

OBSERVED THE RESOLUTION

NELSON DID NOT PLAY BALL YESTERDAY.

Puts Up an Exhibition Which Will Evade the Prohibition of the Narrow-Gauge Faction.

The bull game yesterday afternoon drew a good crowd at the recreation grounds, while almost as many more extended the sport their moral support only, viewing the game from adjacent points of vantage and keeping the price of admission in their pockets. As for the game itself it was of the ragged variety, the Nelson men crowding nine errors into the first four innings which, assisted by six hits, accounted for seven runs in the trail column. Bon Chambers, one of last season's intermediate players, was in the box for the home team, and although he was hit freely his pitching was much more creditable than the support which he received. Yesterday was the first appearance of the Nelson team in a home game, and it is a much weaker combination than any which has represented the city for some years past. It might be said that the absence of Partridge from the initial bag was noticed, and further, that almost anyone could be found to fill the position as acceptably as yesterday's occupant, both in the field and at bat. Among the other new men in the local team were W. Mills and McLaren. Mills was in center and handled himself like a ball player, showing good judgment of flies in the field and some ability with the stick. The other man, McLaren, has also played ball before. He did not have any opportunities in the field, but was very clever at the bat. His first time up, he went out on a foul fly at first, but three times after this he managed to get in slow infield hits and beat the ball out.

The new rule by which all foul balls become strikes, until the second has been reached, cut short the lives of several yesterday and accounted for thirteen Nelson men striking out. Nelson will not have the ball team this season that brought joy to the hearts of the local fans in days past, but with a little practice and the substitution of two or three men the combination should be strong enough to play with Trail and Rossland, and at least make matters interesting, which, save the last two innings, is more than could be said for yesterday's performance. Sage's Title Valid.

ST. PAUL, June 2.—Justice Leads of the Supreme Court has filed a decision which will result in several Stearns county settlers losing their homes, title to which was contested by Russell Sage as assignee in trust of the Hastings and Dakota Railway Company. Under the act of congress of June 4, 1860, the Hastings and Dakota Railway Company completed its road within the time as extended by the Minnesota legislature. When the road was completed there was found to be a deficiency in primary grants limits of about 800,000 acres and only about 70,000 acres available in the indemnity limits to make up the loss and in consequence all the lands in the indemnity limits were selected. After the completion of the roads the franchise was forfeited by a judgment and later its property was transferred to Russell Sage for the benefit of the stockholders. Judge Lewis holds that the settlers who entered upon the lands after they had been withdrawn from settlement are not in a position to attack Sage's title to lands earned by the completion of the road and secured to him by a transfer which the courts holds to be valid. While a few hundred acres were directly involved in this case, the decision involves the validity of the entire grant.

Sore Over Criticism.

NEW YORK, June 2.—According to a dispatch to the World from Glasgow designer Watson is greatly worried by the criticisms passed on his workmanship on the Lipton challenger. He told sir Thomas Lipton he did not place any value on the result of the recent trial races on the Solent. He built the challenger with an eye to American sailing conditions and nothing had happened to alter his judgment that she will prove the fastest challenger ever sent across. Captain Sycamore expressed entire agreement with this view. He says if he and Watson had their way the challenger would have been brought straight across the Atlantic when she was launched, to be tuned up there, but sir Thomas Lipton did not want this because his only chance to have the king as his guest was to have Solent trials.

Troops Leaving China.

PEKIN, June 2.—At a meeting of the generals of the allied troops today it was decided to transfer the administration of the city of Peking to the Chinese officials gradually during June. Count von Walderssee, accompanied by his staff, will leave Peking tomorrow. Two special trains will run all week taking troops to Taku. The Germans are removing an extraordinary amount of baggage, including Chinese carts, rickshaws, tables and chairs. The Baluch regiment left this morning and all the other British troops with their bands and every American officer in Peking was present, the Americans being particularly anxious to show their appreciation of the manner in which the British bade farewell to the Americans.

GERMAN INFLUENCE IN SAMOA

Is Gradually Extending

APIA, Samoa, May 8, via San Francisco, June 2.—The German government has made rapid progress with the roads commenced by the late government, but it has not been all done with German money, for the government, upon the partition of the islands, secured all the assets of the Malletta government, including some thousands of dollars in cash on hand. Malletta is still in Piji and the Samoans are waiting him to come back. It is stated that he will not return until Great Britain, Germany and the United States shall have carried out the promises made to him when he was induced to abdicate the throne in order to give the high commission a clear field to work upon. He was to receive an annuity and education. Governor T. F. Tilley has paid a visit to the outlying islands of Manus and had a most loyal welcome from the king, Tutuana, and his chiefs.

The German court of Apia has convicted two Samoans of the murder of a Chinaman. The principal, Pupu, was sentenced to be hanged and his accomplice to serve 15 years' hard labor. Pupu suffered the penalty last week.

The remainder of the lands held by a San Francisco firm in trust for the Polynesian Land Company has been sold to C. Kunist, a wealthy German, who also several years ago bought Vailin, the home of the late Robert Louis Stevenson. This transfer places the largest American interest in real estate in the islands under German control. It is the intention of the new proprietor to send to Germany for settlers to work the lands. Mr. Kunist has purchased two steamers from the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand for the American trade. The first is daily expected at Apia, and thence she will proceed to Honolulu and San Francisco.

Disaster at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—From a letter from Captain Lewis of the ship Elwell at Newcastle, Australia, it is learned that the missing American ship John McDonald was sighted a few hundred miles southwest of San Francisco on January 13, and that she signaled that the ship was on fire. It is believed that she blew up and all hands were lost.

WAS HELD UP BY FOOTPADS

CHARLES NELSON'S EARLY MORNING EXPERIENCE.

Two Men Relieve Him of His Money on Hall Street and Then Make Their Escape.

Charles Nelson, a pleasure seeking Swede, had an exciting experience in Nelson Sunday morning. Nelson struck town on Saturday with a good wad, and proceeded to get what enjoyment he could out of city life. During the day he visited a number of the city hotels and having plenty of money soon drew to himself a retinue which made the barkeepers' hearts beat with joy. When night came, however, Nelson became more cautious, and planting the bulk of his money in his boarding house undertook to play a lone hand.

By 2 o'clock in the morning he was ready for home, but on coming up Hall street was held up by two footpads. Nelson says the first thing he knew some one grabbed him by the collar and a hand was clapped over his mouth with a caution of all kinds of violence should he make an outcry. It took him a few moments to realize that he was being robbed, but in that short interval he says he was relieved of the few dollars in change which he had in his pockets. However, he lost no time in putting up a fight, when his assailants made off in opposite directions. Nelson gave chase to the man who ran up Hall street, but the grade was too steep for him and he missed his quarry at the intersection of Vernon street. He then hunted up the police, and poured an excited tale into the ears of constable Heavener and gave what description he could of the robbers.

Heavener and the chief held a consultation and decided that Frank Rowlen would be a good man to take in connection with the affair, and in a few hours constable Heavener had him in the cells, having come across him on East Baker street. Later in the afternoon the police also arrested a man named Fred Bloomfield, who in company with Rowlen is said to have been drinking with Nelson when he had the bulk of his money with him. The two prisoners will probably be arraigned before the police magistrate this morning, though it is not likely that the police will be ready to proceed with the prosecution.

Honolulu Affairs.

HONOLULU, May 23, via San Francisco, June 1.—The grand jury called to investigate the charges of bribery in the legislature is still in session and has made no report so far. Judge Humphreys has released attorney-general Dole and treasurer Lansing from testimony on the ground that what they had heard on the subject which the grand jury questioned them on was hearsay and they had given the names of those from whom they had received the reports. In the cases of the acting governor and the superintendent of public works, decisions have not yet been rendered.

The presence of a large quantity of opium in Honolulu is being much discussed and there is a difference of opinion as to who is responsible for its coming here. The police state that the opium is from Hong Kong and that a large part of it is unstamped, showing that it has been smuggled into American territory. There is now no territorial law regarding opium, the old law having been declared unconstitutional, and opium smoking is going on very generally among the Chinese.

A Banking Trust.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The Record Herald says plans are being perfected for the establishment of a gigantic bankers' bank. The deal is being engineered by Oakley Thorne, president of the North American Trust Company of New York, whose representative, W. S. Coursey, has spent a week in Chicago. The stock of the bank will be issued only to banks, one share each to 100 of the largest banks in the country. It will be necessary for a bank to be a shareholder in the new institution in order to make deposits with it. The headquarters will be in New York.

Smelting Output.

GREENWOOD, June 2.—[Special to The Tribune.]—The total ore smelted at the British Columbia Copper Company's smelter to date, working with one furnace of a nominal capacity of 225 tons, is 36,687 tons. February, 1901, ten days, 3,016; March, 10,519; April, 11,322; May, 11,830; total, 36,687. The average daily tonnage for the respective months was: February, 301 1/2 tons; March, 339 1/2; April, 377 1/2; May, 381 1/2. The daily average for three months ending May 31st was 360 tons.

Drowned in the Lake.

OSWEGO, N. Y., June 2.—Rowland Guiles, aged 17, and another boy, supposed to be George Andellinger, were drowned in Lake Ontario this afternoon. The lookout at the lifesaving station saw their boat go over in a squall. The boys clung to the overturned boat for 10 minutes and then sunk. Captain Anderson of the lifesaving crew reached the craft soon after the accident, but no sign of the boys was found except an overcoat which contained papers having the name of Rowland Guiles on it.

FORTY-NINE CREEK LEDGES

TO RECEIVE ATTENTION THIS SEASON.

Work Will Be Resumed on the Referendum Group and a Power Plant Installed.

Present indications are that the gold ledges of Forty-nine creek will receive considerable attention this summer and for this reason the development of the May and Jennie is followed with interest by many, although it appears to be the policy of the syndicate developing the property to give out as little information as possible.

Development is to be resumed at once upon the Referendum group. The company has secured the mill formerly in the O. K. mine at Rossland and crushing will be commenced this season. The first work, however, will be the extending of the present wagon road from the May and Jennie and installing a power plant on the west fork of Forty-nine. There is plenty of water in this part of the creek and the Referendum company expects to have power to sell.

Another property which is coming to the front is the Homestake group. There are two ledges upon this property, one of which appears to be of mammoth size. A fine showing has been disclosed on the surface of the big ledge, and this is now being run for at a depth of 200 feet. Two years ago a drift was run in on a small parallel ledge for a distance of 65 feet and from the end of this a crosscut is being run to get in under the surface showing on the big ledge. The objective point will now be reached within a few more feet, and if the values at the 200 feet are anything like those secured from the surface J. C. and D. G. Porter will have a big property in the Homestake. The ore appears to be a cyaniding proposition. The snow has gone from the Homestake, but it will be the middle of July before work can be carried on to advantage at the head of Forty-nine.

Revolution Crushed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 2.—It is reported that the revolution in Santo Domingo has been crushed at its inception. A number of prominent rebels have been shot or imprisoned. Among the latter is a son of the late president Herreaux, who is said to have been the leader of the movement.

The royal mail steamer La Plata reports that there is little cargo offering from Colombian ports in consequence of the heavy export duties recently imposed by the Colombian government in order to redeem its issue of paper money and to meet expenses incident to the revolution.

NEW YORK, June 2.—James A. Herne, the actor, died at his home in this city this afternoon.

NO DETAILS MADE PUBLIC

ANXIETY FOR NEWS OF THE VLADFONTEIN BATTLE.

Ford's Newsy Cablegrams Dealing in General European Topics of Interest.

NEW YORK, June 2.—I. N. Ford cables to the New York Tribune: Suspicion is again excited by the lack of details respecting the battle fought at Vladfontein. It is not possible that the war office is deliberately suppressing dispatches from general Kitchener, and that a serious reverse has occurred. General Kitchener has told the story of the battle briefly and is not disposed to magnify the importance of anything connected with the campaign, but cannot withhold the list of casualties. The absence of Mr. Broderick may explain the reticence of officials in Pall Mall, the stronghold of red taps, and the details of the battle may not be accessible to the few straggling war correspondents remaining in the field. There is no anxiety among military men, since the Boers are known to have been finally repulsed, but there are strong suspicions that the British were again off their guard, and that the heavy losses were caused by their being attacked unexpectedly. Delarey's commando has been allowed free range of a large distance for a long period, while general Kitchener has considered it most important to clear other portions of the Transvaal.

General Smith-Dorrien, who has been welcomed home at Berkhamsstead, reports that while the war may be ended by September, the bulk of the army will be needed in South Africa for twelve months. This is a gloomy forecast and it comes from one of the most experienced generals in the field, who has not made a single mistake and has shown excellent judgment throughout the campaign.

Troublesome Anarchists.

There are one or two small ripples in the stagnant pool of foreign affairs. The arrest of two anarchists at Madrid, an Italian and a Spaniard, is reported this morning with a confused account of a plot for the assassination of the queen regent. French detectives at Marseilles are apparently shadowing them, and the Madrid police pounced upon a pair of suspects before they had entered the city. If the police authorities are not working up a romance of their own, their success in disarming and capturing these miscreants is a new proof that anarchists are closely followed by spies and kept under constant surveillance in European cities. They are watched vigilantly in London, Paris, Berlin, Rome, Vienna and other cities, and are not feared by the police unless they have a refuge for conspiracy across the Atlantic. Experienced detectives always assert that monarchs and rulers are no longer in danger from European anarchists. The police can watch and circumvent professional assassins, but cannot adopt safeguards against the frenks of disordered minds. The elaborate precautions required for the protection of sovereigns in every capital are directed not against socialists, but against cranks.

Kaiser and Queen.

The welcome which queen Wilhelmina has received in Berlin would have been distasteful to her subjects a few years ago, but is now tolerated as a necessary sequel to the German marriage. Dutch resentment is reserved exclusively for England, and the anti-German prejudice has been steadily subsiding since the outbreak of the war in South Africa. England is now disliked by everybody in Holland, and the German emperor is left free to shower compliments upon queen Wilhelmina and her subjects. He has contrived to gain the friendship of both England and Holland by his course during the Boer war, and he takes advantage of every opportunity for courting France and Russia. The Anglo-German agreement was negotiated mainly for his benefit, and as count Von Walderssee commanded the international forces in China the pre-eminence of the kaiser has been asserted and emphasized at every turn of the negotiations; yet he has succeeded in playing a great part in the far east without wounding Russian susceptibilities. The German troops are now retiring from Peking and the cost of the expedition will possibly be defrayed in large part by the indemnity. The German emperor has gained prestige both at home and abroad by the acuteness and persistence he has displayed throughout the Chinese negotiations.

Passing of a Dull Week.

The dullest week of the year has passed and next week there will be as much liveliness as is consistent with court mourning. The king will return to London on Monday and hold an investiture at St James palace and the most brilliant banquets of the year will follow the Derby. There will be international amenities for the New York chamber of commerce will be feted for four days and Maitre Laborie will be honored by the English bar. In due course parliament will reassemble, the royal Ascot will come on and many other fixtures. These events will fill the newspapers, but will not satisfy Jenkins, who is inconsolable because there is no season. He fumbles over his engagement notes and finds nothing after the Whitsuntide holidays except a few little dinner dances. No balls are announced and the season will be eked out with boy and girl dances after dinners with a restricted number of guests. The holiday entertainment at the great country houses has been on a small scale.

A Liberal Victory.

The Liberals have not gained a seat in the Saffron-Walden election, but they have increased their majority in a remarkable degree. It is the first stroke of good fortune which has fallen to them since the general election. They had a popular candidate, and the increased majority was due mainly to local causes.

RAPIDLY LOSING STRENGTH

MRS. MCKINLEY'S CONDITION CAUSES GRAVE ALARM.

The Complaint Which Attacked Her in California Is Still Present, Though Less Aggravated.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Mrs. McKinley continues very weak. Her condition is not greatly changed from that of yesterday, but each day that elapses without a gain in strength lessens her powers of recuperation. The complaint which came near ending her life in San Francisco is still present. It is in a slightly less aggravated form, but gives the physicians and the president much concern. It is feared that unless a change for the better soon manifests itself that her strength may become so near exhausted as to leave her without any rallying power. The news given out by the physicians in attendance today was not assuring, though hopes of better things still continue. President McKinley spent most of the day at the bedside of his wife, though late in the afternoon he went out for an hour's walk. He departed alone, but judge Watson of Ohio, an old friend, met the president and accompanied him. There were many callers at the White House during the day. With few exceptions they simply left their cards after being assured by the doorkeepers that there was no change in Mrs. McKinley's condition.

Matafa has issued a manifesto calling upon all people to dwell in friendship, and tendering his thanks to the German government for the state of peace now existing in the country. He acknowledged in the same document that his title of "Allin Silli" (highest chief) is granted to him by the imperial German emperor, who is the greatest of kings in Samoa. Governor Self met Malietoa in Fiji, and has promised his people in Samoa that he will be allowed to return to his native country. Governor Tilly will leave for the United States on the Ventura, May 20.

A Cordial Welcome.

LONDON, June 2.—The Daily Telegraph in the course of an editorial upon king Edward's reception of the visiting delegation from the New York Chamber of Commerce Saturday says: "It has stamped the royal seal upon a national welcome. There could have been no more fortunate suggestion at the outset of the visit of the true spirit in which American business rivalry is regarded in Great Britain." The paper advocates as one of the best means of meeting this friendly rivalry that British employers and workmen alike should visit the United States and observe for themselves American business methods, and it declares that "the fact of the two countries being so indispensable to each other makes all plans of a European industrial coalition an ideal dream so far as any British participation is concerned."

to discuss the welfare of employes, has issued the following statement: "There are a number of firms and corporations that have institutions and activities with which they are struggling to improve the economic, moral and social conditions of their employes, and there are a good many people interested in the work."

The object of the conference, which has been called to meet at Buffalo on June 24th, is, I think, to bring together these people, exchange ideas, effect a permanent organization and ascertain if possible what can and should be done towards the end in view, viz, the betterment of the wage earners. I assume that the conference will not take up the question of wages, nor do I think it should discuss the labor unions. I also think that should we attempt to interfere with either question our usefulness would be impaired.

BATTLE OF VLADFONTEIN

More Serious Than Reported.

New York, June 1.—General Kitchener's account of the battle of Vladfontein serves to light up public interest once more in the Boer war, says the Tribune's London correspondent. Two facts stand out: First, the determined nature of the Boer assault upon an entrenched position fifty miles from Johannesburg and secondly the heavy losses suffered by both sides.

New York, June 1.—

This has been the first real engagement fought in many months and it is decisive proof that the Boers, when led by a cool and wary general like Delarey, can offer strenuous resistance still to British arms. The details of the battle may indicate that general Dixon's force was surprised and the casualty list was run up to 174 in this way. But the Boers, in any event, were the assailants and were not repulsed without severe losses. The Boers are also reported to have fought with exceptional gallantry while in pursuit of general Plummer's convoy.

A British officer who is on furlough in London, after fighting from Colenso to Lydenburg, has been predicting that the closing skirmishing of the campaign would occur on the line of the Durban-Johannesburg railway in the vicinity of Heidelberg and Standerton. Both of these affairs were within the theater of war defined by this officer months ago as the last Boer ditch. The natural explanation of the fighting is that one mine after another is opening in the Rand and the refugees are returning to Johannesburg in small groups and the Boers have been making desperate efforts to frighten them and prevent a resumption of industry in the gold belt. Vladfontein was probably designed to be a loud warning to the refugees that the war was not ended and that Johannesburg was still an unsafe place of residence.

LONDON, June 1.—The reticence of the government regarding the battle of Vladfontein and other military events of some importance which have recently occurred at widely separated points in South Africa has led to considerable anxiety. This is in no way allayed by the answer of the war office today to a question regarding the accuracy or otherwise of recent Boer reports that the British was severely defeated near Pretoria May 2nd, losing 30 killed, 80 wounded, and 600 prisoners and six guns. The reply which the war office vouchsafed, "We have no official information," has aroused some misgivings.

DAY'S MEN THE FAVORITES

In the Four-Oared Race. Nearly all the crews that have been drawn to compete in the Nelson Boat Club's regatta on the 8th were out yesterday morning and evening getting in shape for the contest.

It is rather early yet to arrive at any safe estimate as to the respective merits of the eight crews, as in nearly every boat there are two or three new men, and it is impossible to say how they will work out.

The number of entries in the four-oared contest promises a good day's sport in this event alone, and in order to get the program off it will probably be necessary to start at 1 o'clock.

MINING RECORDS.

Two bills of sale were recorded in the Nelson record office on Saturday. James Hearn transferred to Nels Everson the whole of the Louise mineral claim opposite the town of Ymir.

Certificates of work were granted to Steve Hawkins on the Della S; to D. R. Morrison on the B.C.; to Ovid Paulin on the Champion, Mars and Jupiter; to Hector Lamont on the Republic; to H. R. Douglas on the Monterey, Puritan and Terror; and to Jerry Demars on the Chicago.

Locations were recorded as follows: J. R. O. Fracton, by Robert Reisterer on Toad Mountain; Iron Age, by L. A. Campbell at Slocan Junction; Challenger, by Richard Blundell on Bird creek; Old Giant, by William H. Blackburn at Seven-Mile Point.

First Payment Distributed.

S. M. Brydges on Saturday completed the payment of the first dividend to the members of the local syndicate interested in the big iron ledge on Goat river mining division, recently bonded by C. P. Hill to Montreal people.

Will Organize on Wednesday.

The retail grocers of the city will meet in the Miners' Union hall on Wednesday evening for the purpose of perfecting their organization and electing officers.

Word was received in Nelson on Saturday of the death of "Joe" Tasse. Report had it that the well known cigar drummer was found dead in his office in Montreal on Friday afternoon.

Provincial constable Forbes, who resigned his New Denver station on the provincial police for service in South Africa, and who since his return has been stationed at Lardo, has been moved to Kimberley.

Yesterday's ball game put quite a few dollars in circulation, the registers of the Hotel Phair, the Hume and the Queen's being generously padded with the names of Trail people who came over to witness the game.

The trades procession committee has placed an order with Jacob Dover for the $150 cup which will constitute the big prize for the best float of all. The members of the committee took in every jewelry house in the city, but their choice finally narrowed down to a design submitted by Brown Brothers and one submitted by Jacob Dover, and the Dover design won out.

Suit Entered.

Doctors Hall and Rose have entered suit against Dr. LaBan, city health officer, for $314.50 damages occasioned in connection with the fumigation of their offices.
