GREAT DEPARTMENTAL STORE

Seasonable Suggestions For Shoppers This Week

Thoughtful visitors to this store will not think of leaving Bourne Bros' store without doing some "shopping." There is much to be gained by those who do, and the money we can save them on goods required for Fall and Winter will more than compensate them for the time and expense of their visit to this store. More than that. In buying at this store there is a pleasing satisfaction of knowing that goods are perfectly dependable and worthy, as well as new and up-to-date. Then our immense varieties and stocks from which selections are made are so satisfying to buyers because they can get exactly what they want, as they want it. Back of all this is our guarantee to refund money if goods do not prove as represented.

It goes without saying that THIS WEEK will be a busy one at this store and we'll have about all we can easily attend to. It may facilitate matters if we pick out some of the seasonable lines and mention them beforehand. Hence this list of suggestions, which also includes a few bargain plums that will be given this week.

Mantles, Dress Goods Dress Furnishings Millinery

Every store gets some things new and some things that are really stylish, but there's every possible difference in the range of novelties that find favor here. For years we've held first place in the matter of style, and now we're after the trade of super fashionable folk. That means a tremendous showing of

Novelties in Mantles
Novelties in Millinery
Novelties in Dress Goods
Novelties in Dress Furnishings

The Dress Goods interest alone is sufficient to warrant big emphasis. Our trade has grown to such an extent that we are in a position to make our terms in buying and therefore control the very choicest of the new styles; same way with mantles, same way with millinery. We have the styles that appeal to the particular wants of particular and fashionable women and all extravagance has been taken out of the prices. The displays are even richer now than when first opened, and late novelties will continue to come fast as introduced; that's what makes each stock so eminently successful.

The Grocery Store

Have you ever figured out the difference it makes in a season's expense buying round here and there as compared with regular ordering GROCERIES from this store, when such large quantities are handled and the necessarily long profits of small dealers are quite unknown; a cent or two a pound becomes of great importance when you multiply it by the 365 days, days you use a pound or more. Then too you are sure of getting the best here. Nothing inferior is carried in stock. Come personally, by telephone, or send a child, you get nothing but the very best.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

As a matter of fact the whole of the interminable discussion raised by R. Tapping's petition in the Council last Saturday night was talk in the air. The petition simply asked the council to do something which they have no power to do under the municipal act as it stands at present. It asked them to adopt the half frontage tax system for every sidewalk built in the city. The council has no power to do anything of the kind. They can declare by a two thirds vote that a certain sidewalk is of general benefit to the whole city and then introduce a bylaw to build it by a half frontage tax as a principle. In this case the Voice of the People with a big P, cuts no ice at all. The People with a big P, cannot confer on the council powers which it does not possess by statute. And if it is a question of building the sidewalk along a certain route by half frontage tax as a matter of public necessity, it is the voice of the people with a small p, who have to do the paying of the half frontage tax to which the council has to listen.

These kind of petitions only darken counsel and hinder progress by starting these interminable discussions at the municipal board. It is now nearly five months since the resolution to build the sidewalk out of the debenture money was first unanimously adopted by the council and still not a foot of it has been laid down. All we have had is one continual wrangle over it at every meeting of the council. It is simply preposterous that seven business men should have permitted themselves to waste all this time over such a small and yet so necessary a matter. It is to be hoped that next session of the council will see the last of it. If the advocates of the half frontage system wish to test the matter, they had better bring in a motion to the effect that the sidewalk is of general necessity and see if they can get a two-thirds vote of the council to declare it so. If they can, then a bylaw can be prepared and the matter will proceed in regular course as laid down in the act. If they fail, then all the council need do is to direct that the appropriation made for sidewalks at the beginning of May on the recommendation of the public works committee by an unanimous vote of the whole council be at once expected. The money to make these much needed improvements has been borrowed, the city is paying interest on it, it is lying idle in the bank and the improvements are not being made. It is time to quit talking and get down to business. As Ald. Graham suggested a small snow plow and one horse will keep the walk clear of snow next winter and if the work is put in hand right away we shall escape the miseries of having to walk in sleigh tracks for six months from next November, jumping off into snow drifts every once in awhile to let a sleigh pass, and we shall also avoid the awful mud when the snow melts next spring. Now is just as good a time to build the sidewalk as any, if the council will only get down to business.

Our own Kellie has been making a deliverance to the Vancouver World. Mr. Kellie, cannot see any political crisis knocking around just at present. "What," he asked the public through the columns of the World, "what have the opposition done lately that would appeal to the people, anyway?" What does Mr. Kellie expect the present provincial opposition or any other opposition to do? The people to do things are the government. It is out of the power of an opposition to do anything, whether it appeals to the people or not. But Mr. Kellie argues they should "get out a policy, publish it and show that it is the best one for the country." The opposition have a policy. It is summed up in one word—Development. Development of the resources of the country. Their policy to come near home was to assist to open up Kootenay and they did it. The results of their policy speak for themselves. Have the results of the present government's policy always been equally admirable in Kootenay? How have they shown up in Atlin, which fell to the government, which Mr. Kellie at present, supports, to develop, as Kootenay fell to their predecessors. How have Mr. Kellie and his friends helped to open up North Kootenay? Development, Mr. Kellie, is the policy of the present opposition, the development of North Kootenay is particularly the policy of the present opposition party in Revelstoke and that party includes just now a good many electors who helped to carry this seat for the present government at the last election.

Mr. Kellie extracts a crumb of comfort from the idea that Mr. Joseph Martin has not yet declared himself against the government. The HERALD fails to see how Mr. Martin could make it plainer in the English language that he was their avowed opponent than he did last Labor Day at Nanaimo. If Mr. Kellie's conviction that "the Semlin ministry will remain in power" is based on no surer ground than a hope that Joe Martin will not turn on it tooth and nail next session, the HERALD is very much afraid the Semlin ministry's chances are very slim. And it is not merely the loss of a vote which they have to anticipate. It is the loss of their real leader last session. The man for whose entry they all used to sit waiting like a row of dummies before venturing to answer the attacks of the opposition. The man who devised and bluffed through every scheme by which they held at this very moment the reins of power. The man, whose colossal hardness, combined with real business, energy and capacity, threw a cloak over the timidity of their leader and the fatuity of most of his following. This is the man they will have to face next session, armed with a certain knowledge of all their weak points, armed with a serious charge against the only man who has shown any capacity in the government and inspired with personal resentment against their treatment of himself. The HERALD never remembers Mr. Kellie appearing before in the pose of the cheerful optimist. It throws quite a new light on his character to know that "he thinks the Semlin ministry will remain in power." Nay, his hopes even inspire him with indignation, his heart is full of a holy scorn and the interview closes with the remark: "I think the Semlin ministry will remain in power. And the opposition papers suggest that the Lieut. Governor ask for the Premier's resignation, indeed!" This "indeed" is very fine. It is a perfect snort of unutterable contempt and indignation. He, Mr. J. M. Kellie, M.P.P., thinks the Semlin ministry will remain in power and still the opposition papers have the insufferable audacity to suggest that the Lieut. Governor ask for the Premier's resignation! The ideal!

What the World, to which Mr. Kellie thus confided his high hopes and sacred wrath, has to say about him is short and lively. It reads as follows: "The views of Mr. Kellie, M.P.P., are given in another column just for what they are worth. 'Let 'er flicker' Kellie belongs to the 'flicker' genus, and is as liable to support his old friends tomorrow as the new—that is if the former gain any power. As a Jump-Jin-Crow he would take first in the aerobatic ring of any circus."

Thanksgiving Day will be on the fourth or last Thursday in November this year. Laurier is waiting for Washington to decide which it is to be.

Says the Vancouver World: "The largest building in Canada is now being erected by a Nelson-Rossland firm doing business at Calgary, Alta. The building is being erected by F. Burns & Co. and will be 700 feet long. Why 'a Nelson-Rossland firm.' This is how it ought to read—'By a Moyie Wardner—Trout Lake—Nakiska—Silverton—New Denver—Trail—Slocan City—Ymir—Cascade City—Grand Forks—Midway—Bennett—Log Cabin—Atlin."

The Japanese Social.
The willing workers of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church who made the arrangements for the Japanese social at Mrs. Thos. Down's residence last night are greatly to be congratulated on the success of their entertainment. The house was decorated with great taste and originality in the Japanese fashion, while the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Kaburagi, Miss Misono, and a dozen or more young ladies dressed in Japanese costume added greatly to the virescence of the scene. During the evening Mrs. Dent and Messrs. Creighton, Allum, Isaacs and Sullivan rendered a programme of vocal music which was greatly appreciated.

THE "ROSEBERY" MINE

The Present Stage of Actual Operations.

A NEW STRIKE OF COPPER ORE

Work Has So Far Progressed as to Begin to Prove the Permanency of the Ore Bodies—Operations Will Be Pushed on During the Winter Months and Development Work is to Begin on the Salisbury, a Sister Claim.

Recent systematic work has so far advanced the development of the mineral belt from Laforme to Townie that in the opinions of our most far-seeing men there is now no further doubt that in future we will see in that part of the Big Bend, a mining camp second to none in British Columbia. When we consider that it is only a matter of three years since attention was first turned to the mineral wealth of the Big Bend, other than placer gold, we can form some idea of the labor done and efforts put forth by those determined and enterprising men who have in this comparatively short time by persistent and intelligent work brought the camps of Laforme, Carnes, Standard and Keystone to the satisfactory stage in which we now find them.

The HERALD, although greatly interested from the first in the development of this camp and always willing to assist in its progress, has carefully refrained from anything like hounding the camp, believing that its true worth must eventually be shown by the enterprise of our own people before we could hope to interest outside capital. Feeling that the stage of development has now been reached that establishes the permanency of the camp beyond a doubt and therefore believing that anything pertaining to the development of this district, the future progress of which is of such vital importance to the city of Revelstoke, will be appreciated by our readers, the HERALD has arranged for a special correspondent to visit the various mining camps of the Big Bend and contribute a series of articles on their progress.

This week the HERALD is able to give its readers an interesting account of the work done on the Rosebery at Carnes Creek, accounts from the other camps will be published as soon as received from our correspondent.

A GREAT GOLD-COPPER PROPERTY.

For this week's instalment I send you a description of the actual condition of affairs as found by me on a recent visit to the property owned and operated by the Carnes Creek Consolidated of Revelstoke which is known as the Rosebery, Empire, Salisbury, Coronation, Arsenic, Kingdom, Imperial and Jubilee. This group is situated on Lookout mountain and easily accessible, though at present connected only by pack trail from the Columbia. But this point of accessibility is greatly furthered by the townsite of 100 acres of land, through which runs the north fork of Carnes creek, also owned by the same company and forming a valuable addition to their property, as there is a good route to build a wagon road or railroad to this townsite from Carnes and it can also be reached from the mines with less than half a mile of aerial tramway.

NO. 1 TUNNEL.

The first work done on the Rosebery was to run a prospecting tunnel on the vein for a distance of 135 feet and this work is now known as No. 1 tunnel.

The ore in this tunnel is continuous throughout its whole length, having an average width of two feet and average value of $50 per ton in gold. It is this rich ore which can be treated by the cyanide process for less than $3.50 per ton, which first attracted attention to this property.

NO. 2 TUNNEL.

No. 2 tunnel cuts the vein at a lower level, and from the point where the vein was struck it has been drifted upon for 300 feet in a southeasterly direction, the depth gained in this distance being from 185 to 300 feet. Ore has been continuous samples from the ore streak in present face of tunnel assaying over $50 per ton in gold.

Near the footwall a distinct seam of chalcopryite is found, the ore being very pure and adding greatly to the value of the mine. Being distinct from the other ore, this will not in any way interfere with the proposed treatment by cyanidation process of the other gold-bearing ores in the vein.

The Rosebery vein has been traced through the four claims, the Rosebery, Empire, Salisbury and Arsenic, and has been stripped in many places. By drifting on present levels 1000 feet in depth can be gained in depth under the summit of the ridge.

The improvement with depth is very noticeable and in the opinions of practical mining men who have visited the claims, there can be no doubt of the permanency of the ore bodies.

Work at the mine is in charge of Mr. John Sweeney, foreman, and is (Continued on page 4.)

Mann-Mackenzie Compensation Scheme

They Are Still Being Looked After By Their Friends At Ottawa.

VISIT OF MONSIGNOR BRUCHESE AT WINNIPEG.

Mackenzie's Competing Line Is Said To Be Rich In Mineral—Carter Cotton Claims a Majority in B.C.

Ottawa, Sep. 14.—It was expected that at the last session of parliament the government would suggest an appropriation to compensate Mackenzie and Mann for their expenditure in connection with the Yukon railway contract. A doubt exists in some quarters whether the contractors have any legal claim against the government. The contract was subject to the approval of parliament and as Mackenzie and Mann entered into it on that understanding, and as parliament did not ratify the contract some authorities contend that the whole thing falls to the ground. The disposition, however, in ministerial circles to recompense Mackenzie and Mann for their expenditure, but it has not yet been determined what method to pursue. An expert government accountant has been dispatched up the Stikine for a telegraph creek with a view to securing the amount of the actual expenditure incurred by the contractors and it is expected that it will shortly be learned by Mr. Blair whether Mackenzie and Mann shall be offered a certain sum to get out of their contract, or whether they shall be granted a fiat or have the amount of the compensation determined by the exchequer court.

Vancouver, Sep. 14.—At Rossland yesterday Hon. F. Carter Cotton, the virtual premier of British Columbia, said that the local house would not meet until January 4, when he would have a majority of two and would hold on to that. He said, however, he would stick to the eight hour law for miners and that the government at Ottawa will increase the head tax on Chinese next year to $250, as he had every reason to believe they intended doing so.

THE P. A. & D. ROAD

Mackenzie Claims to Have Another Good Thing in Iron Wealth

Winnipeg, Sep. 14.—William Mackenzie, the promoter of the new transcontinental line, which he intends to operate in opposition to the C.P.R., was in the city yesterday accompanied by Colonel Sam Hughes of Lindsay and Mayor Marks of Port Arthur. Mackenzie has been over the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western road inspecting the construction and has been investigating the subject of iron mines in the district through which the road will run. Mackenzie said to a reporter:

"We expect to have a very good thing of it in the iron wealth of that district. The great scarcity of iron and the abnormal price of steel makes anything in the way of iron mines very valuable. The district has never been developed but there is undoubtedly a great deposit of iron ore awaiting the industry of the miners. It will doubtless be developed when the road goes through. The work of construction is going ahead as rapidly as circumstances will permit. The scarcity of steel and the difficulty of getting men are serious drawbacks."

RACING IN ENGLAND

London, Sept. 13.—The American backers who last year made immense profit on the wins of Red Sloan had themselves in a peculiar situation this season owing to the influx of other American jockeys on two English tracks. Rely Grannan, who it was reported won $200,000 at Derby meeting a fortnight ago, when the American jockeys won in a single day, said in an interview: "The report of my winnings on that occasion is untrue. It is simply impossible to get any odds against Sloan who in one race this week started at 30 to 1 on. With the Reefs, Martin and Sloan all here the days of good things have passed. I would be glad if any one would take up my week's losses for $1000."

The hold racing has on the public is manifested by the immense crowds at the Doncaster September meeting held last week. The postal authorities report that no less than 2000 money orders were paid in three days and that nearly 15,000 private telegrams were received. It is estimated that $375,000 changed hands at the meeting.

A dead heat between Bishopwood, on which J. Reiff had the mount, and Uncle Mac in the race for the Alexandria Plate on Thursday, was one of the most exciting contests ever seen on the turf. Bishopwood is a gigantic horse with a vicious temper, and little Reiff looked like a mere boy on his back. When the dead heat was run off, Bishopwood got out of Reiff's control and it seemed as if the English jockey on Uncle Mac had the race well in hand but Reiff, fighting his mount, forced him into the course and with a terrific spurt, won a brilliant race by a length.

Match to Reiff's indignation. After assuming a well dressed woman in the paddock seized him and kissed him rapturously.

PARDON FOR DREYFUS

Queen Victoria Asked to Intervene in His Behalf

New York, Sept. 15.—By a despatch today it is rumored that a pardon has been given to Dreyfus, but it is being kept secret until he can be smuggled out of the country.

Queen Victoria, who is at Ballater, is said to be receiving a great number of telegrams begging her to plead with President Loubet for Dreyfus' pardon. It is known that the news of the Rennes verdict greatly affected the queen, who followed the proceedings with attentive interest.

He is Closely Guarded

Rennes, Sept. 15.—Captain Dreyfus continues in good spirits. His health is fairly satisfactory, although intestinal trouble still clings to him. Madame Dreyfus yesterday visited her husband and came away looking cheerful.

He is under the same discipline as previous to his trial. He is allowed daily exercise in the prison yard. A canvas screen now stretches across the window to prevent him from being seen from the adjacent houses and to prevent photographers from getting snap shots. A guard of 40 soldiers stands beneath his window and sentries with loaded rifles and fixed bayonets are stationed on the wall overlooking the second court yard where he takes his exercise.

London, Sep. 15.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says it is certain that Captain Dreyfus will be liberated. The only question to be settled is one of ways and means.

John Sanderson came into town on Saturday from the Ground Hog basin, Big Bend, where he has been doing assessment on the British properties since July. He says he has never known the Big Bend so dull as it is this year.

Preparations were being made by the Orange lodge here to tender ceived a telegram from him expressing made up. The Rossland mines will be represented by ore specimens from 50 leading mining properties, which will afford visitors to the big fair a very fair idea of the different varieties of ore produced by that bustling, thriving mining camp.—Western Mining World.

The work of clearing the cemetery has made considerable progress. The working party have taken care to preserve the shrubs, fallen timber and underbrush. If the cleared space was sown with grass or clover seed this fall it would add considerably to the appearance of the cemetery next summer. The road, which bisects the ground is to be carried down to the canyon wagon road and the entrance will be made at that side of the cemetery. If a little patching up was to be done on the wagon road itself in one or two bad places it would greatly add to the cleanliness of funerals. To see the hearse jolting and crashing over a rough uneven road is distressing to all present.

THE CENTRE STAR SOLD

For a Good Figure to a West Superior Capitalist.

The Centre Star, a claim on the famous Horn ledge, located eight miles from Ferguson up the north fork of Lardiau river, was sold on Friday last to Attorney Crownhardt of West Superior, Wis., for a good substantial cash figure. Mr. Crownhardt was in the Lardiau a few weeks ago looking over several properties with a view to investment. The Centre Star has excellent showings and promises to develop into a fine property. Work will commence on the claim at once.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the HERALD.
Sir: I have to crave indulgence for space in your columns to refer to what purports to be a reply to my letter in your issue of the 13th inst. The "editor" of this alleged reply, J. A.
Stone, evidently tries to be funny, or sarcastic but, as anyone who reads will find, only succeeds in making himself ridiculous when he poses as apologist for civic officials who were, to say the least of it, disreputable to the undersigned. The object of my letter was to call public attention to the neglect of certain civic officials to perform a specific duty as provided for in a bylaw. Mr. Stone was named as one of the offenders against the law in question, but since then he has complained with its provisions, and no sooner is this done than he gets into print with a communication of the "smart-ale" kind wherein he only demonstrates how ridiculous a man may become by interfering in what does not concern him. He is no longer an offender in the matter considered, of well and good, that disposes of him. Then does he hold a brief for the other offenders or has he been commissioned by the police department? else why his letter which, by the way, I think, should have appeared in the HERALD instead of a paper which, on a former occasion, refused me admission to its columns because I would not eliminate the names of its friends from my communications. But Mr. Stone, hotelkeeper, as the mouthpiece of an apologist for the chief of police is too funny a figure to be seriously considered.
There may be mischief in his madness though, probably he learned those tricks of the trade at Westminster where he learned how not to write letters. But, sir, so far from my kick being wasted, let me say, here for one has had to toe the mark and I hope his good friend the chief will see to it that other similar offenders do like wise or suffer the consequences.

P. R. PETERSON.
Revelstoke, Sept. 18, 1899.

Features of the Spokane Fair.
Already quite a number of special days have been chosen by different organizations for the Spokane Industrial Exposition in October. The different secret societies are making a great effort to outdo each other in ground, remarkable and amusing features for their parades and their exercises in the exposition building.
The special days already chosen are as follows:

Tuesday, October 3, opening day.
Miss Jean G. Lillie Ames of Whitman county, Goddess of Plenty.
Friday, October 6, Red Men's day.
Pocahontas, Miss Flossie Terrell, the Spokane beauty.
Saturday, October 7, press day.
Wednesday, October 11, Elks day.
Thursday, October 12, Women of the World.
Friday, October 13, Odd Fellows.
Saturday, October 14, United Commercial Travelers day.
Monday, October 16, Eagles day.

Standard.
Supplies are being shipped in to the Standard as fast as pack trains can be got to take them in. Eight or ten men will be sent in to work at once, who will be residents of Revelstoke.
The mine will pay the scale of wages.

A Laundry Surprise.
It may be a surprise to many of the citizens of Revelstoke to know that there is a modern steam laundry plant in the city worth $2500 and capable of turning out as good work as any in the province.
This enterprise should have the patronage of all the people of Revelstoke because we believe most people like clean clothes (not fumigat-ed with opium, etc.) and should appreciate and support a chance to secure the same.

This enterprise has been taken over by Messrs. Baker and Allum. We are soliciting the services of a thoroughly efficient laundry man—one who knows his business, and we respectfully solicit the patronage of the people.
Baker & Allum.

T. O'Brien, lawyer, of Golden, paid a visit to Revelstoke on Saturday.
—Miss Steele has had a piano put in her studio direct from the waterworks of Messrs. Mason and Risch, Toronto, and is prepared to increase her music class. Terms 50c. per lesson of one hour. Pupils will be allowed daily practice free of charge.

Engine No. 401 was turned out of the shops this week after undergoing a thorough general overhauling. The work undertaken was especially heavy for the shops here, but under the management of Mr. Temple, the locomotive foreman, the engine was turned out with credit to the shops as well as to the management.

The Roseberry Mine.

being carried on actively. Preparations are being made for pushing the work during the winter months and supplies for this purpose are already being sent in.

SALISBURY CLAIM.
Work is also to be started on the Salisbury claim, where the company hope to show up large ore bodies.
Here the ore is found in a diorite dyke similar to those of the Rossland camp and the surface showing is very large. Elijah McEwen will have charge of the work at the Salisbury.

Taking it as a whole the work done on the property has been carefully planned and successfully carried out.
The enterprise of the shareholders, mostly local men, has been rewarded by the very gratifying proofs of the permanency of the ore bodies afforded by the work as far as it has gone. The management of the mine has been careful to make every dollar spent tell and to spend every dollar where it would tell and not on side issues. The present prospects are that they have a mine on the Roseberry, which will very shortly be drawing as much attention to the Carnarvon camp as over the Lardiau and War Eagle did to Rossland and the surface showings on their other properties are quite as encouraging as those found at first on the Roseberry. It looks as if they owned a great property and are the pioneers of the great camp.

To-Day's Announcements.
—Baltimore Oysters at Woodrow's.
—C. N. Corrigan, D.D.S., will be in Revelstoke on Oct. 3rd and will be found for ten days or two weeks at the dental surgery over the Canada Drug & Book Co.'s store.

Hardware and Tinsmithing

To insure peace of mind as regards safety of your stores, get our experience in putting your stores up properly. We never use patent pipes; we never recommend them, as they are not safe.
Get our own make of stove pipes, all riveted, and the same price as the unsafe kind. We are daily exporting a carload of heating stoves; all of Canada's best make. It will pay you to wait and inspect our stock. We set all stoves up free, and have them in good working order. Don't forget about that furnace you need for this winter.

W. M. Lawrence.

A Short Trial Will convince you

A long test will enthrall you.
Try us—ye people who are sick and weary of "hand-me-down" clothes. Why? Because you can't get up at prices, quality considered, which are by far the cheapest in the long run.
It has been said that it takes a rich man to draw a check, a horse to draw a cart, a pretty girl to draw attention, a toper to draw a cork, a free lunch to draw a crowd, and good clothes to command dignity, wear and satisfaction.
Try.....
