," replied the dentist.

"Thin the others must be houldin' a wake over it," replied Pat.

Was a Fundamentalist

An old preacher once told some boys the Bible lesson he was going to read the following morning. The boys finding the place, glued together the connecting pages.

The next morning the preacher read on the bottom of one page: "When Noah was 120 years old he took unto himself a wife who was"—then turning the page—"140 cubits long, 40 cubits wide, built of gopher wood, and covered with pitch inside and out."

He was puzzled. He read it again, and then said: "My friends, this is the first time I ever met this in the Bible, but I accept it as evidence of the assertion that we are fearfully and wonderfully made."

FORMER PREMIER'S DAUGHTER WEDS IN VANCOUVER

A pretty ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock on Saturday evening, March 30, at Chalmers Church, when Marjorie L. daughter of the late Hon. H. C. Brewster, a former Premier of British Columbia, and the late Mrs. Brewster, was married to Mr. James Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomson, West Eleventh. The church was prettily decorated with palms, lilies and spring flowers for the occasion and Rev. A. A. McGowan officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Captain Brewster, was a charming picture in a gown of pale-blue satin with a deep-lace berth and uneven hemline with a hat en suite. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Miss Agnes Jordan of New Westminster, who attended the bride, wore an attractive frock of primrose-yellow georgette and a hat similar in tone. Mr. Ross Wilson supported the groom.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. McGregor, East Eleventh, when about fifty guests gathered to greet the young couple. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the tiered wedding cake centred the supper table, which was decorated with pale-yellow tapers in silver candlesticks and pale-yellow rose buds.

For her going-away costume the bride chose an imported sport dress and beige coat with a smart felt hat. After a honeymoon in Seattle Mr. and Mrs. Thomson will reside at Selkirk Apartments.—Vancouver Province.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. S. B. Hamilton and visited in Greenwood last autumn.

CARMI NEWS

J. C. Dale made a trip up here from Midway last week to visit his friends.

George Munroe returned to his home here on Saturday from Grand Forks where he has been taking Chiropractor treatments. He is much relieved.

Mrs. Clappier returned to her home at Midway on Sunday accompanied by Emile and Paul Lautard after spending the week here.

The people of Carmi had quite a surprise when they awakened on Sunday morning to find about three inches of new snow. The snow did not stop the cars from running as many men attended a meeting at Beaverdell.

Forty Hours Devotion

(Contributed)

The 2nd and 3rd Instant, Carmi has been granted with the Forty Hours Devotions, held in the Chapel of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. The Chapel is owned and deserved by Rev. J. Ferroux.

The Forty Hours Devotions were opened on Tuesday morning with High Mass, sung by Rev. Phelan, M. Saunier, J. Gallioz and Rev. Ferroux and closed on Wednesday night.

Rev. Phelan of Merritt, Rev. McIntyre of Grand Forks-Greenwood together with Rev. Ferroux, carried out the Devotions, preaching sermons the subject of which discourses was the Holy Eucharist. Four sermons, delighted the hearers, and gave to them the clear reasons of the Catholic belief in the Real Presence, and in Eucharist, considered as a true spiritual, not figurative, mauducation, and as a real sacrifice. A real memorial of that of the Cross.

Everybody, Catholics and Protestants, attended to these deeply impressive ceremonies. Quite a number of outsiders came to know better and to adore the King of the Eucharist. Among those attending were, Mrs. Mace of Greenwood, Mrs. R. MacCutcheon and son, Mrs. O'Hara and daughter, Marguerite of Westbridge, Andrea Caron, Virginia Riley, Mrs. Clappier and daughter of Midway, M. Saunier of Rhone, Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith of Beaverdell.

Every attendant went back home with the impression that great benefits spring from these Forty Hours Devotions.

The service was maintained
while they moved the exchange

"Business as usual" was the motto of telephone folk during the recent moving of the present telephone building at Chilliwack, B.C., preparatory to the erection of a new building. The existing structure had to be moved to an adjoining lot, a distance of 75 feet, and during the moving the "telephone service had to go on."

Telephone men knew just what to do to provide for the situation. Additional sections were "spliced into" the cables connected to the exchange, to allow sufficient slack in the lines for the move. It took four days to get the telephone building to its new site on the neighbouring lot, and during that time the operators continued at their regular positions and service was carried on as usual.

A YEAR AGO ↑
Today →

A year ago there was a great hole, nearly a city block in area, facing the Union Station at Toronto. Down in the bottom, half a dozen cranes were busy sorting huge pieces of steel which were being noisily rivetted as they were set, meccano like, into position.

On that site today stands the tallest building in the British Empire, the magnificent Royal York Hotel which, in two months more, will open the doors to its thousand rooms and welcome its first guests.

Remarkable as has been the speed with which this great Canadian Pacific Hotel has been erected, still more extraordinary to the man on the street must be the tremendous thoughts which went into the planning of what will be the most up-to-date institution of its kind in the world and in the working out of those arrangements that will ensure its guests the utmost in facilities and service. There will be, for instance, radio outlets in every room, and in the concert hall, Banquet hall and Ballroom, which have seating capacity for nearly seven thousand people, the most modern means of amplification have been installed to provide, not only that speakers and artists and musicians be thoroughly heard wherever they are speaking but, by connection through the radio room, in any other portion of the building. There is provision also for television, should this be developed, for moving picture and movietone projection.

With its own power plant and water-works, its emergency hospital and internal and outside transportation and communication systems, the Royal York Hotel is a complete city. It has its bank and brokers offices, its stores and shops, its community hall and recreation centres. Nothing which a progressive town might have has not been thought of and incorporated to advantage. Down in the basement is a complete printing establishment, a linotype and three presses.

With a tunnel entrance from Union Station, at the junction of all roads into the city, in the heart of "down-town" the site of the Royal York is strategic. With Lake Ontario before it, it is beautiful. The travelling contingent will join with the citizens of Toronto in their eager anticipation of the opening day in June.
