Sarsaparilla... LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Turn out to drill... E. J. Kerr of Arrowhead, was in town on Saturday last.

A. Johnson of the Herald went west to Vancouver on Monday's train. The public examination at the public school will take place on Friday morning.

Mrs. B. Dent has fenced and otherwise improved her property on First st. east. A. Cummins, of Cummins & Co., merchants of Ferguson, was in town on Monday.

S. Sutherland of the firm of McKinnand & Sutherland, Ferguson, was in town on Monday. E. O. Fromey says that the Revelstoke Brick Co. will soon have 250,000 first-class brick on the market.

Hugh Loucheed is raising the roof of his former residence on Second st. east to match the recent addition built. W. Kault, of Ingersoll, Ont., arrived in town a couple of days ago and has taken a position as head baker in A. N. Smith's bakery.

The Revelstoke Bicycle club will meet at the station on Friday night at 6 o'clock sharp to be photographed by R. H. Treuiman. I. T. Brewster, manager of the Garmes Creek Consolidated, returned from the Roseway on Friday. There is still some snow up at the mine.

The new church of the St. Peter's church will be ready for Sunday's services. It adds immensely to the appearance of the interior of the building. Fred Fraser, collector, has received word from Victoria that in order to get the rebate this year's taxes will have to be paid promptly on or before June 20.

ONCE MORE THE WAGONROAD

The position assumed by the government on the wagonroad question is shortly this: that it will be completed as soon as there is a definite promise from Mr. Genelle or somebody else to put a steamer on the river. In that event the chief commissioner of lands and works, disregarding entirely the question of the navigability of the canyon, or, rather, considering it settled that it is not for several weeks in each year, navigable at all, and dismissing as absurd the contentions...

What Says MacDuff? It is indeed time for a change!!! There is a thrilling scene in the new play, Cannon Road, when Julius M. Kellie, disguised as Caesar, and Brutus Atkins-McDuff quarrel over the choice of a new license commissioner for the city.

Orangemen!! YOU ARE REQUESTED TO ATTEND A MEETING OF L. O. L. 1658 On Monday Eve., June 26, VERY IMPORTANT!! BRETHREN WELCOME!!

THE PASSING SHOW... Inquiries have been made of the Herald as to the penalties attached to the infringement of the eight hour law, as it is called. This enactment is contained in an act passed last session amending the Inspection of Metalliferous Mines Act of 1907, Section 13, governing the employment of boys in mines was repealed by the amending act, and the following section inserted in its place: "No person shall be employed underground in any metalliferous mine for more than eight hours in every twenty-four hours."

Notice... UNDER AND BY VIRTUE of a warrant of execution to me directed at the County Court of Kootenay, holden at Revelstoke, at the instance of Fred Robinson, plaintiff, I have this day seized and hold in possession the building recently occupied by Harvey & Keswick as steam boiler and engine works, and shall offer the same for sale by public auction at the Court House, Revelstoke, on Monday, June 26th, 1909, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. G. E. GIBBONS, Deputy Sheriff.

The date of the musical and dramatic entertainment to be given at Mrs. Chas. Holten's residence under the auspices of the Talent Society will be changed from June 28 to Wednesday, July 5. Two of the ladies of the society, Mrs. Holten and Miss Lisa Martin, have assumed the responsibility of getting up the entertainment. The brass band has kindly offered its services. The dramatic portion of the program will consist of two very pretty little plays, entitled respectively: "Our Bitterest Foe," an episode of the Franco-Prussian war and "A Silent Woman," in which Miss Martin, W. F. Craig and T. H. Dunne will appear.
