I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge

The Odd Fellows' grand lodge of British Columbia was in session in Vancouver on June 9th and 10th. Wildey Lodge No. 41 was represented by A. C. Monkhouse. W. H. Laird was appointed district deputy for this lodge. Next years session of the grand lodge will be held at Kamloops. The new grand lodge officers are: Grand master, Wallace Law, Vancouver; deputy grand master, E. L. Webber, New Westminster; grand warden, W. H. Cullin, Victoria; grand secretary, F. Davey, Victoria; grand treasurer, W. A. Johnson, Vancouver; grand representative to the sovereign grand lodge, Thos. Embleton, Rossland.

To Build a House Boat.

R. Campbell is planning the building of a house boat to put on Moyie lake this summer for rental to camping parties. The boat will be 12 feet wide and 27 feet in length, and will be fitted up with comfortable living quarters. It can be towed to any part of the lake, and will be just the thing for those wishing to have an outing. The house boat will fill a long felt want, and there should be a demand for at least two or three of them on Moyie lake.

Football Tomorrow.

There will be a football match tomorrow at Aldridge between the Moyie and Cranbrook teams. It will be one of a series of games for the Kerrigan cup. The kick off will be at 2 o'clock.

The line-up of the Moyie team is as follows: F. Perkins, goal; W. Chamberlain, A. Gill, backs; M. Marshall, A. Potter, A. Wilson, half backs; M. McNichol, Mike Hilliary, R. Marshall, A. Chamberlain, J. C. Kemp, forwards. T. Evans, reserve.

Cigar Drummers Change Firms.

Nat Darling is no longer traveling for the Mainland and British Lion cigars. J. W. Peters is now the representative of this firm. Darling is now on the road for the B. C. Cigar Company of New Westminster.

Guests of Honor at Fair.

Dr. Lewis Hall and wife of Victoria were guests of honor at the opening of the Seattle fair. Dr. Lewis Hall is a brother of Dr. H. E. Hall of Cranbrook. He is mayor of Victoria.

Government Agent Visits Coast.

J. E. Armstrong, government agent for South East Kootenay, is away from Cranbrook, and will be in Victoria and Vancouver until the 25th. A. C. Nelson, assessor, is acting government agent.

Long Building Progressing.

The frame is up for F. C. Long's building opposite the Kootenay hotel, and it will be ready to occupy within a week or two. Mr Long will have his shoe shop and store in the corner, and F. J. Tanner, the Jeweler, will occupy the north side.

Fire Wardens to Meet.

The Moyie fire wardens will hold a meeting next Monday evening, when they will sum up the work done since they issued their instructions about a month ago. The time limit for doing this work was up on the 15th of the month. A large number have filled the requirements, but as is usually the case in such matters, some are still lagging behind.

GENERAL FLOAT

Lumber is $11 a thousand at the coast.

Sam Speers is putting up a new building at Creston.

Several Chinamen have been arrested in Trail for gambling.

The Nickel Plate mine at Hedley made $300,000 last year.

Chas. Klingensmith has bought the Hoffman house at Elko.

Every day the coal mines around Coleman do not work means a loss of $12,000.

All seven saloons in Dayton, Wash., have been put out of business by the city council.

There are about forty Odd Fellows in Prince Rupert, and a movement is on foot to organize a lodge.

Montreal Knights of Pythias have organized a company and will secure a permanent home for themselves.

The Rocky Mountain News and Times at Denver are to be housed in a new twelve story, $500,000 home, built on the present News site.

Andrew H. Thompson, the ferryman at Trail was drowned the day before yesterday while crossing the river.

M. K. Rogers has secured an option, says a Spokane paper, upon the Nickel Plate at Hedley for a sum running into several millions.

A million dollars in gold dust, nuggets and bricks, all in one great pan, is probably the richest exhibit at the Seattle fair. It is all Alaska gold.

The labor market in the Yukon is overstocked, and men seeking employment are requested to keep away from Dawson and other northern camps.

A large number of the miners at Bellevue are very anxious that an all Canadian miners' union be formed. This fever has also reached Coleman.

Between one and two million feet of logs belonging to the Patrick Lumber company, on the Slocan river, were washed away by the recent high water.

R. J. McPhee, a well known mining man in the Slocan, died recently in Spokane. He was for several years manager of the Ottawa mine near Slocan city.

George W. Hughes, the well-known mining man is in East Spokane under charge of a nurse. He is completely helpless, having had althogether over six strokes of paralysis.

All the Odd Fellows through out the pass are preparing for the big convention which is to be held at Pincher Creek on July 21st. Special trains and reduced passage rates will be given by the C. P. R.

New Tunnel Started.

A new tunnel has been started on the Aurora property on the west side of the lake. It is 100 feet above the lake level, and will be 150 feet below the main tunnel. Work will be pushed with all possible speed. It has now been demonstrated that a big body of ore exists, but to work it expeditiously the new tunnel is necessary. A carload of ore is sacked and will be brought across the lake and shipped to the smelter at Trail in the course of a few days.

Peterson Goes Free.

The case of Mrs. Leclair charging C. O. Peterson with criminal assult, came up at the assizes at Fernie and was dismissed.

Plans Are Perfected.

The celebration committe will hold only one more meeting between now and Dominion Day, and that will be on Monday, the 28th. Those interested feel that everything is in perfect order. Never was a celebration in Moyie better arranged for. The grounds will be in perfect condition, the booths are all finished, the dancing pavillion is up, the posters are out, the band has been engaged, and now only the weather man is to be reckoned with. If the weather is fine, the crowd here on the First will be a record breaker. Cranbrook and Creston especially will send large delegations.

The football game and the two baseball games will be big attractions, as will also be the aquatic and caledonian sports. And for fun catching the greased pig and the Sally Ann shows will furnish plenty amusement. The winners of all prizes will be paid their money on the ground and on the spot where they are.

Scott Family Moves To Coast.

Today Rube and Hurley Scott, accompanied by their mother, are leaving for Vancouver to make their future home. R. B. Scott has been in Vancouver for a month or more, and has already made some good turnovers in real estate. This family was one of the first to locate here. For several years Rube Scott has been head clerk in MacEachern & Macdonald's store, and Hurley Scott was employed as teamster for the St. Eugene mine.

Grading New Road.

J. E. Wade, road foreman, has a force of men grading a government road out through the north end of town. The road leaves Tavistock street about opposite J. R. McDonald's place and swings to the right and runs almost straight to the base of the hill, when it turns onto Campbell street. The road takes two whole lots in block nine, and cuts the end of six others. It also takes lot 15 in block 10.

STRAWBERRIES

During the next few weeks we will make a specialty of

STRAWBERRIES

We have arranged to handle two hundred crates from Wiggen's, Foot's and Bevan's ranches. We are selling Wiggen's berries today, the first home grown berries on the market.

Everybody will preserve strawberries this year. There will be a bumper crop and prices within the range of all.

Give us your orders. We guarantee the best fruit grown, with rock bottom prices.

MacEachern & Macdonald.

Colorado Miners Recompensed.

The different Miners' Unions have received advices from the headquarters of the Western Federations of Miners in Denver, Col., that the state of Colorado has voted $60,000 to the Western Federation for damages done to the property of the Federation during the strike of the miners of Cripple Creek. During the administration of Governor Peabody the state militia destroyed halls, co-operative stores and other property of the Federation to the value of $80,000 and the appropriation is to recompense it for that loss.

A Boom on Bull River.

W. J. Feltham returned Thursday from a prospecting trip in the vicinity of Bull river falls. Mr Feltham says a townsite has been located and there is quite a stir on. A man named Henderson is harnessing the falls and is building a 10,000 horse power plant, and will soon be able to furnish power and light for the greater portion of the towns and mines in South East Kootenay. The townsite and falls are about 14 miles from Wardner and lies between two ranges of the Rocky mountains. There is a whole mountain of hemitite and about two miles of rich placer ground close by. Lots in the townsite are selling fast, and a party of some 80 capitalists from the east were there recently and saw considerable that impressed them.

Regarding the Alice Mine.

R. H. Ley and C. F. Sherwin, who recently took a bond on the Alice mine near Creston, are making preparations to commence work on the property within the next few weeks. There is a large body of ore in sight. Shipments will be made to the Trail smelter. The report that Messrs. Ley and Sherwin were acting for the Canadian Consolidated company is quite without foundation.—Nelson News.

Another Gold Rush.

There is another gold rush down in Nevada recalling the excitement of a few years ago. The new camp is in the Allendale district, about 30 miles from Tonopah. Town lots were put on the market and a morning newspaper was started. A report from Goldfield says that the city was almost depopulated by the rush of goldseekers to the Salsbury, a strike in the Allendale district, where fabulous surface values are reported. Automobiles, wagons, carriages, horses and burros jammed the road to the new camp and every wheeled vehicle in town was pressed into service. The country about the strike for a distance of 10 miles is included with monuments and posts and there is not a foot of vacant ground to be had.

Works Against Nelson

Nelson feels keenly the business it is losing from points along the Crow's Nest since the building of the Spokane International railway. The Nelson News says editorially:

"Along the Crow's Nest branch from where it leaves the main line of the C. P. R. to Curzon Junction there are three trains daily each way. Between Curzon Junction and Kootenay landing there is only one train daily each way and, of course, only one boat daily between Kootenay Landing and Nelson. This gives Nelson only one connection each way daily with points along the Crow. How this works against Nelson's interests lies in the fact that there are two trains each way daily between all Crow's Nest points east of Curzon Junction and Spokane. This makes it easier for people in the towns along the Crow in British Columbia to transact business in Spokane than in Nelson. The result is this is obvious to any business man in the city."

Prepare to celebrate.

After robbing Peter many men forget to pay Paul.

Every man has an aim in life, but few are good marksmen.

The Seattle date line is now much in evidence.

They who fish in pails need no life preservers.

Here is a piece of tommyrot clipped from the Appeal to Reason:

"Every success is built on the misfortune of the other fellow."

Butte Miner: Regular Sunday services at the trout streams. The public is cordially invited. Seats free.

"Better late than never" is the guiding motto of the Denver spinster who has become a coy June bride at the age of 71.

It's not so easy to keep up with the procession when the procession consists of $5,000 automobiles.

The new president of Harvard announces it as his primary ambition to turn out "all-around men." Anything the matter with square men?

The man who will discover a substitute for swearing which will express one's feelings and yet be refined, will be doing a greater work than Columbus.

A lady who recently died in Ohio at the age of 115 years attributed her long life to the practice of eating onions every day. This shows that life is not shortened by the adverse wishes of associates and the general public.

It is very strange that almost any man can start out most any day and in an hour and thirty minutes he can engage a woman to work for him for life at nothing a week, while it seems next to impossible to get a woman to work for fair wages and board.—Hidalgo (Illinois) Advance.

The man who can not control himself is like a mariner without a compass; he is at the mercy of every wind that blows. Every storm of passion, every wave of irresponsible thought buffets him hither and thither, drives him out of his course, and makes it well nigh impossible for him to reach the goal of his desires.—Ex.

A lad convicted of burglary at St. John, N. B., was sentenced by Judge Forbes to six years' attendance at church and Sunday school—that is practically the result of the fifteen-year-old prisoners pledge to attend church and Sunday regularly until he becomes of age, in lieu of a year's sentence in jail.

The Coleman Miner is threatened with a boycott by the Socialists of that camp, and the man caught reading the paper is to be fined $5 for each and every offence. The Miner has seen fit to criticise the actions of some of the Socialists, and they in turn have waged war against the paper. The Miner tells the Socialists to go to it.

The Edmonton Bulletin, owned by Hon. Frank Oliver, agrees that the land grant to the South African veterans was a mistake. Of the 8,000 grants made, only about 2,000 have been located by veterans themselves. Like all previous land grants, it simply opened the door for speculation. The whole movement must have been engineered by persons interested in buying certain valuable sections at a low price.

At a conference of working people in Pittsburg a manifesto was issued organizing a new party. One paragraph says that "All intellectuals and so called intellectuals should be rigorously excluded from the organization." Another says that "it is fatal to the organization of the working class for a man or woman to succeed him or herself in any office, therefore in this organization no one shall hold office for more than one year and then be ineligible to succeed themselves until after the expiration of one year from the time they vacated said office."

Just 18 years ago this month Sir John A. MacDonald passed to his reward. The Saturday Sunset says that Canada's debt to MacDonald is greater in some ways than that of the United States to Washington. Washington successfully led a rebellion. MacDonald's first work was the reconciliation of widely divergent interests in which all his great abilities of statesmanship, the quality of tact, the strenght of a man who knew when and how and what to comprise, were called into incessant play. His recklessness in this regard sometimes gave him the appearance of weakness, but whatever may have been thought of his policy at the time, results abundantly prove the wisdom of his course.

Compliments for Enlarged Paper.

Cranbrook Herald: The Moyie Leader is now printed all at home and Mr. Smyth is to be complimented on the improvement he has made in his paper.

Creston Review: We are not the only ones to "double up." Last week the Moyie Leader made its appearance as a four page all-home-print paper, an improvement that cannot fail to win the approval of the people of Moyie. The Crow is singularly fortunate in having a bunch of good newspaper men who ever exalt its merits, and Brer Smyth of the Leader is as big a booster as the rest.

Fernie Free Press: The Moyie Leader discarded its boiler plate inside and is now filled with the "innards" Nature intended. The change is a decided improvement.

Bennett Praises Moyie.

J. W. Bennet, the Kootenay representative of the International Correspondence schools, last week gave out an interview to the Creston Review. He was traveling west, and he gave his impressions as he went along. Of this town he says: "Moyie is the last town of importance before reaching Creston, and I may say that probably more buildings have been erected during the past three months than during any three months in the town's history. The continued success of the Consolidated properties, together with the splendid prospects for the future as development progresses in the nearby properties, 'The Aurora' and 'Society Girl,' are establishing in the minds of many the idea of permanency in this wonderful lead producing locality."

The Hand Never Lies.

The hand never lies. It always obeys without question the order of its master—the brain. If it is desired to improve the product of the hand, attention must be given to the education of the mind, which has exclusive jurisdiction over the hand.

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach.

A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Coming Events.

Western Federation of Miners convention Denver, July 12th.

Spokane Interstate Fair, September 20th to 25th.

Westminster Fair, October 12th to 16th.

Dominion Day, July 1st, Moyie, Fernie, Nelson and Fort Steele.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Just now who "the new woman" of the day is, upon whose much heralded advent many good and sober minded people have taken fright, remains a mystery. That times are changing, and women advancing into broader fields, of education and usefulness, no one in his senses can doubt. The real new woman which the twentieth century will give to grace the decade of its successors, will be one, who, to the gentle, feminine attributes of her colonial ancestors, will add the strength of self-reliance and the force of systematic, intellectual training. A wider experience in life, and an extended knowledge of human nature, have never yet retarded the wheels of progress or deracinated society, and there seems no very good reason to believe that different results will prevail, because women possess these advantages. Immutable nature has mapped out to woman her sphere. The golden chains of love and maternal devotion bind her willingly to it. She could not leave it if she would, and she would not if she could.

So after the extravagances and exagerations that are now following naturally enough in the wake of the movement which is advancing woman into a higher position in the social system, shall have settled down, as extremes attendant on reforms have done before, the real new woman will appear, as true to herself and her vocations as any of her predecessors. If the spirit of her time extends her duties, in some instances into public life, there she will conduct herself with dignity and ability. She will preside at the fireside, a fair and stately figure, none the less lovable because adorned with more of the graces of Minerva, as well as those of Venus, none the less companionable because of her better understanding of things that interest men.

Value of Old Violins.

A remarkable test of old and new violins recently took place in Paris, which will be of the greatest interest to violinists all over the world. As soon as a violin has been played, it was placed under a green baize cloth, and then the lights were turned on for a few moments to enable the public to write down the votes.

The various violins submitted to the competition were played by M. Hayot, leader of the Paris String Quartet, and M. Oberdoerffer, of the paris Grand Opera. There was an accompaniment of a piano and a double string quartet, although the violins were also played without accompaniment. Each violin was also played by each violinist, in turn. Thus the contest was as fair as possible.

The violins submitted for the test included a superb Stradivarius, Guarnerius and other genuine Cremona violins, and many semi-modern and new violins, and the audience numbered a large number of owners of noted Cremona instruments and well known violinists.

The result was quite a surprise. It was a violin of modern make that got the most votes, and a $10,000 Stradivarius that was made in Cremona only came third. One thing the Paris contest did conclusively prove, however, and that is that the Cremona violin—even the most perfect specimen—does not possess such distinctively superior tone qualities that it can at once be recognized above all other violins.

What a Man's Life Is Worth.

Mark Twain said, "If you would be good, die."

The corporation lawyer has one that's better. "If you would collect the most damages, die piecemeal."

No man is worth more than $10,000 if he die all at once. No jury, in any state, can return a larger verdict for his heirs.

Crippled, but not killed, however, a man may get damages aggregating $216,230 for injuries to various parts of his body, providing they do not result in death. A live cripple is worth more than a perfect dead man.

It is cheaper—nearly 25 times cheaper—to kill a man than to cripple him. While the law fixes a limit beyond which juries may go in awarding damages for accidental death, it fixes no limit to the amount that may be recovered for injuries that do not result in death.

A New York court recently awarded a wife $18,000 for the loss of her husband's memory, brought about by injuries, while the loss of an eye has been assessed at $14,000 by one jury and injuries to the spine were assessed at $20,000 by another.

A Mining Town Dance.

A titled English woman who visited the west a short time ago thus gives her impressions of a dance in a mining camp.

There was a master of ceremonies who called out the dances, and not more then ten or twelve couples were allowed to dance each time, two steps and valses, and without exception it is the finest dancing I have ever seen—the very poetry of motion. Nothing violent or rude, or like a servants' ball at home, although they held their partners a little more clasped than we do. But in spite of their funny holdings, or perhaps on account of it, there is a peculiar movement of the feet, perfecet grace and rhythm and glide, which I have never seen at a real ball. One could understand it was a pure delight to them, and they felt every note of the music. They treated me with the courtesy fit for a queen and some of them told me delightful things of shootings and blood-curdlidg adventures, and all with a delicious twinkle in the eye. I did enjoy myself. I am told this quality of perfect respect for women is universal in the mining camps. And any nice woman is absolutely safe among them. I think there ought to be mining camps to teach men manners all over Europe.

The Mistakes of Life.

Life is spent in learning how to live. Mistakes are inevitable. If they were not, there would be no growth, no conquest, no new wisdom.

The best man is not he who never makes mistakes, but he who never permits them to daunt him, who accepts no failure as final, who rises every time he falls, who has ever the soul's fine courage to begin anew.

A MORAL.

I once knew a dear little mother
With a beautiful blue-eyed boy.
She constantly bathed and brushed him,
And when he had tired of toy
She would take it and scald it and scrape it
And lay it away in the sun;
And that is the way she took care of
His play things, every one.

Pent up in his own little playhouse
The baby grew pecked and pale,
And there were the neighbors children
All dirty and happy and hale.
If the baby went out for an airing
The nurse was to understand
That none of the neighbors' children
Was ever to touch his hand.

But they did, and the injured mother
Brought the dear baby inside
And shut him up in his playhouse,
Where the little one fretted and died;
Then the tear heart turned to the Virgin
Through the tear of her prayer:
And this was the weight of her prayer:
"Oh, Mother dear, don't let him play with
The other angels up there."

NEW RAILWAY ROUTE.

CRAWFORD CREEK COUNTRY IS INTERESTED IN SURVEY.

Crawford Bay, June 11.—The warm weather with rains, which caused so much high water in the rivers and creeks and played havoc up so many instances, brought a heavy freshet in Crawford Creek and at one time threatened to destroy the lower bridge. Huge trees were borne down upon the flood with terrific force, with the danger of forming a jam at the bridge piers. Oscar Darden and others, however, were on hand with dynamite bombs, which were used directly a jam began to form and by good work and judgment kept the channel clear. The loss of the bridge would have been a very unfortunate matter for the settlers on the east side of the creek.

The report which appeared in The Nelson Daily News that the Great Northern railway has a survey party making a reconnoitre up the valley of the St. Mary's river from Fort Steele towards Crawford Bay has aroused some interest here. Some years ago Henry Roy, of the Silver Hill mine and others secured a charter for what was then called the Crawford Bay & St. Mary's railway company. The name was afterwards changed and an extension of time was granted the new company on various grounds, thus preventing the lapsing of the charter. It is possible this company may be negotiating with the great Northern. The source of Crawford Bay is in the same locality as the headwaters of the west fork of the St. Mary's river, which flows into the Kootenay river at Fort Steele. There are trails from Crawford Bay to Fort Steele and Cranbrook over two passes, one over the Hooker creek divide and the other over Sawyer pass. These trails were used a good deal in 1887-87-88, by prospectors and several pack trains used to take in supplies to the St. Mary's country from Crawford Bay. Since the construction of the Crows Nest railway these trails have not been used very much. Though these passes into East Kootenay are somewhat high they do not offer insuperable difficulties to the construction of a railway. The lowest pass and the one affording the best grade is Rose's pass, called after the unfortunate Henry Rose, who was hanged in Nelson some years ago, for a murder committed on the shore of the Upper Arrow lake, and who at one time owned a number of mineral claims on the east side of the divide. The distance between Cranbrook and Nelson would be, roughly speaking, about half as long as by way of Kootenay Landing.

Corpus Christi.

GREAT CROWDS ENJOY THE FESTIVAL AT THE ST. EUGENE MISSION.

(From the Cranbrook Herald.)

The beautiful valley of the St. Mary's never looked more beautiful than it did last Sunday and never was the St. Eugene Mission and Indian village in greater gala attire than on that day. Corpus Christi is an institution in East Kootenay and Catholics and Protestants alike look forward to the bright June Sunday when they can bask in the sunshine or lie in the shade of a big tree and watch the simple, childlike faith of their red brothers. Perhaps last Sunday saw a larger crowd at the Mission than ever foregathered there. From Cranbrook, Fort Steele, Wattsburg and in fact from all over the district the crowds came in buggies, democrats, motor cars, on horse back, on bicycles and on foot. It is difficult to estimate how many people were there because the contour of the country makes it possible and pleasant to spread out, but there were a whole lot. Then the Indians. There were Kootenay Indians, Lower Kootenay Indians, Piegans and Black Feet, all in their best war paint and feathers. The bright colors of their costumes blending but contrasting beautifully with the surrounding dark green of the trees and the bright green of the irrigated clover fields of the Mission. The religious ceremony of the procession commenced at 2.30 in the afternoon. A fitting party of Indians were in advance, then followed the children of the Mission school, under the guidance of the sable robed sisters, the priest escorted by the acolikes with burning incense and then under a silken canopy the priest carrying the Sacred Host. After them came crowds upon crowds of Indians forming a train almost half a mile in length. On the route of the procession were erected arches of greenery. At each arch a salute was fired by the firing party. The Indian boys band, under the direction of Bandmaster Corrison, rendered many selections and on all hands compliments could be heard on the improvement of the St. Eugene band. No one could see the Corpus Christi procession at the Mission without being edified and feeling that after all there is something more in life than a hard workaday world and the almighty dollar.

Hurt in Runaway.

(From the Cranbrook Herald.)

Last Sunday, while Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beattie and the baby were returning from the home of W. J. Atchison, the shaft of the buggy broke and the horse became unmanageable and started to run. Shying to one side, the front wheel struck a stump and threw out Mr. Beattie, who lost hold of the reins. The horse dashed down the road until the buggy came in contact with a tree, tipping it over and throwing Mrs. Beattie and the baby some twenty-five to thirty-five feet. Mr. Beattie hurried to his feet and ran to where the accident happened and found his wife and child unconscious and, as he supposed at the time, dead. He hurriedly secured assistance and had them taken to the hospital. Mrs. Beattie suffered a fracture of her collar bone and a slight concussion of the brain, but is doing very well considering the nature of her injuries. The baby was badly bruised and one arm hurt, but is getting along nicely. Mr. Beattie escaped any serious injury.

Ball Games at Cranbrook.

TWO VERY INTERESTING GAMES PLAYED IN CRANBROOK.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

The police department of Seattle has been busy apprehending fake employment agents during the past week. In one day thirty complaints were made by persons who had paid fees ranging from $1.00 to $3.00 for jobs that were never received. By means of alluring advertisements a dozen agencies seem to have been doing a land-office business among new-comers, who have flocked to the Queen City of Puget Sound, from all parts of the country. Some of them have been pretending to book applicants for places at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, offering attractive salaries, without the least authority to do so. Captain of detectives Tennant says that all complaint will be vigorously prosecuted in an effort to clear the city of its scourge.

James J. Hill's address at the opening of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, will long rank as one of the ablest interpretations ever uttered of the development of the northwest and its opportunities. The veteran builder of the Great Northern, who has done more to exploit this part of the country than any other person, declares that it is the last great heritage of the people of the United States, having undeveloped resources in land, timber, fisheries and minerals. Mr. Hill speaks authoritatively, having first-hand knowledge covering a period of half a century. It is interesting to note in this connection, also that the address of the railroad contractor plainly marks an increasing bond of sympathy between commercial and transportation interests. H. C. Nutt, of the Northern Pacific, made an interesting talk on the same occasion, further bearing out the same idea and indicating that both large interests will be in complete harmony before long.

Holland Wins Hat.

J. J. Holland has returned from Moyie, where he has been for the past three months working in the St. Eugene mine. Mr. Holland is wearing a handsome brown hat, which he won on a bet on the drilling contest held in this city on Sept. 5, 1889, which was participated in by Burns and Davis and McNicholls and Tallan. Burns and Davis drilled 31¾ inches while McNichols and Tallan drilled 35½ inches. A Moyie man stated that McNicholls and his partner drilled over 37 inches on that occasion, and a hat was wagered on the distance drilled, which was won by Mr. Holland.—Rossland Miner.

WHAT IS MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN MOTHER LOVE?

A mother's worries are many. She sometimes forgets her own bodily discomforts because of her overpowering love for the child. She becomes broken down, sleepless, nervous, irritable and feels tired from morning until night. Many mothers of experience can tell you that at such a time they have been relieved, benefited and strengthened and put into proper health by taking a prescription which their mothers had taken, was the only woman's tonic to be taken at such times. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has enjoyed an enviable reputation for over a third of a century. In all that time it has sold more largely in the United States than any other tonic for woman's needs, and today its sales are greater than ever.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicines is the frank, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving every ingredient in plain English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the medical will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding to their what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

ALCOHOLIC TONICS.

A great many women feeling the need of a tonic take a cocktail, whisky, or what is just as bad, some widely advertised compound, containing a large percentage of alcohol. Doctor Pierce's medicines are guaranteed to be entirely free from alcohol or narcotics—made of roots which cannot harm the most delicate system, but have a wholesome, life-giving tonic effect upon the system. Tonics made largely of alcohol interfere with the digestion of certain foods and as doses increase the alcohol absorbed gets into the blood and shrinks the red blood corpuscles. As the blood feeds the nerves the nerves get improper nourishment and the mother becomes nervous. As the nerves suffer so does the baby. Better stick to a non-alcoholic tonic that has in the past third of a century sold more widely than any other.

OPEN AS THE DAY.

What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of. Its ingredients are Golden Seal root, Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, Chemically Pure Glycerine.

Hobart A. Hare, M. D., University of Pa., says of Golden Seal—"Good in all catarrhal conditions, as uterine catarrh, leucorrhœa, etc.". Prof. John King in the American Dispensatory says of Black Cohosh root—another important ingredient in "Favorite Prescription"—"It is special affinity for the female organs it is an efficient agent in suppression, in dysmenorrhœa it is surpassed by no other drug, being of greatest utility in irritative and congestive conditions of the appendages, characterized by dragging pains, etc."

Prof. King says of Unicorn root—"We have found this plant to possess a decidedly beneficial influence in cases of lassitude with weakness or dull pain in the renal or lumbo-sacral (small of the back) region. It is one of our most valuable agents, acting as a uterine tonic and gradually removing abnormal conditions, while at the same time it imparts tone and vigor to the reproductive organs. Hence it is much used in leucorrhœa, amenorrhœa, dysmenorrhœa."

A PARTICULAR PHASE

removed by it is the irritability and despondency that often attends these troubles. In those cases in which there is pelvic fullness, the sensation of bearing down or as if the parts would fall out of the body. Its action here is very decided."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons subjected to any of these troubles should never be without a vial of the "Pleasant Pellets" at hand. In proof of their superior excellence it can truthfully be said that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial.

One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from overeating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advisor will be sent free, paper bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth bound for 31 stamps. Over 1000 pages and illustrated. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
