WEST INDIAN SUGAR

Attempts to Improve Their Trade With Canada.

CHAMBERLAIN'S POLICY

Sugar to be Exchanged for Canadian Products—A Proposal to Subsidize a Line of Steamers.

Toronto, Aug. 3.—The following is a special cable to the Evening Telegram, dated London, August 3:

The Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, during the debate in the house of commons on the trade of the West Indies yesterday, said the government must refuse to pledge itself to a policy of countervailing duties. The government would hold its hands absolutely free, and in the future, if circumstances changed, or if the United States closed its market, Britain would be free to propose on her own account any measures which might be thought effective. The present policy was disastrous to the interests concerned, ruinous to the West Indies and contrary to the doctrine of free trade. Mr. Chamberlain also declared that communication between the West Indies and the market should be improved, owing to the efforts being made to persuade the United States to grant more favorable terms to the West Indies.

Mr. Chamberlain said Canada was applied to, and the latter met the mother country in a spirit of liberalism, which the Dominion had recently shown in a remarkable degree regarding imperial matters. Canada, Mr. Chamberlain continued, concedes 25 per cent preference to sugar from British possessions in return only for the concession that the same terms be allowed Canada, as far as given to the United States. Unfortunately the concession, about 16 shillings, a ton, failed to give the sugar of the West Indies sufficient advantage. It induced the planter to ship to Canada rather than to the United States, and now the imperial government was asking the Dominion if it were possible to secure some further privileges, feeling the advantage Canada is to the Indies in the encouragement of trade. "We think," pursued Mr. Chamberlain, "that in return for sugar sent from the West Indies to Canada the ships should reload such productions of Canada as lumber, corn, and pork."

Whether or not this was practicable, Mr. Chamberlain could not say, but if there were no obstacles in the way much benefit would result to other countries. "I have proposed," said he, "that conjointly with Canada a line of steamships between the West Indies and Hailfax and other Canadian posts should be subsidized."

THE PEACE COMMISSION.

Likely to Enable the Powers to Cause Trouble in the Pacific.

London, Aug. 3.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Singapore says:

President McKinley's proposal that a commission should decide the future government of the Philippines is considered here as giving Spain a chance of partial authority over her revolted subjects. This state of things, it is thought, might afford an opening for intrigue on the part of foreign powers unfriendly to America, Great Britain and Japan and might be dangerous to the cause of peace in the Pacific.

KAISER RETURNS THANKS.

To President McKinley for His Message of Sympathy.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Ambassador White sent the following cable message today to Washington:

"I am requested to convey the sincere thanks of Emperor William and the German people to the president of the United States for their messages of sympathy on the occasion of the death of Prince Bismarck."

QUEBEC CONFERENCE.

The Appointment of Sir Charles Tupper Is Advocated.

Montreal, Aug. 3.—The hardware and metal trade journals advocate the appointment of Sir Charles Tupper as one of the Canadian commissioners at Quebec. They point out that the United States has taken representatives from both sides of politics.

SEALING AWARD PAID.

Ottawa, Aug. 3.—The department of marine received today from Washington a check for $475,000, which is the amount of the award to the Canadian sealers in the Behring sea.

KLONDIKERS RETURN

The Manauense Brings Down Three Million Dollars.

ST. MICHEAL TROUBLES

High Handed Action of Commercial Companies—Yukon Officials Greedy and Incompetent

Victoria, Aug. 3.—The steamer Manauense, Captain Edwards, came into port today with Yukon passengers and treasure stated by the purser to total about $3,000,000 in gold and paper. The purser said that over $1,250,000 in yellow dust and nuggets were on board.

Two hundred and sixty miners in all came down. The following is a list of those whose possessions seem best established: F. Neaves, Victoria, $800,000; Michael Traynor, Victoria, $30,000; H. Dozer, Seattle, $117,000; Louis Paulus, Seattle, $400,000; N. Blackmore, $150,000; T. Rogers, Seattle, $650,000; F. Van Bibben, $300,000; C. Stephens, Seattle, $150,000.

It was difficult to get the passengers to talk of their gold, and Neaves, who is credited as being the richest man of the crowd, will not admit what he brings out is anything worth talking about. "What I am bringing out is not mine," is another common expression and is one effect of the excessive royalty which all escape who can. Lionel F. Barff of Victoria, a mining broker, the only member of the Hulbert party to reach Dawson, returned on this boat. He says he has succeeded secured a claim, and brings out a little money, but declines to discuss the whereabouts of his property and the extent of his riches. Another Victorian, W. Gillespie, aforetime mate of the Canadian Pacific Navigation steamer Maude, came out. He says that the Yukon officials are out for the money all the time. Before Major Walsh arrived the miners were obliged to be paying for something all the time. He has secured a claim on Hunker creek. Many of the miners, notwithstanding their success, say things are none too too bright in Dawson, and that there are now 10,000 men on their way down the river in small boats. People are leaving Dawson in hundreds. The streets are filled with idle men, for work is now difficult to get.

The steamer J. J. Healy arrived from Dawson on the day the steamer sailed for this port. She left Dawson on July 12 and reports the river falling rapidly and many of the bars are difficult to cross. Much suffering is said to exist along the lower Yukon, many little groups of stranded miners without funds or provisions being seen at points along the river. Things are looking extremely black at St. Michaels and everything points to trouble in the near future. Passengers who went up on the steamer Progresso are in a very bad fix. The men of the commercial companies refuse to allow them to go ashore, and the steamship company owning the vessel are unable to take them up river, having lost the river steamers which were to have taken the passengers to Dawson. Many of the passengers who have funds have transferred to some other steamers, but the greater number are stranded on the ocean steamer.

When the Manauense sailed provisions on board the Progress had all but given out, and when the supply fails trouble is feared. The agent of the company owning the steamer, who went north on the Progresso, fearing trouble, has fled. The two commercial companies will not allow the ocean liner or river steamers who are not doing business in connection with them to land at their wharves.

A stampede has taken place from Dawson on to the hill claims on Dominion creek. It is said that Major Walsh has admitted that Gold Commissioner Fawcett is incompetent.

There are an average of 80 cases a day at the Dawson hospital, most of them malaria, scurvy and kindred complaints.

In the Klondike Nugget of July 8 Major Walsh is quoted as saying that he has power to rescind the royalty, and that he will do so if it is proven that its imposition is an injustice to the miners.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

McKinley and M. Cambon Had an Abortive Conference Yesterday.

Washington, Aug. 3.—After a conference on the peace question lasting for just an hour this afternoon between the president and M. Cambon, the French ambassador, the latter acting as the representative of Spain, Secretary Day emerged from the White House and announced that today's conference was inconclusive, wherefore the parties to it had agreed to say nothing public as to what had occurred. The secretary did not appear to be discouragd as he made the statement, though he admitted that no time had been set for another conference.

Up to the middle of the afternoon it was stated by all parties concerned that the Spanish answer had not been received; that the only formal note that had come to hand was the one from Madrid to M. Cambon, asking for information upon points that were not clear to the Spanish mind. However, just after 3 o'clock the secretary of the French embassy called at the state department and arranged with Secretary Day for a meeting between the president and the ambassador as soon as possible. The meeting was for 3:45 o'clock, and Secretary Day was at the White house in due season, but was obliged to wait about ten minutes for the French ambassador. As already stated, after conferring for an hour the parties separated, having been unable to reach a conclusion as to the acceptance by Spain of the peace conditions laid down by the president, and binding themselves to the observance of the strictest secrecy as to the proceeding until further progress had been made. Thus it is practically assured in advance that any attempt to state what occurred at today's meeting at the White house will be nothing more than pure guess work. Meantime, in consonance with the declared purpose of the president at the beginning of the overtures, this conference is not operating to restrain military operations in any degree.

GIBORA CAPTURED.

General Miguel Gomez Meets With Decisive Success.

Key West, Aug. 3.—Captain del Valley Ignacio of the insurgent forces was brought here this morning by the gunboat Helena, which took him aboard near Tunoz de Azzago, on the south coast of Cuba, on July 25. He reported that on July 9 General Miguel Gomez, under whom he served, attackd the town of Gibora, not Gibaria, with 500 men and after two hours' fighting compelled the Spaniards to rise the white flag. Three dynamite shells from the Simms-Dudley gun tore big holes in the walls of the town, killed nine Spaniards and wounded 12. One hundred and sixteen prisoners were taken and the town is now held by the Cubans. The Cubans lost one killed and three wounded. When Captain Ignacio left, General Gomez was making plans to attack the trocha and restore communication between the eastern and western provinces.

The Helena has now been on blockade for nearly a month. She sunk a number of harbor tugs and lighters at Casilda last week and sent one little tug, the Manatee, which surrendered in preference to being sunk, to Guantanamo bay.

A FUNERAL SERMON.

Extracts From Pastor Westphall's Sermon on Bismarck.

Friederichsrhuh, Aug. 3.—Pastor Westphall in the course of his remarks in the sermon on Bismarck said: "Mourning love stands at the bier of the dear departed. The emperor has hastened hither to pay a tribute of thanks and veneration to the faithful servant of the great emperor. When such a blessed life has to close we feel that God Almighty speaks and through his church he transfigures mortality. When what was immortal of this mortal passed hence he was lost not only to his family, but to the whole German people. He reaped laurels and enjoyed the evening of his life, which although overshadowed by the death of his wife, was consoled by the honors plentifully bestowed by the emperor and the fatherland. Prince Bismarck maintained until the last his firm Christian belief in the Trinity. This helped him to bear his burden through life and made him fearless toward man and unyielding in whatever he considered right."

COLOMBIA PAYS UP.

It Is Asserted That the Claim Had Not Been Officially Made.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—The congress of Colombia, it is announced in a despatch from Bogato, the capital, has unanimously resolved to deposit a sum of $300,000 as security for the amount due the heirs of Signor Cerutti, the Italian whose claims against the government of Colombia were decided in his favor by President Cleveland as arbitrator. The resolution, it is said, becomes a law in six days. It is further added that Italy's demand for a settlement, which was backed up by the presence of some of Italy's warships at Cartagena, had not hitherto reached the Colombian government in official form.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 3.—James Connel, a moulder of this place, was drowned off Smith's island last night while bathing.

James Sensecal of Grenadir island, and a well known resident, died in the general hospital here while undergoing an operation. He was aged 81 years.

RATE WAR DISCUSSED

McNicoll Before the Interstate Commission.

THE C. P. R'S. POSITION

The American Lines Would Not Listen to Reason—Why Congress Did Not Legislate.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Traffic Manager McNicoll of the Canadian Pacific railway, concluded his direct statement before the interstate commerce commission today, in regard to the rate war between the Canadian Pacific railway and the American lines. Mr. McNicoll, in his closing remarks, told of his efforts to restore peace with the American companies, and how his efforts were thwarted by the refusal of the companies to discuss the question of differential rates. He insisted that the American roads had refused to accept any suggestions, and had said that the Canadian Pacific must agree to all of their terms. Mr. Eustis, general passenger agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, he said, had told them that there would be legislation against the Canadian Pacific railway, and that congress would have legislated last session on the subject, had it not been overshadowed by the Cuban crisis.

Mr. McNicoll said that he did not take much notice of these remarks, as Mr. Eustis did not represent the American public He denied that the interstate traffic enjoyed by the Canadian Pacific railway amounted to $50,000,000. While there were no statistics for the passenger traffic, the freight traffic amounted to only $1,300,000 a year. On the other hand, the Canadian Pacific railway, he said, bought supplies from the United States to the amount of $3,000,000 yearly.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Lightning and Rain Work Havoc in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 3.—In the big storm last night there was an almost continuous flash of lightning, and many flagpoles and buildings in nearly every section of the city were struck, causing several small fires and doing great damage. Telegraph and telephone service throughout the city was practically at a standstill for several hours. The cellars and first floors of hundreds of business houses and dwellings were flooded. The basements of Cimbel Bros. and Wanamaker's, two of the largest departmental stores in the city, were flooded and heavy damage was done. The street car service was also practically at a standstill. Many of the streets were flooded at a depth of two and three feet.

The lightning struck one of the large oil tanks of the Atlantic Refining company at Gibson's Point, in the lower end of the city. It was entirely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

NICARAGUAN CONVENTION.

The Convention Will Probably Be Unable to Agree on All Points.

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 3.—The convention of deputies from Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua is still being held daily. The committee appointed to report on the articles for a constitution for these three states submitted to them by the diet of the greater republic, under whose call they have convened, have reported many modifications. The convention by a vote favored a confederation of the three states under the name of the "United States of Central America."

A serious division over the question whether there should be an executive consisting of a tribunal of three persons or only one person will probably disrupt the convention.

AGUINALDO HUMANE.

The Reports That His Prisoners Are Maltreated Are Untrue.

Washington, Aug. 3.—The state department has been advised by Consul Wildman at Hong Kong that all prisoners taken by Aguinaldo, the insurgent chief, including monks, are "treated with perfect humanity," and that all reports to the contrary are absolutely false.

DELIBERATIONS AT MADRID.

Madrid, Aug. 3.—Premier Sagasta has summoned Senor Silvela, the conservative leader, and other absent politicians to Madrid, in oder to consult with them regarding the peace terms.

THE TERMS OF PEACE.

Everything now points to the speedy ending of the war, and the terms upon which the United States will grant peace are a matter of considerable interest in all quarters. It would seem likely that the Americans will show themselves more merciful in their demands than the tone of the press would hitherto lead one to expect.

The semi-savage allies of the United States both in Cuba and at Manila are largely responsible for this state of affairs. The conduct of Aguinaldo we commented on in our last issue, while readers of The Miner will remember the attitude the Cuban allies have assumed ever since General Shafter landed in Cuba. The Americans had been led to expect an heroic body of men fighting for liberty against starvation and overwhelming odds. But as a matter of fact, these heroes were not much in evidence when the fighting before Santiago was taking place; and when there was hard work to be done they effaced themselves with unanimity and despatch. They gave it clearly to be understood that road-making, hauling supplies, attending to the wounded, or doing anything whatever calculated to render a Cuban gentleman uncomfortably hot was not in their line. They sat in the shade and smoked cigarettes with patriotic zeal, while the Americans toiled in the sun and exposed themselves to the Mauser bullets. On the other hand, when the town was taken, and the fighting was over, the patriots felt that the time had come for action. So they sharpened their machetes and prepared to enjoy themselves in good old insular fashion. Santiago would be handed over to the insurgent junta, and Garcia's braves would recompense themselves for their arduous exertions by a few days of robbery, varied, perhaps, by a little murder. It was exceedingly mortifying for men filled with these inspiring anticipations to learn that the American commander took a totally different view of the situation. Quite regardless of the feelings of his allies, General Shafter announced that the usual ceremonies performed in captured cities in Cuban wars would be omitted on this occasion, and that the control of the place would not be handed over to the insurrectionary junta. Deep mutterings arose in the Cuban ranks, and General Garcia sent another general to remonstrate with General Shafter; but the latter adhered to his determination, and there was nothing in the way of an orgie of rapine and outrage in Santiago. Under the circumstances it was not surprising that friction arose between the allies, which eventually culminated in the withdrawal of the Cuban forces into the interior.

The result of all this has been to open the eyes of the Americans to the real nature of the Cubans, whose initial attempts at self-government will be watched and guided by the United States with a more than paternal care. The Philippines, too, have wilfully thrown away their chances of self-independence, and there are things more improbable than the reinstatement of the Spanish rule in those slands.

We publish in this issue a copy of a letter sent by Mr. John Elliot to the city council regarding his dismissal from the position of city solicitor. He complains, and we think justly, that he has had no official notice of the council's determination, and also that this public condemnation of him in his professional capacity is the first intimation he has received that there was any dissatisfaction felt either with his advice or with the professional services he has from time to time been called upon to render. The mayor also appears to have made an important misstatement of fact. The scene at the last council meeting was typical of the present regime in Nelson. It was the spectacle of one hot-headed man running everything to suit his own whims and vagaries, while only one of the councilmen appeared to have the pluck or the individuality to express a contrary opinion. The mayor may be a clever man, doubtless he is, but if civic affairs are to be directed according to the erratic impulses of a man who is constantly forgetting his own dignity and position as chief magistrate of the city, Nelson will soon find herself in a parlous state indeed.

Moonlight excursions are becoming the fashion just now in Nelson. Tuesday night Messrs. Elliot and Hale gave one to a large party of friends and acquaintances in honor of their newly completed tug Hercules, and there are others on the tapis. A more pleasant, healthful and harmless mode of recreation could hardly be imagined after a hard day's work on one of these hot summer days. Those who went down to Balfour are unanimous in praising the delights of the trip, and anyone who leaves the city without having taken a trip up the river on a balmy summer's evening has certainly missed the most beautiful and enjoyable excursion to be found anywhere in the Kootenays.

"THE WORTH OF A MAN."

Instructive Lecture by Rev. Mr. Sipperell in the Methodist Church.

There was a fair attendance at the lecture given yesterday evening in the Methodist church by Rev. W. J. Sipperlel, B. A. B. D., principal of Columbia college, New Westminster, on "The Worth of a Man." The reverend gentleman is a fluent speaker and handled his subject well.

Lack of space prevents an extended report of the lecture, which was greatly appreciated, but the following is a brief synopsis:

A man is worth—

First—What he can do. The lecturer asserted that occupation was a necessity for human existence, and that they who make no pretence of a vocation in life have no right to an existence. We must be occupied and must also have a lofty ideal. Great men have accomplished much because they dared to hope great things. He strongly urged young men not to sin against their ideal. Those who are satisfied to settle down to a sodden contentment are imperilling their manhood.

Second—What he loves. The speaker asserted that many loved themselves, and that this selfishness was the root of all evil, and suicidal to all of our best interests. He urged his hearers to love the pure and holy; to love the brethren and to love their country.

Third—What he thinks. How important this is. A man's secret thought determines the history of his life. God made man to think, and consequently the excuse, "I did't think," is pernicious and unpardonable. We must cultivate a habit of seeing opportunity.

Fourth—What he hopes. Hope, the speaker asserted, knows no limitations. We must fix our wagon to a star, and even if we fail to reach our ideal, the struggle will ennoble and repay us for the exertion. The speaker interspersed his lecture with many witty, and forcible illustrations.

WAS CHASED BY A BEAR.

W. S. Fletcher, the Greenwood druggist, narrowly escaped being torn to pieces a few days ago by an old she bear. While Mr. Fletcher was up in the West Fork last week he came upon a she bear and two cubs. The old bear at once gave chase, when the unfortunate druggist started to climb a tree. The bear stationed herself at the foot of the tree and remained there for several hours, until the crying of her hungry cubs called her away, when the frightened dispenser crawled to the ground and made his way to camp with all possible speed.

TO TAKE CHARGE OF ROAD.

Cornelius Shields and Sam Hill Coming to Corbin Headquarters.

The Spokesman-Review of yesterday says: "It was rumored last night that Cornelius Shields, D. C. Corbin and Sam Hill, son-in law of President Hill of the Great Northern, had left St. Paul Monday and would arrive in Spokane today to take charge of the Spokane Falls & Northern railroad. It is believed Sam Hill will be president of the road and Mr. Shields general manager, and that the road will be turned over as soon as checking up is accomplished. How it will effect the old employes of the road is not known, but the heads of departments are preparing to give up their offices to possible successors."

THE CITY SOLICITOR

Writes to the Mayor and City Council About His Dismissal.

The following copy of a letter to the mayor and city council by Mr. John Elliot, the city solicitor, has been sent to The Miner for publication. The letter speaks for itself:

The Mayor and City Council, City:

Sirs—Although I am without any official notice, I have read this morning's Miner containing a report of the council's last meeting.

While I have to thank you for dispensing with my services, at the same time I am entitled to know what complaints you have, as this is the first I have heard of any. So far as the $750 in the Nelson City Land & Improvement company case is concerned, I have to say that this money was paid out of court long ago and now stands to the credit of my firm's trust account in the Bank of Montreal, ready to be paid over to the company, as a settlement was expected, all of which is well known to the mayor, who should be the last person to refer to the case in any way.

Of course the mayor's opinion as to the fees charged must be right. When was he ever wrong? It is quite clear from the record of the other proceedings at your last meeting that the mayor is the only official who earns his salary, which should be increased, and if I may offer a suggestion, let him also add to his other duties those of legal adviser, and why not dispense with all other members of the council?

There are two matters still in my hands, Cameron vs. City, and Arthur vs. City, and I wish to know to whom you desire the papers handed.

Yours truly,
JOHN ELLIOT.

THE WAR EAGLE POLICY.

T. G. Blackstock Says the Management Will Be Conservative.

T. G. Blackstock, of the War Eagle Gold Mining company, was questioned a few days since by a Toronto World reporter as to whether the War Eagle would in October begin to ship 500 tons per day or the full capacity of the plant. Mr. Blackstock said that it all depended upon the judgment of the management. The company's policy would be to determine the amount of ore the mine could permanently and steadily ship each day and regularly produce that much. This would have a better result than turning out a big daily output for awhile and then falling off to a smaller amount.

As regards the reports that the dividend on the mine will shortly be doubled, Mr. Blackstock said he could make no prophecy. The question of increasing the dividends would not be considered until the new plant is completed in September.

BASEBALL EXCURSION.

The Nelson baseball team will hold an excursion on Sunday next, August 7, to Marcus, Washington, where a good programme of sports has been arranged, including a baseball match between the Nelson and Marcus teams for the championship of Northern Washington and the Kootenay. The excursion train will leave the Nelson & Fort Sheppard depot at 7 o'clock and will stop for passengers at Ymir and other intermediate points. The fare has been fixed at $2, and tickets are now on sale at the Spokane Falls & Northern ticket office, Neeland's shoe store and Teetzel's drug store. The baseball boys have gone to considerable expense in chartering the train and should receive a liberal patronage from the people of Nelson as a pleasant picnic outing is assurred. Arrangements are being made for the attendance of the Nelson brass band.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

Elliott and Hale Give the Young People of Nelson an Outing.

Through the kindness of Messrs. Elliott and Hale, owners, and Angus Campbell, captain, of the steamer Hercules, a party of young folks enjoyed the most pleasant moonlight excursion of the year on Tuesday night to the Outlet hotel at Balfour. The charter limit of the steamer was crowded to the last number, but the spry little boat was equal to the occasion and fairly flew through the water, making the run to Balfour in about two hours. The accommodation of the steamer is excellent and many were the expressions of delight uttered by the passengers during the trip, and a silent vote of thanks from every soul aboard was tendered to the management of the steamer for the pleasure they had afforded them.

Arriving at Balfour Messrs. Johnson and Blandy of the Outlet hotel turned the house over to the guests, an more than that, provided them with a lunch which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The dining room was then cleaned and dancing was indulged in until about 1 o'clock, when the homeward trip was commenced, the party arriving at Nelson at 3 o'clock, tired but fully appreciating the kindness of Messrs. Elliott and Hale and the Outlet hotel people. The beauty of a monlight trip like that of Tuesday night cannot be comprehended by reading the account, and anyone who has never taken the trip has missed a pleasure indeed. There is no prettier place in Kootenay than the Outlet hotel, and the steamer Hercules proved that she is the boat for a small excursion party. It is to be hoped that other parties will be planned for the near future. The only accident which occurred to mar the evening was that which befell Jakey Dover, when he had his leg pulled. He will recover, however. The sense of gratitude must indeed be dull in the participant who does not feel thankful to the owners of the steamer Hercules and the Outlet hotel for a long-to-be-remembered evening.

CASCADE A LIVELY CITY.

Railroad Building and Other Improvements Under Way.

In view of the railroad construction, mining development and other contemplated improvements this town is presenting quite a lively appearance. The "tote" road will reach here in about 30 days, when it is expected the contracts will all be let and the graders put to work along the line. The large trestle, 1800 feet long and 100 feet high, will require a million feet of lumber, necessitating the building of another sawmill and employing a small army of bridge builders. Engineer Englund's surveying party of 16 men is now camped on the ground awaiting orders.

TO PROTECT INVESTORS.

The British ministry will be asked by Mr. Robert Ashcroft, a conservative member, to take steps to protect investors from the enticement of peers' names. The occasion is the disclosures of Mr. Hooley's payments for such ornaments. Investors must learn that their profits are to come from the proceeds of the business, not from the names of the directors. It will be many years before Englishmen are proof against peers, and then there may be no peers.—Toronto Globe.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS.

Vienna, Aug. 3.—The third round of the international chess tournament was played today with the following results: Charesouek and Schlechter drew, Tschigorin beat Pohiel, Gottschalk and Steinitz divided honors, Heimischen beat Schowalter, Burn beat Abbin, Janowski beat Schiffers. Fritz and Schalopp drew, and Berger was defeated by Cohen.

Matters of Interest at the Seat of Government.

QUEBEC CONFERENCE

A Glance at the Personnel and Programme—Prosperity in Manitoba. Interesting Notes.

Ottawa, July 29.—In a few days, or at most a week or two, the Quebec conference will be in session, and it is difficult to estimate the extent of the benefits that may reasonably be expected to accrue to those participating in this most important convention. Not only will be occasion be a very gratifying one, as indicating the vast improvement in the feeling between the British empire and the States, which has made such a gathering possible, but it is also of more than ordinary home interest to Canada, as the preliminary discussion upon the action of the government which led to the meeting being arranged, has produced less partisan cavilling than perhaps any other act of the present administration. It would be pleasant to believe that in all matters, where it is to the advantage of Canada that her people should present a united front, this demeanor of the opposition should be set as the standard.

PERSONNEL AND PROGRAMME.

The importance of the gathering may be seen at a glance at its personnel. On behalf of the motherland, the imperial government has sent Lord Herschell, twice lord chancellor of Great Britain; Canada will be represented by her premier, Sir Wilfred Laurier, Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Louis Davies and Mr. John Charlton, and Newfoundland by her premier, Sir James Winter, or Receiver General A. B. Morine. On the other side, the United States will send General John W. Foster, John A. Kasson, Nelson Dingley, Senator Gray, Senator Charles W. Fairbanks and Thomas J. Coolidge.

The list of questions which will in all probability be considered also gives one the idea of the tremendous importance of the gathering. The trade relations; the Behring sea dispute; the Atlantic fisheries; the preservation of the fisheries; the definition of international boundaries; the bonding privilege; the alien labor law—these are some of the items on the bill of fare. More than one of these has created trouble and been a perennial source of irritation since the Declaration of Independence, and all of them have for many years occupied the best efforts of the keenest and best trained statesmen of both empires, but never before have these questions been approached in the spirit of mutual good will and reciprocal confidence with which they will now be treated; and as these sentiments must always be the strongest influences in the settling of disputes, there is better hope today than ever in the past that the Quebec conference of 1898 will go down in history as one of the grandest epoch making events of the century. That it will accomplish all that is hoped of it it is scarcely reasonable to expect, but the very fact that our government has been able to bring about such a meeting entitles them to the gratitude not only of Canada but of the empire at large, and evidences are not wanting that this fact is appreciated both at home and abroad.

THE STORY BEARS REPEATING.

The story of Manitoba's splendid progress is becoming almost monotonous in its unvarying completeness, but it is a pleasant page to dwell upon. W. D. Scott, provincial immigration agent in Ontario for the Prairie province, who has just returned from a trip to the west, corroborates everything that has been said of the magnificent outlook: "Crops are going to be heavy;" "business is active in all lines;" "land is selling well;" "there is work for all who want it;" "everybody seems to have money;" "it has been a great year for settlers;" and so on. Such is the epitome of his report. Settlers are coming from everywhere, he says. New districts recently opened up are filling rapidly. The class of settlers is all that can be desired—even the poor Galicians are going to turn out all right.

FRUIT COMMISSIONER.

A better selection than that made by the department of agriculture of A. McD. Allan, "the fruit king" of Goderich, as fruit commissioner at the Paris exposition in 1900, could not possibly have been made. Mr. Allan's life work has been the study and culture of fruit, and both in practical and theoretical knowledge of horticulture Mr. Allan is probability without a peer in Canada, and without a superior in the world. His past services to Canada warrant the present recognition. In 1886 he was fruit commissioner to the London Colonial exhibition and as the result of his work 100,000 barrels were placed in the old country; besides which he secured orders in many parts of Europe and even in India. As president and director of various organizations having for their object the improvement of Canadian fruit and the development of trade, Mr. Allan has done yeoman service, not only to his native province of Ontario, but in other parts of the Dominion, the Provincial Fruit Growers' Association of British Columbia being one outcome of his efforts. The opportunity was never more favorable for splendid development in the fruit trade between Canada and the old country and in no better hands could it be placed.

NOTES.

One of the smaller but at the same time most useful reforms introduced into the postal service by Mr. Mulock is now in full running order, viz., the special delivery scheme, and there has been quite a demand for the special stamp which has been prepared in connection therewith. It should be pointed out that to avail themselves of this arrangement the public must use the special ten cents delivery stamp, which is in addition to the regular postage. It is not sufficient to use ten cents worth of ordinary stamps, as the great purpose of the special stamp is to readily attract the attention of the officials and thereby secure the prompt attention which the new arrangement contemplates.

The announcement that the Earl of Minto has been chosen as Lord Aberdeen's successor receives additional interest from the fact that, as Lord Melgund he came to Canada with the Marquis of Lansdowne and served under General Middleton as chief of his staff in the Northwest rebellion. During his previous residence here Lord Melgund gained golden opinions, both in civil and military circles, and he threfore comes back to fill the gubernatorial position with all the prestige and advantage then obtained.

Professor Saunders, director of the experimental farm, has left on his annual tour of inspection through the west. He goes from here to Brandon and then on to Agassiz, where he will meet Professor Fletcher, Dominion entomologist. Dr. Saunders will be away five weeks.

Ex-Finance Minister Foster has gone and expects to address public meetings at all important points en route to the coast. It is rumored that his chief topic will be, "The Fulfillment of My Prophecy That Grit Rule Meant Inevitable Ruin."

Great reports are coming in of the tremendous shipping business being done this season by Canadian liners. All the Montreal boats report congested traffic both in passenger and freight. Halifax, St. John and Victoria are having similar experiences and the various lake ports were never busier.

MILES REINFORCED.

The Transport Hudson Leaves Newport For Porto Rico.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 3.—The first detachment of the Third brigade, First army corps, in command of Brigadier General Fred D. Grant, embarked late tonight on the transport Hudson or Porto Rico, and at 5 o'clock in the morning the Hudson will steam out of Hampton roads. It is not probable that any other transport will leave before Friday.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Yesterday's services at Friedrichsruhn will be the only services until the mausoleum, on the site of the famous stag group near the Schloss, is completed. The national obsequies have been postponed until that time.

THE PACIFIC CABLE.

London, Aug. 3.—The Daily News says an informal conference was recently held in London between Lord Strathcona Mount Royal, Mr. Mulock and some Australian agents, who are going, we believe, to become concerned in the Pacific cable, and it is reported that the Dominion parliament is now disposed to supoprt the scheme.
