C. P. R. STRIKE SITUATION

HOPEFUL VIEW TAKEN BY HIGH OFFICIALS.

Claim That Several of the Gangs Who Went Out Monday Have Returned to Work.

MONTREAL, June 18.—D. McNicholl, the general manager of the C. P. R., spoke very hopefully today of the outcome of the strike of trackmen on the system. The company believe that time will be on their side, and that in the course of the next few days, when they have had time to put the whole case before the men individually, those who have gone out will see the advantages which they are sacrificing and will return to work while the company remains disposed to accept their labor.

"Our advices show that several gangs who went out yesterday have returned to work today," said Mr. McNicholl, "and the reports indicate that more will be likely to follow. The strike, however, is by no means general. In some sections not ten per cent have responded to the call of the committee. Some of the trackmen seem to be under the impression that if they should return to work after having once thrown up their employment they would be discriminated against, but this is not so. The company has no intention of doing anything of the kind."

"Taking at the situation all round, I am convinced that the strike is practically over; that it has fizzled out. Many of the men have not yet received our circulars, showing what has been done for them; showing that, advantageous as their positions were compared with other railways before this strike began, we have made concessions of a very substantial character, and that these place them far beyond what other companies who are our competitors in the different parts of the system are offering. The public need have no apprehension whatever as regards the conditions of the track. Every mile of track is being patrolled. The line is in good shape and is being thoroughly taken care of. This is one of the demands of the committee, which the railway company did not grant: All maintenance of way department employes shall be granted passes once a month to and from any point on the road-master's division they are employed on, provided that not more than one-half of the force will be absent from duty at any one time."

MCADAM, N. B., June 18.—Threats are being made by some of the striking C. P. R. trackmen to the effect that now they have gone out they are going to demand from the company more than they originally intended. Representations are being sent to the company in Montreal to call mass labor meetings in the large cities to try to create public sympathy and get the newspapers to talk, or else it may be thought that there is really no strike.

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 18.—Several of the C. P. R. section gangs here have returned to work. Everything is quiet. Sectionmen on the government railways are watching the issue with a good deal of interest, as they feel if the C. P. R. men, who already have higher pay than they have, get another advance it will be their turn next.

MONTREAL, June 18.—Reports received here from different points along the C. P. R. show that the whole system is being thoroughly patrolled, that trains are running as usual, and that the trackmen's strike has not interfered with the regular service. At a late hour tonight reports from all quarters show that a large number of the foremen are returning to work and bringing the section men with them.

The statement in an evening paper that the carpenters employed by the C. P. R. had gone out in sympathy with the striking trackmen is entirely unfounded.

It is reported that J. T. Wilson of St. Louis, Mo., official organizer for the trackmen, is very much disappointed that he cannot persuade the C. P. R. telegraph operators to take any hand in the strike. Operators interviewed today say that they have nothing to strike for.

BRANDON, Man., June 18.—Not 10 per cent of the C. P. R. sectionmen have gone out. Labor is very plentiful, and all vacancies can be readily filled. A prominent politician here makes the statement that the condition of the railway trackmen is better than the average laborer, they having an assured position all the year round.

NEWPORT, Vermont, June 18.—A number of C. P. R. trackmen who went out on strike have already returned to work.

Martin Clair Was Suffocated.

The Dawson News of May 31st gives the following account of how Martin Clair, a miner who was well known in Kootenay, met his death in a mine not far from Dawson. The News says: "A coroner's inquest was held at the Forks by captain McDonnell on the death of Martin Clair, who was found dead at the bottom of a 25 foot shaft on Little Skookum hill. The jury decided Clair died from suffocation from the effects of gas breathed while in the mine, through his own carelessness, and recommended that the mine be ventilated before again being used. Clair was a miner. He disappeared Friday night, and was found dead Saturday at the bottom of the shaft of a mine opposite No. 2, Bonanza. He has a family in Scotland. The body is being brought to Dawson today."

THE REASON WHY CAPITAL

Does Not Seek British Columbia.

H. B. Thomson, ex-alderman of Nelson and ex-manager of Turner, Beeton & Co.'s Nelson branch house, who left Nelson to take the management of a trading syndicate located at Quesnell in Cariboo, has been on a trip to the old country since last December. He arrived in Nelson day before yesterday on his return, and tells his friends some amusing experiences he had to go through while en route in the West. Speaking of times in the old country, Mr. Thomson says that the old country has had four or five years of great prosperity, and that a period of quieter times is sure to follow. Capital is not seeking British Columbia for investment, for the reason that the returns on the capital so far invested here have not been so good as to create a favorable impression. On the other hand, capital is easily obtained for speculative mining in West Africa. Mr. Thomson will remain here for a time.

Looking for a Lost Cup

Two years ago J. Fred Hume donated a cup to be played for by the lacro-sse teams for the championship of Kootenay, and it was won that year by the Nelson team. Since then the cup has disappeared. Yesterday an effort was made to locate it. Some of the boys said the genial J. Fred had merely made a bluff and had not purchased the cup at all. Others said that "Jakie" Dover had knocked down the cup after getting paid for it. Others, again, claimed that "Dave" Carley, who was chairman of the sports committee that year, had sold the cup and used the proceeds to buy a paper cutter. During the discussion, the donor of the cup came along, and when the accusation against him was repeated, he was indignant, and said the cup was for a time in "Billy" Thurman's window. "Jakie" Dover, who was also present, made a speech on the question at issue. He said, "You know I know nothing at all about it. At that time I was selling so much that I could not keep track of anything." The delegation who were discussing the question decided to go to Thurman's in a body and demand the cup. "Billy" was out, but his partner was in. Asked as to the whereabouts of the cup, he replied: "Why, yes; it is knocking around here somewhere," and he began looking among some odds and ends under a cigar counter. The cup has not been found, but the boys are hot on its trail.

Robbed the Express Company.

NEW YORK, June 18.—It became known today that three clerks charged with the theft of $7000 worth of jewelry from the branch office of the Adams Express Company at Forty-ninth street and Madison avenue on Sunday night last, were arrested last night. The prisoners are Robert Penrose, Christopher M. Brown and Thomas McCarthy. All have been in the employ of the company for several years.

"POTATO PATCH" PINGREE

OF MICHIGAN DIED YESTERDAY IN LONDON.

Was Extremely Popular in Detroit, Where He Inaugurated Many Reforms.

LONDON, June 18.—Ex-governor Pingree of Michigan died today. The diagnosis made by London specialists of the cancerous affection of the intestines from which Mr. Pingree suffered left practically no hope for the patient's recovery. Toward the end of his illness Mr. Pingree suffered great pain and weakened rapidly. He was unable to retain nourishment. His mind, however, remained fairly clear. During the whole of Tuesday he was practically kept alive by injections of strychnine and drugs administered to lessen the pain.

DETROIT, June 18.—Hazen S. Pingree was born in Denmark, Maine, in 1840. In 1862 he enlisted in the First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery and served until the end of the war, when he located at Detroit. In 1889 the Republican party nominated him for mayor of Detroit and he was elected by a big majority. He was re-elected in 1891, '93 and '95 by increased majorities each time.

In 1896 he was elected governor of Michigan by 8300 plurality. He was re-elected in 1898 by about 100,000 plurality, and served out his term, which expired in 1900. Last March he started on the trip to South Africa which resulted in his death in London. Ex-governor Pingree, while mayor of Detroit, accomplished many municipal reforms, among others, forcing the gas company to lower their rates 10 per cent per 1000 feet, and established the public lighting plant. He organized the Detroit railway on a 3 cent fare basis, lowered telephone rates and broke up a number of sewer and paving rings. His potato patch scheme for the relief of the poor of the city was extensively copied and brought him much fame. While governor Mr. Pingree devoted his time towards securing the passage of a law taxing railroads and other corporations.

Learning to Be Liars.

The Retail Clerks' Association wish to remind people who are in the habit of visiting Nelson to purchase goods to bear in mind that all reliable and up-to-date stores are closed on Thursday afternoon.

The above appeared in the Miner yesterday. It shows that the Retail Clerks' Association, if they authorized its publication, are unworthy a place in the ranks of union labor. No union made up of honorable men will make false statements to the public. Several of the largest and best managed houses in Nelson do not close their doors on Thursday afternoon, but remain open and help to keep Nelson in the first rank of commercial cities in the province. If the genial old purist who edits the organ of the disgruntled element will only consult Dun & Co. or Bradstreet he will find that the financial rating and credit of the houses that keep open in Nelson on Thursday afternoon are not in the same class as the various companies connected with the ownership and publication of the newspaper he so ably edits.

New Death Benefit Scheme.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—A new association in Atlanta, Georgia, provides a plan for the payment by assessment of the funeral expenses of each member. It was organized by members of labor unions, and among its officers are prominent members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Applicants admitted to membership are required to pay an admittance fee of fifteen cents. On the death of a member over ten years of age each adult member is assessed twelve cents, ten cents to be used as funeral expenses and two cents for paying for collection and other expenses. On the death of a member under ten years of age each member is assessed seven cents. The allowance for funerals is $100 for an adult, $50 for a child.

Strikers Gaining Ground.

NEW YORK, June 18.—It was announced today by the International Association of Machinists that the 750 men involved in the strike at the works of R. Hoe & Co., printing press manufacturers in this city, would return on Thursday next. It is understood that the men return with the agreement of a nine-hour day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—President Gompers of the National Federation of Labor today stated that a conference had been arranged between the officers of the Cash Registry Company of Dayton, Ohio, and the representatives of the various unions engaged in the strike in the works of that company with a view to arranging a settlement of differences. About 2600 persons are engaged in the strike.

DAYTON, Ohio, June 18.—It is announced here that the Registry Works will reopen tomorrow morning, the strike having been settled.

The Ashcroft Stock Sale.

ASHCROFT, B. C., June 18.—The auction sale of pure bred bulls at this place today was a complete success despite the fact that the sale was some weeks too late in the season and that most of the stockmen have made arrangements for animals before knowing that the dairymen's association would hold the sale. About $2000 was realized from the sale of the 20 animals, the lowest price being $60 and the highest $140. Among the best buyers was the Hon. J. D. Prentice, who bought for the Canadian Ranching Company nine animals, averaging about $100 each. Other buyers were present from Grand Prairie also. Another sale will be held next September under the auspices of the association and will, it is supposed, include a carload or two of blooded heifers.

Mining supplies and general hardware, assayers' supplies and chemicals, drugs and medicines, dry goods and clothing, boots and shoes, furniture and bedding, fishing tackle and stationery, books and newspapers, groceries and provisions, fresh and salt meats, fruits and confectionery, cigars and tobacco, imported and domestic liquors, in fact everything in the way of general merchandise, can be procured in Nelson on Thursdays during the same hours as on other days, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary.

WILL IT BE ANOTHER YMIR

Lexington Mountain's Ledges.

The development of the Imperial and Eva groups by the London and British Columbia Gold Fields is expected to bring into prominence the gold ledges of Lexington mountain in the Lardeau. This is a comparatively new district, and although the entire mountain has been staked very little development has been done outside the properties held by the Imperial Development Syndicate, the most promising of which are now virtually under bond to the London and B. C. Gold Fields. Such work as has been done on the mountain, however, would point to the conclusion that Lexington mountain is a distinctively gold district, very little galena having been encountered.

On the Eva and Imperial groups the work done has exposed two ledges of gold-bearing quartz, running parallel to each other and about 150 feet apart. The largest of these is about sixteen feet in width, and what is regarded as a conservative estimate on the value of the ore places it at $20 to the ton. The other ledge is much smaller, but is much more clearly defined, having two smooth walls. The ore in this ledge is very rich, gold being visible in many of the specimens, so that it admits of some very fancy assays.

The general feeling throughout the district is that Lexington mountain is peculiarly fortunate in getting the London and B. C. company interested in its development. This company not only has ample means for carrying on the necessary work to thoroughly develop the property, but it has had phenomenal luck with all of the properties it has taken hold of. It is on the cards for the London and B. C. to produce another Ymir in the Imperial and Eva properties, and in the case of the Lardeau properties it has a much more favorable showing to start in with.

No Heir for Nicholas.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18.—The czarina today gave birth to a daughter.

ARMSTRONG KNOCKED OUT

A CLEAN SCRAP AT ROSSLAND LAST EVENING.

Dal Hawkins, the Pacific Coast Lightweight Champion, Does the Trick in Six Rounds.

ROSSLAND, June 18.—Dal Hawkins, lightweight champion of the Pacific Coast, defeated Billy Armstrong, champion of British Columbia, here tonight in the sixth round. The contest was fast and scientific and the best man won. In the first three rounds honors were evenly divided, Armstrong forcing the fighting and Hawkins playing a waiting game. After the first of the fourth Hawkins took the offensive. In the fifth he was still more aggressive, and in the sixth he forced the fighting. The sixth and last round opened with Armstrong landing a left hander on Hawkins' nose. Hawkins reciprocated with left and right hands, and after Armstrong had landed lightly with his left the men clinched. As they were together Armstrong swore vigorously at one of the spectators on the stage, who had been applauding Hawkins in a manner that Armstrong thought offensive. On the conclusion of the clinch Armstrong left an opening and Hawkins landed a vicious upper cut similar to those which have landed so many fights for him. The blow took Armstrong in the neck below the point of the jaw and staggered him. He went across the stage on his heels, eyes glass and arms rigid. Hawkins followed his man and although Armstrong attempted a counter the effort was weak and Hawkins finished him with a left to the jaw and a right to the neck. Armstrong fell in the corner, rolled on his face and was counted out. He recovered within a few minutes. Armstrong had a bad hand and received a cocaine injection in the member before entering the ring, although it was conceded that he was beaten on the merits of the fight.

In a preliminary Kid Lee of Montana defeated Sam McKay of Rossland in one round. McKay was floored four times and his seconds threw up the sponge.

The Fisheries Dispute.

VANCOUVER, June 18.—[Special to the Tribune.]—A special from Ottawa says it has been agreed that the disputed question of ownership of salmon and other fisheries as between the province and Dominion shall be submitted to arbitration.

It has practically been agreed by the Japanese to accept the canners' proposition of 10 cents for salmon during the rush of season, with 12½ cents during July. Much feeling is being expressed against the Japanese action, and there is strong probability of trouble.

Proclamation of Boer Commanders.

MOLTONO, Cape Colony, June 18.—Kritzinger and Fouchet, the Boer commanders, are busy placarding Cape Colony with a proclamation to the effect that in accordance with the powers assumed when the northern part of Cape Colony was annexed to the Orange Free State, 20 months ago, persons reporting the whereabouts of any Boer command will be fined £50, or in default will be compelled to accompany the commander for three months. According to the best information about 2100 wild Boers are in Cape Colony, and they continue to secure a few recruits.

The English Turf.

ASCOTT HEATH, England, June 18.—The aristocratic race meeting on the royal heath opened today with cold, gloomy weather. From the sporting point of view the hard condition of the course upset calculations. All the best horses of the year engaged in one or more of the events. Upwards of 250 have already arrived to contest for the stakes, aggregating £40,000. William C. Whitney's chestnut colt Watershed (J. Reiff) won the trial stakes, Douglas Baird's Veronese won the Prince of Wales stakes, Padlock II was second and St. Amur third. Sterling Balm won the Coventry stakes, Port Blair was second and Mount Vernon filly third. Foxhall Keene's bay gelding Sinopi (Maher) won the Ascot stakes, Brissac was second and Scintillant third.

La Vengree won the Ascot biennial stakes of 10 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added for 2-year-olds, distance 5 furlongs and 140 yards. The Clarina filly was second and Pierre Lorillard's Amoret II was third. Mackintosh won the gold vase, value 200 sovereigns, given by king Edward, with 200 sovereigns to the winner and 100 for the second horse, added to a sweepstake of 200 sovereigns each for 3-year-olds, two miles. Gyp was second and Mannlicher was third.

Cyclone's Work.

DELAWARE, Ohio, June 18.—A cyclone of great force swept over a large area of territory in this country last night and much damage was done. No one was injured so far as known. Houses and barns were unroofed, trees uprooted and fences torn down. The cyclone covered a track 100 feet wide and about nine miles long.

No Masons Need Apply.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 18.—The report of the committee on revision of the constitution of the Swedish Lutheran church recommended that the clause in the constitution of the church providing that no member of the Masonic order or other secret or atheist societies should be entitled to membership in the church of the synod was defeated this afternoon after a warm discussion. The result of the ballot was that the proposed amendment was defeated by a vote of 81 to 71, thus leaving the objectionable clause in the church creed and excluding from membership of any church in the dominion of the members of any secret society.

Kruger Irreconcilable.

LONDON, June 18.—The Sun, which, however, has not heretofore been over reliable on this subject, hears that Mr. Kruger has actually cabled to general Botha declining to concede anything and that in consequence of this decision general Botha and the commandants agreeing with his peace views have decided to repudiate Mr. Kruger's authority and a further consultation with Botha's representative and lord Kitchener will be arranged for next week.

MONTE CARLO LOSES MONEY

MILLIONAIRE PLAYERS HAVE BEEN TOO LUCKY.

One Wealthy Patron Cleaned Up a Million and Half Francs, and There Were Others.

PARIS, June 18.—Monte Carlo's famous gaming establishment has been losing money. The "man that broke the bank" has been too frequent of late. Such, at least, is the opinion of a German writer, who has been there to study the situation. "The bank there," he says, "is in a bad way. Roulette and Trent-et-quarante go on as usual, but, what is not usual, an extraordinary number of persons are winning money. Baron Ephrussi went away from here with winnings amounting to 1,500,000 francs in his pocket, and he is so cold-blooded and so wealthy—he is Rothschild's son-in-law—that the croupiers have little hope of getting the money back. The baron wins always. He may lose for a time, but he keeps on until finally the moment comes—and it always does come—when his color turns up. In order to win at Monte Carlo one must have a large amount of money—at least 25,000 francs for every 100 francs which you expect to win, and baron Ephrussi is well aware of this rule and can always observe it.

"Another heavy winner is baron Carlo di Rudini, the oldest son of the well known Italian statesman. As his father is worth 200,000,000 francs, his success is easily explained. It is the little gamblers, who have a capital of 500 or 1000 francs, who lose at Monte Carlo. After one hour's ill luck their capital is gone. It is from them that the bank obtained most of the 25,125,000 francs, which represents its net profits during the business year 1900-1. Large profits they seem to be, but in view of the fact that there was an exposition in Paris during 1900, and that most of the foreign visitors tried their luck at Monte Carlo, they are really extraordinarily small.

"In 1889, during the previous exposition in Paris, the profits of the bank amounted to 37,000,000 francs; yet this year they are only 23,000,000. The Boer war has also hurt business, for it has kept away the English, who are, as a rule, the best patrons of the bank. Another cause of the poor business is the unquestionable fact that people are becoming more cautious about playing every year. A proof of this is the fact that the number of suicides has lately decreased. Formerly it was not unusual for a distracted player to kill himself, but now we very seldom hear of such an occurrence.

"In short, the outlook for the bank is extremely bad, and if the players continue as cautious as they are now the dividends of the shareholders will speedily fall to 30 or 25 per cent. During the past business year a dividend of 42 per cent was declared, but this was very small as compared with the profits during those years when Blanc still wielded the scepter in Monte Carlo and coined millions out of nothing. Others, however, besides the bank are now suffering. In former years the French press received from one to two million francs annually from the bank, but recently their allowance was cut down to 750,000 francs, and last year they got only 500,000. On the other hand, the civil list of the prince of Monaco has been increased from 1,250,000 to 1,750,000 francs, and the bishop of Monaco, who formerly received 30,000, now receives 50,000 francs. The prince's army costs the bank 600,000 francs, but, unless business improves very soon, it is practically certain that the prince will set the other powers of Europe a good example by disbanding his army."

Mining supplies and general hardware, assayers' supplies and chemicals, drugs and medicines, dry goods and clothing, boots and shoes, furniture and bedding, fishing tackle and stationery, books and newspapers, groceries and provisions, fresh and salt meats, fruits and confectionery, cigars and tobacco, imported and domestic liquors, in fact everything in the way of general merchandise, can be procured in Nelson on Thursdays during the same hours as on other days, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary.

THE more the outbursts against our mining laws are investigated, the more evident it is that the outbursts are not based on facts. They were started in an attempt to discredit a government, and are now kept up in the hope that the real cause of the depression in mining will be overlooked, and the depression attributed to a cause that has little to do with the question. No country has a better location law; in no country can claims be held with less actual work; the cost of procuring a crown grant is less in this province than in any other country; it has never been charged that our officials or our courts are corrupt; in no country have merchants been more liberal in extending credit; British Columbia is not the only mining country that has an eight-hour day for men working underground; the rate of taxation is extremely liberal, for no taxes are paid unless a mine is shipping ore. If these are not statements of fact, let them be disproved, not by the vaporing mouthings of men who pose around hotels as mining men and who have not the capacity to intelligently muck in a mine, but by comparing the law in force in other mining countries with those in force in British Columbia, and by comparing the reports of mining companies operating in other countries with those operating in this province. Facts are what the people want, and they will no longer accept the mouthings of self-styled mining men as any evidence at all.

WILL the men who are declaiming against the mining laws of British Columbia give the names of the successful British mining companies operating in British Columbia? Will they then give the names of the British mining companies operating in this province that have been rank failures? Afterwards, will they be so kind as to give the real reasons that caused these British mining companies to be failures? This is the information that the people in the old country want.

ONE of the large mining companies operating at Butte, Montana, is named the "Colusa-Parrot Company." Last year it mined 236,635 tons of ore, of the average value of $8.27 per ton. The cost of mining the ore was $3.61 and transporting it to a smelter 27½ cents per ton. Smelting charges were $3.35. Total charges for mining, transporting, and smelting $7.23½, which leaves

EMPIRE TYPEWRITER

It is no longer a question of Pen and Sword which is the mightier; the debate now is as to whether the Empire Typewriter is mightier than the Maxim Gun, with the argument all in favor of the Empire. Today the Typewriter is an absolute necessity to many who a few years ago did not dream that they could ever require it. Its use is rapidly becoming more extended and with reason. No one having business writing or correspondence to do can afford now to be without a machine. If you wish to operate the machine yourself very little practice on the Empire will make you proficient and able to write more rapidly, more legibly and with infinitely less physical and mental effort than with the Pen. The Empire is the most perfect of typewriters.

$1.03½ a ton as profit. These figures show that over in Montana, at one of the greatest mining camps in the world, ore that is worth only $8.27 per ton is mined and smelted at a profit. Why do not the managers of some of the big low-grade mines in British Columbia give figures as to the value of the ore mined, the cost of transporting the ore to smelters, and the charge per ton for smelting? These are the figures that the people want to see in print. They no longer care to hear the mere opinions of vapid ranters who pose as mine managers; they want facts.

IMAGINE the Spokane Spokesman-Review getting its Associated Press reports via Seattle. Yet, every line of Associated Press report that is received at Nelson and Rossland first goes to Vancouver, and is then filtered back from that one-horse town to the two great commercial cities of Eastern British Columbia. This is what makes a newspaper tired.

THE Rossland Miner of Saturday, in its editorial columns, has what purports to be an interview between a reporter of the London Times and the agent-general of British Columbia some time in July next. The Miner makes one mistake in the interview. The London Times does not employ fools for reporters.

Is there a single mine in British Columbia owned, managed, and operated by old countrymen exclusively that is now a success? Is there a single mine that was owned, managed, and operated by Americans successfully previous to its sale to old countrymen which is now successfully operated? If not, why not?

Alaskan Railroad Venture.

SEATTLE, June 18.—From late advices it is evident that a trans-Alaskan railroad will be constructed in the near future. Briefly stated, it is proposed to build a steel highway from Iliamna Bay on the southern shore of the Alaskan peninsula to Nome, Teller City and Behring straits. The preliminary surveys have just been completed by Norman R. Smith. The heavy financial bankers of the undertaking are said to be eastern capitalists. The line will cover about 800 miles and will run through the very heart of the Alaskan gold belt.

TELEGRAMS IN BRIEF FORM

From Various Sources.

LONDON, June 18.—Craig-Y-Nos Castle, the residence in Wales of Adelina Patti, was put up at auction this afternoon at the mart in this city.

LONDON, June 18.—The death is announced of J. D. Barbour, head of the firm of Barbour & Sons, thread manufacturers of Patterson, N. J., and Ireland.

BERLIN, June 18.—There has been heavy snowfalls in the Bavarian and Tyrolean Alps, and railroad communication between Munich and Italy is interrupted.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy, under arrest for the murder of Dolly J. Adams, was released this afternoon on $10,000 bail furnished by Eleanor L. Hand.

BERLIN, June 18.—Emperor William has ordered the squadron commanded by prince Henry of Prussia to proceed to Cadiz to meet the German squadron returning from China.

LONDON, June 18.—Increasing anxiety is felt regarding the condition of ex-governor Pingree of Michigan. Mr. Pingree this morning is considerably weaker than he was yesterday. Doctors have little hope of his recovery.

BUFFALO, June 18.—As a result of their tour of inspection, the Montreal harbor commissioners leave with a favorable impression of what they saw here. The majority of the commissioners and party took a trip to Niagara Falls this morning.

BUFFALO, June 18—Early this morning fire swept out of existence all the buildings on Squaw Island fronting on the Niagara river from the foot of Ferry street to a point three quarters of a mile north. The loss is in the neighborhood of $260,000.

NEW YORK, June 18.—According to a cablegram from Berlin to the Journal of Commerce information has been received in the German capital that the Prussian government has determined to relax to a certain extent its regulation which led to the exclusion of American life insurance companies.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—It is reported here that a large portion of the city of Greenville has been swept away by fire. Communication has been cut off since 3 o'clock this morning, when the telegraphers at Greenville wired that the fire was consuming buildings all around the telegraph office.

ROME, June 18.—The pope has just ratified the appointment of Dr. Thomas F. Kennedy of Philadelphia as rector of the American college, in succession to Monsignor O'Connell, appointed bishop of Portland, Maine. The appointment of Dr. Kennedy was recommended by the congregation of the propaganda on Saturday.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 18.—Cheyenne men owning ranches in Uintah county are authority for the statement that there is absolutely no truth in any of the reports which have been sent out from that section to the effect that serious trouble is imminent between sheep raisers and cattle owners. There have been no clashes and there is no prospect of any.

PEKIN, June 18.—The foreign ministers have declined to assent to the request to allow 3000 Chinese soldiers to come to Pekin now. They consider that it would be inadvisable to permit such a step to be taken before the latter part of August, by which time the international troops, with the exception of the legation guards, will have left the city. The ministers also declined to permit international troops to guard the Forbidden city until the Chinese soldiers shall arrive.

Want Pauncefote Retained.

LONDON, June 18.—The Daily Mail in an editorial urges the British government to retain lord Pauncefote at Washington, as several thorny questions are still awaiting settlement. The editorial further advocates giving the United States every facility to construct the Nicaragua canal, provided it is neutral and an open door be guaranteed. The Daily Mail say further that it is entirely immaterial whether the canal be fortified or not, because any enemy trying to use the canal against the wishes of the United States would find itself engaged in a disastrous adventure. A ton of dynamite judiciously applied would bottle him up in Nicaragua till the war was over.

A Texas Man Hunt.

CHICAGO, June 18.—A special to the Tribune from San Antonio, Texas, says: Five hundred citizens of southwest Texas are engaged in a man hunt, a party of Mexican outlaws being the quarry. Already there has been a fight between the Texans and Mexicans near Belmont, in which one Mexican was shot to death, one was wounded and one was hanged. The one was hanged in an effort to get him to divulge the whereabouts of the leader of the band of Mexican outlaws. The man hunt is the result of three murders within the last few days. The victims were sheriff Morris of Kansas county, sheriff Robert M. Glover of Gonzales county and Tony Schnabel, a wealthy rancher.

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN OF TODAY

Is Eminently Progressive.

He does not follow in a rut; he worships no ideals of the past; he is of the times and with the times; he seeks constantly to advance, to improve, to give broad-minded and skillful service; he not only buys early, but he studies his business minutely; he recognizes the important fact that his stock should consist of goods that are so widely different from "the other fellows" as can be secured. He picks out lines that are progressive, up-to-date and superior as to special features, style and finish, then gets his goods in early, is not afraid to liberally display a complete assortment of his various lines so as to impress the confidence he possesses. He familiarizes himself with every detail as to quality and manufacture of his goods, sets a fair price on them and sticks to it; proclaims quality, perfection and long wear. Send for prices, or call and see us. We are here to serve you all.

CITY LOCAL NEWS

The Tribune will always be pleased to receive and pay for exclusive news. It does not care for the news that is handed in with the remark: "O, I am giving this to both papers."

The city engineer can get an object lesson in sidewalk grades by carefully examining and comparing the sidewalk at the corner of the Bank of Montreal and at the Elliot block corner with that at the corner of the Broken Hill block and the Turner-Boeckh block.

The Ymir mine is now making regular shipments of concentrates to the local smelter. These shipments of concentrates have been coming in for the past two weeks at the rate of a carload per day, and there are said to be still considerable of them at the mine awaiting shipment.

City engineer McCulloch expects to have the outlet for the west Baker street sewer completed today, when connections on Baker and Vernon streets west of Kootenay may be made. Tomorrow a start will be made on the sewer work ordered in the upper portion of the city.

Word was received in Nelson yesterday to the effect that Dr. E. C. Arthur had been appointed grand warden of the grand lodge I. O. O. F., and that A. H. Clements had been appointed grand inside sentinel of the grand encampment. The news of these appointments will be received with pleasure by the members of the order in this city.

"Billy" Grant, who for several years was employed as bookkeeper for P. Burns & Company of this city, is now Mackenzie & Mann's right bower in the railway construction which they have in hand in the provinces of Manitoba and Ontario. "Billy" is credited with having made a raise of $23,000 in the recent jump of Northern Pacific stock.

A. B. Gray of the Express Cigar Company, has now at the C. P. R. depot 10 cases of Manila cigars which were imported direct from Manila to this city. The Express Cigar Company has made arrangements for a bonded warhouse, and will give special attention to imported lines in the cigar trade in addition to handling the best brands of Canadian made cigars.

John Lynch has completed his contract for the supplying of the poles required for the electric light service, having delivered the last two cars of poles at the mountain station yesterday. Mr. Lynch will leave for Rossland today, where he will complete his arrangements for the carrying out of the work outlined on the Referendum group on Forty-nine creek. He expects to return to Nelson and make a start on the Referendum group this week.

Inspector Wilson, of the educational department, will begin the high school examinations today, and the high school entrance examinations tomorrow. It is not yet known how many candidates will offer for the high school entrance examinations, but it is thought that there will be at least twenty applicants from the points covered in the Nelson district. Inspector Wilson states that the people of Greenwood are making a great effort to have their city recognized as the educational center of the Boundary district.

The Dominion Day celebration fund was swelled by $30 yesterday. Mrs. Scott of the Nelson Cafe subscribed $20, and Patenaude Brothers, the jewelers, $10.

In the fall of 1892 the publishers of The Tribune placed an order for paper with Barber & Ellis, paper dealers, Toronto, and it was filled satisfactorily without a question being asked. The same firm has sold The Tribune the bulk of its stationery ever since, and yesterday their representative, J. R. Easton, was in Nelson and received one of the largest orders for flat paper ever given him by a western printing office.

Now that the directors of the public library have received a municipal grant sufficient to enable them to keep the library going for several months it will not be amiss to suggest that they devise some other system than that of imposing a fine in cases in which books are kept out for a greater period than that prescribed in the rules of the library. The fine is objectionable to many who would prefer posting a cash deposit with the library sufficient to cover the cost of any book that might be taken out, the same to be forfeited in the event of any book not being returned.

The Nelson smelter is now producing about 25 tons of lead bullion per day, which uses up about 140 tons of ore. It will thus be seen that the operation of the local smelter furnishes the Canadian Pacific railway with an outward business from Nelson of over $400 per day in the movement of the bullion alone. If to this is added the wages paid by the smelting company to the men directly employed, as well as the wages earned by the men employed in handling the ores and fluxes coming into the smelter, a very good idea may be formed of the advantage which the operation is to this city.

Although yesterday was the second day of the C. P. R. roadmen's strike, it has so far failed to have any effect on the Kootenay division of the Canadian Pacific system. So far as known there was not a man on any of the branch lines running into Nelson who had quit work by reason of the strike order. Opinion differs very widely as to whether the trackmen on the Kootenay division are well organized. Some hold that the fact that none of them have gone out is good evidence that there is little or no organization among them, but others who profess to be well informed say that the men on the Kootenay division have not yet received word to go out, but that when they do they will obey the summons.

The second synod of the diocese of Kootenay will open in St. Saviour's church this morning. It is expected that upwards of thirty clergy and lay delegates will be in attendance. The business of the session will be chiefly of a routine nature.

Angus Lamont and James Pollock of Princeton are reported to have received $13,000 yesterday as the purchase price of 1280 acres of coal lands in the Similkameen valley, the purchasers being the Similkameen Valley Company, Limited. This company now owns 7680 acres of coal lands in this valley, upon which development work is to be undertaken at once.

At a meeting of the retail clerks held last evening it was decided to have an excursion on the steamer Moyie on Thursday afternoon. The steamer will leave the city wharf at 2 o'clock, and run up the lake as far as Balfour. Here a stop of half an hour will be made. On the return trip to Nelson the steamer will be due at the city wharf at 6 p. m. The fare for the round trip has been placed at 50 cents.

George E. Foster, formerly minister of finance in the Conservative administrations which preceded the present one is one of the lucky shareholders in the Imperial Development Syndicate, which is about to close a very desirable deal with the London & British Columbia Gold Fields for some eleven claims in the Lardeau. During the past few years Mr. Foster has sunk considerable money in the development of British Columbia properties, from which he has had comparatively small returns, and the knowledge that he is likely to make a good turn-over on his Imperial Development holdings will be received with satisfaction, as Mr. Foster deserves good luck.

The Ontario Powder Works has decided to go out of the powder manufacturing business, which for some time past it has carried on on its premises opposite Five-mile point. Advances in the cost of raw materials, which could not be got out of the manufactured article are said to be the company's chief reasons for retiring from the business of manufacturing for the Kootenay market. The company has now instructed Messrs. Charles A. Waterman & Co. to sell by public auction the whole of the company's real estate, plant and fixtures. This sale has been fixed for Tuesday, July 30th, and an advertisement of the same appears in another column.

COUNTY COURT TANGLES

Straightened Out Yesterday.

Yesterday's session of the county court was occupied in settling a number of small disputes, and the experience of the day went to show that the smaller the amount the more difficulty there is of effecting a settlement.

The case of Urquhart vs. the New North Fork Mining Company was an action brought by the plaintiff to recover the sum of $107, being the amount alleged to be due for wages for work performed upon the defendant company's property near Erie. The defendants sought to have a setoff entered for some $60, being the amount due to the company by the plaintiff by reason of a call upon some stock held by him. The counter claim was shut out, but the defence was able to cut down the balance due for wages to $4.42, and judgment for this amount was entered on the understanding that execution shall not issue until the matter of the claim for arrears of assessment is disposed of, provided suit is entered within the next ten days.

Collins vs. Noyes was another Erie case in which the plaintiff, a hotelkeeper, sought to recover the sum of $26.30, the amount of a board bill. The defendant owed a bar bill as well as a board bill and paid $50 on account. This amount, it was endeavored to prove, should have been applied on the board bill, but the plaintiff applied it on the liquor account. Judgment was given for the full amount claimed and $24 costs.

The case of McLeod vs. Anton Zettler was an action over a plastering job, the amount in dispute being $22. The point in dispute was whether the plastering was to be done by contract or by day's work, the plaintiff seeking to establish a contract. The evidence taken was so contradictory that the court decided to continue the case so that some other testimony could be secured.

In the case of Zattoni vs. the Western Canada Accident Association, an action to recover the sum of $56, the defence secured an adjournment upon terms, the defence to pay the costs of the day in any event.

Radcliffe vs. Provost was an action to recover the sum of $50 for work performed upon a mineral claim. It proved to be a very much mixed up case, the witnesses contradicting each other point blank. Judgment was given for the plaintiff for the full amount claimed, but without costs.

MINING RECORDS.

At the Nelson record office yesterday one bill of sale was recorded, in which Charles Anderson of Nelson transferred to Alex McPhaden of Sandon, a one-half interest in the Klondike, Reciprocity, Spurgin and Alamo mineral claims, two miles north of Hall Siding.

Certificates of work were issued to P. H. Peterson et al on the Emerald, to C. C. Ladd on the Emma S., to Frank D. L. Mieux on the Santiago, to H. E. Crosset on the Gold Leaf, to Charles French on the Big Patch, Little Patch, Sonny Boy and Cloudy Day mineral claims.

Horrors of an Avalanche.

KEYSER, W. Va., June 18.—An avalanche unparalleled in the Virginia mountains occurred last night at Hopeville, Grant county. Great sections of the mountain side along the Potomac river for two miles rushed down into the beautiful valley. Thousands of tons of forest trees, immense rocks and earth came down and the house of Mrs. Andrew Ours, a widow, was completely wrecked. The 22-year old daughter of Mrs. Ours was instantly killed. A little grandchild, who was spending the night with Mrs. Ours, was grabbed by her when the first warning came, but escape was impossible. When found this morning the grandmother was buried to her waist in the debris holding the child in her arms above the chilly mud and stone in which she was fastened so tightly that after many efforts neighbors found it necessary to literally pull the bruised body out, leaving her clothes buried in the mud.

France Will Exercise Her Right

LONDON, June 19.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Paris declares that under the terms of a secret convention with China, France will be able to protect the proposed new railway from Tonquin into Yunan Nan with French troops, exactly as Russia does in Manchuria, and that France intends to exercise this right.
