CONSERVATIVES NOMINATE GOODEVE Rossland Man Will Oppose Smith Curtis in Kootenay

The choice of the Kootenay Conon Tuesday fell on A. S. Goodeve of Rossland. There were 105 votes present out of a total of 108 for the whole Dominion riding, 85 being personally precent and the remainder by proxy. The first choice of the convention fell on J. H. Schofield, of Trail, member for Ymir in the legislature, who declined. So also declined W.A. Mc-Donald and R. S. Lennie of Nelson, R. F. Green, of Kaslo, and C. H. Mackintosh.

A ballot was taken between W. R. Ross, M. L.A., of Fernie and Goodeve of Rossland. The latter had it easily and Ross moved that the vote be made unanimous.

Mr. Goodeve was the first provincial secretary of the McBride government. He was defeated by J. A. Macdonald, of Rossland, the Liberal leader. He was twice mayor of Rossland and re-J. F. Royer has returned from his fused a petition for a third term.
