Notes

This is the annual submission of completed and accepted History undergraduate honours theses from the Okanagan campus. [<https://circle.ubc.ca/handle/2429/42494/browse?type=title>] I will now be contacting the 3 students to have them submit these items.

Submit Form

- By clicking this box, I approve addition of the specified submissions to the cIRcle database, as being academically exemplary and worthy of long term preservation. I confirm that these submissions do NOT contain any private or personal student information (e.g. Student ID Numbers, Course marks/grades, or Contact information etc.).

The following are History Undergraduate Theses, approved and accepted by the students' respective advisors and by the Department of History's Honours Committee [student name followed by thesis title]:

James Ingram, "A People Accustomed to Triumph: The Popularity of War in England, 1337-1399".

Sarah Alexandra McIntosh, "The Ties that Bind: The Causes and Ramifications of the 1962 Sale of Hawk Anti-aircraft Missiles to Israel".

Daniel Graef, "'Like Wolves to the Forest': Ukrainian Statehood between Pereyaslav and a Common European Home".
