LILLIE BROS.

GEN MERRITT IN LONDON

He Contradicts Agoncillo's Statements.

NO AGREEMENT MADE

With Dewey That the Fillippinos Should Have Absolute Freedom in Return For Their Assistance

London, Oct. 19.—Major General Wesley Merritt who has arrived here from Paris, where he has been giving the United States peace commissioners the benefit of his observations as commander of the American forces at Manila, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press discredits the statement attributed to Agoncillo, the agent of Aguinaldo, in an interview with a Globe correspondent at Hong Kong, previous to Agoncillo's departure for SanFrancisco, Washington and Paris. Aguinaldo's agent is quoted as declaring that the insurgents had a formal agreement with Rear Admiral Dewey, whereby absolute freedom was promised them in return for their assistance. General Merritt said that from conversations which he had with Admiral Dewey, he was satisfied that no arrangement had been entered into with the Philippine leaders. The general added:

"That if the Filippinos were allowed independence now, it would result in fighting between the leaders, which would be more disastrous than any revolution which has hitherto broken out. Aguinaldo's following is slim and if there was an election today I do not believe he would be president."

The thread of General Merritt's view or advice furnished to the United States peace commission at Paris may be gathered from the following statements which he made today. "While some of the Filippinos are able, I am not acquainted with any one of them, who is capable of governing. I do not believe the insurgents will resist the Americans but there is one certainty, they will never submit to being ruled by the Spaniards. If America takes possession of the Philippine islands it will result in a new era in the Philippines and in our own country. The islands are of immense strategic value, navally and commercially, and they could be easily defended. My study of the British colonies has greatly interested me. They ought to prove a valuable subject lesson to the United States. The British system is as perfect as any devisable.

THE PORTO RICO STATION.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Admiral Schley, was today by orders from the navy department, placed in command of the naval station at San Juan de Porto Rico. It is the intention of the department to send another officer to relieve the admiral of the command very soon and to maintain a permanent station in this most important point.

BOUND FOR MANILA.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—The transport Valenca has loaded her heavy freight and with Colonel Fife's battalion of Washington troops and the California artillery on board, will, it is expected, get off some time this afternoon.

A DECISIVE MESSAGE.

Havana, Oct. 19.—A conference lasting three hours was held this morning between General Wade, General Butler and Admiral Sampson, on the contents of five official notes delivered to the American commissioners by the Spanish evacuation commission. The Spanish claim it would be practically impossible to evacuate in the short period of time fixed by the Americans. They disclaim all authority to treat of any political subjects outside the strict limits of the military evacuation. They insist that the sovereignty of Spain must continue until the final treaty of peace is signed at Paris. In reply Admiral Sampson personally dictated a brief note stating emphatically that December 1 would be the positive date in which Spain's rights, claims and sovereignty in the island of Cuba would cease to exist.

HAROLD FREDERIC DEAD.

A Brief Sketch of the Late Correspondent of the N. Y. Times.

London, Oct. 19.—Harold Frederic, the well known writer and London correspondent of the New York Times, died this morning at Henley, of heart disease. He had been ill for some time but recently was much improved in health. Mr. Frederic showed symptoms of heart failure early yesterday morning.

Harold Frederic was born at Utica, N. Y., on the 19th of August, 1856. He was the son of Henry Demotte Frederic and came of Dutch, French and New England ancestry. He was educated in the public school of Utica until he had reached the age of 13. He began work as a draughtsman, became a reporter in Utica in 1876, and editor of the Utica Observer in 1880 and editor of the Albany Evening Journal in 1882. In 1884 he went to Europe for the New York Times and did correspondence work for that paper until his death.

CAPITALISTS HERE.

A Party From Toronto Arrives in the City Yesterday Evening Over the Crow's Nest Pass Line

A party of Toronto capitalists consiting of Mr. Robert Jaffray, Senator E. W. Cox and Messrs W. G. Jaffray and Aaron Cox arrived in the city yesterday evening by the steamer Nelson and are registered at the Hume.

To a Miner reporter Mr. Jaffray, who is a director of the Crow's Nest Pass coal company, stated that the party had a very pleasant trip over the Crow's Nest Pass railway, the journey from Cranbrook to Goat river landing being made on a construction train. A regular passenger service extends from Lethbridge to Cranbrook. At the coal mines 50 coking ovens are nearly completed and 50 more will be built shortly. The company expects to be in a position to ship coke into the Kootenay as soon as the railway is in a position to handle it, probably about November 15. The output of the mines at the present time is between 120 and 150 tons per day, but the force of men will in a short time be increased by the addition of 200 skilled miners from Cape Breton. Mr. Jaffray expressed his confidence that the coal will greatly exceed the expectations of the company both as to quality and quantity. This is his third visit to British Columbia and on every hand he sees great advancement since his visit in April last. This was particularly noticeable in Nelson in the general appearance of which he sees a marked change for the better.

Manitoba and the North West territories are also enjoying a year of great prosperity. The party will spend today in the city.

UNDER SECRETARY FOR WAR.

London, Oct. 19.—Mr. George Wyndham, conservative member of parliament for Dover, has been appointed under secretary for war in succession to the right honorable, William St. John Broderick, recently appointed under secretary of state for foreign affairs, in succession to Lord Curzon, of Kedleston, the new viceroy of India.

Mr. Wyndham, who is in his 36th year, is now reckoned to be one of the rising young men of the conservative party. From 1887 to 1892 he was private secretary to Mr. A. L. Balfour and has been known as that gentleman's alter ego.

SEWER GAS AND DIPTHERIA.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 19.—Within two weeks 25 children, pupils in the public school of 28, have died of what was believed to be diptheria. Investigation shows that a sewer pipe leading into the building had been tapped.

The sewer gas which accumulated at night was fanned into the class rooms through the cold air pipes during the day.

A BATTLE AT MANILA.

Dewey Said to Have Fought With the Rebels.

LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES

An Unconfirmed Report Comes by Way of Madrid of Trouble With the Natives at Manila.

London Oct. 20.—Madrid correspondent of the Times says: "Captain Aunon, minister of marine, has received a despatch from Manila announcing a naval engagement between the Americans and the rebels in consequence of Admiral Dewey forbidding the latter to fly the rebel flag from their ships. The despatch adds that there were losses on both sides, but that the Americans captured the rebels' ships."

The scene of the engagement is not stated, but it is supposed to have been Manila bay.

THE NEW PREMIER'S POLICY.

The Cape Government Will Recognize the South African Republics.

London, Oct. 19.—A despatch to the Times from Capetown says that Mr. W. P. Schreiner, the new premier, and leader of the Afrikanderbund, made a statement of the policy of the new colonial government in the Cape assembly yesterday. The government, he said, would recognize the independence of the South African republics and work harmoniously with them, leaving external relationship with them to be dealt with by the British high commissioner, whom the government would support in the development of South Africa. The government would also carry forward a bill for a new customs convention with the South African republics and introduce a proposal for a contribution on the part of the colony in support of the British navy.

THE RIOTS AT VIRDEN.

Springfield, Illinois, Oct. 19.—The grand jury in Carlingville, Ill., today commenced an investigation of the Virden riot, with a view to indicting the guilty parties. Fifteen prominent citizens of Virden were summoned as witnesses.

IN MEMORY OF BISMARCK.

New York, Oct. 19.—Memorial exercises in honor of the late Prince Bismarck were held last night in the Metropolitan Opera house under the auspices of the United German societies.

WILHELMINA TO WED.

The Youth Who Will Win the Queen is Prince William of Wied and it is a Love Match

New York, Oct. 19.—A despatch to the World from Paris says:

It is reported directly from high court circles that the engagement of the young Queen Wilhelmina to Prince William of Wied is a settled fact. Young women all over the world will be glad to learn that this is a love match. Prince William is 22 years of age, four years older than his royal fiancee. He is Queen Wilhelmina's second cousin and his mother was Princess Marie of the Netherlands who married the reigning Prince of Wied in 1871. Prince William's father was conspicuous at all the brilliant and joyous ceremonies attending Queen Wilhelmina's coronation early last month. The young queen and her mother will go to Stuttgart next week to be present at the marriage of the Princess Pauline of Whurtemburg and Prince Freiderick, of Weid, Prince William's elder brother. This wedding takes place on October 26, and it is probable that the announcement of Queen's own engagement will be made then.

THE PEACE COMMISSION.

Paris, Oct. 19.—The Spanish peace commissioners were unable to meet the United States peace commision at a joint session, arranged for today and the next meeting of the two commissions has been fixed for Friday next. Judge Day, president of the American commission received a communication this morning from St. Norrios, president of the Spanish commission, saying that advices expected but not received from Madrid, made it necessary for himself and colleagues to request a postponement of any further conferences until Friday next A courteous reply was returned by Secretary Moore on behalf of the American commissioners, granting an extension of the time for the next meeting as requested. While the deferring of the conference for two days in not in itself an important request, the delay by the Spaniards at this juncture, is something more than significant.

The game of diplomacy now progressing here has reached a stage which makes it interesting to watch the next move to be made by the Spanish commissioners. They are confronted by the plain fact of their protocol agreement to relinquish and evacuate without "ifs" or "buts." It has become clear here that the Spaniards cherished the hope that they would unconditionally covenant to follow a given path and ultimately wander elsewhere and do less or more than is named in the protocol compact. The American commissioners however, have firmly adhered to the boundary lines already mutualy established and within which they insist the Spaniards as well as themselves, shall duly proceed.

A STORM-SWEPT COAST.

Reports of Havoc on the Shores of Newfoundland and Labrador.

St. Johns, Nfld., Oct. 19.—The entire coast line of the island has been swept by the recent storm and it is feared there has been great devastation in the northern sections and along the Labrador coast. It is already known that two men were drowned at Rose Blanche, 225 miles west of St. Johns, and it is feared many others have shared the same fate, because a number of vessels were driven seaward near that point. Owing to the fact that most of the smaller harbors have no telegraph lines it is impossible to obtain details, but serious damage to shipping is inevitable.

The steamer Merrimac, from Montreal, for Liverpool, is now passing Race. She reports a stormy and boisterous passage across the gulf of St. Lawrence and through Cabot strait.

IS ROCHEFORT MAD?

Extraordinary Utterance of the Parisian Journalist in His Paper Anent the Dreyfus Case.

New York, Oct. 19.—A despatch to the World from Paris says:

Henri Rochefort is believed to have gone crazy over the Dreyfus agitation. The reported decision of the court of cassation that Madame Dreyfus' lawyer shall see the Dreyfus dossier has caused Rochefort to demand in his paper, L'Intranigeante, that the members of the court of cassation having been previously drawn up in single file an executioner duly trained to the work should cut off their eyelids so as to leave the eyeballs denuded and then spiders of the most venomous kind should be enclosed in nutshells and applied to the eyeballs, properly fastened behind the culprits' heads.

The spiders in a famished condition would slowly and gradually feed on the culprit's eyeballs until nothing but ghastly cavities remained. This done, these hideous blind men should be chained to a pillar erected before the palace of justice, and on their chests a placard affixed bearing the words, "Thus does France punish traitors who attempt to sell her to the enemy."

A BISHOP FOR BRAZIL.

The Protestant Church is to Found a Bishopric There.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The house of bishops of the Episcopal convention took final action today on the establishment of a bishop in Brazil. There has been a division of sentimnt as to whether this bishop should be directly responsible to the church in the United States or should be free from responsibility here. A compromise was finally adopteed by which the church in Brazil will remain directly responsible to the authorities here until it has advanced to the point of having three bishops, at which time, by the joint action of these three, a national church for Brazil, independent of the supervision of the United States, may be established. The bishop will hold a special communicon service at St. John's church tomorrow morning, after which they will proceed to elect four missionary bishops, namely those for Brazil, North Dakota, Sacramento and Boise.

SNOW STORM IN DAKOTA.

Huron, S. D., Oct. 19.—The snow storm which has raged the past 24 hours covers most of the state east of the Missouri river and seems now to have extended to the Black Hills region. From three to five inches is reported in the eastern and southern portions of the state and these figures are exceeded by two or four inches in the central southern districts. The telegraph wires are down or working badly and communication is difficult.

LAURIER AT KINGSTON.

Important Utterances by the Premier.

A PATRIOTIC ADDRESS

There Will be no Sacrifice of Canada's Dignity to Secure a Treaty With the U. S.

Kingston, Ont. Oct. 19.—In the course of a speech last night in reply to the civic address, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: "You speak in this address of another subject, the great international conference which has been sitting in the city of Quebec to settle differences of opinion between us and our neighbors to the south. Sir, I can say, I can claim only one thing in regard to that.

I claim no merit or credit in regard to the commission, save this, that I have done my best to bring about such a conference and to give us an opportunity of settling our differences. I claim someth ing more, I claim that at this time we are presenting a spectacle to the world at large that is teaching how a simple colony can become a nation not by revolution, but by evolution. (Cheers). We exercise today a power of sovereignty. We are negotiating, or trying at all events, to negotiate, a treaty with our neighbors. This we do with the sanction of the mother land. We give the further lesson to the world that it is possible to be an independent nation while maintaining our colonial ties. (Cheers.) This is an example which was never given in any part of the world or in any age. You would search in vain the annals of all humanity and you would not find such an example. As to the result of this conference, I will not venture to predict. I have hopes, but I have no certainty. I have hopes we will be able to meet our neighbors to give and to take and be able thereby to settle our differences and improve our relations. You say very truly in this address of yours that we want to be on terms of friendship with our neighbors, and we should. make no disguise of it. For my part I have abundant and deep sympathy in my heart for the American republic. (Applause.) I love England well, I love Canada best of all. (Cheers.) But Sir, while I hope that we shall be able to obtain an honorable treaty. I say I am not disposed to obtain anything from our neighbors except by an honorable concession which will stop short of our national dignity. (Cheers.) We will do the best that is possible to settle our differences and to have immediate peace between us, but we shall not either now, or at any time, purchase that great boon by the sacrifice of our manhood or the loss of our national dignity. (Cheers.) Let me hope, however, that wise counsels will prevail on either side and that we shall do something to bring together the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon race. If we fail, we shall not be discouraged, bnt we shall meet the situation like men. And let me tell you we shall thrive and we shall be a nation yet. The fate of this vast country is not dependent upon the result of the negotiations which have taken place at Quebec and which are to be continued at Washington. They may help. I hope they will, but if they fail, we shall continue to be a nation as we are at the present time. (Cheers.)

A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Vancouver, Oct. 19.—The body of A. L. Poudier has been found in the woods of Queen Charlotte Sound with a revolver clutched in his right hand, evidently a case of suicide. Mr. Poudier was from Victoria, and very widely known on the Pacific coast. He had a syndicate of papers he wrote for on mining matters and was credited with being an expert mining man. His last work was writing up the Ashcroft trail for the Spokane Spokesman-Review, as the best route by which to reach the Klondike. It is believed here that being naturally melancholy when not actively employed the depressing influence and awful loneliness of the woods of Queen Charlotte drove him temporarily insane.

GOOD LUCK TO IT.

Queenstown, Oct. 19.—The White Star steamer Majestic arrived off here at 3 o'clock this morning from New York. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, British secretary of state for the colonies, who presided at a concert given during the voyage, made a brief speech in which he wished good luck to the Anglo-American alliance.

SIR WILFRID'S PATRIOTISM.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at Kingston had the true ring about it and he enunciated sentiments which must find an echo in the heart of every patriotic Canadian. Trenching as he did upon diplomatic questions, the premier could not be explicit in his references to the progress made by the Quebec conference, but he said enough to assure the people that Canada's interests would be fully protected. He voiced the national feeling when he said that there was a deep desire in this country to establish the most harmonious relations possible with the people of the United States. Canada would probably go to great lengths to bring this about on the principle of give and take, as the first minister points out, but any concession having a semblance of deference to the Americans would not and could not meet with public approval. In this spirit, so strong in Canadians, is seen the effect of the repressive measures which the United States resorted to from time to time to force conviction on Canadians that they were a dependent people whose only salvation was annexation to the republic. The many rebuffs Canadians have suffered at the hands of Americans and patiently endured, imparted self-reliance to them and all attempts to weaken their allegiance to their sovereign but served to intensify their loyalty to her and to the mother land. Today, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier shows, and with pride that appeals appropriately to every citizen, Canada is a nation within a nation and dealing independently with the people who have always held up Canada's colonial relation as evidence of her weakness, a defect of which she should rid herself.

It must be intensely gratifying to the people to have a liberal leader speak as Sir Wilfrid Laurier has spoken. There can be no doubt of the sterling worth of the devotion to country to which he gives expression. Through him and by him Canada has been elevated to the foremost place among the colonies of the empire and through him and by him we hope to see her raised to a station among the peoples of the earth second only to the proud position occupied by the old land to which we owe fealty, to which they that never saw it look endearingly as "home."

PROHIBITION IS DEAD.

The returns of the voting on the prohibition question relieve the Laurier government of a great responsibility and shelve the question for many years to come. Had not Quebec rendered so decisive a verdict against the proposition, almost wiping out the favorable majorities in the other provinces, there would have been a demand for legislation which would have proved awkward for Sir Wilfrid and his advisers. They know and every intelligent man knows that prohibition would be impracticable and would create evils just as great as now exist under legalized traffic in liquor. Our temperance friends seem to argue on the assumption that total abstinence from liquor is the basis of morality and that if liquor were abolished this would be a happy and peaceful world. If all men voluntarily agreed to refrain from the use of liquor and to prohibit its manufacture and sale this pleasant state of affairs might result, but when compulsion is brought into play opposition is immediately aroused, and where there is opposition there cannot be harmony.

If the laws at present on the statute book regulating the liquor traffic were strictly enforced there would be an improvement, but what is needed is some way of putting an end to the custom of treating which is an absurd custom, and one to which is largely attributable the excesses that are so disastrous to men. There should be a law upon the statute book making it a misdemeanor for one man to buy liquor for another in a barroom and the seller should be equally responsible with the consumer. Abolish the treating custom and while there may not be less liquor sold, there will not be so much drunkenness as is met with now.

BACK INTO LINE.

Speaking at Tilsonburg recently, Mr. John Charlton, M. P., said that if Canada could secure trade relations with the United States that would be advantageous and honorable to this country we would gladly secure them, but if not, no interest of Canada would be allowed to suffer. Those acquainted with the efforts of Mr. Charlton in behalf of our friends the Americans in the past will be glad to hear that he has come to his senses in so patriotic a way. Mr. Charlton was at one time so intensely American that he was looked upon as an annexationist. The way in which he opposed an export duty upon saw logs, and how he lobbied at Washington to secure legislation not favorable to the lumbering industry in Canada were inexplicable until it became known that the member for Norfolk had saw mills in Michigan and New York which he supplied with Canadian logs. Mr. Charlton is a temperance advocate, a Sunday observance man and author of an act regarding seduction, and he regards the world as having been made especially for him to get all he can out of it. Accordingly, to aid John Charlton's business he was prepared to deliver his countrymen to the Americans. He was a prominent member of the annexation coterie that Sir Oliver Mowat dealt with so forcibly and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier brought into line for British connection, and when we find John Charlton speaking for Canada and not for the United States we may take it for granted that annexation no longer pays.

GENERAL NEWS.

Items of Interest Gathered From All Parts of the Country.

A Winnipeg despatch says that no fewer than twelve Pinkerton detectives are working on the Molsons Bank robbery and that every person connected with the institution is being shadowed.

Ottawa's population has increased 1659 during the past year making a total population of 55,386.

The contract for the statue of Hon. Alex. Mackenzie to be erected in Ottawa has been awarded to J. M. McCarthy of Toronto and for the pedestal to P. Herbert of Montreal.

R. Beaulieu, formerly a discount clerk in the Bank Nationale, pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzling about $4200.

At a largely attended meeting of the Winnipeg liberal association E. D. Martin, brother of Attorney-General Martin of British Columbia, was elected president for the year; J. M. Chisholm, H. C. Stovel and T. G. Mathers vice-presidents; D. W. McKercher, secretary, and H. Cameron, treasurer.

WAS HE AN ANARCHIST?

James Young Babcock is the name of the unknown who was killed near North Bend recently. The official report of the accident said a tramp has been killed and his only property was an old valise. Now it transpires that a new valise was contained in the old one and on the new valise was the name of James Young Babcock, while inside was a new suit of clothes and travelling toilet, a picture of two pretty girls of 14 and 16 years old, and a leather note book containing an account of Geo. Badborough, Z. A. Harmon and Geo. Barnard, all styled American anarchists. All the names were underlined. It is thought the dead man was connected with a large society of anarchists and socialists. Deceased's hands indicated that he never had done manual labor for a living.

AN HEROIC SACRIFICE.

A despatch from Edinburgh brings the news of a wonderful piece of heroism on the part of a workman to save a passenger train on the Wick & Inverness line on Tuesday afternon. A road gang was repairing a part of a railway near Althabrac, when the train was heard approaching. A huge tool box lay across the track and the gang of eight men struggled to remove it. As the train drew near all but one of them ceased their efforts and fled panic-stricken. The hero, John Morrison, a giant in strength, remained, laboring with superhuman efforts and finally shoved the box from the track. Before he could straighten up the locomotive struck him and he was ground to pieces. The embankment at this point is very steep and had the train struck the box death would have resulted to scores of passengers.

Next week you will find us in our new quarters, just one door east of the old premises, where we will be in a better position than ever to cater to and supply the wants of our many customers, both in the line of close prices and prompt attention.

WE FEEL

We have been neglecting some of our customers during the past week, having had two carloads of goods lying at the station awaiting the completion of our new premises before unloading, thereby causing a little delay on the part of filling orders. However, we are pleased to say that the goods are all in our warehouse now and next week we will have them on our shelves, disposable at the same low prices as have always prevailed here and brought our name so prominently before the careful buyer.

To the Private Families

We would say that our stock will be the finest and most complete in B. C. in the line of Fancy Groceries, Biscuits, Bottled and Canned Goods.

To Close Buying Mining Camps

We would say that our stock is larger than ever in our line. See our warerooms. A glance over this department will convince you that we are your money saver. Our prices are so that we defy competition where full weight and honest measure is considered. Call and get acquainted with us anyhow.

CITY'S NEW CEMETERY

The Council Discusses the Matter at Length.

PRICE OF LOTS FIXED

The Bodies Will Moved to the New Cemetery by Contract—Conditions of the Cemetery.

At the special meeting of the city council held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the cemetery question there were present the Mayor, Aldermen Whalley, Hillyer. Madden and Malone. A deputation from the I. O. O. F. was also present with the object of securing two acres of ground for the society in the new burial ground.

There was a good deal of discussion as to the price per acre to be asked of the churches and the different societies. Ald. Hillyer was of the opinion that $200 would be a fair price, but on the expense hitherto incurred by the city being figured out, it was considered that the figure was too high. Eventually on motion of Alderman Whalley and Hillyer it was decided to charge all churches and societies $150 per acre. This was accepted by the Odd Fellows' deputation.

It was decided to have the bodies moved from the old cemetery to the new by contract, and the conditions were agreed upon by the council. It was agreed that all contractors must provide a covered zinc lined wagon box for the removal of the bodies, or else zinc lined boxes of sufficient size to contain the coffins. Lime must be put in the coffin and the old graves under the supervision of an inspector to be appointed by the city. The city will provide the disinfectants, and a marked check for $250 must accompany each tender.

It was further decided that all bodies for which the city bears the removal expenses, will be buried in the common burial ground, but that all stakes or other marks of indentification will be transplanted.

Those removing bodies must go by the Water street route, and all conditions imposed on contractors will apply to private parties removing the bodies of their friends.

It was decided to charge $2 for a single grave and $4 for a plot and also that all persons desiring to bury any one in the city cemetery will be charged $1 for a burial permit. It was further agreed to appoint a grave digger and caretaker who should look after such portions of the cemetery as are not disposed of, and also dig the pauper graves. The grave digger will be entitled to charge $5 for digging other graves.

After instructing the city engineer to get out specifications for a fence to surround the cemetery the council adjourned until next Monday at the usual hour.

FROM BOUNDARY.

Frank Oliver, M. P., of Edmonton, Alberta, accompanied by Mrs. Oliver. arrived last night from the coast. They came in via Okanagan, the Boundary country, Bossburg and Rossland. The stage trip occupied five days.; Mr. Oliver was greatly impressed with the possibilities of the Boundary country, and expressed his astonishment at the development of those parts of the Kootenay he had seen. He and Mrs. Oliver expect to reach home via the Crow's Nest Pass railway.

DIED IN A CHAIR.

An Italian Laborer Expires at the Kootenay Hotel.

An Italian named Vincenzo was found dead in a chair in the Kootenay hotel yesterday morning. The deceased came here from Brooklyn on Monday night and went to the Kootenay hotel stating that he was sick and without money. He was allowed to sleep in a chair on Monday and Tuesday nights, but when the porter went to waken him yesterday morning he found that he had died during the night. The police were notified of the occurrence and Patrolman Thompson searched the body and found $85, tied up in a handkerchief which was wound around the dead man's leg, below the knee. An inquest will be held on the remains tomorrow afternoon by Dr. Arthur.

The shipments for the week ending October 8 are: War Eagle, 750; Iron Mask, 70; Le Roi, 3.289. Total, 4,109.

CITY AND VICINITY

Condensed News of the Happenings of the Week In and Around Our Busy City and Kootenay.

The Nelson fire brigade had their regular weekly practice run last night.

The Victoria Hockey club at Rossland has been re-organized for the season.

New post offices have been opened at Kuskonook, Phoenix and Okanagan landing.

Work on the new church of St. Saviour has been resumed and the building will be rushed to completion.

The Montana Livery stable at Ymir, conducted by C. Wild, better known as Montana Charlie, has been closed up.

Another football practice was held yesterday in view of the approaching match against Rossland, to be played here next Saturday.

The Rossland rugby football club will play a match with the Nelson team on Saturday afternoon next on the recreation grounds here.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Lely appear this evening at the Presbyterian church. They will give selections of English and Scottish songs.

Seats for the Durward Lely concert in the Presbyterian church tonight are selling rapidly and the prospects are that the house will be crowded.

There are now 12 men working on the wagon road from Ymir to the head waters of Wild Horse creek. The local business men are financing the work.

J. Barnes appeared before Police Magistrate Crease yesterday on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on the streets. He was dismissed with a caution.

The first number of the Fernie Free Press, a new journal to be published at the coal metropolis by G. G. and M. E. Henderson, will appear next week.

Rev. James Lawrence of Stoney Mountain, Man., father of James Lawrence, hardware merchant, Nelson, has been elected moderator of the Winnipeg Presbytery.

The "final notice" to delinquents sent out by Water Commissioner Ward has had the effect of causing a large number of ratepayers to visit the city hall to pay up their arrears.

The last clean up at the Fern mine concentrator on Oct 5 amounted to about $10,000. The 33 days' run and bullion amounted to $6,650 and a car of ore shipped and concentrates are estimated at over $8,000.

The Anderson Bros., of Ymir have returned from a prospecting trip up Wild Horse creek. They succeeded in bagging an old bull cariboo and a two year old, the former after being dressed tipped the scales at 500 pounds.

Jacob Dover has purchased the Methodist parsonage on Silica street and will make extensive improvements on the premises. The managers of the Methodist church intend erecting a new parsonage at the rear of the church.

The steamer Nelson was considerably behind schedule time yesterday evening, thus missing connection with the 6:40 C. P. R. train. The reason for the delay was the exceptional amount of freight she was called upon to handle.

Today the ratepayers of Sandon will vote on a by-law to raise $15,000 by the issue of debentures for the purpose of paying the cost of fluming Carpenter creek. At the same time a vote will be taken as to whether the comique music hall will be allowed to continue business.

W. W. Leach of the geological survey of Canada left for Montreal last night. He reports that the work of the survey was unsatisfactory owing to bad weather at the beginning and end of the season. They were also bothered by smoke all summer. The timber on Macdonald and Snow creeks is quite burnt out, and the fires were still smouldering when they left a week ago.

LONG DISTANCE 'PHONE.

Section of Line to Connect Nelson and San Diego Now Working.

The longest section of the Sunset Telegraph & Telephone company's telephone line, which is to extend from Nelson B C., to San Diego, Cal., has been completed and works splendidly. The section of the line completed is that extending from San Francisco to Seattle and it was thrown open for business on Saturday last.

The test of the new line was made by F. C. Millard superintendent for the company at the Seattle end and President John J. Sabin at the San Francisco end. The voices sounded as clear as if they were within a few feet of each other. The estimated cost of the line from Nelson to San Diego is $250,000 and it is the most expensive line ever put up.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—Although Saturday was cold, raw and damp, rugby football was played with great snap in all the chief cities of Ontario and Quebec. The principal results were: Toronto—Osgoode Hall, 19; Argonauts, 0. Ottawa—Ottawa City, 9; Hamilton, 1. Montreal—Varsity, 11; McGill, 5.

DOES FRANCE MEAN WAR?

Feverish Activity at the Toulon Dockyard.

BUSY NIGHT AND DAY

The Fleet Being Supplied With Ammunition and Supplies as if For Immediate Active Service.

Paris, Oct. 19.—In spite of semi-official denials, the Echo de Paris asserts today that the embarkation of war materials and supplies continues at Toulon, adding that extraordinary activity reigns in the arsenal there. Besides the ironclads, Admiral Technouard, Bouvines, Jennapes and Valmy, the cruisers Algiers, Levrider and Carman, it claims, are getting ready for service and embarking ammunition and war materials. In addition the paper asserts the transports Blenboa and Gironde are almost ready for sea. All the French naval officers on leave of absence have been ordered to return to their vessels. The naval authorities at Toulon are reticent.

A despatch to the Petite Parisienne from Toulon confirms the reports of the Echo de Paris, and says the greatest activity prevails in the navy yard, where work is proceeding with feverish speed day and night.

THE SITUATION UNCHANGED.

London, Oct. 19.—At a speech at Glasgow last night, the Duke of Devonshie, Lord president of the council, said that since the bluebook giving the correspondence between Great Britain and France concerning Fashoda was issued, nothing had passed between the two countries that in the slightest degree modified the situation. He did not believe the matter was likely to lead to serious trouble. The case was too clear and the facts were undisputed.

THE GOLD AREA SMALL.

Vancouver, Oct. 19.—Dr. Nordenskold, professor of mineralogy at the Upsala University, has returned from the Yukon gold fields where he has been to report for the Swedish government on the formation of the country, its richness and future outlook. He says the Yukon country is very rich and will be productive for a long time to come. "I have a very large collection of minerals for my government. I disagree with all those mineralogists before me. I claim that huge deposits of quartz have or will be found that are responsible for the vast areas of auriferous gravel. The gold at present found comes undoubtedly from the old river beds, but they are very different from the Arctic rivers on the other side of the world. The field must be limited. The quartz will be low grade and found near by. The gold has not been carried by glaciers. There will be no other Klondike in the Yukon. The Stewart river district is slate, consequently disappointing for gold. Pine creek is not rich. I have investigated the entire country. The rich auriferous gravel is in a comparatively small area."

PITTSBURG BANK FAILS.

Pittsburg, Penna., Oct. 19.—On examination of the books of the German National bank, the directors decided not to open this morning. They say that if the depositors will only give them time, they can pay dollar for dollar. The above frank statement was dictated by the president last night. No cause is assigned, but the reason for failure at this time of what for years has generally been considered one of the strongest financial institutions in the state is conceded to be the assignment of the Alleghany Tanning firm of A. Groetzinger & Sons.

MUTINY ON SHIPBOARD.

Vancouver, Oct. 19.—The British ship Ilaia, loading salmon at Stevenson, reports that a mutiny occurred on board. At Dutch harbor the crew mutinied, a Pawnee sailor leading, and attempted to seize the ship. The British warship Amphion was lying in the harbor and Capt. Davis of the Ilaia ran up the signal for assistance. The crew did not understand the signal, and were preparing to run the vessel to sea when Captain Finnis, of the warship Amphion, put out to the Ilaia with a boat load of blue jackets and boarded her. The Pawnee refused to throw up his hands, and was knocked down and put in irons. All those who mutinied will be put on trial.

ONLY TWO REMAIN.

The Habits of Civilization Too Much for Australian Aborigines.

A London despatch says: On the steamer Duke of Portland which sailed from here for Brisbane, Australia, were the survivors of the aboriginal Australian blacks who for years had toured America and Europe. There are only two of them left, a man and a woman. A special house was built for them on the deck. The original band numbered a score or more. They threw the boomerang, danced and sang the corroboree. A showman named Cuningham got the permission of one of the Australian governments to take these blacks to the World's Fair in Chicago. He made money out of them in a subsequent tour of America and Europe, but one by one the aborigines died. The habits of wearing clothes and sleeping in beds and eating city food was too much for them.

The two survivors, who are now on their way home, were found in the East End of London. They were without money, and had been thrown out of their lodgings into the street. They had been in London a few days only.

Their manager deserted them in Sweden, after paying their passage from Stockholm to London. The agent-general of Queensland, Sir Horace Tozer came to their aid and secured their passage home.

CANADIAN APPLES ABROAD.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—The following is a special cable to the Evening Telegram, dated London, October 19: Canadian apples were offered for sale at Covent Garden today but upon opening, they were found to be in a bad condition. Many of them were spotted and practically blighted, and prices were in consequence poor. The Nova Scotia apples were in fine condition, Kings bringing from 17 to 21 shillings and pippins 23 to 30 shillings a barrel. The best Blenheims brought from 18 to 28 shillings, and Gravensteins ranged between 12 and 17 shillings.

Lead, easy; brokers' price, $365; exchange, $3.77½ to $3.82.

Tin, irregular; Straits, $17.90 to $18.50; plates, quiet.

STREWN WITH WRECKS.

London, Oct. 19.—Reports of shipping disasters continue to come in and the east coast is strewn with wrecks. In most cases the crews have been saved, but upward of 30 persons have been drowned.
