REWARD THE PROSPECTOR

He Should be Encouraged by Some Form of Governmental Recognition

The HERALD takes pleasure in reproducing the following excellent and timely article from the Rossland Miner of Aug. 21st:

"In a new mining community there is no more important figure than the prospector. He is the very genesis of the mining industry, and without a beginning there can be no end. He is the knight errant of the mining world, for he goes about in out of the way places, and encounters all sorts of dangers and hardships, principally to the end that others may prosper, for he seldom secures substantial benefits from that which he finds. This has usually been the history from the time that Marshall made the first discovery of gold on the Pacific coast in Sutter's millrace in California in the year 1848. Marshall benefited very little by a discovery that brought fortunes to thousands of men and marked a new epoch of prosperity on this continent. Comstock, one of the first locators of the Comstock lode, which added nearly $400,000,000 to the world's store of precious metal, got but little benefit from his wonderful find.
Louis Pannal, one of the original owners of the great Treadwell mine in Alaska, is now spending the evening of his life in comparative poverty on the shores of Christmas lake. Joseph Moris and Joseph Bourgeois sold their interests in the Le Roi for the recording fees for some other properties. It is often the case when fortune knocks at the door of a prospector and he knows that he has struck it at last, he is compelled by his very necessities, to part with that which he has found through much toil and hardship for a mere song. Hence he is usually poor, but still the prospector keeps on his nomadic rounds, hoping in the end to find that which will give him a competence. In this pursuit no rocky mountain is too steep for him, no valley too deep, no swollen river, mad with the motion given them by the melting snow, offer no obstacle to his progress, and so he goes on and on, and often passes over the Great Divide before he reaches to that which he wishes to find. The formula is 75 years of age and bears the sweet name of Jennie. She is a native of India; the other male is 28 years old and is from Burmah. The boxing kangaroo was a big attraction. This unique animal has the gloves placed upon her forepaws and paws, and she is a most amusing and wonderful sight.
There is a cage of lions, three females and two males. One of these was born on the night of President Mc-Kinley's election. There are 36 ponies comprising dapple greys and Shet-lands, bears, deers, eigers, cougars, and many other animals, all of which are an interesting and educational collection.—Free Press, August 12.

The Provincial government in its wisdom has seen fit to pass a measure that is beneficial to the miners and will, it is believed, foster, build up and encourage that important industry.
Mining is one of the great industries of the Province, but it is secondary to the greatest of Provincial industries, that of mining. The government should aid the mining industry in the same way that it aids the matter of building trails, roads and the making of railway construction. The poorly recompensed prospector should be encouraged by some form of governmental recognition. The discovery of a rich property, like the Le Roi, the Centre Star, the War Eagle, the Payne and the Shofar, has, of course, a great favor on mankind, because he virtually adds from $1,000,000 to $500,000,000 to the wealth of the world. This wealth as soon as it reaches the channels of everyday commerce, is ever after the greatest possible benefit, the theory being that money breeds money and wealth breeds prosperity. Hence the discovery of a really good or great mining property is so much a benefactor to his fellow man that he is in every way worthy of substantial recognition and reward at the hands of his fellow men. It is, therefore, obvious that the successful prospector should be rewarded. It will be said that the finding of a rich mine is in itself a sufficient recompense. This is not the case always, for the reason that the prospector rarely receives a tithe of the real value of the property because, as was said before, he is compelled by his financial straits to part with it for what he can get.

This recognition of the prospector is not dictated by mere sentiment, as it has its utilitarian side. There is nothing that impels human action so much as the hope of reward. From a cold-blooded standpoint of results to be attained, the Government should do something in this article. In British Columbia there is a mining section the like of which in richness and extent does not lie outdoors on God's foot-stool. It is best for the present generation that the richest of this mineral wealth as possible be extracted at the earliest possible moment. Make it certain that the finder of a meritorious property will be given a suitable reward and there will be renewed extra exertion all along the line, and such exertions will be made within the next few years as will astonish the world. Have a law enacted covering this matter at the earliest possible moment. It will help the Province more than any other legislation that could possibly be enacted.

Secretary in Hon. Mr. Scullin's cabinet.

LEMEN'S CIRCUS

Large Crowds Pleasingly Entertained at Yesterday's Performances

The first performances of Lemmen Bros. circus were given yesterday evening and evening on the grounds opposite the general hospital. There was a good attendance and the crowd came away well pleased with what they saw. The performance in the rings and on the platform was all of it good and some of it extra good. In the latter class, a large addition to back riding a little Edna, who performs the difficult feat of turning a somersault on the back of a galloping horse. The first time she tried it yesterday she missed her slippery footing and went flying to the ground, but recovered herself immediately and finished all the more applauded by successfully accomplishing the feat on succeeding trials. A very taking act was that by two artists, one of whom held up a long slippery pole while the other performed various very pretty feats upon the top of it. Two lady acrobats did some splendid balancing work on the trapeze, even swinging through a wide arc while standing upon the bar. Two sets of three men did some very good tumbling feats, some of which were after the style of those performed by the Bartellis at the exhibition. The flying ladder and flying wings were both entertaining as was the performance of two of the acrobats in flying leaps, the latter being the best exhibition of the kind ever seen here. A little squad of clowns played baseball, set off firecrackers and in other ways created much amusement. The flying ladder

The C. P. R. and Temperance

The Brandon Independent recently entered a complaint against the C. P. R.'s system of paying its employees by checks compelling the men to resort to saloons and hotels to get their checks cashed. The editor of the Wesaskiwini Free Lance as an old employee of the C. P. R., ought to be fully qualified to speak on the subject, and what he says is eminently creditable to the management of the company. It characterizes the Independent's article as a glaring misstatement of facts and its deductions as palpably wrong:

"Any one who knows anything at all of the C. P. R.," says the Free Lance "knows that they are greatly opposed to intemperance. More so than any other agency in Canada, to our personal knowledge. In the first place, to obtain a situation on the C. P. R., a man has to say that he does not use intoxicants at all. After he is employed the company's rule book—the recognized law of the company—prohibits every man that preference in promotion will in every case be given to the man who does not use liquors.
When the company commenced paying their men by check they gave instructions to all their agents to provide sufficient money on pay day to pay these checks, and as a further precaution they arranged with a large number of banks in all parts of the country to cash their checks at par.
Some months ago they required each employee to sign an agreement, which is practically a total abstinence pledge, and made the penalty for the agreement instant dismissal from the service. Later still, they issued a circular to all employees, saying it had been reported to them that some employees were in the habit of getting their checks cashed in hotels and bars and that they must discontinue the practice. We are satisfied that the editor of the Independent, known because he would not have written this article, for whatever else the C. P.
R. Co. are doing or are not doing for the people of Canada, they are certainly doing more to further the temperance movement than all other agencies combined, and any article of the kind familiar with the progress of the use of liquor among railroad men during the past few years will substantiate this."

The Montreal Star has come to the conclusion reached by many other authorities, namely that the Yukon administration under Mr. Sitton is rotten.

One of the Minnesota papers represented in the recent excursion says:
"We do not believe wheat can be grown quite as far west as Regina with any certainty of a crop." Which shows the erroneous impressions a visitor may receive from passing through the North West in a Pullman car.

The gold plate communion service, which Ernest Terah Hooley gave to St.
Paul's Cathedral, has been sold and the proceeds applied to the benefit of the creditors. St. Paul's has come better out of its connection with the great speculator than most of the people who had the misfortune to be raided up with his affairs.

The announcement of the date of the plebiscite does not seem to have caused any extraordinary excitement even in the saloons. It would be more to the point, if instead of asking the electors their opinions, the government would declare their own intentions. But all through the debate on the bill, Sir Wilfrid Laurier maintained a sphinx-like silence, and beyond the fact that the plebiscite will be taken, no one has the slightest idea of what is going to happen. Probably nothing.—Montreal Gazette.

The Winnipeg Free Press is not conspicuously happy in its allusions to the British aristocracy. It made an unfortunate break the other day when referring to the new viceroy of India it said the government "did not listen to representations from families dating back to William the Conqueror or choose an individual who has been resting possibly on the plunder of his ancestors." They appointed a plain mister, etc. Now it happens that Mr. Curzon is not only the heir to a baronetcy, but a direct descendant of Geraldine de Curzon, Lord of the Manor of Locking, of the time of William the Conqueror. F. P. please

It is stated on good authority that imperial penny postage will come into operation on November 9th next, the Prince of Wales' birthday, by which day the necessary arrangements are expected to be complete.

The police at Winnipeg have recovered a bicycle stolen from in front of the Arctic Ice Co.'s office in this city on August 23rd of last year. The wheel was found in a bluff by a half breed woman near St. Jean. It has evidently been in use up to a short time ago, as there are no signs of damage from exposure.

Pugwash, a town on the straits of Northumberland in Nova Scotia has been totally destroyed by fire. The buildings destroyed include 20 stores, five churches and three hotels. The flames were fanned by a high wind.
Very little of the loss is covered by A funny tale comes from remote Gualeguaychu, Argentina. The holder of the ticket winning $30,000 in a re-

Spanish working man; but the day before the drawing he had torn up the ticket in an ecstasy over the winning of an imaginary great Spanish victory in Cuba. He now regrets his patriotic enthusiasm.

Tavistock Gazette: The vote on prohibition has already been taken in four provinces—Ontario, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Manitoba—the result being a combined majority for prohibition of 128,558. Excuses have been found, however, for not putting prohibition into force in those provinces, and it is more than likely that excuses for delay will also be made when the Dominion vote is given for that measure.

Dr. Fletcher government entomologist returned to Winnipeg from British Columbia on Sunday. He is to visit Dorchester and then proceed to Ottawa. His visit to British Columbia has been most successful and he reports that public interest is aroused and that people are determined to preserve their fruit crops from the ravages of insects, and that the lecture on injurious insects and noxious weeds were very much appreciated.

The annual bluff made to raise the price of binding twine has been more successful this year than usual. Manufacturers of twine have shown their patriotism by using the blockade of Manila as an excuse for sending the price of twine to a note that it has not touched for several years. If any of the fiber from which our twine is made ever was in Manila it was nearly a year ago, for even with modern transportation it takes time to move freight.—Farm Student Review.

A. F. McLaren, M. P., North Perth, is in Montreal after a business trip to England. He is better known in Western Canada as the Cheese King. During his stay in England he discovered that New Zealand cheese is making headway on the market there. Specimens he examined, he said, were about equal to the Canadian article. Canada still ships 60 per cent of the cheese consumed in the British Isles and is likely to retain her supremacy. It is a noteworthy feature that the art of cheese making was taught the New Zealanders by teachers imported from Canada.

The United States authorities seem to have been playing Aginaldo for a fool. The subpoenaed letter sent to United States Consul General Wildman at Hong Kong shows how far they are correct: "I have read that I am getting the big head, and not behaving as I promised you. In reply I ask you why should America expect me to outline my policy, present the future, and fight blindly for her interests, when America will not be frank with me. Tell me this, am I fighting for annexation, protection or independence? It is for America to say not me. I can take Manila as I have defeated the Spanish everywhere, but what would be the use? If America takes Manila, I can save my men and arms for what the future has in store for me. I am not both fool and rogue. The interests of my people are as sacred to me as are the interests of your people to you. Signed: Agin-aldo."

The following interesting find is taken from the Edmonton Bulletin of Aug.
17: A month-old musk somewhat decayed is now to be seen in John Fraser's house near D. R. Fraser's mill. Mr.
Fraser saw the musk protruding above the surface of the river when crossing in a boat near Goose encampment. He took hold of the protruding part and in attempting to wrench the musk loose from where it was imbedded in the sand, broke off a piece of the small rod. The part which he secured is 5 feet four inches long and 1 1/2 inches in circumference. From the size of the musk where broken off and the length of the rod, the musk remains in the bed of the river. The most remarkable thing about this find is that the musk is not petrified. It was somewhat decayed, but still the core is quite apparent over a good deal of the

MUSIC IN THE AIR

A Dawson View of Miner's Grievances

The Commissioner Poses an Inter-

The Klondike Nugget says:
"There's music in the air."
For days and weeks all eyes have been turned towards Dominion creek, as the place most likely to furnish the claim that would give them their homestead.

One disappointment and delay has followed another until the last order of the gold commissioner has raised to fever heat.

Major Walsh says he is sick of the whole business. His exact words are:

from start to finish, and I am sick and tired of the whole business." He has practically admitted that when the people have known for 10 these many days, viz., that the gold commissioner is incompetent to fill the office he now holds.

Be he ever so honest himself, the gold commissioner's office has been conducted in such a manner as to give evidence of being crooked work. Information that the public should have as soon as anybody, has been given out on the quiet by someone to friends and those little friends have taken the information thus surreptitiously gained and located for themselves that which has been denied the honest prospector.

An evidence of the short-sightedness of the gold commissioner and his ill-advisers, the middle over Dominion creek is sufficient.

Against the methods of doing business adopted by that office the people stand no show whatever. They never know "where they are at." For example, read what follows:

the stampede had reached such proportions that the crowd of stampede-ers could not be handled by the ferry boat—a large ferry—across the Klondyke river on Bonanza trail.

The pretense that the new order was simply to prevent anarchy, disorder and possible bloodshed, is shown to be a very chimeric by the issue of a third proclamation this morning about 9:30, showing that the very condition of affairs said to be the cause of the decision to prevent is actually being brought about by their own policy of vacillation.

The new order reads as follows: No certificates (of records) shall be issued for the hillside claim on Dominion creek until the lapse of 10 days from the date of application therefore in order that rival claimants for the

SAM'S NEW NAVY

A Naval Review—Disbanding the U.S. Volunteers

SEVEN THOUSAND TAKEN AT MANILA

Entry of Armed Insurgents Prevented

United States Losses—Trouble With Aguinaldo's Forces Expected—Terrible Railway Accident in South Africa

London, August 18.—Information has been received that 30 persons have been killed in a railway accident near Cape Town, Africa.

SEVEN THOUSAND PRISONERS

Washington, August 18.—Seven thousand Spaniards were taken prisoners by the United States troops at the taking of Manila.

AMERICAN CASUALTIES

Hong Kong, August 18.—The total number of United States soldiers killed at the taking of Manila was only five. Fourteen insurgents with arms in their hands were prevented from entering the city, and trouble is anticipated with Aguinaldo's forces.

THE AMERICAN NAVY

New York, August 18.—A special to 'The Tribune' from Washington says the strength of the navy will not be precipitately reduced on account of the suspension of hostilities, but on the contrary the administration has determined that a very large naval force is necessitated by the increased obligations the United States has undertaken, or had forced upon her. Orders have been given not only for the prosecution of energetic operations at all naval stations to speedily put in fine trim all the regular warships of the fleet, but a very large proportion of the auxiliaries, which were purchased to the number of nearly a hundred, will be considered in the category of permanent additions to the navy. Others will be turned over to their original owners or sold to the fleet.

RUSSIA AGAIN

EXPRESSING REGRET

London, August 18.—The papers this morning are expressing regrets over the departure of Colonel Hay, and announce their satisfaction that he is going to fill a position which promises important results for the Anglo-American relations. All compliment him upon the splendid services he has performed here.

ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS

Naples, August 18.—Mount Vesuvius is again in a state of active eruption. Four distinct streams of lava are pouring down from the summit of the mountain at the rate of four hundred yards an hour. The beautiful chestnut trees on Mount Somma have been completely destroyed. A constant series of explosions are heard in the central crater, which is continuously belching forth volumes of flame and emitting dense clouds of ashes.

MUSTERING OUT OF SERVICE

Washington, August 17.—An order will be issued today, when approved by the cabinet, mustering out of service about 50,000 of the volunteer forces.

IGNORANT OF PEACE

Havana, August 17.—On Sunday morning the converted lighthouse tender, Mangrove, appeared before Calbarion, and opened fire on the town gunboat, Hernan. The cortex and shore batteries replied. The Mangrove fired 67 shells over the town. No injury was done to persons, and no property damage caused to the town. Later in the day the gunboat Cante, under a flag truce put out for the Mangrove and informed the captain of the signing of the protocol.

SURRENDER OF MANILA

Hong Kong, August 18.—Manila has surrendered to Dewey. The Americans were soon in possession. The officers of the Kasari Augustas are very reticent regarding Manila, but have heard from a Spanish passenger, who was on the cruiser, that on Saturday morning Dewey's fleet advanced toward Manila and signalled a demand to surrender. He was refused. His forces then bombarded the city and it was taken by assault. Augustin, who had relinquished the government the week before to the military governor, was taken off by a German cruiser late at night.

NAVAL REVIEW

Washington, August 18.—The navy department is considering the project of a naval review in New York harbor next Saturday, when the battleships and cruisers of the United States fleet arrive there. Efforts are being made to induce the department to have a review of the ships and a land review of the sailors. It is probable the final decision will be to have the war vessels go up the river to Grant's tomb at Riverside, and there fire a salute. The trip up to the tomb affording the public sufficient opportunity to view the ships without firing the sailors by a land procession.

A company has been formed in Lethbridge called the North West Produce & Commission Co. (Ltd). They will handle all kinds of produce and sell on commission.

Thos. McNaught of Fort Steele is in the city. Mr. McNaught is largely interested in mining in East Kootenay. While no great stir is visible he expects that a good deal of solid work is progressing throughout the district. The North Star mine has been shipping ore down the river all summer and as soon as the railway reaches it will largely increase its output. Near Windermere, midway between Golden and Steele, a number of Rossland men are at work, both prospecting and developing. When a railway is built down the Columbia valley, connecting the C. P. R. with the Crow's Nest branch, for which purpose three charters have already been granted, the Windermere district is expected to boom. The C. P. R. is now running freight and work trains into Windermere, 12 miles from Steele, to which place a branch line is expected to run.

DISORDERLY U.S. TROOPS

LAWLESSNESS PREVALENT IN SANTIAGO

Native Reprisals—The Cable Censorship Removed—Eruption of Mount Vesuvius—More Russian Intrigue

Washington, August 19.—Perfect order is reported from Manila.

REPRISALS

The natives of Porto Rico are persecuting the Spanish residents.

SPANISH OUTRAGES

Acts of outrage are reported by Spanish soldiers at Porto Rico.

CABLE CENSORSHIP

The cable censorship at Porto Rico has now been raised.

LAWLESSNESS IN SANTIAGO

New York, August 19.—Alarming reports of lawlessness have been received from Santiago de Cuba. Yesterday General Shafter ordered the Second volunteer regiment of immigrants to leave the city and go into camp outside. The regiment had been placed here as a garrison to preserve order and protect property. There had been a firing of arms inside the town by members of this regiment, without orders, and so far as is known some of the men indulged in liquor and were very disorderly. The inhabitants in some quarters have alleged loss of property by force or intimidation, and there has grown up a feeling of uneasiness, if not alarm. General Shafter has therefore ordered the regiment into the hills, where discipline can be made severely rigid. In place of the Second volunteer regiment, General Shafter has ordered into the city the Eighth Illinois volunteer regiment of colored troops, in whose sobriety and discipline he has confidence and whose sturdy enforcement of order will no doubt be felt by those in command.

CAPITULATION

It is claimed that the capitulation of Manila included the whole of the Philippine Archipelago.

London, August 18.—The papers this morning are expressing regrets over the departure of Colonel Hay, and announce their satisfaction that he is going to fill a position which promises important results for the Anglo-American relations. THE HIRSCH CYCLONE

CHILD'S REMARKABLE ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Farm Implements—Carried for Miles—The Jewish Colony Wrecked—Houses Demolished—The Track of the Storm

Winnipeg, August 17.—It is reported that three persons have been seriously injured by a cyclone at Hirsch, near Estevan, Assiniboia.

Estevan, Assn., August 18.—On Saturday night about midnight, this district was visited by a severe wind storm, and at Hirsch, 20 miles east of here, the Jews had their first experience of a genuine cyclone on a small scale. Dr. Scott of this place was called down early Sunday morning to attend to some of the victims of the previous night's storm. He found the house and stable of Blansky completely demolished, the cooking stove had dropped down into the cellar. The floor seems to have been drawn from under the stove. A three months old baby was blown about 300 feet, and then stopped by a wire fence, and was not found for some time afterwards. It suffered hardly any injuries beyond a few bruises and slight cuts. Mr. Blansky escaped without a scratch, but his wife was seriously injured, and the doctors do not seem to know whether the accident will be fatal or not. A wagon standing in front of the house was picked up and carried over a mile and a half buried in the ground. A mower was rolled over and over until you could find hardly one of the pieces. The strange feature of the storm was that the wind split on the Colony association store, taking Blansky's house and stable on one side, and the association stable on the east side, doing no damage to the store itself. The storm seemed to proceed to Bow Bells, N. D., according to reports.

HOW WAR HELPS SPORT

Diversion Needed to Alleviate Craving For Excitement.

LESS LOUDNESS IN CYCLE DRESS.

Up to Date Wheelmen May Now Appreciate Like Civilized Human Beings—Swinging Pedals Which Afford Change of Position to the Feet.

The promoters of cycling anticipate a rich season. They claim that the war, even though long continued, will help them in their efforts. It is mainly because they believe the people during war time will seek out of door diversion to allay their craving for excitement. The promoters call attention to the interest in sports during the civil war, in which they say that throngs much larger than those in is in effect lengthened on the downward thrust and shortened on the upward.

Robert Hansell has applied for a patent on an invention for the protection of the inner tube of a tire against puncture. The protective armor is of metal plates or scales overlapping each other in a peculiar manner and hinged or flexibly connected together and to a fabric layer as a medium for holding the plate or scales in position. The joint between the plates or scales extend longitudinally or circumferentially, which affords the armor all the flexibility or pliancy necessary, and at the same time the armor effectively protects the inner tube from punctures.

Nearly 30 prominent makers of wheels have arranged to band bicycles. These three wheeled machines are more suited to many than bicycles, and for ordinary road purposes are superior in many cases, as they are now made very light, and a fair rate of speed can be maintained with the same exertion used for propelling a bicycle. The danger of the plates or scales flying away with it, being impossible for the machines to slide side or fall. Timid persons who have refrained from cycling on this account will now have an opportunity to ride without any more danger than is to be encountered in driving.

John B. Hearn, of Schenectady, N. Y., has devised an attachment for recording grades in connection with distances by means of the bicycle. The apparatus is carried on the top bar by light clips, and the bar is assumed to be horizontal. A rod running along above the bar is driven by the crank on the paper roll in front of the crank axle, and this rod has on its forward end an endless screw which slowly turns a vertical drum that carries a reel of paper for the record. A marker is held in contact with this reel, and so long as the surface traveled over is horizontal the line traced by the marker on the paper roll is straight, indicating a level grade. Under the top bar and just underneath the roll a weight is hung, which is free to swing backward or forward, but in no other direction, and the position of this weight, by simple connection, is made to control the vertical position of the marker point. In going down any grade the pendulum swings backward or forward, raising or lowering the marker, and thus causing its line to approach or recede from a second line which represents the horizontal level. The result is a record, on a fixed scale, showing distances and the exact rise or drop of the surface, furnishing a complete topographical profile in just the time required in traveling over the road. This device may prove of great value to engineers, railroad, military or civil, and it offers an immediate use in the preparation of road maps, which have heretofore been unable to indicate gradients.

WHY JEFFRIES WON.

Coolness and Skill More Than a Match For Brute Strength.

The recent defeat of Sailor Sharkey by Jim Jeffries in San Francisco is regarded by sportsmen generally as a victory of mind over matter. Sharkey possessed the usual aggressive methods, depending upon brute force to win, but stacked up against more bulk and dexterity than he bargained for. The rowdy methods of Sharkey have done much to plunge pugilism into deep disrepute, and the success of Jeffries is welcomed by the sporting fraternity. Jeffries' record is as follows: April, 1897, knocked out T. Van Baskirk in two rounds; May, 1897, knocked out Dick Baker in nine rounds; July, 1897, draw with Gus Ruhlin; 20 rounds; Nov. 30, defeated Peter Dwyer in April of this year.

WELL DRESSED CYCLIST.

Times of peace flocked to witness all sorts of athletic contests. After reading war reports and talking of war from day to day the promoters expect the public will welcome any kind of sport that affords relief. The feeling of strife and controversy in the air will also lead the public to follow any sort of racing with renewed interest. Mainly fortified with such reasons, the promoters are continuing their efforts to provide good sport. Preparations for a great season have been commenced here, the thought of real war was entertained, and the part for the promoters to play will be simply perseverance in their original intentions.

Next to comfort and speed the appearance of a cyclist is important. This applies to men as well as women. Good taste has asserted itself sufficiently to ostracize the sweater, and the most hideous colors and designs seen last year have been toned down by the decrees of fashion. Dark blue or black serge or flannel is the prevailing material for coats. These are cut fairly short, but otherwise like the regulation stock pattern, with either patch pockets on the outside or plain pockets inside. The collar has a high roll, and three or four buttons are used, according to individual fancy. One great advantage of a coat of this description is that it may be worn by men as well as women, and whether they be of wool, duck or crash. In the selection of waistcoats the cyclist has wide latitude. A great variety will be shown by the fashionable shopkeepers, any of which will be acceptable. Present indications show a preference for a medium brown or grey color, with narrow longitudinal stripes or small figured effects. In real summer weather this garment will naturally be used only by very few riders. For trousers the selection in best taste is a shepherd's plaid or small check in black and white or strongly contrasting colors. Some heavy checks will be shown, but they will find less favor among the knowing ones. Hon. E. G. Prim, in response to an influential signal resignation, has issued a call for a Liberal-Conservative convention to be held in Vancouver on September 1st and 2nd. The objects of the convention are to organize the party throughout the Province, there having hitherto been no practical organization or nucleus by which the Conservative party in British Columbia could be an effective factor in Federal affairs. It is expected that the meeting will be well attended by delegates from all parts of the Province.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION

As will be seen in our news columns the idea of a Conservative convention, of which the HERALD press was one of the very first to give expression, has speedily taken practical shape, and the meeting itself is to be held in Vancouver on the first and second of September. The executive of the Conservative Association here have called a meeting of the association for next Saturday evening in the office of Grogan & Co., for the purpose of electing a delegate to attend the convention. The HERALD hopes that there will be a good attendance and that other points in Kootenay are doing the same thing! The Liberals are organized already and watching every turn. The HERALD believes, however that the tide of feeling has already begun to set against the Laurier government and that organization and energy on the part of the Conservatives of British Columbia is all that is necessary to carry the province back to the party at the next

Dominion election. This election may be some time off at present, but we cannot be prepared too soon or too early in the field. Every Conservative should join his local association and every executive should begin at once to watch the voters' lists, and bring Conservative new-comers into the province into the fighting line. We have now men of high rank in the party to act as our leaders in the province a number of members of the party who were misled by the spurious pretences of the Liberals during the late contest, have returned to their allegiance to Conservatism; there are others who never cast a Conservative vote in their lives who are most grievously disappointed at the showing made by their party in power—everything is in our favor; all we need is unity of purpose and organization. Sir John Macdonald's receipt for victory was first to organize, second to organize, third to organize, and in his opinion the time to begin was the day after an election. If Conservatives in British Columbia will follow their great chief's advice the game is in their hands.

We are giving demonstrations daily in the art of Correct Tailoring. Our customers are models of neatness and fashion, and we take pride in having them such. If you are particular, if your clothes must be "just so"—then we want you for a customer. It is our pleasure to please the man of exacting taste. The most hardest to please is the man we want. Won't you let us demonstrate with you.

Suits, $20 Up.
