IN FAVOR OF PEACE TERMS

The Vote Stood Fifty-Four to Six For Peace Terms.—Briton and Boer Fraternize.—General Thanksgiving.

PRETORIA, June 4.—The ballot for the Boers at Vereeniging resulted in fifty-four votes being cast in favor of surrender and 6 against it. Preparations are being made here for the surrender of the Boer commandos, which will take place on the race course. All the Boers are allowed perfect freedom.

There will be a Thanksgiving service on Sunday, June 8, on the church square, in which it is hoped the Boers will participate. The women in the concentration camps are anxious to return to their homes immediately, but this will be impossible until a system of supply depots for the outlying districts is established.

General Baden Powell is arranging for the distribution of mounted constabulary in various districts. The police, railroads and telegraphs will be handed over to the civil authorities as soon as possible, and the restrictions of martial law will be gradually relaxed. The Boer delegates, who, during the peace negotiations were stiff, formal and unfriendly, are now extremely cordial. All the commandants are returning to their commands in order to explain the situation.

Generals Botha and Delarey and other Boer leaders will start for Europe shortly for the purpose of raising funds for the distressed burghers. General Schalkburger, who was acting president of the Transvaal, joined General Botha in addressing an open letter to the burghers. After referring to the courage which they had displayed and their brave deeds in the field, he called on them to work together fer the social and spiritual advancement of the country.

General Louis Botha, the Boer commandant general, has written an open letter to the burghers, thanking them for their obedience in the past, and expecting them to be equally loyal in their obedience to the new government.

Lord Kitchener's address to the Boer delegates at Vereeniging, in which he said that if he had been one of them would be proud to have done so well in the field as they had done, made the best possible impression and drew forth a hearty response from General Beyers, the chairman of the Boer conference, who expressed the pleasure the Boers experienced at meeting Lord Kitchener as a friend, adding that they had fought so long against him that they had acquired full appreciation of his worth.

The departure of the commandoes from Vereeniging for their various districts was marked by remarkable scenes of fraternization. The trains conveying the Boers started late. The night being extremely cold, the sentries along the railroad track lighted huge bonfires, round which groups of Boers and British gathered, forming a highly picturesque scene. The opponents joined in such songs as Hard Times Come Again No More and Old Folks at Home, the British soldiers and burghers outvieing one another in their demonstrations of joy. In brief the scenes at the departure of the trains resembled nothing so much as the starting of a huge picnic party. The same signs of rejoicing were witnessed throughout the land. Flags were displayed everywhere and thanksgiving services were held in all the towns.

Straining at a Gnat.

There are Pharisees galore in the legislature at Victoria, and anyone desirous of libelling them would not go far wrong in making a start with the supporters of the government on the Atlin investigation business.

These men have brought in a report implying censure on Gold Commissioner Graham because he permitted the purchase, for use of the provincial health service, of a building owned by himself, and for which, it is claimed, the price paid was somewhat above market value. A building might have been had for two or three hundred dollars less, it is claimed, and to that extent Commissioner Graham put private interests before those of the public. So the committee censure and thus virtually retire him.

Fresh, however, from voting it scandalous that a subordinate official should profit through the sale of his real estate to the government, these members tolerate and vote approval of a scheme putting two million dollars into the treasury of the railway controlled by the head of the government — Premier Dunsmuir. They have a standard for the gold commissioner much more exalted than that established for the ministers. —New Westminster Columbian.

Attempted Suicide at Kaslo.

KASLO, June 4.—Gus Loftus, of British extraction, aged about 40, suicided last evening by severing the arteries on each wrist. When found he was literally swimming in blood. He was a cook by trade, and has worked lately in the Whitewater mines and on the steamship International. Suffering from D. T.'s, the suicidal mania attacked him while shaving.

Later—He was at first supposed to be dead, but after working on him for a long time the medical men now give hopes of ultimate recovery. He has a brother Tom in Indianapolis.

AROUND THE RAILWAY YARD

Personal Paragraphs Pertaining to Railway Men Picked up By the Herald Man on His Daily Rounds.

James F. Johnston, who was the engineer on the first G. T. R. train between Montreal and Toronto died in the latter city on Tuesday last.

A Jap was brought into the hospital yesterday at noon suffering from a fractured leg, and a cut and bruised head and face, received from an encounter between a hand car on which he and two other Japs were riding and a freight train. Not having time to get the hand car off the track before the train was on them, two of the Japs jumped and saved themselves, but the wounded man evidently got rattled and waited until he was knocked off.—Sentinel.

Brakeman J. A. Carson, of the C. P. R., met with a nasty accident at Kananaskis. He got his foot badly pinched while coupling cars. The foot was bruised considerably but the doctors are of the opinion that the foot will be saved. He was brought to Calgary by a special engine as soon as possible and he is now in the hospital. E. M. Carson, his brother, wishes to thank Superintendent Niblock and the officials of the company for their kindness in doing everything possible for sufferer.—Calgary Herald.

THREE MEN WERE KILLED

On the C. P. R. Near Calgary—Freight Engine Goes Through a Culvert with the Engineer, Brakeman and Car Inspector.

A serious accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Railway last Wednesday morning about five miles east of Calgary. Owing to the recent heavy rains, a culvert had become undermined, and a freight train dashed into the culvert, which gave way and precipitated the engine into the ditch. Engineer Charles Dorin, Brakeman Dunn, and Car Inspector Corsey were thrown under the engine and are pinioned there in eight feet of water. The train was telescoped and six cars were piled up on top of the engine. The wrecking crews from east and west are at work removing the debris, and traffic will soon be resumed, and the bodies of the unfortunate men recovered.

The passenger train was fortunately late, or a much more serious loss of life would have occurred.

LATER.

Calgary Herald: Thursday morning the bodies of engineer Doran and car inspector Coursey were found, both badly mangled. Doran had evidently been badly crushed and his injuries were of themselves of a fatal nature. Mr. Coursey had also been damaged, but indications are that he met his death from drowning. The remains of the unfortunate men are now lying in Smart's undertaking premises.

The body of Brakeman Dunn has not yet been brought to town, but it is expected that it will be recovered during the day.

The line was expected to be clear by 4 o'clock, by which time the express trains will move out of Calgary.

The engineer was found dead at the post of duty. His hand still grasped the throttle and his dead eyes were fixed and glazed as if sweeping the line for a clear road. The road was clear for him poor chap, but it was to eternity instead of Calgary.

CORONATION CELEBRATION

An Attractive Programme and a Fair List of Prizes—Two Days of Sport—June 26-27.—Host of Visitors Coming.

Now that the work of the Coronation Day celebration committee is well under way, every effort by the citizens should be made to co operate in making the celebration on June 26th and 27th a success worthy of the reputation the city enjoys. The programme drafted on Tuesday evening is varied and attractive and will be the best of the kind ever presented in this district. The programme includes baseball matches, shooting competitions, horse and bicycle races, athletic sports, etc., for which fair prizes in cash and kind are offered. The material advantages to be derived by the attendance of a large number of strangers to the city during the celebration are obvious, but the main idea is to give our visitors a hospitable welcome and a good time. The city should be decorated and made to look its best and the HERALD is of the opinion that the City Council should vote a sum of money to assist in the work of properly carrying out the ideas of the committee. For if it is worth doing at all it is worth doing well. Other towns in the province are voting money for the purposes of their celebration and why should not Revelstoke.

CAUSE OF BUSINESS DEPRESSION.

That British Columbia as a province for the investment of capital is looked upon at the present time as practically unsafe, is fully brought home to us by the following remarks on the political situation appearing in a recent issue of the Toronto Globe, whose special correspondent visited this province last month:

"To the question, what is wrong? the answers have been of the most varied sort. Many say that the condition of political anarchy that has prevailed in Provincial affairs during the past four years is the chief cause of the uncertainty in business. There are no parties in the Legislature of a binding nature, and men who in national politics are Liberal and Conservative flock together here in the Legislature and help out each other's schemes. Premier Dunsmuir and his colleagues are confronted by an Opposition that just about equals the Government supporters on such a matter as a vote of confidence and the balance of power is in the hands of Mr. Joseph Martin and a knot of followers, who constitute a third party. There is thus reproduced on a miniature scale in the Legislature of British Columbia such a condition as we often see in the chambers of France and Italy, where the men in office have to make all sorts of concessions to little groups of independents in order to retain power. In a province like this, where there is so much local feeling in regard to the policy to be pursued in development, and where various industries are concentrated at centres far apart from each other, it can readily be understood that a Government can do much either to help or hurt the industry and commerce of the people. It is said by one of Victoria's most prominent citizens that the hesitation of capital to come into British Columbia and the restlessness of labor are alike due to the uncertain attitude of the Dunsmuir Government toward capital and labor and that until the Legislature passes out of the third party stage into one in which a strong Government no matter how constituted, nonpartisan, Liberal or Conservative, is confronted by a united Opposition, there can be no hope of a return of the prosperity and progress of four years ago."

Goldfield's Mining News.

The following is from the Comaplix correspondent to the Topic:

There is a placer excitement on Menhinnick creek at Goldfields and a great scramble is going on for claims. The miners are even staking by lantern light. A great many claims are being staked, but there is great doubt as to the richness of the ground.

The owners of the Gold Finch at Goldfields, Messrs. Butler and Cameron, have discovered another rich ledge on this famous property, the quartz being very rich and literally full of gold.

The Northwestern Development Syndicate have sluiced the hillside next Menhinnick creek, on the Camborne group at Goldfields and exposed the lead for a considerable distance. The company are rushing the work on the flume and power house and expect to be ready in a short time to turn on the power.

CURING OF CLOVER HAY

In a recent article I called attention to the desirability of cutting hay at a comparatively early stage of maturity. In this connection it may be of interest to have some notes from that well known farmer and Institute speaker, Mr. Henry Glendenning, of Manilla, Ont., in regard to his experience with a new plan of curing clover hay. Mr. Glendenning says that he prefers to cut clover hay when it is in full bloom, or when the blossom contains the greatest amount of honey. Cut in the morning after the dew is off, that which is cut in the forenoon may be raked up immediately after the noon hour, and put in cocks. The mower should not be run later than four o'clock p.m., and all put into cocks before the dew falls. This hay should be put into the barn next day, and well tramped into the mows. This plan can be continued from day to day until all is stored in the barns. Three things must be borne in mind in curing hay by this method: First—Do not cut the grass until dry in the morning. Second—Do not allow the fresh cut hay to lie on the ground overnight, exposed to dew or rain. Third—If any hay should get wet with rain, let it stand in the cocks, until thoroughly dry before taking to the barn.

Last season Mr. Glendenning put up some 75 to 80 tons of hay in this way, and reports that it came out of the mows, in the finest condition he ever saw. It was as green as when put into the barn, and the leaves and blossoms were all attached to the stalks. It appeared to have dried out without much heating, as all of the alsike blossoms were pink, and the red clover blossoms were from a pink to a light amber color. If any great heat had developed in the mow the blossoms would undoubtedly have been of a dark brown color. No signs of mould were visible and the hay was very free from dust. No salt, lime or other preservative was used.

Two of the mows in which the hay was stored are 28x25 feet, with an average depth of 30 feet of hay. These mows are tight floored with double inch boards over basement stables. Another mow is 24x30 feet with depth of about 24 feet, and the floor on the ground.

The outsides of all the mows are of inch boards without battens, with cracks between the boards averaging about three eights of an inch, just such as are usually found in the ordinary barn. The sides of the mows next the drive floor were open. The hay which consisted of red clover, alsike and a little timothy, was equally good in all parts of the mows. Mr. Glendenning says that he knows of three other farmers who have followed this system for several years with equal success, and it would seem well worthy of trial by our farmers generally.

Among the advantages of this method of curing clover are: (1) The saving of time between cutting and storing in the barn; (2) the fact that all of the leaves and blossoms, which are the most valuable portion of the plant, are left on the hay, instead of being lost in the field as is often the case when the ordinary manner of curing is followed; (3) the hay is much cleaner and brighter than when cured in the old way.

THE TERMS OF PEACE

London, June 4.—Mr. Balfour in the House today announced the terms of peace in South Africa as follows:

His Excellency, Lord Milner, in behalf of the British government; His Excellency, Mr. Steyn, Gen. Bremmer, Gen. C. R. Dewet and Judge Hertzog, acting in behalf of the Orange Free State, and Gen. Schalkbuger, Gen. Reitz, Gen. Louis Botha and Gen. Delarey, acting in behalf of their respective burghers, desiring to terminate the present hostilities, agree to the following terms:

"The burgher forces in the field will forthwith lay down their arms and hand over all their guns, rifles and ammunition of war in their possession or under their control, and desist from further resistance and acknowledge King Edward VII. as their lawful Sovereign.

"The manner and details of this surrender will be arranged between Lord Kitchener and Commandant General Botha, assisted by Gen. Delarey and Chief Commandant Dewet.

"Second: All burghers outside the limits of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, and all prisoners of war at present outside South Africa, who are burghers, will, on duly declaring their acceptance of the position of subjects of His Majesty, be brought back to their homes as soon as means of transport can be provided and means of subsistence assured.

"Third—The burghers so returning will not be deprived of their personal liberty or property.

"Fourth—No proceedings, civil or criminal, will be taken against burghers surrendering, or so returning, for any acts in connection with the prosecution of the war. The benefits of this clause do not extend to certain acts contrary to the usages of war, which had been notified by the commanner in chief to the Boer generals and which shall be tried by court martial after the close of hostilities.

"Fifth—The Dutch language will be taught in the public schools of the Transval and Orange River Colony, where the parents desire it, and will be allowed in the courts of law, for the better and more effectual administration of justice.

"Sixth—Possession of rifles will be allowed in Transvaal and Orange River Colony to persons requiring them for their protection on taking a license according to law.

"Seventh—The military administration of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony will at the earliest possible date be succeeded by a civil government, and as soon as circumstances will permit, representative institutions, leading up to self government, will be introduced.

"Eighth—The question of granting the franchise to natives will not be decided until after the introduction of self government.

"Ninth—No special tax will be imposed on landed property in the Transvaal or Orange River Colony to defray the expenses of the war.

"Tenth—So soon as the conditions permit it, a committee on which the local inhabitants will be represented, will be appointed in each district of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony under the presidency of a magistrate or other official for the purpose of assisting in the restoration of the people to their homes, and supplying those who, owing to war loss, are unable to provide for themselves, with food and shelter, and the necessary amount of seed, stock and implements, etc., indispensable to the resumption of their normal occupations.

"His Majesty's government will place at the disposal of these commissions the sum of three million pounds sterling ($15,000,000) and will allow the notes issued under the law of 1900 of the South African Republican, and all receipts given up to officers in the field of the late republics or under their orders, to be presented to a judicial commission which will be appointed by the government, and if such notes and receipts are found by this commission to have been duly issued in return for valuable considerations, they will be received by the first named commissions as evidence of war losses suffered by the persons to which they were originally given.

"In addition to the above named free grant of three million pounds sterling His Majesty's government will be prepared to make advances, on loans, for the same purposes free of interest for two years and afterwards repayable, over a period of years with the three per cent interest. No foreigner or rebel will be entitled to benefit under this clause."

A combination of boilermakers and machinists have made arrangements for a football game to be played on the Gun Clubs grounds next Saturday. Undoubtedly this will be an interesting and evenly contested game as there are good men on both sides to pick from.

It is estimated that as a result of the Fernie disaster at least fifty women have been made widows and two hundred and fifty children rendered fatherless. All the towns and cities in the province are sending assistance to the relief of the distressed. Revelstoke should jump in and do something.

A meeting of the City Council was held last evening, a full report of which will appear in our next issue. A matter of intense interest to the citizens of Revelstoke was a discussion which came up at this meeting in regard to Chinese laundries. It was decided that a bylaw be submitted at their next meet to adopt a system to regulate the location of laundries in the city.

Bishop Grandin, the first Roman Catholic bishop of St. Albert, died Tuesday at St. Albert, after a lengthy illness. His see included the entire territory of Alberta, and he was the senior bishop in Canada, having been consecrated in 1850. He came to the Northwest about the year 1851, and has traveled the entire north country, including the Mackenzie river district, on snowshoes and by dog train. He was most popular with his people.

MURDER AT NAKUSP

A Drunken Row Results in the Clubbing to Death of one Man and the Severely Injuring of Another.

A drunken row occurred last Wednesday evening, about four miles below Nakusp, resulting in the death of one man and the severely injuring of another. Jack Cole, the murdered man, is an American, and has a wife living in Rossland. Nels Demars, the injured man, is an old timer here and is well known in connection with the Big Bend placer excitement in the early days. Henry Rose, who is charged with the crime, comes from Ottawa and has been in the west about a year.

According to Demars the three men were going down the lake in a boat from Nakusp on Wednesday evening. They had liquor on board. A row started and Demars paddled to shore. On getting ashore Rose struck Demars over the head with a club, and then then went after Cole, beating him severely about the head, neck and face. Rose then went back to finish Demars.

Rose notified Walter Scott, provincial officer at Nakusp, of the affair, but tells a different story as to how it occurred. Rose claims that after landing from the boat, he left the other two and went on down about half a mile, and that two men came out of the bush and attacked Cole and Demars. Hearing screaming and shouting he came back and found Cole dead.

Dr. Cross went down to Nakusp on Thursday and held an inquest, the jury returning a verdict that Cole came to his death at the hands of Rose.

Constable Upper brought Rose up from Nakusp yesterday afternoon and has him lodged in gaol.

A post mortem examination of the body of Cole was held this morning by Drs. Carruthers and McLean.

The preliminary examination is taking place today before Stipendiary Magistrate Fraser, Constable Upper acting on behalf of the Crown.

There died last week at the Old Man's Home, Kamloops, an old timer, who for some years was a well known resident of this district. "Pete" Smiley was one of the first pioneers of this part of the country, having prospected along Okanagan lake over 50 years ago, and was the first white man, as far as it is known, to take out gold from Siwash creek. He went all through the Cariboo excitement and mined with varying fortunes in almost all parts of the province. He was a native of Quebec, of mixed French and Scotch parentage, and was a quiet and industrious man who was well liked by all who knew him.—Vernon News.
