THE CITY COUNCIL

King Street Closing By-Law Defeated By a Vote of Four to Two.

The city council met in the board room last night at the usual hour. Mayor McCarty in the chair and all the aldermen present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Communications were read from J. D. Sibbald in reference to the drain on his property which the city is deepening and warning the city of the danger of it now undermining his building and informed the city that he would hold the corporation responsible if any damage is occasioned thereby. Referred to public works committee. From J. Kernaghan applying for the position of foreman on sidewalks or other public works undertaken by the city by day's work. From the Registrar-General stating the cost of making out a list of lot owners would be about $20 or $30. From D. Stamper secretary of the Reform and Labor Association, resolutions as they appear in another column of the HERALD. From Supt. of Education in reference to the accounts of the school board. From Thos. Skinner applying for the position of cemetery caretaker. From S. L. Saunders, chief of No. 2 Fire Brigade, making certain recommendations in reference to the brigades and the apparatus. From John P. Campbell applying for position of cemetery caretaker. From T. L. Haig asking for police court supplies; referred to the public works committee.

The report of the Public Works Committee as follows was accepted and passed:

The Public Works Committee recommend that the sum of $500 be appropriated for 'cedar culverts across 1st street near Hotel Edwards, cedar culvert across Campbell Ave. near Imperial Bank. Cedar drain from Campbell ave. and Boyle ave. between Victoria road and 1st street, and cedar culvert on Victoria road. That the Revelstoke cemetery be improved by clearing lot 38 and fire break for fence, approximate cost $150, and for fencing both lots 37 and 38 (4 pickets and 3 common board fence) approximate cost $165. Total $315. That the sum of $250 be granted to cover our expenditure of appropriations Nos. 3, 9, 10, 11, 14 and 15. T. Kilpatrick, chairman.

Ald. Graham introduced a bylaw for providing the means of ascertaining and determining what lands will be improved and benefitted by the construction of certain proposed sidewalks in the city and for ascertaining and determining the proportion in which assessment therefor should be made upon the lands benefitted. Read a first and second time.

The discussion of "King Street Closing By-law" was taken up again on the introduction of the bylaw for its second reading. A vote was taken on the second reading and by the casting vote of the Mayor was lost. Alds. Brown, Kilpatrick, McKechnie and the Mayor voting nay, and Alds. Wells, Craze and Graham voting yea.

Chief Bain drew the attention of the council to a number of ratepayers who were not complying with the fire bylaw by neglecting to build brick chimneys as they had received instructions to do.

Ald. Brown in reply stated that the reason he did not comply with instruction was that he was seriously contemplating the closing out of his business. There were hotels in town granted licenses by the license commissioners which could not, he felt sure, comply with the act. There were so many licenses granted that larger houses with the necessary large expenditure for running purposes were at the mercy of the smaller ones whose expenses were practically nothing in comparison.

Ald. Craze thought the by-law should be enforced, but that time should be given the public in which to get their chimneys built. This was also the opinion of the mayor, and 30 days further was granted to people to get them into shape.

Ald. Brown asked when it was the intention to put the engineer to work surveying the recreation grounds.

Ald. Kilpatrick stated that there was no patent issued for the ground yet and until the same was forthcoming he thought it unnecessary to undertake the work of survey.

Ald. Wells asked if the construction of the cemetery fence would be let by contract or day's work.

Ald. Kilpatrick—that question was not decided yet, but that at the next meeting something would in this regard be announced.

Ald. Graham asked for information in regard to the Hotel Edwards. He wanted to know if the license now held by the house would come under the meaning of the license by-law, and if the town had any jurisdiction in the matter. The city solicitor replied by saying that if the license they were now doing business under was a legal one that the city could not interfere. It was a question of the legality of their license.

The council adjourned to meet at 1:30 o'clock on Monday.

Patronize Our Own People.

The whole province has of late been infested with a number of American life assurance agents, commonly styled "cyclone writers," who pay a flying visit to the cities and towns, pay no rent or taxes or even peddlers' fees and who do not contribute to the support of the community, but gobble up the principal part of the premium, if not all of it, stay a few days and bid adieu. Business and professional men are their chief victims, and usually for large amounts, and after the visitor has departed, the insurer is left to repent at leisure, when he realizes the fact that he has paid ten to twenty per cent. more than a good reliable and prosperous Canadian company could have given him the same policy for; all because some slick, oily tongued Yankee placed the matter so forcibly. Westminister has plenty of reliable citizens representing good Canadian companies, and these men should be patronized, as they spend all their commissions here, and business and professional men depend on these for part of their patronage. If these travelling agents want our money, they should set up business amongst us, and help build up our city instead of held deplete it.—Columbian.

True Words.

Capital cannot, in justice, insist on its right to form combinations and deny the same right to labor. A corporation cannot reasonably insist on treating with its employee only as individuals while itself joining other corporations in disciplining laborers. Either organized capital must recognize organized labor, dealing with labor organizations as entitled to recognition like organization of capital, or the conflict between labor and capital will produce results more serious than have yet occurred. Confronted by a great organization of capital, the individual employee is helpless. If his demands are backed up by the power of an organization of his fellows, he has some chance of securing just concessions and correcting the abuses of which he complains. When the rights of both labor and capital to organize and to act in their organized capacity are recognized, mutual concessions will be made and many of the antagonisms which now occasion strikes and lockouts will be winked out.—William J. Strong, in the Arena.

The July Annual.

The HERALD begs to acknowledge with thanks a copy of the July Annual of the Kootenay Mining Standard (illustrated). The publication is a credit not only to the Kootenay country at large but to the publishers, who with unremitting care have given the position of the mining industry and the history of the country without a sign of favor to any particular part or district. The half tone work is well done and the scenes both beautiful and instructive. Revelstoke comes in for a fair share of notice in the publication and the book would make a handsome present to friends in the east, and the HERALD would advise our citizens to purchase copies which are well worth the price per copy asked.

Triple Hanging at Dawson.

Dawson has witnessed its first official hanging. On August 4, at 8 in the morning, Edward Henderson, a white man, and Jim and Dawson Nantuck, two Indians, paid the full penalty of the law for murder. But a few persons witnessed the triple execution, which was marred by the breaking of the rope with bound young Dawson Nantuck's hands and the frantic efforts of the murderer to draw himself up by catching the rope above his head after the drop had been sprung. Henderson and Jim Nantuck marched boldly to the scaffold, while Dawson Nantuck when within the shadow of the gallows completely broke down. His cries and pleading for help could be plainly heard outside the Dawson jail yard, where the execution took place.

A Salvation Wedding.

An interesting ceremony was witnessed by a large audience in the Salvation barracks on Wednesday evening last, when Miss Emma Eliza both Toombs and S. E. Lawrence were made man and wife. Brigadier Howell, of Spokane, assisted by Rev. S. J. Thompson, tied the knot. Capt. Fisher of the Salvation Army corps here was bridesmaid while D. Munro acted as best man. After the ceremony cake and coffee was served and the happy bride and groom were extended the best wishes of all present in which the HERALD has much pleasure in joining.

A Successful Coup.

The police were on the war path yesterday and Thursday with the result that the city treasury is the richer today by about $150. The police made a round up of all the houses of ill-fame and the inmates and owners to the number of thirteen appeared before Magistrate Haig and were fined $10 and costs for each of the inmates while the landladies were each fined $15 and costs.

GUES $540.30 TO THE TON

The Nettie L.'s New Ore Body Is a Corncracker.

THE RICHEST IN THE LARDEAU

The Nettie L. Will Be a Monthly Shipper After December 1st.—The Erection of Ore Sheds.—Transportation Problem.—The Mine is Situated One Mile From Ferguson, Lardeau's Centre.

A few days ago the HERALD announced a new and important strike of over three feet of clean ore on the Nettie L. near Ferguson. Yesterday the importance and richness of the ore in this body was demonstrated by Assayer Holdich when he made an assay from samples brought to town by the manager, W. B. Pool. The assays gave the astonishing result as follows: 717 oz. of silver, $19 in gold, 70 per cent. lead and 10 per cent. copper. Mr. Pool was as much surprised as anyone when the result of the assay was made known to him, although he was satisfied that the strike was a rich one yet he did not figure that it would reach the figures that it did. Taking the figures of the assay and putting it in as dollars and cents, with silver say at 60c., the present market price, copper at 18c. per pound, and lead at $4.65 per cwt., would bring the price of the Nettie L. ore up to about $540.30 per ton, which is an astonishing evidence of the richness of the Lardeau. The HERALD must congratulate the owners, but none more than Manager Pool who through his pluck and energy has made a famous mine in one single year out of a prospect that had nothing more than "good surface indications." A speech that is often uttered in Kootenay—to warrant a year ago the work that was undertaken to bring about the results shown today. It is the intention of the manager to start stopping ore for shipment immediately, and already ore sheds are being erected on the grounds and by December first Mr. Pool expects to have 200 tons ready for shipment to the smelter at Trail. By that date, too, the Nettie L. will be within four miles of steamboat and railway transportation, as it is expected that two railways will be built and in running operations to the south end of Trout Lake and steamer connection between the end of the track and Trout Lake City. The Nettie L. today is an evidence of pluck and perseverance, as we stated before, and there are other properties in the Lardeau that are as good as the Nettie L. and only want the pluck of Mr. Pool and his company to make them dividend payers.

LARDEAU-DUNCAN DISTRICT.

The Railway Will Reach Ferguson as Quickly as Possible.

Mr. George N. Taylor has just returned from a visit to the Upper Duncan river, at a point 30 miles above Duncan City. His mission was to look after the Standard group, which is being operated by the Standard Gold Mining company, and of the group which is being operated by the Imperial Gold Mines of British Columbia. These properties lie alongside of each other, and the same veins run through each.

In speaking of the Standard group, Mr. Taylor said there are two claims in the group. There are seven men at work crosscutting and sinking. A ledge of ore has been struck that is three feet in width and carries gold, silver and lead, and the ore averages $90 to the ton. The ledge has been traced on the surface for a distance of 300 feet.

Mr. Taylor is also looking after the operations on the properties of the Imperial Gold Mines of British Columbia. The same ledge has been found on the properties as on the Standard group, and the outlook here is equally bright as on the Standard. There is plenty of money in the treasury of both companies, and the work of development is to be kept up indefinitely.

Mr. Taylor reports that the K. & S. surveyors are engaged in marking a railway route from Duncan City up the Duncan river to the west fork of that river. Duncan City promises to be considerable of a place. The C.P.R. and the Great Northern will both complete their lines into Duncan City some time this fall. Then they will be pushed on so as to get into Trout Lake and Ferguson as soon thereafter as possible. Both these companies know that the country is a rich one, and fully realize that it will not be long before they will be enjoying a large traffic, and this accounts for their anxiety to get their lines built.—Rossland Miner.

The Spokane Fair.

An exhibit of North Kootenay ores at the Spokane Fair this fall will do a lot for North Kootenay in the way of advertising the district, if proper care is taken in getting a good exhibit and a thoroughly live man to look after the exhibit, and one who is versed in the knowledge of the district and its ores. Will the board of trade take the matter up again this year?

French Government Will Arrest Mercier

The Case Against Dreyfus Crumbling Away

EMILE ZOLA'S SCATHING INVECTIVE

SERIOUS FIRE IN HAMILTON — RAILWAY ACCIDENT IN QUEBEC — TROLLEY COLLISION AT PHILADELPHIA — SKIRMISH IN THE PHILIPPINES.

London, August 21.—The Paris correspondent of the Sunday Special telegraphed yesterday: "The government has decided to order that Dreyfus be withdrawn from the case against Mercier, who took the war office dossier to Rennes has started suddenly for Paris."

Paris, August 21.—According to the Echo de Paris in consequence of the capitulation of the general command, who took the war office dossier to Rennes has started suddenly for Paris.

La Liberté says that the Dreyfus trial will not be finished before the middle of September.

Zola is quoted as saying: "Ever since I accused General Elliot of having the evidence of Dreyfus' innocence I felt sure that the generals whom the Rennes court examined could not be trusted."

The witnesses must explain or defend their own conduct. The witnesses of the trial admit that there has not yet appeared one impartial witness against Dreyfus.

Conscienceless and characterless the yhave dinned out their well studied part in all the trials of political crime there is no more deeply depraved case on record than the proposal by men high in station to erect a monument to a forger and a suicide. I refer to the proposed monument to Colonel Henry.

Paris, August 21.—Schneider, the Austrian military attaché, will come to Paris on Wednesday to prosecute Mercier in the Paris court of assize for forgery.

The Paris papers say that 35,000 francs came from abroad to aid Dreyfus.

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE
British Government Takes Stringent Measures.

London, August 21.—The local government board has taken measures to prevent the bubonic plague from entering England. Notices have been sent to the sanitary authorities at every port in the Kingdom to enforce the cholera act of 1896 strictly.

IN THE PHILIPPINES
A Brush With the Insurgents in Which Two Lieutenants Are the Victims.

Manila, August 21.—One lieutenant of the Twelfth Infantry was killed and another wounded seriously while reconnoitering last evening north of Angeles. The Americans encountered there a large force of insurgents and drove them from their positions.

THE GOLDEN KLONDIKE
Is Pronounced by an Expert to Be the Richest Country in the World.

Vancouver, August 21.—R. Razees, from Turonne, who was sent out by the French government to report on the Klondike says that it is the richest country in the world and will recommend it for investment.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT
Liberal Excursionists Have a Narrow Escape at Montreal.

Montreal, August 21.—A special C. P. R. excursion train which left Viger station at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, carrying the members of the Club Laurier and their friends to a political meeting at St. Scholastique, met with an accident on the bridge, a mile east of the station, the engine leaving the track on the bridge.

The engineer after shutting down the lever, jumped, striking the bridge and fracturing his skull. The engine was wrecked, but the train fortunately came to a standstill and the passengers escaped. Engineer Smith is dying at a hospital here.

GOLDEN SAUSAGES
Reward the Industry of an American Post Hole Artist.

Jacksonville, Florida, August 21.—A sausage grinder containing about $20,000 in gold, silver and greenbacks were found yesterday by Charles R. Armstrong, a grocer, while digging a post hole between Clay and Union streets, where he was building two houses. The hole was being dug by a negro, but he was so slow that Armstrong relieved him.

A HAMILTON FIRE
Causes Damage to the Extent of $30,000.

Hamilton August 21.—The Ontario Box company's factory was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire started at the sidewalk beside some big lumber piles and soon got a strong hold and in a few minutes was beyond control of the fire department. About a million feet of lumber in the yard was burned and the factory office and barn also went up in smoke. There were about 23,000 boxes burned, these being ready for delivery. The factory company had a contract to supply about 300,000 boxes in three weeks. The fire was so hot that it blistered the paint on the doors and windows of several residences on Main street and cracked windows in the neighborhood. Fortunately it was calm or the loss would have been enormous. The slightest wind would have carried the flames to the adjoining buildings. The firemen worked hard to save the Woodless & Sons' factory, which was close to the box company's factory, and succeeded admirably. The smoldering ruins were dangerous until late yesterday afternoon. The loss is estimated at $30,000.

THE PARIS BOURSE

Rentes comparatively Steady Notwithstanding Recent Disturbances

Paris, August 22.—Three per cent rentes yesterday declined 1/2 to 20 francs 22 1/2 centimes for account. The comparative steadiness of these French government securities in the face of the recent rioting in Paris is shown in the fact that rentes before the second trial of Dreyfus dropped 9 1/2 centimes to 93 francs 60 centimes the lowest price in several years.

THE SAGE AND THE PEOPLE
Behold—the Sage stood before the door of his cave and the rabble came and put questions to him and he answered them after the wisdom of their folly.
"To whom shall we liken the poet?" said a smooth faced youth.
"The poet shall be likened to a boy who in picking up a handful of pebbles that pleased his fancy has been told that he has a diamond among them, and straightway grubs in the soil all his life thereafter, hoping to find another gem."

"And the warrior?"
"The warrior is like unto a child who hears another praised for killing a serpent, and finds him a stick that he too may be told that he is valiant."

"What of the house wife?"
"She is as the mother bird that makes much to do over a nest of sticks and straws that the winds of winter will scatter about."

"What, sayest thou of the rich man?" asked a portly merchant.
"He is none other than the tortoise, which for safety's sake is glad to see little, except what is set before it."

"Speak of love," said the sweet voice of a maiden.
"Let an echo answer there; I am only a man, and deal not in magic spells."

"How do you know this is true?" asked a greybeard.
"How tell life from death?" asked the sage smiling.
"Canst predict the future?" demanded a cross old man.
"When I should know the past."

Then the sage passed around the hat, but didn't strike much; whereupon he gazed scornfully on the mob.
"Come tomorrow," quoth he, "with heat in his voice, and see me do stunts on the flying trapeze. This is no place for a school for philosophy."

MY PLAYMATES
The wind comes whispering to me of the country green and cool,
Of roosting blackbirds' chattering beside a ready pond,
It brings me softer fancies of the homestead on the hill,
And I hear the thrush's evening song and the robin's morning thrill;
So I fall to thinking tenderly of the disease I used to know
Where the sassafras and snakeroot and checkerberries grow.

What has become of Ezra Marsh, who lived on Baker's hill?
And what's become of Noble Pratt, whose father kept the mill?
And what's become of Lizzie Crum and Anastasia Snell,
And of Ross Root, who tended school to Boston for a spell?
They are the boys and they the girls who shared my youthful play;
They do not answer to my call! My playmates, where are they?

What has become of Levi and his little brother Joe,
Who lived next door to where we lived some forty years ago?
I'd like to see the Newton boys, and Quincy Adams Brown,
And Hespey Hall and Ella Cowes, who spelled the whole school down!

And Gracie Smith, the Cutler boys, Conkey boys again,
Who I am sure would answer could they only hear my call!
I'd like to see Bill Warner and the Conkey boys again,
And talk about the time we used to wish that we were men!

And one, I shall not name her, could I see her gentle face,
And hear her girlish treble in this distant, lonely place!
The flowers and hopes of springtime, they perished long ago,
And the garden where they blossomed is white with winter snow.

O cottage 'neath the maples, have you seen those girls and boys
That but a little while ago made oh! such pleasant noise?
Oh trees, and hills, and brooks, and lanes, and meadows, do you know
Where I shall find my little friends of forty years ago?

You see, I'm old and weary, and I've traveled long and far;
I'm looking for my playmates. I wonder where they are?

B. C. Settlers Entitled to All Timber on Their Homesteads Free of Dues.

The following is the full text of the order-in-council passed by the Privy Council of Ottawa granting to homesteaders within the railway belt all timber free of dues:

"Whereas it is deemed expedient in the public interest that the regulations affecting Dominion lands in the railway belt in the Province of British Columbia, providing for the reservation to the Crown of merchantable timber on homestead lands in the said railway belt in British Columbia, should be amended so that all persons receiving homestead entry for such Dominion lands, may be entitled to all timber growing upon the homesteads without paying dues therefor.

Reform and Labor Association.

To the Editor of the HERALD: At the regular meeting of the above association held on Monday, Aug. 21, at eight p. m., the following resolutions were adopted.

Resolved: That the Recording Secretary be instructed to write to the city council, and call the council's attention to, that in their reply of Aug. 14, to this association, re Water Co. and Fire Protection, etc., the council did not give the information asked, viz: Who is paying the cost of lowering the Water Co.'s mains and pipes and moving of the electric light poles? The city or the Water and Light Co.? And to respectfully ask the council to give the desired information.

Resolved: That this association protests against the closing of any public street, or portions thereof, for the convenience of any private individual, as proposed in case of a portion of King street.

Resolved: That this association pray the city council to request the school trustees to supply the council with an itemized bill and balance sheet, showing the expenditure of the government grant of $150 for the incidentals and also the amount collected at the last school concert and were expended, for the guidance of the council before granting the request for the city council to assume the debt, $87.50.

Resolved: That this association pray the city council, to put the principles of single taxation in operation in the coming taxation and assessment of this city, as far as the powers conferred on the council will allow.

Ore Exhibit at Spokane.

A permanent exhibit of ores is to be made at Spokane after the Industrial Exposition closes on the 17th of Oct. This is as it ought to be. Spokane seems at last, about to realize the importance of making an exhibit of ores which can be seen by every eastern and outside visitor to that city. Many of the camps which are planning to exhibit ores at the Industrial Exposition have asked whether Spokane will preserve these ores and make a suitable permanent exhibit in that city. The Spokane Chamber of Commerce at its last meeting took up the matter and agreed that the ores carefully preserved in these camps should be made a permanent exhibit at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the city hall. It agreed to do this, provided the ores were delivered at these rooms after the exposition is over. Matthew Bolster of the exposition at once supplemented this action by agreeing to deliver these ores with their labels, safely boxed, at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. This action will benefit every camp, which exhibits at the exposition will be doubly benefited. The resolution which was adopted by the chamber is as follows:

Resolved: That the Spokane Chamber of Commerce will be pleased to accept the ores and mineral specimens from the various mining districts to be placed on exhibition at the Spokane Industrial Exposition in October and will carefully preserve and care for the same, making suitable permanent exhibit for the inspection of the public, provided said ores are properly labeled and delivered at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

"Skin-the-Goat" a Free Man.

DUNLIS, Aug. 24.—Earl Cadogan, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to-day signed the expected order, releasing from Marlborough jail, James Fitzharris, alias "Skin-the-Goat," who, in May 1883, was sentenced to penal servitude, as an accomplice in the murder, on May 6th, 1882, in Phoenix Park, Dublin, of Lord Frederick Cavendish, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and Mr. T. H. Burke, Permanent Under-Secretary, who were assassinated by stabbing, by four men, known as the Invincibles. An order of release was signed in the case of Laurence O'Hanlan, sentenced to penal servitude at the same time, and the members of the jury engaged in the trial of persons charged with murder in November, 1882. Fitzharris and O'Hanlan left the jail this evening.
