RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES

NELSON BOARD OF TRADE TO CONSIDER THEM.

And Discover, if Possible, if Any Discrimination Is Made Against This City in the Matter.

The question of railway freight rates will come up for consideration again at the adjourned meeting of the Nelson Board of Trade this evening. At the former meeting of the board appointed a special committee to look into the question of railway rates and report upon any discrimination which might be found against Nelson as a commercial center. This committee has gone into the matter rather thoroughly, but it is not likely that the committee will be ready to report this evening, as its members have since found out that they have a very large order on their hands, and the probabilities are that they will simply report progress and ask for further time. The Dominion commissioner will not be in Rossland until the end of the month, so that there yet remains sufficient time to comply with the request of the committee without interfering with the original intention, which was to present to this official the grievances which the board considered it has against the railways entering Nelson.

It now looks as if the scope of the special committee will be extended so that it will be permitted to take notice of the practice which some of the shippers have been doing in Nelson for some time past in entering merchandise in its wrong class in order to secure the advantage of the more favorable classifications of the transportation companies. This, in the opinion of some of the shippers, has worked an even greater discrimination against shippers who entered their goods correctly than any of the freight rates complained of. In this connection it is said that a recommendation will be made by the committee that misrepresentation in the classification of freight be made an offense of some kind with a sufficient penalty attached to it to discourage the practice. Among some of the shippers this phase of the question has an even greater interest than the consideration of the rates themselves, as they contend that it does not matter very much what the rates are if some check is not made on the misrepresentations in the classification.

With a view to ascertaining what merit there was in this contention a Tribune representative called on H. E. Macdonnell of the C. P. R. freight department. Mr. Macdonnell admitted that the practice at one time had been more or less general, but that steps had since been taken by the railway companies to prevent it. In his own experience, he said, he had encountered one shipper who entered groceries as potatoes, and others had shipments of tins entered as dried apples and so on all down the line. The means taken by the railway companies to prevent this was by the appointment of an inspector whose business it is to inspect all merchandise, irrespective of the line it comes in over. This officer has had an extensive experience in this branch of work, and is not easily fooled by the appearance of the shipments but in cases in which the goods have not been correctly entered gives them the classification which they should have taken in the first place. It had the effect of very greatly lessening the practice which in the greater number of cases had its inception in the shipping offices of the eastern houses sending out mixed shipments to Nelson traders. In speaking of the freight rate question Mr. Macdonnell said he did not see what could come out of the present discussion. So far as he could see it would be impossible to lower the single-handedly undertaken to lower the local rates out of Nelson. So far as the Canadian Pacific was concerned, he did not think that the American lines entering Nelson would agree to reductions on the outward business from Nelson to local points, as they might contend that any such reduction on the outward local business might affect their chance of securing a portion of the inward business.

Brazil Has Troubles of Its Own

NEW YORK, August 7.—A special cable to the Herald from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, says: The minister of the interior and the chief of police have resigned. President Campos Salles has appointed Sabino Barroso, who is deputy for Minas Gerais, minister of the interior, and Edmundo Muniz chief of police. Several other high officials, including the director of the medical college and the director of the sanitary department, have also resigned. The political situation is becoming worse every day. Statements by the brother of president Campos Salles, blaming the present administration and the political system have contributed to aggravate the situation. The opposition newspapers have also accused president Campos Salles of having imported furniture without paying duty on it. This charge, though not proved, has increased the bitter feeling. The situation is regarded as precarious.

Conclave of Knights Templar.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., August 7.—The official program for the 29th triennial convocation of Knights Templar, to be held here the last part of this month, was issued by the executive committee, which has had over $100,000 to draw on to make the features of the entertainment attractive. The week will open Sunday with public worship at the Broadway Methodist church, conducted by very eminent sir I. W. W. Cox of Washington, Iowa, grand prelate of the grand encampment. Monday will be devoted to receiving at the spots and escorting the starters all arriving commanders. The escort committee is made up of 6000 stalwart Kentuckians. Monday night will witness the inaugural of festivities and the formal opening of the headquarters of the grand commander of Kentucky in the custom house with a reception. This is a function that will be repeated each afternoon and night during the convocation, 400 well-known Kentucky matrons and their daughters serving on the reception committee at each one.

Another Gigantic Combine

PITTSBURG, August 7.—The Times tomorrow will say: Another vast industrial combination, one of the greatest that has ever been planned, is evidently under way, and two powerful Pittsburghers are taking a leading part in the consummation of the project, which has for its object the placing in the power of one corporation the control of the world's supply of window glass. The proposed combine is to take in all of the window glass manufacturers of the world, and if effected the business would be conducted from Pittsburgh, as the nucleus of the organization is the American Window Glass Company of this city. This company practically controls the window glass business of the United States and the only factories in Europe that amount to anything are located in Belgium.

BRUSSELS, August 7.—A representative of American capitalists named Chambers, who is negotiating to acquire the Charleroi Glass Works, had a three hours conference with the present owners of the works this afternoon. The decision arrived at was not announced. The glass company owns 40 furnaces and values them at 500,000 francs each.

Both Legs Cut Off.

COLFAX, Wash., August 7.—Jack Downey of Spokane is dying at a farmhouse near Garfield, with both legs cut off. Downey left Spokane yesterday afternoon on the O. R. & N. for California, where he has relatives. He wandered onto the platform between two coaches, his feet catching between both legs between the thighs and the knees. He was taken to a farmhouse nearby, and the physician who was summoned to attend him said that Downey could not live, as he was injured internally in addition to being a desperate carver. Several of his friends were called and he was taken to his parents' home in Napa. Jack Downey came here from San Francisco two years ago. He was not a professional prize fighter, as some men about town have called him, but a few years ago went into the ring as a fighter and was defeated by a Seattle pugilist. He has been referred to as a fighter. Of late he has been up in British Columbia and over in Montana. He returned here about a week ago. He left here yesterday afternoon to visit his folks in California, saying to friends that he had a "bunch" of money, and did not intend to stay here any longer.

Iowa Republicans yesterday nominated A. B. Cummins of Des Moines for governor.

PLEASANT FAREWELL SOCIAL

TENDERED REV. E. W. STAPLEFORD AT YMIR.

Nelson Ladies Assist in the Program. Short Paragraphs From the Lively Little Camp.

YMIR, August 7.—Rev. E. W. Stapleford, who has been pastor of the M. E. church here, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last. Last night a farewell social was tendered him by the Ladies' Aid of the church and the citizens generally. An address and a purse containing about $100 were presented to him by the boys—$40 being collected at the Ymir mine. The address was read by Pat Daly. The Miners' Union hall was comfortably filled. A special musical program was rendered. The local talent was assisted by Mrs. Murray and Miss Geva Murray of Nelson. The piano solo by Mrs. Murray was the best ever heard in the camp. All the numbers by Miss Kneeland were excellent, she having a well-trained and cultivated voice. Following is the program: Guitar and mandolin duet, "Danube Waves," Miss Kneeland and N. L. Kneeland; vocal solo, "Within a Mile of Edinboro," Mrs. Murray. As an encore she gave "Comin' Thro' the Rye." Vocal solo, "Sweetest Story Ever Told," Miss Kneeland; piano solo, "Weber's Last Thought," Mrs. Murray; vocal solo, "The Nightingale," Miss Kneeland; vocal duet, "Tennis's Brook," Mrs. Murray; vocal duet, "The Mandolin," Miss Kneeland. Mrs. Murray. The recitation by Miss Geva Murray, "Who Was Santa Klaws, Esq.?" was very nicely rendered, but it is not the proper time to recite winter poesies when the thermometer is 92 in the shade. Rev. Mr. Young of the Kirk gave a rattling good talk, which was followed by a speech from Rev. Mr. Stapleford. Ice cream and cake were served by the camp's fairest, after which everyone sang "Home, Sweet Home," and then turned their feetlets homeward. Mr. Stapleford left tonight for Vancouver, where he will remain in charge of the Homer Street M. E. church for six weeks, and then return to college in Toronto to put in another hard year's graft.

H. Carr, who was superintendent of the Dundee mine while in operation, left yesterday for Frisco, where he intends to reside permanently.

F. W. Hardy of Victoria University, Toronto, a running mate of Rev. Stapleford, will arrive in Ymir some time next month and take charge of the M. E. church here.

Rev. Father Ferland of Nelson has been in the camp for the past few days. Kelly, the man who fell a distance of over 30 feet at the Arlington mine, Erie, receiving internal injuries, and who has been in the hospital here, came out yesterday on crutches.

Last evening it was noticed that quite a brush fire was raging in the vicinity of the Porto Rico mill. As everything is dry around there, if the wind keeps up, it will not be long in spreading and many miners' cabins, etc., in the hills will be destroyed.

Phil White, superintendent of the Wilcox mine, was here yesterday, and says that over 1500 feet of work has been done on that property—shafting, tunneling and cross-cutting. A 10-stamp mill will be put in this fall. There are over 1000 tons of ore on the dump.

A meeting of the Dundee Mining Company will be held in Rossland on the 15th instant. It is said the company was reorganized, and that the mine will resume operations immediately after the meeting. The Dundee property is as rich as any in the Ymir camp, and its starting up would mean much to the city of Ymir.

Several claims have been jumped around here. There's one of the cases William Edgar of jumping his claim, the Little Horn, adjoining the Big Horn, and has been abusing that gentleman ever since. The Little Horn reverted to the crown on August 1st, as no assessment work had been done during the year. On August 3rd, while Edgar, who has claims on the Big Horn mountain, was looking over the mountain, he noticed that the Little Horn had run out, and in order to save Miller re-staked the claim in one of Miller's partner's name, giving Miller a half interest. But Miller don't seem able to get it thro' his nut that he still has the same interest in the claim that he always had. A lawsuit is threatened.

Several new buildings are going up. Judge Buchanan has cleared his two lots and intends putting up a large dwelling house. W. Steele is building a cottage near the brewery. Other improvements are going on.

The government wagon bridge over Hidden creek, which was washed away by the water, will shortly be completed, and will be much shorter than the old one.

John Thorburn has been appointed temporarily as constable at Erie. Police court seems to be the chief industry that thrives here.

At present Ymir is full of Rossland miners. Every day a dozen or more strike this camp.

Preparations for Funeral.

BERLIN, August 7.—It has been definitely decided that the funeral of the dowager empress Frederick will take place Tuesday next, August 13th. The remains will be deposited in the Fried-enskirch mausoleum near Potsdam. Emperor William has issued a decree ordering the army to go into mourning for six weeks and giving minute details as to how the mourning emblems are to be worn. There will be no military music for eight days. Court circles have been notified as to how the ladies and gentlemen of the court must dress till November 5th. The ladies are to wear full mourning until August 26th, medium mourning until September 23d, and minor mourning until November. Some of the papers take exception to the mourning orders. One paper referring to the prohibition of public entertainments and musical and theatrical performances until after the funeral, says it believes this will hinder to certain degree the purpose for which it was designed. It contrasts with this, order emperor Frederick's order upon the death of emperor William I, in which he declined to make any mourning regulations, leaving the people to show their sympathy in their own way.

WASHINGTON, August 7.—President McKinley today sent the following message of condolence to King Edward upon the death of his sister, the dowager empress Frederick of Germany:

State Department, Washington, D. C., August 7, 1901.—His Majesty, Edward VII, London: I tender to your majesty sincere condolences by reason of the death of your beloved sister, her majesty, the dowager empress Frederick of Germany.

(Signed) WILLIAM McKINLEY.

LONDON, August 7.—King Edward, queen Alexandra, princess Victoria and prince Nicholas of Greece, who is the guest of their majesties, will start for Homburg Friday to attend the funeral services of empress Frederick to be held in the presence of the family next Sunday.

PRESENTED STOLEN CHECKS

AND WAS ARRESTED YESTERDAY IN BERLIN.

Man Claiming to Be From San Francisco Detained for Complicity in Paris Express Robbery.

BERLIN, August 7.—A man claiming to be Bolles of San Francisco, but who registered at the Kaiserhof as Bolles of Boston, was arrested today for presenting at a branch of the Dreadnought bank checks identified as part of the booty obtained by the robbery of the American Express Company's office in Paris during the month of April. Bolles claims he acquired the checks legitimately.

Three masked burglars entered the American Express office the night of April 28th and escaped with 20,000 francs after dramatising the safe. The burglars left behind them a complete outfit of American burglars' tools. Before beginning work on the safe the burglars bound and gagged the colored porter, who was asleep on the second story. They overlooked a packet of French bills and a number of gold pieces. A feature was that the policeman on duty in the vicinity heard and saw nothing of the burglars, though the latter worked loud; and the sound of the two explosions necessary to open the safe was sufficient to awaken the porter on the top story of a building across the street and cause him to descend and search his own house for intruders. The express company's office is located in the center of Paris, has a long frontage facing the opera house and is surrounded by business houses. "Tom Edwards," said to be a native of Chicago and described as leader of the gang, was arrested the following morning and George Humber, reported to be the second member of the gang, was taken into custody. May 1 in his pockets were found burglars' tools and a number of checks that had been stolen from the express office. On June 8th the police of Paris arrested a notorious woman named May Churchill, known as "Chicago May," who was suspected of complicity with "Tom Edwards" in the robbery. Finally in June last "Paddy" Guerin of Chicago was also arrested by the French police on the charge of being one of the three burglars concerned in the express company's robbery. Guerin, it was said by the police, is the same man who 10 years ago robbed the bank of Lyons, France, of 50,000 francs. The police of Chicago assisted in the identification of Guerin by means of the Bertillon measures of the man taken 10 years ago by the French police.

Torpedo Boats at New York

NEW YORK, August 7.—The torpedo boats Cushing and Winslow, which have reached the city, had a difficult passage from Norfolk. They are on their way to join the North Atlantic squadron. Lieutenant Douglass was in command of both boats and Lieutenant Stone in command of the Winslow. The Winslow developed leaks in her fresh water tanks and about 2 a. m. Sunday the water gave out. The Cushing then ran lines to the Winslow, a ticklish job at sea, and towed her for five hours. At that time lieutenant Douglass discovered that the Cushing had only fresh water enough to get herself into port. So the lines were cast off and the Winslow ordered to go ahead with salt water for her boilers, although it is injurious to the pipes. The Winslow will probably be laid up at the yard for repairs for a week. The Cushing is expected to leave at once. The crews of the two boats were completely fagged out.

FAINT GLIMMER OF PEACE

INFLUENCES AT WORK WHICH MAY AVERT A STRIKE.

Morgan, It Is Said, Would Welcome any Move That Would Satisfactorily End Controversy.

NEW YORK, August 7.—The Commercial Advertiser says: As far as can be learned, no communication has been received by J. P. Morgan & Co. or by any of the steel companies here from the labor leaders since the conference of Saturday last. Peace, however, may not be far away after all. It is learned that independent influences are at work which may surprise everybody within the next few days. Mr. Morgan will not say a word, but it is believed in some quarters that he has received important communications from persons strong enough and independent enough to bring about a settlement before president Shaffer's order to strike takes effect. They who know Mr. Morgan say that he will welcome any move that will hasten the end of the controversy, providing the fundamental objections he urges on Saturday last are respected. That something is being done in the direction of amity is apparent from the manner of the men here and the course of steel stocks on the exchange.

PITTSBURG, August 7.—With the issuance of the general strike order of president Shaffer it is not any longer a matter of time but of days before an actual condition. As far as Pittsburgh is concerned, although it is the headquarters of the Amalgamated Association, few men are immediately involved in the strike in comparison with other sections, the total number throughout the country being almost 100,000 men.

Following is the text of president Shaffer's call to the members of the Amalgamated Association:

Brothren—The officials of the United States Steel Trust have refused to recognize as union men those who are now striving for the right to organize. The executive board has authorized me to issue a call on all Amalgamated men in name and heart to join in the movement to fight for labor's rights. We must fight or give up forever our personal liberties. You will be told that you have signed contracts, but you never agreed to surrender those contracts to the United States Steel Corporation. Its officers think you were sold to them just as the mills were, contracts and all. Remember, before you agreed to any contract you took an obligation to the Amalgamated Association. It now calls you to help in the hour of need. Unless the trouble is settled on or before Saturday, August 10th, 1901, the mills will close when the last turn is made on that day. Brethren, this is the call to preserve our organization. We trust you and need you. Come and help us and may right come to a just cause. Fraternally yours,

T. J. SHAFER.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, August 7.—Officials of the Ohio part of the National Steel Company have announced that their employees will pay no attention to the strike order of president Shaffer. The plant, which is non-union, employs 3000 men.

Tr'y Is Ial I A 7.

PARIS, August 7.—A high official of the French foreign office today explained to the correspondent of the Associated Press the nature of the difficulty at Constantinople between the French ambassador there, M. Comans, and the Turkish government. There are two matters pending between France and Turkey, the affair of the quay company and a number of claims of Frenchmen against the porte, the amount of which was fixed and the payment promised long ago. M. Comans has been unable to obtain satisfaction in either matter and in May he intimated that he would be forced to ask for his recall if the Turkish government persisted in its procrastination. The French minister, M. Delcasse, who returned to Paris yesterday, went to Rambouillet, dined with president Loubet, spent the night at Rambouillet, and returning to Paris today he will see the Turkish ambassador. It is possible that he may have to renew M. Comans' intimation regarding his recall, but it is more than likely that the incident will not reach that point. In fact, it is probable that the matter will be speedily settled in a manner satisfactory to France. The members of the Turkish embassy here maintain diplomatic silence.

PARIS, August 7.—Later in the day it became known that the French government was seriously considering the question of suspending Turkish bond quotations on the Paris bourse as the best available means of coercing Turkey.

One Suspect Under Arrest.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 7.—Practically no clue has been obtained to the perpetrators of the $340,000 robbery at the Selby Smelter Works. Strong efforts are being made to learn the movements of a recently paroled convict. The police believe that the plot was hatched in the state prison at San Quentin and that attention to the fact that another ex-convict was seen in the neighborhood of the smelter works immediately after his release from San Quentin. The paroled convict whom the detectives suspect was in prison when the other convict was released. Upon his being paroled he also appeared in Crockett, remained several days and then disappeared. It is said that the paroled suspect was employed years ago at the Selby Smelter Works. Afterwards he kept a saloon and lodging house at Crockett, which was frequented by the Selby employees.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 7.—It was learned today that the police have in custody a man who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the Selby Smelting Works robbery in which $340,000 worth of gold bullion was stolen. The identity of the suspect is not known. The police will give no information on the matter.

Notes From the North

VANCOUVER, August 7.—[Special to The Tribune.]—The steamer Islander arrived this morning from Skagway after a run of 58 hours. She brought 60 passengers and $100,000 in gold. Passengers say that the Klondike clean-up will be rather short on account of the drought on creeks, making it impossible to operate sluices. The Bank of British North America recently made a shipment of a million dollars gold to St. Michael, en route to San Francisco, for treatment at the mint there. Travel is still very light on the upper Yukon and crews and captains of steamers, except four, have been paid off for the season.

There is a prospect of better freight rates on the White Pass and Yukon railway.

There is no clue to the identity of the man whose headless corpse was found on the north side of the harbor yesterday. The authorities do not believe there was any foul play, although the absence of the head has not yet been explained.

Another Body Found.

PHILADELPHIA, August 7.—Another body was found today in the ruins of Monday night's explosion on Locust street, making a total of eight fatalities.

RETRIBUTION WAS SWIFT

BURNED AT THE STAKE FOR A BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Alabama Negro Meets an Awful Death at the Hands of an Excited Mob of Whites and Blacks.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., August 7.—With agonizing screams and his eyes bulging from his head, John Wesley Pennington, a negro, was burned at the stake near Enterprise, Alabama, before a crowd of 500 enraged and determined citizens of Coffey county this morning. The mob was composed of both whites and blacks, and though the suffering man pleaded for mercy and frantically endeavored to break the chains that tightly bound him, not a trace of sympathy was shown on the faces that peered at him through the flames. Pennington had committed a brutal assault upon Mrs. J. C. Davis, wife of one of the most prominent farmers of Coffey county, and had confessed his guilt. The crime was committed Thursday afternoon of last week while Mrs. Davis was gathering vegetables in her garden. Pennington choked the woman into insensibility, accomplished his intention and fled through the woods near by. As soon as she regained consciousness Mrs. Davis crawled to the house and told her husband what had happened. A large posse was quickly organized with bloodhounds and they chased the negro until early this morning, when he was captured in a swamp. He was bound hand and foot and taken to the Davis home for identification. News of the assault had been spread for miles around Enterprise and every farmer in the neighborhood had joined in the pursuit. When the posse arrived this morning at Pennington at least 500 persons were gathered near the Davis residence. A great shout went up when the prisoner appeared, but at a signal the men withdrew to the woods and quietly awaited the result of the meeting of Pennington and Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Davis recognized him as her assailant and the negro broke down and wept. He admitted having committed the assault and pleaded for mercy, but he was dragged from the house to the woods, where the crowd had gathered. Evidently expecting the confession, several citizens had driven an iron into the ground, and as the captors appeared with Pennington, both whites and blacks were piling brushwood around the stake. The negro saw his doom and with a scream of terror fell in a faint. He was quickly revived and dragged to the stake while the crowd stood silently by. The frightened man was limp and had to be held up while the chains were fastened around his neck and body. A match was applied to the pile and with oil to feed upon the tiny flame soon burst into a roaring fire. The terrified negro again pleaded for mercy in the most agonizing tones and prayed to God that those around him might perish. He then called upon his maker for forgiveness, and as the flames leaped up and lapped his neck, an unearthly shriek was heard and the man's eyes almost bulged out of their sockets. By this time the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be seen except a wriggling motion in the circle of fire. A silence followed and in a few minutes the flames had subsided sufficiently to show that Pennington's head had fallen forward and hung limp over the iron chain. His body was quickly consumed and nothing remained but a pile of ashes. The crowd then dispersed.

Held Up at Moyie.

MOYIE, August 7.—[Special to The Tribune.]—S. A. Scott was sandbagged here at 1 o'clock this morning and relieved of over $300. He was coming out of a building back of the Moyie hotel when attacked by two men. He shot three times, but missed. Scott was not hurt badly. The description of the men tally with the Sirdar hold-ups. Constable Drummond so far can find no trace of the men.

Swimmer Saved a Suicide.

CHICAGO, August 7.—Having to his credit 11 lives saved from drowning, Arthur Egan, who is aged 17 years, last evening saved A. J. Baker, a would-be suicide twice, although the man struggled to be allowed to die. After the first rescue Baker fought savagely, and finally threw his rescuer off and jumped into the lake a second time. Egan again sprang after him and succeeded finally in dragging him to safety. Egan is an expert swimmer.

Bad for Civilian Employees

MANITWA, August 7.—Secretary Root's order in cutting off the use of commissary supplies by civilian employees is causing consternation among the minor clerks, whose expenses are thus doubted. Many of them claim that they had an absolute understanding before leaving the United States that they would be entitled to use commissary stores.

CLEAR OUT This week we are making clearance sales of a few special lines of goods. We are offering BABY CARRIAGES AND GO-CARTS at exceptionally low prices to clear. This is a line of goods that we do not intend to replace, so we have cut the regular prices in half; but even at that we do not stock, because we want the room they occupy. We also have some choice literature, just the thing for summer reading, light, breezy and refreshing. A few 50 cent numbers are offered at 10 cents to clear out. We find our store wretchedly small for the large stock we carry. That is why we have to make these sacrifices.

The Tribune

Display advertisements run regularly will be changed as often as required and will be inserted in the Daily Tribune for $1 per inch per month; if inserted for less than a month, 25 cents per inch each insertion.

The Tribune may not be managed on business principles; but it has a code of rules from which it does not deviate. One of these rules is not to accept objectionable advertisements, and no one has ever seen advertisements of cure-all medicines or quack doctors in its columns. Another rule is not to accept free tickets from shows or circuses, and it requires the managers of shows and circuses to pay full rates for all advertisements and reading notices published. Living up to these rules may keep The Tribune poor, but it makes its advertising columns clean, and leaves them free for the sole use of local advertisers.

A Sacramento (California) judge named Hart has an unenviable reputation for giving footpads sentences that are practically for life. The other day he refused to accept a plea of guilty, and sentenced a footpad for life. Some time before he sentenced three footpads thirty, thirty-five, and forty-five years, respectively, for a crime from which they had realized thirty cents and a bunch of keys. Had these four footpads had money, or wealthy relatives, the chances are they would now be out on bail instead of serving long terms in penitentiaries.

If a person commits a crime in Canada, there is a trial without unnecessary delay, and if there is a conviction, there is immediate punishment. In the United States there seems to be a different procedure, and there are as many delays in criminal cases as there are in civil cases in Canada. Ten years ago a murder was committed in King county, Washington, and a man named Nordstrom was arrested for the crime, tried, convicted, and sentenced to be hanged. Since then his case has been reviewed two or three times by the supreme court of the state and twice by the supreme court of the United States. Last week Nordstrom's attorney appeared before the United States circuit court at Portland, Oregon, and asked that a writ of habeas corpus be issued for his client. The application was denied, and it is now believed that the sentence of the trial judge, pronounced ten years ago, will soon be carried out.

Before and After the Boer War. One of the important movements which led to the war in South Africa was the refusal of the Transvaal government to accede to the demand of the mine owners that the black native labor be forced to work in the mines, no matter how much the owners saw fit to reduce their wages. These propositions came out distinctly in the inquiry held at Johannesburg in 1897. The scheme clearly outlined by representatives of the mines was that Kaffir skilled labor should be reduced to as low as one shilling and sixpence per shift, and ordinary labor to one shilling or less. If the Kaffir demurred and retired to his kraal, the government should step in and by piling excessive taxation upon him compel him to return to the mines and work, or starve. The refusal of the Boer government to establish what would be virtual slavery in the interest of the mines caused the outlander agitation, and was largely responsible for the war. With the British in control of the Rand and Kimberly, it seems that the plans outlined are to be carried out or attempted. At least, that is the inference from the reported statements of a Mr. Stewart, an Englishman interested in the diamond mines, and now in this country. He says that a trust has been formed to control the supply of native labor in the Transvaal and distribute it among the mines as it sees fit. Wages may easily be lowered by the abolition of competition for black labor, and the Kaffir himself kept in hand by feeding him on the truck system, which will also have the effect of driving many small shopkeepers out of business. Such a consummation, if accomplished, will conspire to bring about a British annexation of the Transvaal, and the Boers were mistreating, grinding down, and enslaving the native population. Whether the British government will concur in these plans may well be doubted. The mine trust, at least, will not have smooth sailing. Members of a party in the United Kingdom, by no means insignificant, are seriously proposing that the cost of the war shall fall upon the men in whose interest it was waged. Should it prevail, the owners of the gold and diamond mines of South Africa may have cause to remember with longing the conditions which obtained under the Boer regime.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Preparing for Distinguished Visitors.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 7.—The directors of the Pan-American exposition have decided to ask the exhibitors of various buildings to co-operate with newspapers of this and other cities in giving wider range of publicity to the exhibit features of the exposition. Two events of surpassing importance, the visit of the president and later of the duke and duchess of Cornwall and York, were discussed by the board. No date has been fixed for the president. A committee, including president Milbur, director general, will go to Canton tomorrow to make arrangements for the visit of the president. President's day will undoubtedly be on or about September 10th. The duke of Cornwall and York and his suite are expected at Niagara about October 9th, at which time it is expected that he will consent to have his itinerary changed slightly so as to include the exposition for a visit of a day or two.

The expression, "Robbing Peter to pay Paul," had its origin in the rivalry existing between Westminster abbey, formerly St. Peter's cathedral, and St. Paul's cathedral, in London. In 1550 there was a deficiency in the treasury of St. Paul's. An appropriation of money belonging to St. Peter's was made to cover the deficiency. The people who were averse to the action asked the question, "Why rob St. Peter's to pay St. Paul's?"

ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS

Of Travel in Italy and France.

In Italy, except on the plains of Lombardy, little or no plowing is done.
Nearly all cultivation is carried on by spading. To one who has never been in Europe before, the working of the women in the fields with the men would seem curious, but the same thing is done in France, Germany, Austria and Belgium.

To the eye, from the bay, Naples is beautiful. To the nose, in the narrow streets, it is not. The landing and getting your baggage is most disagreeable.
It is a matter of surprise to many that the steamship company does not land the passengers more conveniently.

I met an American—one J. Middle West—who told me that he came to Italy for nervous prostration. He talked in such a way that he probably really had it. Here is a specimen: "That d—foolish, d— alini, Bay Decker, keeps you going about to see things you want to see, and he makes me so stanco—that's the Italian for tired.

self-contained and self-respecting. The south lives off what the tourists spend, the north lives on their business. The average tourist stays in Naples, including Pompeii, Vesuvius, Sorrento, Amalfi,
ten days; Rome, two weeks; Florence,
five or seven days; Venice, four; Genoa, one; and Milan, one or three. Tourists generally do not see Turin, and Milan and Turin gave me a distinct pleasure.

At 9 or 10 p. m. the lower floor of the hotels in Italy are deserted. The smoking room sometimes is occupied until half-past 10—for smokers are men.
The women generally go earlier. At about 9 the next morning they all appear in the breakfast room, hungry-eyed, keen-eyed, not for food, but to see more—to see those things their friends in America have told them about and that the guide books tell them that they must not overlook. A German told me the reason for the early disappearance of the hotel guests is because they are so tired. "I have been up and down ladders in mining shafts and winzes; I have gone through stopes, squeezing through them for 20 years, as superintendent and manager or examiner of mines; I have been on my legs many hours during the day, and then again at night. But I have never done so hard a day's work as I have done in Italy sightseeing. Baedeker adds to the weight of your clothes, too."

—dago fellows that lived too early to hear of Chicago—and I come back worn out. But I go the next day just the same."

A little bother can be saved in Naples by providing one's self before leaving the hotel with the copper one-cent pieces—centesimi—of the country. It saves a little worry. In Naples and the towns about, the children beg in the streets and the roadside. But they give their little for the little that one is expected to give. They run along rapidly by the rapidly moving carriage, singing or turning hand-springs, asking for a "maceheroni." In France it is for something to drink, but in Italy it is for food. They are nearly starved, they earn so little. This constant call is sometimes irritating, and I found that the American woman is more patient, more generous, than her man. In the churches one gives these little coppers, and the guardian at the museum doors,
who takes your cane, umbrella, or parasol, expects some small gift when you return—and it is just that he should get it. The charge for entrance is sometimes nothing, sometimes a lira.—Covington Johnson in San Francisco Argonaut.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

Today the Fraternal Order of Eagles give their picnic at Kokanee creek park.

There will be no drill of the members of the local company of the R. M. R., the same having been declared off for this week.

J. Peck McSwain, printer, politician and philosopher, sends The Tribune a batch of news from Ymir, where he is now sojourning.

H. F. McLean, who has been carrying on business in Nelson for the past two years as a druggist, has made an assignment to David Morris for the general benefit of his creditors.

E. Mansfield left on the steamer last evening on his way to England. He will go via the Crow's Nest to New York. A number of friends were at the wharf to see him safely off on his voyage.

The last of the series of the Dominion Rifle League matches will be shot off at the rifle ranges Saturday. The members of the first team will shoot at 9 o'clock, and the members of the second team will shoot at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The officials of the Canadian Pacific railway company claim to have 75 men employed on track maintenance on the Columbia and Western section between West-Isobson and Midway. They say that the trackmen's strike is now practically over upon the sections of the road west of the Columbia river.

The Eagles' picnic this afternoon promises to be the event of the summer. The R. M. R. band will be in attendance and nothing has been overlooked which could add to the enjoyment of those who take it in. The first boat will leave the city wharf at 2 o'clock, returning at 6, and the second boat will leave at 8 o'clock, returning at 1 o'clock in the morning.

The provincial police thought they had a clew to the robbers who entered the hotel at Sirdar on Sunday night. Three mysterious men had a row with the C. P. R. agent at Robson yesterday and were closely shadowed by the police, but it turned out that they were well known people. Their trouble with the railway agent was over a question of change.

H. Macpherson, who was local manager of the Ontario Powder Works, left Nelson last night for Kingston, Ontario, where will reside hereafter. He will be the traveling agent of the company, and will have Ontario, Quebec and Nova Scotia for his territory. Mr. Macpherson made friends while at Nelson, and they will wish him success in his more extended field.

Alan Forrester, provincial constable at Robson, was in Nelson yesterday. He has been watching the trails in the vicinity of the Columbia and Kootenay rivers in the hope of heading off Tony Leyden, who made his escape from the Nelson jail last week. There are too many ways out of the country for one man to watch, and in consequence Leyden is still at large.

A petition has been received at Nelson asking that a sum be set apart from the appropriation for roads and trails for the Nelson riding for building a trail from Maccaroni basin to the Harris group of claims. As the trail would be in the south-east riding of East Kootenay, the government agent at Nelson does not see his way clear to grant the prayer of the petitioners.

John McKane arrived in Nelson yesterday from the Lavina group in the Lardo which he is developing. He reports that the sacking of ore has been commenced and that the estimate of the engineer is that upwards of 2000 tons of sorted ore will be shipped from the property this winter. There is already a large quantity of ore out on the dump, but it will be impossible to move it until the snow comes. The main vein on the group carries a grade ore in which occurs a large quantity of chloride of silver. This ore it is expected will average $100 to the ton. It is upon this vein that the principal work has been done and a little figuring will show that 2000 tons of such ore will turn into large figures. There is another smaller vein upon the property from which some very high grade copper ore has been taken, but so far the management of the Lavina have not taken it into account. Samples taken from this vein have given an indicated value of 20 per cent copper.

The new schedule of prices agreed upon by the members of the local Retail Grocers' Association will go into effect on Thursday next. The members of the association say that no advance has been made in prices, but they hope by the schedule adopted to abolish the practice of some grocers in making leaders of one or two articles and selling them on a closer margin than they otherwise would. The trade in three staples has suffered in this way. The first of these is sugar. In the schedule this is now listed at 13 pounds for the dollar. In some instances this will cut a pound off the weight formerly sold for the dollar. Hams and bacon will also feel the effect of the new agreement. They have been selling at 17 and 18 cents, but on Thursday they will go back to 15 and 16 cents. An advance will also be made in the price of lard. The three pound pails which were formerly sold at 45 cents have been put at 50 cents.

Benny Fooled the Robbers.

Glenn M. Benny, the proprietor of the Sirdar hotel, which was entered by masked men on Sunday last, was in Nelson yesterday explaining to his friends just how he felt when he was looking into the barrel of the robber's revolver and kept his hands up as high in the air as he could. Benny is of the opinion that the robbers were after himself more than anyone else. He makes a practice of carrying all his money on his person, and when the robbers first made their appearance they singled him out at once and ordered him to stand off by himself. Benny says he took chances and held out $500 on the robbers. As they came into the room he got his pocket book out of his hip pocket and dropped it on the floor under the table without attracting atten-

The robbers—in searching Benny—once made for his hip pocket. They were so completely disgusted that it would be impossible to identify them, but Benny is convinced that the taller man of the two was in his hotel a few days before sizing up the situation. Benny's description of this man is the only clew which the police have as to the appearance of either of the robbers. The rifle and shotgun which they took from behind the bar of the hotel were found on the trail a short distance away. It is thought that the robbers are now safely over the line and there are but faint hopes that they will be taken, and even if they were it is doubtful if sufficient evidence could be secured against them to secure their extradition. Mr. Benny says that all told he does not think the robbers got more than $50 out of the several men whom they held up in his hotel.

FINED FOR INTIMIDATION

Dick Varian the Culprit.

CASCADE, August 7.—(Special to The Tribune.)—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has made a move in the way of protecting the special watchmen whom it has employed in looking after the bridges on the Columbia and Western section. Since the strike of the trackmen has been on the company has had very little difficulty in securing men for watchmen's duty on the several bridges, but some difficulty has been experienced in getting men who for any length of time would withstand the persuasion and intimidation of the trackmen and their sympathizers. Several days ago the company had three men guarding a bridge at Fife, a short distance out of Cascade. These men were performing their duties all right up to the 23rd of July, when they were waited upon by upwards of a dozen strikers on a handcar who came down from Cascade, and by a mixture of persuasion and threats of violence induced the watchmen to get on the handcar and go back to Cascade with them. This was but one of a number of similar cases and the officials of the railway decided to make an example of the offenders. The men who made up the party, however, got wind of the company's intention and most of them got across the line before they could be gathered in. Dick Varian was one of them who didn't, and the result was he was arrested upon a charge of intimidation. The case came before justices of the peace

Angus Cameron of Cascade and P. T. McCollum of Columbia this afternoon. The principal witnesses for the company were the three watchmen, Messrs. Dillon, McDougall and Hipperson. Their evidence clearly showed that intimidation had been practiced upon them by a number of men of whom Varian was one, and that by reason of such threats they were induced to quit the service of the company and return with the strikers. The case was established and the justices found the accused guilty and imposed a fine of $20, or in default one month's imprisonment.

Try it, Ironbrow. Is sold everywhere. Ironbrow.
