

REVELSTOKE HERALD.

ISSUED TWICE-A-WEEK—TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

Vol. IV. No. 20

REVELSTOKE, B. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1900.

$2.00 a Year in Advance.

C. B. HUME & CO.

Ontario Apples

Greenings
Baldwins
Russets
Spys

If you want a really nice
Barrel of Apples come and see ours before purchasing.

High Quality

Our shoes attract attention because of their high quality, elegant appearance, and reasonable price.

We assure you a good fit too—that means comfort.

We solicit an inspection of our stock.

Overshoes
Rubbers

We handle the celebrated
Maltese Cross Brand.

They have no equal

C. B. Hume & Co.

WITH STRATHCONA'S HORSE.

Another Letter From Trooper Lewis at The Front.

Spitz Kop, Sept. 13th.
Here I am still in the ring. Since leaving Machadodorp we have been more than chasing Boers. We had no opposition to speak of until reaching Badfontein where the Boers held an elegant position. We were camped in a valley, with only one road out, the way we came in didn't count of course. The enemy held the north end of the valley, the road lying in the centre, their position was at least 1000 feet high. Buller said it was a harder place to take than Laings Nek. Our column halted for three days altogether, waiting for Ian Hamilton to come up the left. Judging from the manoeuvring that took place during that time I believe that old Buller was persuading the Boers to hold their positions. The first day the transport was all loaded, just as though we were going right through. Revellie sounded at 4:30 and we marched at six. Strathcona's supporting the guns. We had marched a mile when—Bang!—a shell dropped about 50 yds. on our left. Strathcona was then right in the open, close by a farm house, (in the garden of which I picked up the enclosed flower) so we halted and dismounted, waiting for orders. The Boers kept shelling us with shrapnel, each shell dropping nearer to us. We began to ask each other what are they keeping us here for. You can safely bet that it was anything but pleasant to be made a target of. While Buller was trying to place the Boer guns. At last a shell dropped right in the midst of us, wounding a horse right in front of me. I could hear the whir of shrapnel all around me. Then we got the order to race for cover, about a mile nearer the Boer guns, they throwing shells at us all the time. The cover was a small kopje. We lay there all day under a hot fire, shells dropping all around and many a narrow shave there was but not one of us was hit. The casualties in the column were about 30 horses and 10 men hit. Covering at night for camp we did not cross right through the line of fire. Our turn came next day for casualties. The first day we came into the valley eight men from my troop were sent about five miles to the left to make a kopje, which commanded the valley on the left. While there they captured one man who was sneaking in the rocks waiting for a sniping chance. In the evening the picket was then called in no one being sent out to relieve them. The 3rd day of our trip, A. & C. Squadron were out on picket duty. Five men of C. were sent to relieve a picket which was playing seen on this same hill, presumably a British picket. But the enemy had seen the advantageous position and seized it. Well, those five of ours marched calmly up to within 300 yds. of the Boers who then opened fire on them. One of them rode thro' a fire and brought the word into camp. The others got into the best cover they could, fought and died, their bodies filled with bullets. Troops 3 and 4 of B. were sent to relieve them, but we met with a hot reception, being utterly outmanned in numbers and position and were forced to retire, losing two men killed. The next day 2000 infantry were sent to do the same work assisted by artillery. They met with no opposition. The following day Buller was ready to move. They took us all over the valley in every direction to draw fire from the Boer guns, each move nearer the Boer position. It was a lovely job never knowing when the fun would really commence. At last it was known that Mr. Boer had gone and we then went straight up the road. When we got to the top and saw the position which the Boers had held, we were surprised that they had not held it there. Behind them was a large plain making an easy retreat possible. Place a table at one end of a room with a slope on the rear end and you have a good idea of the position. Soon after passing the top we caught sight of Ian Hamilton's column on our left. We marched that day all over the country. Next day we struck Lydenburg. No. 3 B.S. H. advanced guard as ever. The Boers held the hills N.E. of the town, their Long Tom shells being the only thing we passed. Our troops marched a couple of miles past the town acting as outposts. We made for a small kopje, scouting our way as we went. Two hundred yards further and we were under fire from the hill. Of course we were expecting it, but a little incident happened that had never occurred before. Hardly had the Boers opened fire, when—Bang!—a gun on our left, throwing shrapnel all over the hill. It was the first time we had ever been helped by artillery fire, when on advance guard, as we were always far in advance of the guns. Imagine our delight when we learnt that it was a part of a Canadian Battery with Ian Hamilton. The next day we started hunting Boers again, driving them over a rough mountain, where they had boasted that we could not follow. The second day we caught sight of a Boer column, climbing the other side of the valley. We let a yell out of us and started after them over a road, where only two horses could ride abreast. But although they looked so close they were miles away owing to the winding of the road. We struck their rear guard and a Boer Four Darkness set in, while we were interviewing them and we had to return to camp. A Pom-Pom is a hard gun to run against as it fires quicker than a rifle, throwing a round shell, which has a wicked

GREAT DEPARTMENTAL STORE

ANOTHER BIG PURCHASE OF MEN'S UNDERWEAR

The other day we heard of an underwear manufacturer who had a large assortment of Men's Underwear he wanted to clear out in a lump. They comprised his overmakes for the season and included what had been picked out from his best makes. We had the first chance to buy them and took all he had (some five hundred pieces) at a substantial discount. On Wednesday morning we place the entire assortment on sale at

ONE DOLLAR A GARMENT

41 2-3 Doz n Men's Fleece Lined Underwear, Ribbed Cuffs and Ankles, overlocked seams, Pearl Buttons. Most of this collection is made up of Undershirts in sizes up to 42. The goods were made to sell at $1.50 a garment. FOR WEDNESDAY OUR PRICE WILL BE ONE DOLLAR.

Priestly Goods are Guaranteed Qualities.

When you see the Priestly name stamped on the selvage of cloth you have then guarantee for the quality and dye of the cloth. We have proved the excellent qualities and superior merits of the Priestly goods and can recommend them to you. That means we found you in any if they do not give satisfaction. If you want to see a complete and up-to-date assortment of these worthy articles you can do so only at this store.

Wednesday Gainful Buying Opportunities.

Wednesday must set the pace for the balance of the week with quick lively sales. We have counted the cost and are prepared to win your assistance with gainful buying chances such as these—

10 Ladies' Tailor Made Suits made of all wool homespun in light and dark greys and blue mixtures, the Jacket fly front set-on lined, the Skirt is lined with percaline and bound with velvet—Our regular price $16.50—Saturday $12.50.

Ladies' Flannelette Wrappers

In all ordered colours, deep flounces—the waist is lined. They are made from material the same as we used in making our $2.25 and $2.50 wrappers. Wednesday to sell at $1.65.

Ready to wear
Worthy to wear
Stylish to wear

Women's Top Coats and Dress Skirts.

We make a specially inviting price on these few coats—there are so few of them. The style is first class. The quality splendid and the weight as heavy as most people wear all winter long.

10 Women's Imported Beaver Jackets cut with short front, double breasted, new coat sleeve, Colours—Black and Blue Black. Extra good value. Wednesday at $4.

12 Women's Unlined Dress Skirts cut double, inverted pleat back, Colours, Navy Blue, good value at $3. Wednesday at $2.25.

TWO REMARKABLE BARGAINS

$4.75 BLANKETS AT $3.75

Grey Cotton for Less than Mill Price

It means a good deal when we say that these are the most Superlative Bargains ever offered in our staple department but that is the exact truth. Housekeepers will be enthusiastic over such tempting prices. The Blankets are of very fine quality with a half dollar more taken off what was already a low price, while the grey cotton is to be sold at quite a little less than mill price. These are most important items.

10 pairs only of extra superior Grey Blankets, soft, lofty finish, large sizes, regular price 4 50, Wednesday special 3 75

2 bales 36-inch Heavy Unbleached Cotton entirely free from sizing, round, even thread, good heavy weight, mill price to-day 84, on Wednesday we will sell 13 yards for $1.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

Short Box Back and Three Quarter Length are the correct styles.

Our clothing supremacy will be demonstrated once more on Wednesday when we begin a week's business with this popular, stylish and most desirable top coat for TWELVE DOLLARS.

15 Men's Overcoats all new, stylish goods, made up in short box back, also three-quarter length, with full back fine Italian linings, regular sizes, special, Wednesday, 12.00.

BOURNE BROS.
General Merchants Revelstoke, B.C.

DON'T THROW YOUR VOTE AWAY.

Although Mr. McKane has entered the field at a late hour, it by no means follows that he is entering upon a forlorn hope. There are various circumstances surrounding the contest in this constituency, which render the chances of the Conservative candidate exceedingly good and if Mr. MacNeill abandoned the fight on account of the victory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the general election, it is quite certain that he took a view of the probabilities of success, which is not in the least endorsed by most Conservatives in the district. With practically two Liberals in the field it was admitted before the general election even by Liberal journals that the prospects of the Conservative candidate were exceedingly bright. The Herald fails to see how the results of the election has impaired them. In fact it may be questioned if it has not rather improved them. It must be admitted that these results have been of a somewhat sensational, not to say startling nature. Account for it how you like and minimize the religious and racial features of the position as much as you can, the fact remains that one province in the Dominion is practically master of the situation. It is a fact unprecedented in the history of Confederation. It is a fact which is bound to set the electors of the other provinces thinking.

Now there is a feeling among a considerable class of the electors, who do not take very acute interest in the clash of party warfare, a feeling which accounts for the result of a good many bye elections and which might under certain circumstances militate against the chances of Mr. McKane's success. It is the feeling that it is a useless proceeding "to throw a vote away", as it is called. It is better they argue for a constituency to be on the winning side and to be represented by a member favorable to the government and therefore supposed to possess its ear in pleading the cause of the requirements of his constituency.

Now in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such an argument might come home with considerable force. But one has to look at an argument like this with an eye to the experience of the past. In Yule-Cariboo we have enjoyed the privilege for the last four years of being represented by a member, who never for a moment considered straying from the strict path of party allegiance or wandered for one minute from the party fold. Oliver of Alberta, might denounce what he considered a vote given to a straight government supporter in an electoral district, which in the past had enjoyed a considerable share of government attention and government expenditure in a district in which for the past four years Mr. Blair had been building rail roads, Mr. Tarte distributing contracts, one can conceive that such

Two Provincial Legislatures Dissolved.

General Elections in Quebec and Prince Edward Island.

Mysterious Death in Winnipeg.—W. J. Bryan Will Stay in Politics.—General Botha is Willing to Surrender on Terms.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—The Quebec and Prince Edward Island legislatures have dissolved. Nominations will be held in Quebec on November 20, and the elections on December 7th. Nominations in Prince Edward Island will be on December 6th, polling a week later. Leopold Lombou is 1,100 ahead in Gaspe. The election took place in that constituency yesterday. The returning officer's figures in Selkirk are published, showing a majority for McCreary, Liberal, of 14. Mr. Boyd's majority in Macdonald will be about 100. West Durham has gone into the Liberal column, owing to Mr. Thornton, the Conservative candidate, having made an illegal deposit.

BRYAN WILL STAY

Has no intention of abandoning the political arena.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 15.—An authoritative announcement has been made that William Jennings Bryan is going to stay in politics. Mr. Bryan himself is responsible for this statement as to his future intentions. Since his second defeat for the presidency he has been pictured as nursing a remarkable variety of ambitions. He has been credited with an intention of removing to Texas, where the inhabitants at least would be much more in harmony with his political theories than those whom he now possesses in Lincoln. Others have said that he would like exclusively to devote himself to literature and book writing, while the career of a minister of the Presbyterian church has been predicted for him. Most of these stories have found their way into the newspapers until Bryan has seen that it is necessary for him to speak. "I intend to stay in politics," he said today, "and oppose the politics of the Republican party. For the past four years I have been as active as I knew how in fighting the Republicans both by speech and pen, and I have not the least notion of changing my methods. What I have done in the past I will do again."

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Woman Found Dead in a Winnipeg Shack—Suspicious Circumstances.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—A woman, by the name of Annie Elv, was found dead in a small wooden shack at the corner of Dufferin avenue and King street yesterday morning, under circumstances which point to foul play.

CANADIANS' SPLENDID FIGHTING

London, Nov. 15.—Lord Roberts telegraphs from Johannesburg, under date of Nov. 8, giving an interesting report to the war office. He says: "General Knox states that he takes no credit for the successful engagement of November 6, which was due, in the first instance to the determination of Lieutenant Gallaie never to lose touch with the enemy again; secondly to the able manner in which DeLisle handled the firing line after Lieutenant Gallaie and Ross were wounded."

"Smith-Dorrien reports that the two days fighting mentioned was very hard. His force consisted of 250 mounted men from the 5th Buffs and the Royal Canadian dragoons and mounted rifles; two Royal Canadian artillery guns, four guns of the 84th battery and 800 men of the Suffolks and Shropshires."

"Our casualties the first day were six killed and 20 wounded, chiefly of the Shropshires, who fought splendidly. The next day the Boers tried to seize the strong position on the bank of the Momi river from which they were beaten out on November 6th, but were prevented by Colonel Byrd of the Canadian corps and two of the 84th guns galloping two miles and seizing it in the nick of time."

"The rear on the return march was defended by Colonel Lessage, with the Canadian dragoons and two Royal Canadian guns, under Lieutenant Mortley. Smith-Dorrien says no praise can be too great for the devoted gallantry these troops showed in keeping off the enemy from the infantry column."

"In the afternoon an event unprecedented in this war occurred when some 200 mounted Boers suddenly charged the rear guard to within 70 yards, when they were stopped by the Canadian dragoons, fell into the hands of the enemy, who treated them kindly and released them after removing their own dead and wounded, during which operation the Canadians were compelled to lie on their faces. In order that they would not see how heavily the Boers had suffered, our casualties were two killed and 12 wounded."

BOERS IS PLEASED

Commander in Chief Compliments Canadian Battery Men.

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—Lord Roberts inspected the Canadian battery men, under Major Hudson, near Pretoria, and complimented the corps on the work accomplished. It is stated the remaining Canadians of the First contingent will be Lord Roberts' personal bodyguard at the Queen's review in London.

Mr. Kruger has reached Suez. Private Bull, who enlisted in Winnipeg with Strathcona's Horse was severely wounded recently.

It is stated that Commander Botha has sent Lord Roberts his terms of surrender of his column. Lord Strathcona returns to England on Saturday morning.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

Boers Still Causing Our Troops Much Annoyance.

London, Nov. 14.—In Lord Roberts' latest despatches it would appear that the burghers in small bands continue to intercept the British. Each commando appears to act independently. Colonel Douglas has arrived at Ventersdorp from Zeerust and he will now clear out this depot for Boer supplies. Colonels Lessard, Evans and Otter have forwarded statements to the department at Ottawa up to October 8th. Colonel Otter was entertained at Silverton to dinner by his brother officers in celebration of his promotion to a colonel.

London, Nov. 14.—Under date of November 12 Lord Roberts telegraphs the war department as follows: "General Rundle reports skirmishes with small parties of Boers in the Harrismith, Reilend and Vredel districts. The commandos appear to be acting independently and with no object except to give as much annoyance as possible to the British. Our casualties in these skirmishes were two killed and seven wounded. Douglas arrived at Ventersdorp on November 11th from Zeerust, capturing on the march numbers of cattle and sheep. Ventersdorp, which has been a depot of supplies for the Boers, will now be cleared out by our troops."

THE COST OF THE WAR

Sir M. H. Beach on the Question of Taxation.

London, Nov. 14.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, speaking last evening at Bristol said it would not be his privilege in the next budget to reduce the taxpayers' burden. He wished he could say that he was not about to increase the budget, but the government's expenditure had been enormous especially in China and South Africa. He declared emphatically, however, that the wealth of the Transvaal would have to bear part of the strain. "Of course," said Sir Michael, "we must not spoil the future of the Transvaal by attempting to impose upon it a greater burden than it could reasonably bear. That would be cutting our throats. Therefore the British taxpayers must necessarily bear a large part of the cost of the war."

He emphasized the fact that the maintenance of a strong army and navy would involve a further considerable expenditure.

AMERICANS PROTEST

Against Injury to Their Property by the Boers.

Washington, Nov. 13.—A number of persons, claiming to be Americans, have submitted to the state department claims against the Boers for destruction of their property and injury to their business interests in the Transvaal and Orange river district. No decisions were arrived at as to what disposition shall be made of these cases.

BOTHA'S TERMS

The Crafty Boer General is Coming to Terms at Last.

London, Nov. 15.—General Botha, says a Pretoria despatch to the Mail, has sent to Lord Roberts a statement of the terms on which he will surrender and lay down his arms.

CHARGES DENIED

London, Nov. 15.—Lord Roberts in response to an enquiry from the Prince of Wales has telegraphed authorizing a denial of the charges of cowardice made in Lord Roberts' book against the British officers in the Sannas Post affair.

KRUGER OVERDUE

Suez, Nov. 13.—Delay in the arrival of Kruger is arousing much speculation as to the reason for the delay. The Red Sea has been windy. The Gendarm and his wife have arrived here on Sunday and her non-appearance is causing much rumour.

THE CHINESE TROUBLE

Russians Signally Defeat the Chinese.

Peking, Nov. 15.—A Russian column of 330 men with four guns which left here on November 4th, returned on November 8th, having engaged the Chinese in Hsin Tsang. The Russians fought 2,000 Chinese troops, slaughtering them and killing 200. The Russians had no casualties. The population of Hsin Tsang now reaches 600,000. Chinese and the allies are strengthening the garrison as against possible surprises. It is supposed that one-third of the inhabitants of Hsin Tsang have fled from the city. The Chinese are reported to be retreating in confusion.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—The Frankfurter Zeitung prints a despatch from China, saying that discord is prevalent in Pekin between the military and the diplomats, and that the latter are at loggerheads among themselves. Count von Waldersee, cables from Peking under date of November 11th, that the former Chinese garrison of Pekin is between Hual-Hui and Kesu Hua. He sent a German expedition against it as it is likely the Chinese may attack the Catholic priests in this district of the Chinese empire.

RUSSIA AND ENGLAND

Tien Tsin, Nov. 15.—The Russians have ordered all foreigners in the railway houses at Tong Ku to vacate the buildings and the British have sent three companies of infantry and 200 Bombay cavalry, ordering these troops to return and protect their property.

THIS SHOULD FETCH 'EM

Hong-Kong, Nov. 14.—Placards are posted at Fatshan saying that all native Christians must repent or 20 of their chapels will be burnt, and the converts killed.

MOUNT BAKER SURVEY

Surveyor Deane Claims That Valuable Lands Belong to Canada.

Yancouver, B. C., Nov. 13.—According to word received from Mount Baker district Surveyor Deane, who was sent by the Canadian government to survey the boundary has officially reported that all the disputed territory claimed by the United States is Canadian soil, and that every one of the mines are on Canadian soil. The settlers claim to have received a promise from Hon. Sydney Fisher that a joint survey commission will survey the boundary next summer. The settlers make the startling charge that the boundary in the Mount Baker district has never been surveyed, that the country being almost impassible, the joint survey party agreed to declare its survey to the government's representatives without performing the work, thus causing endless complications.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Anoka, Minn., Nov. 14.—The Wise murder case is a thing of the past. James Miller and James Hardy, who were charged with the murder of Mrs. Wile have been found not guilty, and the most noted criminal case in the North West is now a matter of record. The case went to a jury on Saturday night at 10 o'clock. It took the jury 12 hours to the minute to reach a decision.

A VANCOUVER TRAGEDY

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—Wm. Ashley, a gardener, working for his aunt, Mrs. Connell, at Esquimalt, was shot last night by his uncle. He died at once. The murderer has not yet been captured.

BRANDON CITIZEN DEAD

Brandon, Man., Nov. 13.—Gloom has once more been cast over the citizens of Brandon by the sudden death of one of their most respected business men, in the person of T. F. Butcher, the jeweller.

FOUND DEAD

Port William, Nov. 11.—James G. Reid, a well known character of his town, was found dead alongside the C. P. R. track yesterday morning. He was generally known as "Scotty" Reid, and had at one time been ledger keeper in the National Bank of Scotland.

BRITISH GALES

London, Nov. 14.—A fierce gale swept over the English channel last night causing a number of wrecks, including the Hildegrade bound for Shields. There were no fatalities. The Scotch Georgian was lost off Hayland Island and all on board drowned.

IRVING TO MCKINLEY

Liverpool, Nov. 8.—Sir Henry Irving sent the following telegram to President McKinley: "My warmest, most respectful greeting to you, honored sir. My congratulations on the high honor paid you a second time by your great nation."

BRYAN'S CONGRATULATIONS

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—William Jennings Bryan telegraphed President McKinley today as follows: "At the close of another presidential campaign it is my lot to congratulate you upon your second victory."

HIGH LIFE SCANDAL

London, Nov. 14.—The World of this city says a judicial separation between Prince and Princess Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, is an accomplished fact. It is stated that Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., will reside in Winnipeg. The Chinaman who murdered the chief of police of Steveston, B. C., will be hanged on Friday.

MINISTERIAL SHUFFLES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 13.—A ministerial shuffle is expected shortly. It is said that Sir Richard Cartwright will be appointed high commissioner in London, and that William Gibson or M. P. for Lincoln will get Sir Richard's seat and a portfolio. Both Dr. Landerkin and Mr. McMullen would like to be remembered, but unfortunately there are not three portfolios vacant.

The story that Lord Strathcona intends to resign the post of Canadian commissioner in England, and that he will be succeeded by Sir Richard Cartwright is denied. Lord Strathcona, when asked regarding the report today said: "There is absolutely no foundation for the rumor. I have never expressed myself as having wished to resign my position and there is no truth in the story."

LATEST ELECTION RETURNS

Results in Algoma, Selkirk and West Prince.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 13.—All the returns received to this hour in the contest in Algoma between Boyd, Conservative, and Dymont, Liberal, give Mr. Dymont a majority of 250. Mr. A. E. Dymont, Liberal candidate in Algoma, will be elected to the house of commons. Returns from Rainy River, Mine Centre and Manitoulin Island have yet to come in, but it is expected Mr. Dymont's majority will be not less than 250.

Latest reports place Mr. Oliver's majority in Alberta at 1,200 with 24 places to hear from.

Mr. Douglas's majority in East Assiniboia is 12 with two places missing. The northern polls in Selkirk riding gave Mr. McCreary a majority of 19 over Mr. Hastum on the entire vote. Official returns give Erb (Liberal) for South Perth.

A TRIBUTE TO TUPPER

La Presse Says He Has Not Been Actuated by Racial or Religious Prejudice.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—La Presse, the flaming French Canadian paper, editorially paid a tribute last night to Sir Charles Tupper. After reviewing his public career and eulogizing his indomitable character and pluck in the face of defeat and expressing regret at his retirement, La Presse says: "He has always been exceedingly favorable to the French Canadians, whom he has treated with justice, liberality and generosity. The absence on his part of all national and religious prejudice, which he generally has such a hold on public men is one of the greatest traits of his character."

SIR CHARLES COMES WEST

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13.—Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the Conservatives of Canada for the past four years, accompanied by Sir Hilbert Tupper, arrived in Winnipeg from the west yesterday morning, and after spending the day with Mr. J. Stewart Tupper at "Ravenscourt" proceeded west to take in the elections in Yale, Cariboo and Burrard in British Columbia. Sir Charles was enthusiastically received at the depot by the Conservative members of the city, both ladies and gentlemen.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

London, Nov. 13.—Parliament will assemble on December 4th to vote expenses of the war in South Africa, which are now expected to amount to $200,000,000. Before Christmas an address will be taken until the first of January.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

ON T.H. SHELF

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—The Free Press, a government organ, practically confirms the report of yesterday that Sir Richard Cartwright is going to England as high commissioner. The paper says Mr. Sutherland will be minister of trade and commerce in Sir Richard's place.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

A ST. LOUIS FIRE

St. Louis, Nov. 13.—A despatch to the Post-Dispatch from St. Louis says the Girard house was destroyed by fire today. Five bodies are reported to have been removed from the debris. Two persons were fatally injured and at least 12 sustained severe injury. It is believed that eight or ten more are buried in the ruins.

FOUND DEAD

Port William, Nov. 11.—James G. Reid, a well known character of his town, was found dead alongside the C. P. R. track yesterday morning. He was generally known as "Scotty" Reid, and had at one time been ledger keeper in the National Bank of Scotland.

BRITISH GALES

London, Nov. 14.—A fierce gale swept over the English channel last night causing a number of wrecks, including the Hildegrade bound for Shields. There were no fatalities. The Scotch Georgian was lost off Hayland Island and all on board drowned.

IRVING TO MCKINLEY

Liverpool, Nov. 8.—Sir Henry Irving sent the following telegram to President McKinley: "My warmest, most respectful greeting to you, honored sir. My congratulations on the high honor paid you a second time by your great nation."

BRYAN'S CONGRATULATIONS

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—William Jennings Bryan telegraphed President McKinley today as follows: "At the close of another presidential campaign it is my lot to congratulate you upon your second victory."

HIGH LIFE SCANDAL

London, Nov. 14.—The World of this city says a judicial separation between Prince and Princess Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, is an accomplished fact. It is stated that Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., will reside in Winnipeg. The Chinaman who murdered the chief of police of Steveston, B. C., will be hanged on Friday.

MINISTERIAL SHUFFLES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 13.—A ministerial shuffle is expected shortly. It is said that Sir Richard Cartwright will be appointed high commissioner in London, and that William Gibson or M. P. for Lincoln will get Sir Richard's seat and a portfolio. Both Dr. Landerkin and Mr. McMullen would like to be remembered, but unfortunately there are not three portfolios vacant.

The story that Lord Strathcona intends to resign the post of Canadian commissioner in England, and that he will be succeeded by Sir Richard Cartwright is denied. Lord Strathcona, when asked regarding the report today said: "There is absolutely no foundation for the rumor. I have never expressed myself as having wished to resign my position and there is no truth in the story."

LATEST ELECTION RETURNS

Results in Algoma, Selkirk and West Prince.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 13.—All the returns received to this hour in the contest in Algoma between Boyd, Conservative, and Dymont, Liberal, give Mr. Dymont a majority of 250. Mr. A. E. Dymont, Liberal candidate in Algoma, will be elected to the house of commons. Returns from Rainy River, Mine Centre and Manitoulin Island have yet to come in, but it is expected Mr. Dymont's majority will be not less than 250.

Latest reports place Mr. Oliver's majority in Alberta at 1,200 with 24 places to hear from.

Mr. Douglas's majority in East Assiniboia is 12 with two places missing. The northern polls in Selkirk riding gave Mr. McCreary a majority of 19 over Mr. Hastum on the entire vote. Official returns give Erb (Liberal) for South Perth.

A TRIBUTE TO TUPPER

La Presse Says He Has Not Been Actuated by Racial or Religious Prejudice.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—La Presse, the flaming French Canadian paper, editorially paid a tribute last night to Sir Charles Tupper. After reviewing his public career and eulogizing his indomitable character and pluck in the face of defeat and expressing regret at his retirement, La Presse says: "He has always been exceedingly favorable to the French Canadians, whom he has treated with justice, liberality and generosity. The absence on his part of all national and religious prejudice, which he generally has such a hold on public men is one of the greatest traits of his character."

SIR CHARLES COMES WEST

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13.—Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the Conservatives of Canada for the past four years, accompanied by Sir Hilbert Tupper, arrived in Winnipeg from the west yesterday morning, and after spending the day with Mr. J. Stewart Tupper at "Ravenscourt" proceeded west to take in the elections in Yale, Cariboo and Burrard in British Columbia. Sir Charles was enthusiastically received at the depot by the Conservative members of the city, both ladies and gentlemen.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

London, Nov. 13.—Parliament will assemble on December 4th to vote expenses of the war in South Africa, which are now expected to amount to $200,000,000. Before Christmas an address will be taken until the first of January.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

ON T.H. SHELF

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—The Free Press, a government organ, practically confirms the report of yesterday that Sir Richard Cartwright is going to England as high commissioner. The paper says Mr. Sutherland will be minister of trade and commerce in Sir Richard's place.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

IRVING TO MCKINLEY

Liverpool, Nov. 8.—Sir Henry Irving sent the following telegram to President McKinley: "My warmest, most respectful greeting to you, honored sir. My congratulations on the high honor paid you a second time by your great nation."

BRYAN'S CONGRATULATIONS

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—William Jennings Bryan telegraphed President McKinley today as follows: "At the close of another presidential campaign it is my lot to congratulate you upon your second victory."

HIGH LIFE SCANDAL

London, Nov. 14.—The World of this city says a judicial separation between Prince and Princess Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, is an accomplished fact. It is stated that Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., will reside in Winnipeg. The Chinaman who murdered the chief of police of Steveston, B. C., will be hanged on Friday.

MINISTERIAL SHUFFLES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 13.—A ministerial shuffle is expected shortly. It is said that Sir Richard Cartwright will be appointed high commissioner in London, and that William Gibson or M. P. for Lincoln will get Sir Richard's seat and a portfolio. Both Dr. Landerkin and Mr. McMullen would like to be remembered, but unfortunately there are not three portfolios vacant.

The story that Lord Strathcona intends to resign the post of Canadian commissioner in England, and that he will be succeeded by Sir Richard Cartwright is denied. Lord Strathcona, when asked regarding the report today said: "There is absolutely no foundation for the rumor. I have never expressed myself as having wished to resign my position and there is no truth in the story."

LATEST ELECTION RETURNS

Results in Algoma, Selkirk and West Prince.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 13.—All the returns received to this hour in the contest in Algoma between Boyd, Conservative, and Dymont, Liberal, give Mr. Dymont a majority of 250. Mr. A. E. Dymont, Liberal candidate in Algoma, will be elected to the house of commons. Returns from Rainy River, Mine Centre and Manitoulin Island have yet to come in, but it is expected Mr. Dymont's majority will be not less than 250.

A TRIBUTE TO TUPPER

La Presse Says He Has Not Been Actuated by Racial or Religious Prejudice.

Montreal, Nov. 13.—La Presse, the flaming French Canadian paper, editorially paid a tribute last night to Sir Charles Tupper. After reviewing his public career and eulogizing his indomitable character and pluck in the face of defeat and expressing regret at his retirement, La Presse says: "He has always been exceedingly favorable to the French Canadians, whom he has treated with justice, liberality and generosity. The absence on his part of all national and religious prejudice, which he generally has such a hold on public men is one of the greatest traits of his character."

SIR CHARLES COMES WEST

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 13.—Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the Conservatives of Canada for the past four years, accompanied by Sir Hilbert Tupper, arrived in Winnipeg from the west yesterday morning, and after spending the day with Mr. J. Stewart Tupper at "Ravenscourt" proceeded west to take in the elections in Yale, Cariboo and Burrard in British Columbia. Sir Charles was enthusiastically received at the depot by the Conservative members of the city, both ladies and gentlemen.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

London, Nov. 13.—Parliament will assemble on December 4th to vote expenses of the war in South Africa, which are now expected to amount to $200,000,000. Before Christmas an address will be taken until the first of January.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

ON T.H. SHELF

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—The Free Press, a government organ, practically confirms the report of yesterday that Sir Richard Cartwright is going to England as high commissioner. The paper says Mr. Sutherland will be minister of trade and commerce in Sir Richard's place.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—It is generally believed that Senator Power, of Hall's, will be the next speaker of the upper house.

SENATOR POWER

WE FILL

Prescriptions

Our Prescription Department is unequalled for the care and skill with which our prescriptions are prepared. We carry a large stock of the Purest of Drugs and Chemicals. Deliveries made to any part of the City.

Night Bell on Door.

CANADA DRUG & BOOK CO.
REVELSTOKE

Local and General News

—Wings at cost. Emporium Millinery Parlors.

—Rooms to let on Second Street. Apply at the HERALD office.

—Fred Fraser has been appointed deputy returning officer for the Revelstoke electoral district.

—Shirt waists made reasonably. Emporium Millinery Parlors.

—There is to be a provincial election in Quebec on Dec. 7th and another in Prince Edward's Island on Dec. 12.

—Three good suites of rooms suitable for large families in the Green Slide Block. Apply R. Tapping.

—Knock-about and untrimmed shapes at cost this week. Emporium Millinery Parlors.

—The annual meeting of the Hockey Club will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the fire hall.

—For the cough and the cold if you get any medicine at all, try Compound Syrup of White Pine and Tar, it will help you. Sold only at Canada Drug & Book Co.

—Ladies' natural all wool undervests and drawers to match, fine and soft goods. Regular price $1.50 each. Sale price $1.25 or $2.50 per suit at the Green Slide Block. Sale now on this week at the Cash Bazaar.

—It is just time to speak now for your Xmas numbers of the illustrated papers at the Canada Drug and Book Co. They will have some beautiful pictures this year and only 50 c. complete.

In spite of the storm on Friday evening a number of the city's best talent, including Mayor Smith, Ald. Kilpatrick, Abrahamson and McMahon. A report of the proceedings will appear in our next issue.

The Coming Land is the title of a very handsomely gotten up guidebook to British Columbia, published by The Canadian Book Co., Ltd., 538 Hastings St., Vancouver, at one dollar a copy. The work is profusely illustrated with half-tone engravings and the letter press is interestingly written and up to date.

The institution of the Rev. C. A. Proctor, A. A., of St. Peter's, Revelstoke, will be conducted by the Ven. Edwin S. W. Pentreath D. D., Archdeacon of Columbia, on Wednesday evening Nov. 21st, 1900, at 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to all parishioners, adherents, friends and strangers.

Work is going on on the wagon road and was prosecuted even during the storm on Friday and Saturday. There are 20 men at work and it will be quite possible to keep that many and more employed all winter, if the government wishes. There is very little snow in the canyon and the side of the river bank is loose and easily worked.

The storm, which started on Thursday night and raged here all Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was very severe and caught a good many people where the wind and rain were short. It seems to have raged all over the province to the coast. Yesterday's advice to the C. P. R. report the worst storm known in 25 years to be raging on the plains.

Rev. Jno. Bennett Anderson, the singing evangelist from London, Eng., preached in the Methodist church, in Sunday morning and evening. In spite of the storm the congregations were good and the sermons delivered by Mr. Anderson, especially the evening discourse, were greatly appreciated. He will conduct special evangelistic services in the Methodist church, each night this week. Mr. Anderson was chaplain to the Uthlanders at the time of the Jamieson raid and has seen many thrilling experiences in various parts of the world during his career as an evangelist.

It seems as if the fates were against Mr. Oliver in Revelstoke. His first meeting in Mr. Gallie's interests was postponed because of a delayed train. His second was cancelled on Friday night because of the storm. Mr. Oliver is quite one of the most interesting personalities among western public men. He is a pioneer of western journalism and the progress of Northern Alberta has owed much to the constant advocacy of the resources of the district in the Bulletin, which Mr. Oliver established in Edmonton nearly 20 years ago, bringing the plant across the plain a thousand miles to Red River city.

It is acknowledged by the highest authority that eye strain causes more headaches than all other causes combined. From this fact it will readily be seen that thousands of people are suffering from headache who do not know that the cause is a defect of vision, or a weakness of the eyes. Many have taken medicines without obtaining relief, or have suffered thinking there was no remedy. These defects can all be perfectly cured with properly adjusted glasses that will relieve the strain. Consult Prof. W. J. Harvey, F. O. M. C. I. at J. Guy Barber's until Sat. Nov. 24th.

The 'Cash Bazaar.'

THE STORE FOR THE LADIES.

Great Clearing Sale of Mantles

We have a number of old Mantles which we want to clear, and now that the cold weather is here perhaps you are thinking of getting one. If so do not buy without giving us a call. It will pay you.

Mantles at your own price. These goods are now on sale.

Thousands are drinking Blue Ribbon Ceylon Tea now, everyone will drink it after a while.

Salvation Army.

Special meetings will be held in the Salvation Army Barracks Wednesday and Thursday Nov. 21st and 22nd, led by Esigun Stagers of Spokane. Magic Lantern service entitled "Jesse's first prayer, Thursday evening, 7:30 o'clock. Admission 15c. Coffee and cake social Saturday evening the 24th inst., when an enrollment of recruits and commissioning of local officers will take place. Admission 25c.

McKane Unanimously Elected.

Rossland, Nov. 19, 1900. To John McKane, Revelstoke.

"St. Andrew's Society tonight unanimously elected you president after having heard the retiring president sing 'Come ye by Athol.'"

G. McL. FORIN, Hon. Sec.

Dramatic Entertainment and Dance.

A dramatic entertainment will be given in Tapping's theatre on Thursday, Nov. 20th, in aid of St. Peter's church. The programme will consist of a two-act comedy, entitled "Box of Monkeys," a musical, children's cake walk and living pictures, the whole to conclude with an impromptu dance. Tickets for sale at the Canada Drug and Book Store and J. B. Wolfe's store. Reserved seats 75 cents general admission 50 cents, children under fifteen 25 cents.

—Trimmed hats twenty per cent. off this week. Emporium Millinery Parlors.

—Flat to Rent—suitable for a small family, over the Emporium Parlors McKenzie Avenue. Apply to M. K. Lawson.

Wanted.

Dressmaker wishes sewing by the day. Terms reasonable. Apply Box 53, Revelstoke Station.

HOCKEY MEETING

The Annual meeting of the Revelstoke Hockey Club for the purpose of reorganization and election of officers will be held at the Fire Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 21st, at 8 o'clock. All interested in hockey are requested to be present.

J. D. MOLSON, President.

Prof. Harvey, F.O.M.C.I.

The following are a few of the Kauloops people, who, having received corrections for defective sight, will testify as to the ability of Prof. W. J. Harvey, F.O.M.C.I.

Mrs. A. B. Burger. Frank Harmon. Mrs. L. Martin. Frederick Bell. E. M. Erskin. O. S. Batchelor. Miss McCaughy. W. A. Night. Mrs. W. A. McLean. John Park, M. E. Miss A. Mains. W. H. Buse. N. McPhae. Mrs. W. Fortune. Mrs. T. Bullman. C. Freidholder. Thos. Hawell. W. E. Law. Miss McWha. Mrs. G. Munroe. Mrs. Winters. Mrs. E. Janes. Henry Banzer. Mrs. O. S. Taylor. Mrs. J. Lavery.

(Continued in next issue.)

Sheriff's Sale.

Under and by virtue of a Warrant of Execution issued out of the County Court of Kootenay held at Revelstoke in an action wherein Ole Peterson of Trout Lake, is Plaintiff and Alex. Olson of Trout Lake is Defendant I have seized all the undivided one-fourth interest of the said Defendant Alex. Olson, in and to the Copper Chief Mineral Claim, situated on the South side of Trout Creek, about six miles from Trout Lake and will offer the same for sale at the Court House in the City of Revelstoke, on Thursday, the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1900, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon.

Dated this 8th day of November, A. D. 1900.

JAMES TAYLOR, Deputy Sheriff.

EXAMINATION OF ASSAYERS FOR LICENCE TO PRACTICE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in accord with section 10 of the "Mineral Act," a special examination for efficiency in the practice of assaying will be held in the City of Victoria, December 5th, 1900, at 10 o'clock, and such examination may be found in the B. C. Gazette on file in each Government Office.

The intending candidates should make application for such examination 10 days in advance to the Provincial Assayer, Secretary of Board of Examiners, Victoria. Such application to be accompanied with the fee of $10.

RICHARD McBRIDE, Minister of Mines. Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C., 5th November, 1900.

Experience

There are two vital points in the drug business: experience and purity.

Our experience is beyond question and the purity of our drugs is guaranteed. Prescriptions that are filled here are reliable.

We shall be glad to serve you.

RED CROSS DRUGSTORE

Geo. F. Curtis,
TAYLOR BLOCK, McKenzie Ave.

HATS HATS HATS

Trimmed and Untrimmed

The best assortment of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats in the City. Call and inspect before purchasing.

Misses Shepard & Bell
McKenzie Avenue 6523

CLOSING OUT SALE

GOODS AT YOUR OWN PRICES

EVERYTHING MUST GO

NOW ON AT
M. K. LAWSON'S
Mackenzie Ave.

WATCHES CLOCKS and all kinds of Jewellery

If the work is not satisfactory we refund your money.

WE GUARANTEE OUR WORK and stand by our guarantee.

We also carry a good line of Watches and Jewellery, which we dispose of at moderate prices.

E. M. ALLUM,
The Leading Watchmaker and Jeweler.

Just received a full line of Will's Famous Tobacco

FOR 10 DAYS ONLY Quaker Bais at $6.00

W. J. Bennett
(Successor to C. J. Amann.)

FOR SALE

Two Cars of Beef Steers

Two and three years old, for delivery between now and December 1st.

For particulars apply to the undersigned,
BURCH & CO.
nov-14 Red Deer, Alta.

L. A. FRETZ

Contractor and Builder

Houses and Stores to Rent and For Sale.

TAYLOR & GEORGE

"THE LEADING STORE"

LATE JAMES GILL & CO.

Great Bargains In Clothing

Men's All Wool Tweed Suits

Regular Prices, $8, $10, 16
Cut to $4, $6, $8

PANTS

Men's all Wool, Serge and Tweed n. s.
REGULAR PRICE—$2-$3—and $4
CUT TO—$1.00—$1.50—$2.

NECKWEAR

Men's Beautiful Silk Ties
REGULAR PRICE—50c—60c—75c—and $1.00
CUT TO—20c. each.

HATS

REGULAR PRICE—$1.50—$2.00—$2.50—$3.00—$3.75—$4.00
CUT TO—$1.00—$1.50—$2.00—$2.50—$3.00—$3.75

We are also giving a Cash Discount of 20 per cent. off all our BOOTS and SHOES

TAYLOR & GEORGE

The Wide-Awake Business Men. McKenzie Avenue.

A Dainty Timepiece

The long, delicate chain is the correct adjunct for a Dainty Time Piece, and is used in so many other ways you can't afford to be without one. We offer special bargains in these fashionable chains either with or without the watch.

GUY BARBER, Watchmaker and Jeweller
Mackenzie Avenue.

THE FRED ROBINSON LUMBER COMPANY, LIMITED.

On and after this date our prices for Cut Firewood will be as follows:—

$1.00 Per Cord at Mill
$2.00 Per Cord Delivered

PRICES CUT FOR CASH.

FRED ROBINSON, Managing Director.

Large and Well Lighted Sample Rooms. Free Bus Meets All Trains. Reasonable Rates. Heated by Hot Air and Electric Bells and Light in every room.

HOTEL VICTORIA.
JOHN V. PERKS, PROPRIETOR.

Night Grills 7:30 to 11 o'clock for the Convenience of Guests

Hourly Street Car between Hotel and Station

Revelstoke, B. C.

THE GREATEST OF ALL

THERE'S SOMETHING about these Men's Furnishings Which will insure you pleasure. It is the style more than any other feature that recommends them.

There are many novelties and the best of the standard little things which mean so much in a man's get up.

HATS—Regular prices, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. Sale price for the week, 75c., $1.00, $1.25 and $2.00.

J. B. CRESSMAN
MACKENZIE AVENUE.

REVELSTOKE SMELTER TOWNSITE

R. H. MAYNE,
SOLE AGENT

..LOTS FROM $150 UP..

-ON EASY TERMS-

R. H. MAYNE,
Notary Public and Insurance Agent.

Be Your Own Landlord

Stop Paying Rent!

A bundle of receipts will be all you will have to show for years of rent paid. If you own a lot, or have the money to buy one, this is the best way to get out of paying rent. It will assist you to PURCHASE or BUILD A HOUSE, and permit you to own a home not greater than the amount usually spent for rent.

Canadian Birkbeck Investment & Savings Co

Capital, $2,500,000. Head Office, Toronto.

Full particulars on application.

F. B. LEWIS, Local Agent. G. S. McCARTER, Solicitor.

Clearing Sale of Stoves at COST.

We will offer from now until the end of this month our entire large and well assorted stock of Cook Stoves and Box Stoves at Cost Price.

These Stoves having been purchased before the advance in price are much less than present cost.

Stoves will be marked in plain figures, and will be sold for CASH ONLY.

W. M. Lawrence
ESTATE
Hardware, Tinware, Stoves, Paints, Oil and Glass. Agent for Hamilton Powder Co.

A GOOD NAME...

Is better than riches.

We have the name of making the only stylish Suits in Town for durability and quality they also excel.

TRY ONE

R. S. WILSON
Next the McCarty Block.

Chamois
From 10c. to 75c. apiece.

Chest Protectors
Chamois Vests, $2.25

Sponges
(a good assortment)
From 5c. upward.

FIELD & BEWS,
Druggist and Apothecary, Brown Block.

To Housekeepers

Now is the time to put in your Winter supply of Vegetables

at reasonable prices. The goods are first class and include

POTATOES, TURNIPS, CARROTS, BEETS, ONIONS, PARSNIPS,

Also for sale about 40 tons of

HAY

S. D. CROWLE,
604-3m Revelstoke P. O.

A. N. SMITH

Baker AND Confectioner

Bread - Delivered - Daily

CALL AND INSPECT OUR STOCK OF

NEW GROCERIES

Its all Right

Providing you are patronizing the Steam Laundry.

We need your support. Do we merit it? Come now let us reason together. Can you give us any just reason why we should not do your washing?

F. BUKER,
Proprietor. Telephone 48

LOYAL ORANGE LODGE No. 1658.

Regular meetings are held in the Oddfellows Hall on the Third Friday of each month, at 8 o'clock. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend.

W. M. MATTHEWS, Secretary.

THOS. STEEN, W. M.

Court Mt. Begbie
I. O. F., No. 3461.

Meets in the Oddfellows Hall on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. Visiting brethren invited to attend.

B. R. ATKINS, Chief Ranger. C. W. MITCHELL, Rec. Sec.

Gold Range Lodge K. of P.
No. 26, Revelstoke, B. C.

Meets every Wednesday in Oddfellows Hall at 8 o'clock. Visiting Knights invited.

W. M. MATTHEWS, G. C.
J. SAVAGE, K. OF R. & S.

A. H. HOLDICH,
ANALYTICAL CHEMIST AND ASSAYER.

Royal School of Mines, London. Seven years at Maria Theresa, Swansea. 17 years Chief Chemist to Wigan Coal and Iron Co., Eng. Late Chemist and Assayer, Hall Mines, Ltd. Claims examined and reported upon.

Revelstoke, B. C.

H. W. EDWARDS, Taxidermist
Third Street, Revelstoke, B. C.
P. O. Box 16.

GIVE YOUR TEETH ATTENTION

When they first need it, before they give you pain, thereby avoiding needless suffering and securing more satisfactory and permanent work, and at less cost than if left until the latter stages of decay.

Dr. Burgess, Dentist.
Taylor Block.

CERTIFICATE OF IMPROVEMENTS

NOTICE

Black Bear and Kananaskis mineral claims situate in the Kootenay Division of West Kootenay District. Where located at the headwaters of Bear Creek, a tributary of Two Creeks.

Take Notice that I, J. Fred Ritchie, of Revelstoke, B. C., acting as agent for Frank Grainger Smith, of Lethbridge, B. C., intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for Certificates of Improvements, for the above claims.

And further take notice that action, under section 37, must be commenced before the expiration of such Certificates of Improvements. Dated this Fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1900.

J. FRED RITCHIE,
This notice was first published in this paper on the 9th day of November, 1900.

CERTIFICATE OF IMPROVEMENTS

NOTICE

Mountain Hole mineral claim situate in the Kootenay Division of West Kootenay District. Where located at the headwaters of Bear Creek, a tributary of Two Creeks.

Take Notice that I, J. Fred Ritchie, of Revelstoke, B. C., acting as agent for Frank Grainger Smith, of Lethbridge, B. C., intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for Certificates of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining a Crown Grant of the above claim.

And further take notice that action, under section 37, must be commenced before the expiration of such Certificates of Improvements. Dated this Fifteenth day of September, A. D. 1900.

J. FRED RITCHIE,
This notice was first published in this paper on the 9th day of November, 1900.

JAS. I. WOODROW BUTCHER

Retail Dealer in—
Beef, Pork, Mutton, Etc.

Fish and Game in Season....

All orders promptly filled.

Corner Douglas and King Streets REVELSTOKE, B. C.

H. G. PARSON

WHOLESALE

Wine and Liquor Merchant

Revelstoke, B. C.