Home Made

The River Clyde has been brought up to its present navigable condition by means of dredging, and the Glasgow people are very proud of it. One day a party of American sightseers turned up their noses at the Clyde.

"Call this a river?" they said. "Why, its a ditch in comparison with our Mississipri, or St. Lawrence, or Delaware."

"Aweel, mon," said a Scotch bystander, "you've got Providence to thank for your rivers, but we made this ourselves."

Former Recorder Died

George Cunningham, former mining recorded, who has been a citizen of Vancouver for the past six years, died in that city on January 25, shortly after he walked into a livery stable at 269 Prior street. Death evidently occurred from heart trouble, as Mr. Cunningham expired sitting in a chair while talking to his son, G. D. Cunningham.

The late Mr. Cunningham was a well-known old-timer in the Boundary, having been in the employ of the Provincial Government, when they had an office in Midway. After the government had moved their offices to Greenwood, he then became mining recorder and held this position until he was super-annuated in 1911, when he moved to Vancouver, where he lived until his demisi,

Gulley Elected Mayor

Great interest was taken in the Municipal election held on Monday, Feb. 5th. Practically all the voters in the city turned out. The women voters came out strong and exercised their franchise.

The electors of Greenwood have selected a good working council, who will look after the best interests of the city. The first meeting will be held on Monday evening, Jan. 12th.

The following were elected:

Mayor—T. M. Gulley.

Aldermen for North Ward—A. F. H. Meyer, Wm. Arthurs and D. McLeod.

Aldermen for South Ward—S. P. Dixon, F. C. Buckless and H. McKee.

Wednesday was chosen as the day for the half-holiday.

The Late J. P. McLeod

John P. McLeod, former deputy attorney-general for British Columbia, who passed away on January 31, at Victoria, after a long and painful illness, enjoyed a distinguished career as a student, school principal and lawyer. He had just entered his 57 year, having been born at Valley Field, P. E.I., on January 27th, 1861.

Gratuating at Prince of Wales College, he became classical tutor at Dalhousie University, leaving there to take up the principalship of Victoria high school. Like many before him Mr. McLeod left the scholastic profession to take up law. After practicing for some years in Vancouver and Greenwood, he left the latter place for Victoria, in 1910, when he was appointed inspector of legal offices, and the following year deputy attorney-general, which appointment he held until a short time before his death. He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Kate McKenzie, of New Westminster. Mrs. McLeod has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the Boundary in her sad bereavement.

The funeral service was held in the B. C. Funeral Co's chapel, Victoria, on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 1. It was conducted by Rev. Dr. W. Leslie Clay, pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev. W. L. Macrae. During the service the hymns "Abide with Me" and "Peace, perfect Peace" were sung. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. T. Tolmie (Deputy Minister of Mines), J. J. Caulfield, H. Bunting, Ex-Mayor Alex Stewart, Munro Miller, and Angus McKeown, the last two being prominent Freemasons, officially representing Greenwood Lodge No. 28, A. F. & A. M. Among those who attended the service were Hon. M. A. McDonald (Attorney-General), Mrs. J. J. Caulfield, Misses Jackson, Messrs. W. G. Gaunce, R. E. Gosnell, E. Jacobs, G. R. Naden, and other old Greenwood residents, Oscar C. Pass, Neil F. Mackay, W. S. Drewry, Stephen Jones, W. H. Bullock-Webster, W. U. Runnals, J. B. McKilligan, W. Wilson and others connected with either the Provincial Government service, the legal profession, or friends in private life. The body was sent to Vancouver for cremation arrangements there having been under the supervision of H. C. Shaw, formerly of Hallett & Shaw, Greenwood.

Typhus and small-pox at Jaurez, Mexico, aided by riots, has broken up the race meeting in the town, and 300 horses have been taken into Texas. Every day about 400 Mexican women cross the bridge between Jaurez and El Paso, and because they would not observe quarantine regulations by taking a bath before entering the United States they started a serious riot. The withdrawal of the U. S. troops from Mexico makes it very dangerous for Americans to stay in that country.

Played Splendid Hockey

Three games of hockey were played at the local rink last Friday evening. Grand Forks and Greenwood teams were the contenders. About 160 of the Forks supporters came over by special train; twenty of these getting on at Eholt. The Girls game was 0-0; Intermediates, 3-2, Greenwood's favor; Juniors, 4-2, Grand Forks' favor.

The opening combat was between the Girls teams. It being Grand Forks' initial appearance on Greenwood ice. The match was fairly even throughout, the puck would go from one end of the rink to the other, and never once got between the goal posts. The home girls put up a much better fight than they did when they were defeated in Grand Forks the previous Friday. One would hardly know it was the same line-up. Each player worked together, kept her position better, and with good checking and combination were able to hold their opponents to a tie. Grand Forks tried hard to score, but with the local girls playing such stellar hockey (much to the Forks' surprise) their efforts were without avail. The game throughout was exciting which kept the onlookers keyed up to the highest pitch. It was also a clean exhibition with very few off sides, and no penalties.

For Grand Forks, Gwennie McIlwaine and Olga Frankovitch were the stars. With good stick handling, combined with speed, kept the home girls busy all the time. Irene Haverty, Emma Needham, and Amy Frankovitch were strong on the forward line, while Marjorie Mann worked hard on defence. Helen DeCew showed up well in goal.

For Greenwood, Edith Willcox was the star. She was always a source of trouble to the Forks team. Jean Crawford, Eileen Oliver and Euphemia McMillan put up better hockey than they have in former games. Ethel Pond and Margaret Boyer were a strong defence, while Marie Anderson excelled in goal.

The Intermediates of the two cities contested the second game, and was very fast. The Forks having improved their line-up since the last game, made the game more even. The Greenwood boys had the advantage until a short time before the bell rung in the third period. They scored three goals, while the visitors were unable to tally, but the last ten minutes the Forks livened up and put in two goals in succession.

The juniors played the final game, which was full of thrills. The locals lost by 4-2. The visitors were a much heavier team and this with speed, stick handling and good shooting won them the game. The Greenwood boys even in defeat put up a good fight.

The line up for the Girls teams is as follows:

Goal umpires—Mr. Nichols, R. W. Halcrow. Time keepers—F. J. Lake, J. L. White.

Referee—Geo. Clerf; Judge of play, Barney Quinn.

Intermediates' line up:

Goal umpires, referee and judge of play same as for girls game; timekeepers, F. Lake, E. F. Hicks.

After the games the teams and their friends went to the Masonic Hall, where they sat down to a tasty supper, after which dancing was indulged in.

Women's Institute

That good work was done by the Boundary Women's Institute, Greenwood, during the past year is indicated by the report which shows that the receipts were $1[illegible]-58 and the expenditure $[illegible], leaving a balance on hand of $76.94. Work done was as follows: 150 surgical shirts, [illegible] night shirts, 80 pairs of operation stockings, 280 pairs of socks, 100 pairs of slippers, 202 personal property bags, 201 hot water bottle covers, 293 wash cloths, 12 [illegible] bandages, 35 well filled comfort bags, sent for Christmas to Canadian wounded soldiers in hospital.
