Around Home

Mrs. Helen Thomas visited Nelson last week.

Brewster and MacDonald will be here next week.

Mrs. Joseph Genelle is visiting friends in Midway.

Grand Forks will enforce the law against auto speeding.

For the present, R. N. Adams has closed his Greenwood store.

Ken Frith was in Spokane last week looking at the dry side of life.

On his last trip Carl Adenaur sold $300 worth of watches in the Slocan.

Church of England service will be held Sunday, August 6, at 11 a. m.

A. L. White is setting a good example by painting several of his houses.

James Drum has gone to New Brunswick to spend a month with his parents.

Sam Dunn is handling a crane at the Trail smelter in his usual efficient manner.

Sutherland Smith is a Sapper with the Canadian Engineers at Valcartier, Quebec.

Frank L. White has charge of the converters at the Trail smelter since March.

BORN.—In Anaconda, on July 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grandberg, twin sons.

Granby officials are unwatering the shaft on the Swede group of mines near Princeton.

Miss E. McLean has been appointed bookkeeper for the local electric light company.

Service in the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, August 6, at 7:30 p. m. All welcome.

After spending a year in Kansas, Mrs. T. M. Gulley returned to Greenwood on Monday.

Emile Clerf has been appointed chief of police, fire driver, etc., at a salary of $90 a month.

On the road between the Forks and Christina lake, Reggie Hull killed a rattlesnake last week.

W. Powers has put in a saw-mill this side of Midway to cut the timber on Joe Caron's ranch.

George Wolverson broke a rib last Thursday, by falling from an ore car at the Mother Lode.

The Mother Lode mine did not work for two days last week, owing to a shortage of coke at the smelter.

Tire vulcanizing promptly attended to. Agent for the Smith Motor Wheel. Midway Garage, Midway, B. C.

In future mails will arrive and depart from Greenwood upon Sundays, in addition to all the other days of the week.

Colonel Robert Stevenson was 78 years old last Friday. He is the most famous surviving pioneer of the early days of Cariboo.

We have reduced our prices in order to clean out a lot of goods, as we expect to sell out soon. Yours for bargains. Hardware White

Frank Buckless is spending a week in Vernon visiting his daughter May, previous to her departure for England with her husband, Dr. Burnett.

On Sunday, Mother Lode defeated Grand Forks at baseball by 15 to 2. "The better the day, the better the deed" does not apply to this kind of ball.

The distance from Greenwood to Vancouver, via the Kettle Valley Hope cutoff is 391 miles. Trains now make the run between these two cities in a little over 20 hours.

Sir Richard McBride owns a lot in Grand Forks, and The Sun of that town remarks, that when he has any spare time, he should fly over from London, and cut the weeds on it.

Sam Mighton is running the finest cigar store in Trail. Years ago Sam made $30,000 in Cranbrook, but lost it in Vancouver. He will make more than that in Trail if he lives long enough.

Two citizens of Boundary Falls phoned the provincial police on Monday evening, that two men had been looking for a cabin in that town. The situation was investigated, but the police could not find anybody in the empty houses at the Falls.

The Grand Forks Sun did not come to the front last week, and it may be silent for a short time. Gus Evans wheeled to Greenwood on Sunday, but did not divulge his plans for the future. Gus is one of the best humorists in the west, although he looks as solemn as a Presbyterian parson at a country funeral.

After spending a few active days in Greenwood, J. Peck Mac-Swain resumed his eastern tour last week. Peck was light of baggage, but had two pair of pants, a Sahara thirst, and an abnormal amount of optimism, when he clambered up the hill to Phoenix. Peck may take to the platform in order to point out the untold suffering, that Prohibition would cause box-car tourists when they are routed through the dry belts.

C. J. Bunbury has enlisted and is a sergeant in the 43rd Battalion at Sydney, B.C. Some years ago he was chief of provincial police at Greenwood, and was fired by the attorney-general for stealing from the government. After his discharge the police commissioners of Greenwood appointed him chief of police for this city. Rather a strange proceeding, but Greenwood has been noted for strange actions, and strangely acting people. Of course Bunbury gave some Greenwood people the worst of it but that did not surprise the wise. Few wolves deny themselves mutton when sheep are plentiful. Dashing Jack, with the long fingers, may yet have a chance to redeem himself, by making Fritz come across.

B. C. Mines

This year 77 mines have shipped ore to Trail.

A St. Louis company will develop claims in Rossland.

J. McNulty is doing some work on his claims near Hedley.

This month the Bluebell at Riodel will again be in full operation.

At Stump Lake the Donohue mines will soon be employing 40 men.

The three big mines in Rossland are shipping daily 1,000 tons of gold-copper ore.

Ore is being packed to Hope, from the Silver Daisy on 23 Mile, for shipment to Trail.

This year 17 mines in the United States have shipped 17,000 tons of ore to the Trail smelter.

At Republic a deal is on with Chicago men for the old Republic mine. At one time it was worked by Patsy Clark.

The Evening Star, Copper King, Pot Hook and other claims near Kamloops have been examined by an expert for the Granby.

In the Slocan the Montezuma will soon become a shipper, and a wagon road is being built from the Jackson to the Bell mine.

F. J. Longworth is taking a vacation, and A. I. Goodall is filling his position at the Greenwood smelter, during his absence.

Near Golden work has started on the Copper Butte. Ernest Kennedy of Seattle has formed a company to work claims adjoining the Butte.

The showing on the Bell, near Beaverdell, is the best ever seen in that camp. Bob Perry has a lease on it, and will ship a carload of high grade next month.

A flotation plant may be put in at Whitewater, to work the immense quantity of zinc tailings, that were thrown out by the Whitewater concentrator.

The Miner says that the B. C. Copper Co. may buy the Cliff group at Rossland, and work it on a large scale. Failing to buy the company may work it under lease.

Said the teacher to the little Hebrew boy: "Ikey, is the world round or flat?"

"It ain't neither vun, teacher," said Ikey.

"But what is it, Ikey," asked the teacher in surprise "if it is neither round nor flat?"

"Vell," said Ikey with conviction, "mine fader he says it vas crooked."—Ladies Home Journal.

LIQUOR ACT, 1916
(Section 49)

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 3rd day of September next, application will be made to the Superintendent of Provincial Police for the transfer of the license for the sale of liquor by retail in and upon the premises known as the Union Hotel, situate on Lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, Block 3, Ennis, British Columbia, from D. Oxley to J. A. McMaster.
Dated this 3rd day of August, 1916.

Attorney.

Western Float

The tax rate in Trail is 25 mills. There are over 8,000 autos in B. C.

The C.P.R. is increasing its staff at Golden.

Trail has two new moving picture shows.

Nelson is crowded with tourists this summer.

Miss Hazel Fleener will sing in Kaslo on Friday.

There will be a record fruit crop in B. C. this year.

There may be a wood famine in Kaslo next winter.

Harvey and Bailey will build a brick block in Ashcroft.

Chilliack refused to reduce the fee for liquor licenses.

The C.P.R. payroll in Nelson is about $70,000 a month.

A new non-alcoholic hotel is being built at Brookmere.

There are 23 polling places in the new Trail riding, and 1,991 voters.

At Duncan $200 were raised for the hospital in one day by the sale of roses.

New Denver and Kaslo are becoming famed for cherries, as well as scenery.

The C.P.R. and Great Northern are figuring upon building branches into Chesaw.

The Great Northern is again running Sunday trains, to and from Rossland.

Last year 50 carloads of apricots were shipped from B. C. to Ontario for canning.

Loganberries grow in B. C. They are a hybrid, between a raspberry and a blackberry.

A firm of Chicago lawyers are seeking for the heirs of the Kerr estate, near Milton, Ontario.

At Coquihalla Summit 300 men will be employed for several months building snowsheds for the K. V. railway.

After being absent for 16 years, Frank Watson has returned to Rossland, to operate some old mining properties.

V. Qnaldvlieg of Keremeos, lost his barn and 36 tons of hay, by a fire, caused by the exploding of a gasoline engine.

Selkirk tunnel, is the name of the five mile C.P.R. tunnel at Rogers Pass. It takes 25 minutes to pass through it.

The Donks are buying automobiles. Before long they will be running newspapers, and trying to break into the Legislature.

The U. S. government has laid out three townsites on the Colville Indian reservation. They are at Astor, Omak, and Nespelem.

Joe McDonald, the old-time saloon man, was in Oroville last week, upon business in connection with opening the 49th Parallel mine.

Last year 3,000 carloads of fruit and vegetables, valued at $1,600,000, were shipped from the Okanogan. The value of minerals shipped from Greenwood yearly is worth more than the entire Okanogan exportation.

Andy McDermott got in lucky at Trail, and his fine hotel the Crown Point, is doing a large and constantly increasing business.

The distance from Nelson to Vancouver, via Kettle Valley short line is 511 miles. The average running time is 19 miles an hour.

Eight war prisoners escaped from the internment camp at Edgewater last week; by the tunnel route.

James Whitcomb Riley died in Indianapolis a few days ago. His poetry will live a long time, although millions of people never heard of him.

At the end of June the city of Kaslo was shy $4,000 at the bank. No wonder the police magistrate resigned, and Billy Hodder cannot sleep at night.

John Hendry died in Vancouver last month. Years ago he was one of the promoters of the first railway at Kaslo, the famous narrow gauge to Sandon.

The trees in front of Jim Williamson's hotel at Trail gives a welcome touch of nature to city life. Like an oasis they guide the thirsty from afar to a place that is always wet.

Paddy the Priest, has been circulating hash, on the Steamer Nasookin for some time past. Paddy is one of the most talented waiters in the golden west, and if he camps with the job he will no doubt soon be captain of all the waiters, and be wearing silk stockings, and drinking his Burgundy through a gold-banded quill. You cannot keep the Irish down, unless you pile rocks on them.

Bridesville Hold-up

As Billy Johns was closing the bar of his hotel at Bridesville last Saturday evening, a hold-up man, with a bandana over his face, and a gun in his hand held him up and made Billy dig up $70. He then held up some men who were in the hotel, getting from 10 cents upwards from each of them, and a gun from Tom Donald. After he had frisked the bunch he sent them upstairs, while he remained in the lower part. In about an hour H. T. Letts and another man came along. He ordered them upstairs without searching them. When Letts got up stairs he gave Mrs. Johns $200, which she hid in a cold stove. Later the holdup man made Letts go downstairs where he searched him, finding $2.70 on the big genial mail carrier. The holdup man held the fort for several hours, and then departed with about $85 in money, and 16 bottles of booze in two sacks. After leaving the hotel he fired a few shots, and rode off in the direction of Moleen. Along about three a. m. the occupants of the hotel lost their fear, and phoned to the police at Greenwood. The police are now hot on the trail, and the handit should be in the net in a few days.

If coke continues to be so hard to get it will drive smelters to the use of electricity, which will make them independent of warring miners and mine operators.

Any man who is a compound of the fool and knave, soon becomes a nuisance to any community. They are small but annoying, just like the black fly or the impertinent mosquito.

In this province the Anti-Prohibition party is placing its case before the people by advertising extensively in the press, and paying liberal rates for the space. If the Drys wish to keep even with the Wets they should advertise just as much as their opponents. Nearly all editors have a kind regard for the dollar, and they work better when their is something in it. Fame is grand, but it takes the long green to buy spuds and cabbage.

B. C. Mines

The Lucille Dreyfus near Danville, has been bonded to Arthur Dupuy for about $50,000. Colonel Bidpath had this claim patented in 1910, and since then it has been idle.

When Billy Pool receives the $60,000 that is coming to him, he will begin work on the Reno, and says that the Reno may yet become the greatest gold mine in the world.

D. C. Corbin and E. J. Roberts were in town last week. As a result of their visit, E. H. Kelly came in this week to re-open the King Solomon and Queen of Sheba. These properties adjoin the Big Copper, and have not been worked for a dozen years. This is another sign of the mining revival, and Greenwood may yet become a second Batte.

The Ramshorn and Cariboo copper properties near Chesaw, have been bonded to the B. C. Copper Co. The bond runs for 24 months, and the first payment falls due in November. Harry L. Morgan, Roxy Lind and Ewing Keightley are interested in the ownership of these claims. These claims are four miles from the G. N. railway, and a tram will probably be built. The properties will be extensively developed at once. Pat Crane will oversee the work, and appoint a local superintendent.

Blue Sunday

Virginia began on Sunday to enforce, with apparent success, laws of an older time little adapted to modern conditions. It may be that the people of the State are ready for such a return to the principle of interference with reasonable individual liberty. It is their privilege to carry "Sabbath observance" to a point at which it checks familiar and innocent human activities. Yet, unless all experience is believed, the gain to "true religion and virtue" will not be appreciable. You cannot compel men to "worship by forbidding them to do anything else. There of course, proper distinctions to be made between Sunday and the other days of the week, but in a few communities are the extremes of Puritanism justified by public sentiment. On the contrary, attempts to restrain acts harmless in themselves because a comparatively small portion of the population objects to them are almost certain to create a reaction.—Rossland Mider.

Labor Has Condemned The Prohibition Act

Trades And Labor Councils of Coast Cities Pass Strong Resolutions—Reasons Why Workingmen Should Vote Against The Bill.

Organized labor has declared its position with reference to the B.C. Prohibition Act with no uncertain sound, the result of close investigation of and keen discussion of the Bill having resulted in the straight declaration by the Coast labor bodies that the Act should be condemned and that the workingmen of British Columbia should do all in their power to defeat the measure at the polls.

The Vancouver Trades and Labor Council, the most representative central labor organization in British Columbia, at its meeting on July 20th, passed a strong resolution against the Act, the closing paragraph reading as follows: "Resolved that the Trades and Labor Council in Vancouver, B.C., in harmony with representative bodies of organized labor elsewhere places itself on records opposed to the British Columbia Prohibition Act and to the principles involved therein."

In adopting the above resolution the Vancouver Trades and Labor Council which on June 14th passed the following resolution: "Resolved that this Council go on record as opposed to prohibition as contained in the proposed Bill, from an economic and social standpoint and report this decision to the various unions with the request that they help defeat the Bill."

The resolutions above noted are in line with the action of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council and the Prince Rupert Labor Council.

Workmen Have A "Kick" Coming

The discussion in connection with the passage of these resolutions showed plainly that workingmen believe they have a just "kick" in connection with the Prohibition Act. It was stated that the measure was class legislation of the rankest type inasmuch as it allows the man of means to secure all the liquor he desires by importing it from outside points, but at the same time places a handicap on the workingman who can only afford to buy his beer by the glass. This argument is directly along the line of the remarks by Mr. Parker Williams, member for Newcastle, on Discussion of the Bill in the House, when he openly declared the Act to be class legislation and stated that while he "would vote for Prohibition that would prohibit he would never have anything to do with such lopsided, jug-handled legislation such as the present Bill."

The Act is also objectionable to trades unions inasmuch as many of its clauses were declared to be un-British and unfair. It was pointed out that clause 29 provided that any person could tell a constable that he suspected a man had liquor illegally in his possession. On this information, and without disclosing the name of the informer, the constable could enter a man's house, break into all the rooms, closets, etc., without a warrant. Such provisions were severely criticised by members of the labor councils as absolutely opposed to the British idea that "A man's house is his castle."

In taking the action they did, the councils were also moved by the feeling that they should support the large body of workingmen who are today either directly or indirectly engaged in connection with the operation of licensed premises. It was stated that 3,700 men are now thus employed and that 6,000 persons are dependent upon them for a living. This does not include over 1200 employees of licensed premises who are now at the front. As the Prohibition Act would mean that these men would be thrown out of work, the councils considered that legislation leading to such action, especially at this time should be vigorously opposed.

Many delegates who took part in the council discussions said that they were Prohibitionists. They stated, however, that they were opposed to the Act because it was not a Prohibition Act in any real sense of the term, provisions being made in it for the purchase of liquor by importation or otherwise just as freely as is now the case. They plainly stated that they did not consider a vote against the Prohibition Act a vote against the principle of Prohibition, as to their minds, the passage of such an Act as was proposed would not in any way lessen the purchase or consumption of liquor. As a matter of fact, although it might tend to decrease the consumption of health giving beer (the workingmen's usual beverage), it would actually increase the consumption of whisky and spirits, a condition which was not for the best interests of the workingman or the province.

Copies of Prohibition Act Free

In order that the electors of British Columbia may become thoroughly acquainted with the provisions of the B.C. Prohibition Act, on which a referendum vote will be taken in connection with the provincial elections on September 14, the Merchants' Protective Association have prepared a pamphlet, giving the full text of the Bill. Copies of this booklet may be obtained, free of charge, by addressing the Secretary of the organization at room 24, Canada Life Building, Vancouver.—Adv't.

TAKE NOTICE that I, Robert Forshaw, Free Miner's Certificate No. 6979 B, intend, 60 days from date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for a Certificate of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining a Crown Grant of the above claim.

And further take notice that action, under Section 85, must be commenced before the issuance of such Certificate of Improvements. Dated this 26th day of June, A. D. 1916. ROBERT FORSHAW.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations.

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and in a portion of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.
